—Fourteen young men were suspended from the Waterville Academy yesterday for going to Hamilton on Wednesday to see the ruins of the great fire. On presenting proper excuses from their parents, it is said, they will be reinstated.

—One of the questions to be voted on at the Town meeting March 5th is that of a stone crusher. It is thought by many that one is needed for the town of Sangerfield and that much more permanent improvements on the roads can be made with crushed stone than in any other way. This is undoubtedly true and the stone crusher resolution will probably be acted upon favorably.

O'Toole-O'Connor.

St. Bernard's Church on Wednesday morning was the scene of a very pretty wedding. The occasion was the marriage of Miss Margaret Marie O'Connor to Mr. William W. O'Toole, both of this village. The ceremony took place at 10 o'clock and was witnessed by about one hundred invited guests. Messrs. P. H. McCabe and J. E. Toole were the ushers. Mr. W. F. O'Connor acted as best man and Miss Annie Hughes of Sangerfield was bridesmaid. The bride was becomingly attired in an ecru colored broadcloth with brown trimmings and wore a brown hat. In the evening the happy couple were at home at the house of the bride's parents on Sanger street to about ninety of their friends and a very pleasant evening was spent with dancing until a late hour. Mr. and Mrs. O'Toole left yesterday morning for a trip to New York and other places and on their return will take up their residence in Waterville.

A Prospective Race.

A race between Manley & Hamberger's Majesty and J. W. & A. P. Seaton's Fannie S., was held on the Erie canal near Yorkville, Monday last. Charles Bailey drove Majesty but Fannie S. proved too fast for him. After this race was decided $200 forfeit money was placed with a stakeholder for a race between Fannie S. and Freda owned by Dr. A. C. Morgan of this village. The details of the race have not yet been arranged.

HAMILTON AFFLICTED.

THE BUSINESS PORTION OF THE TOWN WIPED OUT BY FIRE.

The Property Consumed Placed at about $350,000—Insurance Not More than $150,000.—List of the Unfortunate.

Our sister village of Hamilton was visited on Tuesday night by one of the worst fires in its history and one that very few places of its size ever experienced. In five short hours after the fire broke out less than a dozen of its business places were left and these were the smaller ones somewhat removed from the center of the village. It was a sorry sight and the sympathy of all goes to those who have suffered from this great calamity.

The fire caught in a back room of Rowlands & Beal's furniture and undertaking establishment on Lebanon street about 9 o'clock and before the fire department was ready to begin work the large wooden building was wrapped in flames and adjoining buildings were taking fire. It was soon seen that the steamer and hand engine of the local fire company were utterly unable to cope with the spreading flames. Utica was called upon, also Clinton, but before the steamer from Utica and hand engine from Clinton got to the scene it was 12:15 and the best part of the business portion of the village had gone up in smoke.

From its starting point on Lebanon street it worked its way to the corner on both sides taking all the buildings on the south side of Eaton street culminating in the Mott block. Then while the north side of Eaton street was burning the large Smith block on Broad was also rapidly being consumed.

When the Utica steamer came the only large building of which anything was left was the Eagle Hotel. By directing their efforts at this point the flames were kept down and the danger to houses on Madison street thereby greatly diminished. With the burning of the Eagle Hotel the fire was checked, more because there were no more contiguous buildings for it to feed upon than from any efforts of the firemen.

The occupants of many of the burned buildings and blocks had time to remove their valuables. Some improved the opportunity and some did not. The things rescued were damaged by removal and much was stolen from the Park and streets where it was necessary to leave them. In the Park many things caught fire and burned and even some of the nearest trees were ruined on account of the intense heat from the Smith block.

Many residents of that vicinity moved everything out of their homes although the fire did not reach them.

Some idea of the extent of the burned district can be obtained when we say that seventy-seven different and distinct business places, offices and apartments were burned together with the twenty-three buildings and blocks in which they were located. Fourteen families, having rooms in the burned buildings and occupying the two residences burned, had to seek new quarters.

OBITUARY.

DR. STEPHEN H. FRENCH.

The subject of this sketch, Dr. Stephen H. French, was born at Sangerfield, N. Y., August 12, 1842, and died at New Milford, Ill., February 1, 1895. The remains were brought to this village and laid at rest in the family burying lot, in the cemetery at Antioch; the funeral being held at the M. E. church on Sunday afternoon, February 3, 1895, Rev. Clarence Abel officiating, assisted by Elder Wallace. At the breaking out of the Civil War Stephen H. French enlisted in the Third Regiment, Ohio Cavalry, and served until the close of the war, after which he came to Antioch and engaged in farming for a year or two, then entered the Bennett College of Medicine and Surgery, of Chicago, from which institution he graduated with the title of M. D. in the class of 1876. After graduating he removed to New Milford, Ill., where he practiced successfully at his chosen profession. Several years ago his health began to fail, but he kept bravely at work until about a year ago, at which time he was forced to give up his practice and had grown steadily worse ever since until death relieved his sufferings on February 1, as above recorded. A wife, an aged mother, three sisters, one Mrs. George Leaworthy of Sangerfield, and six brothers survive, besides a daughter, Mrs. Alice Evans, of New Milford, Ill., to all of whom "The News" extends sympathy in the hour of their bereavement and sorrow.—The Antioch, Ill., News.

A. E. ELDREDGE.

A. E. Eldredge, for a number of years manager of the paint store of W. H. Nevius, at 22 Main street, died at his home, 114 Buena Vista avenue, at a quarter before 5 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon. He had been ill about a week. The immediate cause of death was heart failure, brought on by grip and pneumonia. He had been partly unconscious for about three days; but he rose from his bed yesterday afternoon, and then sank back and expired.

Mr. Eldredge was in his 54th year. He was born in Pitcher, Chenango county, N. Y., and came to Yonkers nine years ago. He was a member of the Executive Board of the Central Methodist Church. He was a sincere Christian, was of genial disposition, and was a thorough business man.

His wife, three daughters and a son —Clarence, of Washington, D. C.,— survive.—Yonkers, N. Y., Statesman, 14th inst.

Mr. Eldredge was well known in Waterville where with his family he lived for several years, previous to his removal to Yonkers. He was an exemplary citizen and highly respected.

SAMUEL BENNETT.

Samuel Bennett of Lodi, Ohio, died of paralysis Jan. 27, 1895, in the eighty-fourth year of his age. He was born and lived for thirty-four years on the old Bennett farm, east of the town, now owned by Charles Bennett, his nephew. He was also uncle of our townsmen Artemas and Andrew Bennett and has always been a frequent visitor here.
