CITY CONTRACT FOR GARBAGE IS REVISED

city should not discriminate in free use of the pool and there was some sentiment in favor of throwing the pool open to all children during specified mornings later in the summer, as has been done in the past. Members of the board made it plain that they did not oppose the scout movement and Alderman Edward P. Oden, suggesting that certain citizens might be willing to pay the admission for the scouts at the pool, offered to assume the cost of the first day.

Erection of a no-parking sign in the alley between the United Brethren church and Beth Sholom Synagogue on West Second street was approved after reports were received that garage owners were unable to put their cars away on Saturday nights because of persons parking in the alley. The garage owners will be required to erect the signs.

A letter was read from Donald Hildebrand, 704 North Market street, asking permission to run a water line along side street from Wilson avenue to Lee street and then to tap the main line on Wilson avenue. Mr. Hildebrand and George Hildebrand are erecting homes on Lee street, located between Wilson avenue and the airport. The property owners will lay the water line. The request was granted.

The bride wore a white silk suit with blue hat and accessories. Her flowers were gardenias. The witnesses were Miss Betty Colliflower, this city, and Robert Bowlus, Middletown.

The bride, who is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. Harry Kennedy, is a graduate of the Frederick High School and studied a business course for two years at the Visitation convent.

Mr. Schildknecht is a graduate of the Frederick High School and of Washington and Lee University. He is employed as bookkeeper at the M. J. Grove Lime Co.

Immediately following the ceremony the couple left on a wedding trip to Atlantic City, N. J. Upon their return they will reside at the home of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Schildknecht, Rosemont.

CONAWAY—LANTINY.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Lantiny, Sykesville was the scene of a wedding recently, when their eldest daughter, Miss Anne Marie Lantiny, became the bride of Herschel Milton Conaway, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Herschel Conaway. Rev. John Sinnett Marton, pastor of St. Joseph's church, officiated. The bride attired in blue chiffon with gold slippers was attended by her sister, Miss Lucy Lantiny, gowned in pink crepe. Both carried bouquets of lilies. The groom had as his best man David Dean. A collation was served to about thirty-five guests after which the young couple left for a trip North and on their return will occupy an apartment at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Brown, Jr. Mr. Conaway is proprietor of a filling station at Sykesville.

REORGANIZATION BILL FACES G. O. P. FROWNS

Action On Roosevelt's Plan To Revamp Government Departments May Go Over A Year.

By The Associated Press.

Washington, June 23.—The administration's bill to revamp the government departments reached Congress today only to encounter Republican demands that action be delayed until the next session.

Democratic leader Robinson of Arkansas, offered the bill in the Senate. Although it is different in some respect from original administration proposals, the White House approved the changes.

Senator McNary, of Oregon, Republican leader and a member of the re-organization committee, said the bill calls for extensive hearings and that "under no possible circumstances" can it be approved this year.

HARLAN CO. DEPUTY SHERIFF FOUND DEAD

Man Who Resigned Post Shot To Death In Automobile In Mountains.

By The Associated Press.

Harlan, Ky., June 23—Washington (Wash) Irvin, 33, one of three Harlan county deputy sheriffs who resigned yesterday in protest against the dismissal of Deputy Lee Fleenor, was found shot to death in his automobile today on Pine Mountain, near here.

Sheriff Theodore R. Middleton said Irvin evidently had been shot from the rear seat while the automobile was in motion. The body was found by George Lee, another of the resigned officers.

Irvin, Lee and Allen Bowlin turned in their badges after Fleenor's dismissal by County Judge Morris Saylor following an attempt by Aldon Huntley to place the deputy under a peace bond. Huntley said the deputy threatened him.

Harlan, Ky., June 23.—County Judge Morris Saylor said tonight a preliminary investigation of the killing of former Deputy Sheriff Wash Irvin led him to believe that it was a sequel to the Senate's Civil Liberities committee's recent investigation at Washington into Harlan county's deputy sheriff system.

Washington, June 23.—Chairman Robert M. LaFollette, Progressive, Wisconsin, of the Senate Civil Liberties Committee said he would "look into" the fatal shooting of Wash Irvin, Harlan county deputy sheriff, to determine whether the incident merits a formal investigation.

BRIDGE CONSTRUCTION TO BEGIN BY JULY 1

Contract Awarded For Span Over The Potomac River At Sharpsburg.

Baltimore, June 23. — Construction of the new bridge over the Potomac river near Sharpsburg, Md., and Shepherdstown, W. Va., should begin not later than July 1, according to Nathan L. Smith, chief engineer of the State Roads Commission, and the structure should be finished in about a year.

Contract for the structure was awarded recently to the M. J. Grove Lime Company for $231,325. The Federal Government pays half the cost and the State of West Virginia and Maryland pay one fourth of the costs each. Contracts for construction of approaches to the bridge are still to be let by the States.

SHERIFF'S SALE
—OF—
VALUABLE REAL ESTATE

By virtue of two Writs of Fieri Facias of the State of Maryland issued out of the Circuit Court for Frederick County, they being Nos. 15 and 18 Judicials, May Term, 1937, at the suits of Farmers & Mechanics National Bank of Frederick; and Farmers & Mechanics National Bank of Frederick, a body corporate, to use of Millian D. Turner, Gordon Turner, George W. Turner, Inez Turner, Kathryn T. Smith and Charles M. Smith, respectively, and for officers' fees, against the lands and tenements, goods and chattels, rights and credits of Gordon Turner, Millian Turner, Charles Smith, Kathryn Smith, George Turner, Inez Turner, Raymond Turner, Naomi Turner, tere tenants, and heirs at law of William A. Turner, deceased; and Ray Turner and Naomi Turner, respectively, I have entered upon, levied, seized and taken in execution all the right, title, claim, interest and estate, both at law and in Equity, of the said defendants above named, in and to the following real estate, to-wit:

All the following described tracts or parcels of land situate, lying and being in Frederick County, Maryland, and more particularly described as follows:

FIRST: Part of a tract of land called "Foul Play" and designated on a plat made by Willy James, dated December 8, 1832, as Lot No. 6, containing 11 acres, 1 rood and 20 perches of land, more or less, as conveyed to William Stewart by William M. Porter and Eliza Porter, his wife, by deed dated the 25th day of December, 1859; and one other piece or parcel of land containing 4 acres and 32 perches, more or less, conveyed by the said William M. Porter and Eliza Porter, his wife, to William Stewart, by the said deed, recorded in Liber B. G. F. No. 5, folio 81 & c., one of the Land Records for Frederick County. Also those two pieces or parcels of land lying contiguous to each other in said county and state, containing respectively 5 acres, 1 rood and 20 perches; and 6 acres, 2 roods and 12 perches, more or less, which was conveyed to William Stewart by Richard H. Jones and Emeline B. Jones, his wife, by deed dated the 20th day of November, 1866, and recorded in Liber J. W. L. C. No. 4, folio 662, one of the Land Records for Frederick County as by reference to said deeds for a full and complete description of said parts and parcels of land will fully and at large appear.

The above two described parcels of land being the same parcels that were conveyed to William A. Turner by deed dated September 4, 1882, and recorded in Liber A. F. No. 7, folio 40, one of the Land Records for Frederick County, by William J. R. Stewart. The same having been acquired by William J. R. Stewart as the heir of William Stewart.

SECOND: All that lot or parcel of ground situated in Frederick County, State of Maryland, it being the same piece or parcel of land that was conveyed to Marley Chub by John L. T. Jones, reference to the courses and distances will more fully appear and also conveyed by Marley Chub to Rose Ann Nichols, as by reference thereto will more fully appear on the records.

And being the same parcel of land conveyed to William A. Turner by Rose Ann Nichols, by deed dated February 28, 1884, and recorded in Liber A. F. No. 7, folio 745, one of the Land Records for Frederick County.

THIRD: All that parcel of land beginning on a line drawn S. 20° E. from a stone planted near the end of the first line of a deed from Otho Reilly to John Taylor, for a part of said land, and running thence with said line S. 20° W. 2-10 perches to the end of the first line of the said John Taylor's lot and thence with an allowance of 2½° E. 14 perches, then S. 83° E. 16 perches to a stone, 44¾° W. 88 8-10 perches to a stone, then N. 55° W. 5½ perches to a stone, then N. 18° E. 30 perches to a stone marked "44," then N. 25° E. 52½ perches to the place of beginning.

It being the same land described in a deed from Otho S. Reilly and wife and William R. Beall, to John L. T. Jones, dated September 7, 1863, and recorded in Liber J. W. L. C. No. 2, folio 410, one of the Land Records for Frederick County, as by reference thereto will fully appear, and which the said William T. Jones acquired from the said John L. T. Jones, by inheritance.

It being the same property described in a deed from W. T. Jones and Alice F. Jones, his wife, to William A. Turner, dated October 27, 1890, and recorded in Liber J. L. J. No. 3, folio 236, one of the Land Records for Frederick County.

FOURTH: All those pieces or parcels of ground situate, lying and being in Frederick County, Maryland, being the same land which W. S. Barber and Sara A. Barber, his wife, obtained from William A. Turner by deed dated the 16th day of July, 1900, and recorded in Liber D. H. H. No. 15, folio 576, et. seq., and being described as follows, to-wit: A part of the tract of land called the "Resurvey on Littleworth" containing one-fourth interest in 78 acres and 19 perches of land, more or less. Also a tract of land obtained from James Robert Stewart by William A. Turner, and by the said Turner and wife conveyed to the said William S. Barber, by deed aforesaid, containing 38 acres, more or less, located adjoining the lands of Thomas N. Howard, Shreves and others, situated in Urbana District, Frederick County, Maryland; also a tract of land conveyed by the said William A. Turner and wife to the said William S. Barber, by the deed aforesaid, and containing 12 acres, more or less, adjoining Messrs. S. A. Barkers, John R. Nichols, and others, being a part sold from the "Resurvey on Littleworth" as described in the aforesaid deed, and deeded by William T. Jones and wife to William A. Turner, situated in Urbana District, Frederick County, Maryland.

The above described real estate being a reconveyance of all that parcel of land conveyed by William A. Turner to William S. Barber, by deed dated July 16, 1900, and recorded among the Land Records for Frederick County.

Being the same property conveyed in a deed from W. S. Barber and Sara A. Barber, his wife, to William A. Turner, dated December 20, 1904, and recorded in Liber No. 269, folio 160, one of the Land Records for Frederick County.

FIFTH: All that piece or parcel of land situate, lying and being in Frederick County, Maryland, being the same land which Sara A. Barber and William S. Barber obtained from John R. Nichols and Rose A. Nichols, by deed dated the 9th day of October, 1893, and recorded in Liber J. L. J. No. 5, folio 315 &c., one of the Land Records for Frederick County, and being described as follows, to-wit: That tract of land known as a part of the Resurvey on Littleworth containing 11 acres, 1 rood and 10 square perches, more or less, situated in Urbana District, Frederick County, Maryland, a short distance northwest of Mt. Ephraim P. O. adjoining the lands of William A. Turner, George J. Andrews and others, it being the same real estate described in a deed from Rachel Taylor and Christopher Taylor, her husband, to Ralph M. Taylor, George W. Taylor and Otho J.
