BRANCH MANAGER

Lady or gentleman of good character and some business ability can make very pleasant and profitable connection as operator of an important branch of one of the leading nationally advertised training school for modeling, television technique, make-up and self-improvement. As a result of numerous requests and extensive survey we are opening a school in Dallas, which will be owned by local manager. This is a very desirable business with income based on what other schools are doing in excess of $30,000 yearly. To qualify, must be favorably known, furnish good character reference and have immediately available not less than $5,000 as your part in bringing school to a successful operation. No experience in this work necessary as we prefer to train operator in our own method of conducting schools. Our field manager will be in Dallas this coming week for the purpose of selecting manager, arranging location, publicity, etc. Will get in touch with you if you write giving phone and telling something of your background.
