Have You Identified Your Brick Wall?

Have you identified your “brick wall,” the furthest back you can go with your line of Sanders or Saunders? Have you identified the dates and geographic locations of your Sanders/Saunders ancestors?

One of our readers has suggested that we have an accounting of the subscribers of Sanders Siftings and sort them out by the geographic area where their Sanders/Saunders have been. One reason for this has been the assumption by some that we do not have enough readers or queries from the northeastern part of the United States—places like New York, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Pennsylvania, etc.

Could each of you send me the name of your brick wall, with the location and dates associated with that person—and the states where you have since found your Sanders or Saunders?

I explained to this lady (you must know that most people looking for their dead relatives are female) that anytime in the past that I have asked for something from the readers, that I hear from only a fraction of the subscription list.

Make a liar out of me and send me that information. If you haven't yet listed that information yourself, it will be a profitable exercise.

Mine is: Francis (1782 - ) and Rachel Sanders (1779- ) N.C.; descendants > Jackson Co., Ala.> Madison Co., Ill.> Texas Co., Mo.> LeFlore Co., Okla.> and Washington Co., Ark.

Notice that I did not use any of those pesky post office abbreviations for states. They are good for addressing mail! Only! ■

“A Notorious Actor” – John Sanders of Virginia – and His Descendants, Part II

The following is the conclusion of an article compiled and written by Gary B. Sanders, Box 309236 UNT Station, Denton, TX 76203, <gary_bsanders@hotmail.com>. He welcomes any comments, other opinions, or corrections from readers. This article is continued from the last edition of Sanders Siftings. [Editor's note: I share with Gary Sanders the possible ancestry to this line of Sanders through Francis and Rachel Sanders of Randolph County, N.C., and later Jackson and DeKalb Counties in Alabama.]

Part II

Since Francis and John Sanders are apparently adults at the time of the 1731 will of Robert Sanders and are mentioned in Chowan land deeds in the 1730s, it is likely that they were born before 1710 or even before 1700. John Sanders was the first of the two brothers to die, and he made his will in Chowan in 1751. His will was witnessed by John Loe (or Lowe), Jr., and Sr., and by Jacob Routh. The Loes and the Rouths were Quaker families from Chester County, Pennsylvania (per e-mail from Sherry Stancliff). The Loes and Rouths appear on the 1779 tax roll of Randolph County, North Carolina. If the Loes were old family friends, it is possible they persuaded the Sanders family to follow them to Randolph County because many Sanders families were living in the Randolph County area by 1800. Nothing in the will indicates, however, that John Sanders himself was a Quaker. I was recently able to obtain a photocopy of the will from the North Carolina Archives and here is a transcription:

Will of John Sanders of Chowan County, August 18, 1751

In the name of God, amen. August, the 18th day, 1751. I, John Sanders, of Chowan County in the province of North Carolina being at this time sick and weak of body but thanks be to Almighty God of a sound and perfect sense and memory calling to mind the uncertainty of this transitory life and that all life must submit to death when pleases God to call. I therefore think meet to make this my last will and testament in manner and form following.

First and principally, I give and bequeath my love into the hands of Almighty God, hoping in through the precious death and passion of my blessed living Jesus Christ to have full and free pardon of all my sins and to inherit everlasting life in the world to come; and my body to be entombed, buried at the directions of my executors hereafter named, and as touching all such worldly estate it hath pleased Almighty God to bestow upon and give and dispose thereof in manner and form following: first my will is that all my just debts and — charges be paid and discharged.

Item. I give and bequeath to my son Francis Sanders the plantation whereon I now live and land belonging to it only that his mother to have privilege her life in what form has occasion and also the plantation that my brother Francis Sanders lives on and all the land belonging to it and also a piece of land I have in the fork of the swamp called the Cypress Swamp. I give the land, plantations, and land — to my son Francis Sanders to him and his heirs forever only excepting his mother's privilege during her natural life.

Item. I give and bequeath to my son John Sanders a plantation I have on the Cypress Swamp that Thomas Ritter [or Rutter-GS] now lives on and all the land belonging to it. I say [lay? -GS] I give to my son John, to him and his heirs forever.

Item. I give and bequeath to my son Francis Sanders my Negro man named Sam, to him and his heirs forever and also I give to my son Francis Sanders a

Dr. Thomas E. Sanders, Son of Dr. A.F. Sanders, Was Born in White County, Arkansas

From A Centennial History of Arkansas, edited by Dallas T. Herndon, the Director of the Dept. of Archives & History, published by The S. J. Clarke Publishing Co., Chicago-Little Rock, 1922:

"DR. THOMAS E. SANDERS, actively & successfully engaged in the practice of medicine in Hot Springs, was born in Beebe, Ark. on the 13th of Dec., 1880. His father, A. F. Sanders, a native of Alabama, was also a physician & in 1886 came to Hot Springs, where he continued in the practice of his profession to the time of his death in 1906. He was a veteran of the Civil War, having joined the Confederate army when a youth of but 14 years. He belonged to the Knights of Pythias lodge & was highly esteemed by those with whom he was brought into contact through social or professional relations. Dr. Thomas E. Sanders was a lad of but 6 years when brought by his parents to Hot Springs & here he attended the public schools, while after completing his high school course he became a student in the Ark. State University [actually should be the University of Arkansas since neither Ark. State University or its predecessor, Ark. State College, existed in 1901], graduating there from with the class of 1901.

Whether natural predilection, environment or inherited tendency had most to do with his chore of a profession it is perhaps impossible to determine, but at any rate he entered upon the field of labor for which nature seemed to have aptly adapted him. He determined to follow in the footsteps of his father & read medicine under his direction for a time, while later he entered Tulane University at New Orleans, Louisiana, as a medical student & was graduated therefrom with the class of 1905. He then put his theoretical knowledge to the practical test by serving as interne in the Charity Hospital at New Orleans & there gained that broad & valuable knowledge which hospital practice & experience bring. He afterwards returned to Hot Springs & became associated with his father in practice, the partnership continuing until the father's death. Since that time Dr. Sanders has practiced independently & has steadily advance by reason of his merit & skill to a point in the front rank of the able physicians of the city. His practice is now extensive & of an important character & the results which he secures well entitle him to the enviable reputation that he now bears. Dr. Sanders was married to Miss Ethel Hallman, a daughter of Dr. Hallman, and they now have 2 sons: Hallman, who is 12 years of age; and Carl, a lad of 7. The parents are consistent members of the Methodist Episcopal church & along strictly professional lines Dr. Sanders is connected with the County, State & American Medical Associations. He served as city health officer in 1914 & 1915. He is keenly interested in everything that tends to bring to man the key to the complex mystery which we call life. His reading & study have covered a wide field & he at all times keeps in touch with the trend of modern thought, investigation & progress." ■

Bill Browder Gets Quaker Records For Lemuel

From Bill Browder, 221 Steadman Rd., Selmer, Tn. 38375, <blbrowder@hotmail.com>. While researching the Lemuel Saunders line a fellow researcher sent me two items from early Maryland Quaker records but I haven't found anything on them. Maybe someone else is researching this line and will share information with me.

Item one: Gunpowder Monthly Meeting, Baltimore Co., Maryland. "Richard Belt, son of John Belt, of Gunpowder in Baltimore County married Keturah Price, dau. of John Price of Gunpowder in Baltimore County on 24th day of 1st month called January 1760. (Among the wedding guests was a Lemuel Saunders. That's all I know about him.)"

Item Two: Quaker Records of Northern Maryland, 1716-1800, by Henry C. Peden, jr., M.A. Deer Creek Monthly Meeting, Harford Co., Md.: page 128: "On 3rd day of 3rd month, 1761 Thomas Saunders, son of Edward, 'hath by keeping unprofitable company, been induced to dance.' "

Could this be the same Thomas who married Judith in 1742 in Va. and later moved to Maryland? ■ an unusually wealthy man, owning many slaves and at least four separate plantations or parcels of land. Though his brother Francis is mentioned as living on a plantation that John owned, apparently Francis lived there only on John's generosity, not through any right of his own, because John gave the plantation and "all the pewter that belongs to my brother Francis Sanders" to John's own son, also named Francis. Mention is also made of a plantation on Cypress Swamp "where Thomas Rutter lives," which was to go to John, another son. Further, we learn from the will that John's son Francis was old enough to be co-executor of the will with his mother, thereby establishing that the younger Francis must have been born before 1730. It seems likely that Francis was the eldest son since he got three parcels of land: the plantation where his father lived, the plantation where his uncle lived, and another parcel in the fork of the Cypress Swamp. It is possible that many of the other children, and especially the daughters, were still underage since none of the daughters appear to have been married at the time of the will.

Almost nothing is known about what happened to other members of the family after their father died, but John's son Francis lived until 1783 when he made his will in Gates County. Though the county where the will was proved is different, the will describes the same land and family. Gates was created in 1779 from parts of Chowan, Hertford, and Perquimans counties. State of North Carolina, Gates County, May Inferior Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions 1785. The within will was exhibited into court by Charity Saunders, Executrix, and John Parker, Executor, therein appointed, and was proved by the oath of William Odom and Uriah Odom, two of the subscribing witnesses thereto. Then the said will was ordered to be recorded at the same time the said Executrix and Executor came into court and qualified themselves for that office and prayed an order for letters testamentary thereon which was accordingly granted. And is recorded in Book A, Folio 51.52G53.

The 1783 will allows us to speculate on some events in this family between 1751 and 1783. Thomas Rutter, who lived on the plantation on Cypress Swamp in 1751, no longer lives there in 1783, but he must have lived on the land for a long time because over thirty years after his father's will, Francis still refers to the parcel as "the land where Thomas Rutter lived." Francis now owns the Rutter land, so we may assume that his brother John, who was given the land in the 1751 will, either died or sold the land. Francis mentions the land where his uncle Francis lived, but since he uses the past tense, it is probably a safe assumption that the uncle died between 1751 and 1783.

In the will, Francis reveals that two of his daughters are married. Mary is married to John Parker and Zilpha is the wife of a man named Knox, but the age of the two unmarried daughters, Ann and Jemima, is not apparent. One son, Abraham, is definitely old enough to inherit, but Francis and William are obviously under twenty-one. Many researchers have identified the son Francis of the 1783 will with the Francis Sanders who married Rachel Sanders in 1801 in Randolph County, North Carolina, but census data casts some doubt on this assumption, though it is still a possibility. The problem is that it is relatively certain that Francis of Randolph County was born in 1782, and the young Francis of the 1783 will may have been born several years earlier.

Charity Sanders (or Saunders) appears on the 1786 North Carolina State census for Gates County. She is listed as head of a household with one male between the ages of 21 and 60, two males either under 21 or above 60, two white females of all ages, and seven black persons. Francis and William are probably the two white males. If so, they could not have been born before 1765. Charity also appears on the 1790 federal census for Gates County with a greatly reduced household: two males over 16, 2 white females, and 4 blacks.

Alexander Sanders Had Good Connections In The State of Texas

The following paragraphs are from an article in Family Histories of Henderson County, volume I, p. 63, article by Harriett Gunn, based on the files of Lois Sanders Gunn. Mary Elizabeth Clark Sanders was the half-sister of Nannie Jane Spear, who was the mother of Ralph Yarborough, U.S. Senator from Texas from 1957 until 1971.

"Mary Elizabeth Clark and Alexander Sanders were married, June 24, 1881, at Chandler, Texas, where their only child, Charlie Elbert Sanders, was born September 19, 1882. Family records indicate that Alexander Sanders was born (May 19, 1844, Hamilton County, Illinois-December 2, 1930, Okemah, Oklahoma) and that he was reared in Mississippi, where he entered the Confederate Army at the age of seventeen years. Four of his brothers were killed in this conflict. He returned to Illinois with his family after the war.

"Alexander Sanders was a railroad contractor and did contracting in Texas for a number of years. He handled construction on the Cotton Belt tap out of Tyler, Texas in the early 1800s. This was an eventful period in railroad history since they were pushing into the South opening vital transportation routes; a portion of this one being to Chandler. He later owned and operated businesses in several states, developed some inventions and was involved in local politics. In his late years, he related that following the building of railroads had been the most meaningful part of his life." ■

If the two white males are William and Francis, they could not have been born after 1774. Further, on June 1, 1795 a Francis Saunders married Ann Vann (Bondsman: John Vann, Witness: Law Baker) in Gates County. The most obvious interpretation is that the young Francis of the 1783 will was born between 1765 and 1774 and that he is the person who married Ann Vann in 1795. I have not been able to find anyone who is researching the descendants, if any, of the Francis Sanders who married Ann Vann, but there are many investigating the descendants of the Francis who married Rachel. Hopefully, further research will help resolve many of these unanswered issues with the line of John of Nansemond. ■

Elnora Bowen Has Additional Information on Margaret Jane Sanders and Her Parents

Elnora White Bowen, 1106 Westland Road, Sapulpa, OK 74066, <swteb@aol.com>. I have sent a query before but have additional information, now. My line is in bold face type below.

My gr gr grandfather, Stephen Saunders/Sanders, was born in Kentucky abt 1809-10. In 1834, he was in Spencer Co., Ind. where he married Caroline Woolard/Woodard on 12 Mar 1834. Children that I know of:

William - b. 1835

Margaret Jane - b. 1836 near Ft. Branch, Ind., m. Ferguson Braselton in Gibson Co. 30 Mar 1855, Gibson Co., (Book 2, p. 24), d. 6 Jul 1911, Kendrick, Okla.

John - b. 1850 - according to census. Caroline must have died giving birth to him.

Census, 1840, Spencer Co, Ind.:

Stephen Sanders - 1 male child under 5, 1 female child under 5, 1 male 30-40, 1 female (20-40)

Census, 1850, Gibson Co., Pataca Township, Ind.: Stephen Sanders, 39 - b. Ky. - with only William with him - age 15, b. Ind.

Census, 1860, Gibson Co. (Stephen remarried)

Stephen Sanders, 51- b. Ky.

Nancy Sanders, 55

Hannah I or J Emmerson, 19 - b. Ind.

Malissa, 17 - b. Ind.

Samuel, 14 - b. Ind.

John Sanders, 10 - b. Ind.

Census, 1870, Gibson Co.. page 223

Stephen Sanders, 60, b. Ky.

Malissa, 28

Charles M., 8

1860 Census, Gibson Co., Ind., shows Ferguson Brazelton (26, b. Ind., married to Margaret Jane (23, b. Ind.)). They had the following children at that time:

1. William Brazelton, 2, b. Ind. (Nov 8, 1858) m. Margaret Newell, 1894, buried in Kendrick, Okla.

2. Stephen Brazelton, 6/12, b. Ind. (Feb 3, 1860) died in Kan., July 5, 1907.

Later, born to them were:

3. Mary Elizabeth, b. July 23, 1862 near Ft. Branch, Gibson Co., Ind., m. Hiram E. Inman, May 27, 1867, in Wright Co, Mt. Grove, Mo., died in Stroud, Okla. on Aug 20, 1942.

4. Martha, b. July 23, 1862, a twin to Mary, died Nov 28, 1863.

5. John David, b. Mar 25, 1866, m. Allie Gates (I believe they were in Mich.).

6. Samuel Robert, b. May 11, 1869, in Iowa, m. (1) Margaret Memery, (2) Harriet Kerzog in 1918. Had a record in gov. service. Died in Okla City, Okla.

7. Lenora Brazelton, b. Sept 15, 1871 in Kan., schoolteacher, died in Stroud, Okla., m. (1) Frank Harrison, (2) Wm Price-in 1907.

8. Rosalie, b. May 17, 1875 in Kan., m. Albert DeZelum or DeSelum in 1896, burned in a housefire with three children in Orlando, Okla. in 1903.

It appears that Stephen's first wife, Caroline Woolard/Woodard might have died between 1850 and 1860, as he appears in these census records with Nancy as his wife. Stephen Sanders m. Nancy Emmerson on July 29, 1851, (Book 1, p 244). If this is true, then Caroline must have died after the 1850 census and prior to Stephen's 2nd marriage. In the 1860 census, there are three Emmerson children living in the household. They must be from the first marriage to Robert G. Emmerson.

In 1870, Stephen is 60 with Nancy, 63, in Gibson Co., Ind. Nancy's dau, Malissa Stephen is at home with them, widowed with son, Charles M, age 8. My researcher found no will or record of Stephen's death. After 1870, I have no record.

Could they have gone to Iowa with Ferguson and Margaret Brazelton? From Iowa, the Brazeltons went to Kan. I don't know where. In 1886, tho, they were in Wright Co., Mo. That is where their dau., Mary Elizabeth, my grandmother, m. Hiram E. Inman in 1887. Ferguson and Margaret were found in Stoud, Okla. next, then in nearby Kendrick where they lived and died. I would like to know about Stephen Sanders/Saunders's parents, siblings and other children, if any. What happened to John? When did the Sanders move to Ind. from Ky.? Also, are there any records of Caroline's family?

I am the dau of Mary Edna Inman and Charles White. Mary Edna is the dau of Mary E. Brazelton and Hiram Inman. ■

Nimrod Sanders Couldn't Serve on Jury for Trial of Vice President Aaron Burr

The following is a record of trial of Vice-President Aaron Burr for treason in 1807 and is from the following Web page: <<http://home.earthlink.net/~smith-sp/burr/14693-4.html>>

United States vs Burr (Part Four)
Case No 14,693 Circuit Court, D Virginia
25 F Cas 55 August 31, 1807
Monday, August 10, 1807

Mr. Burr begged leave to inform the jurors, who were within hearing, that a great number of them may have formed and expressed opinions about him which might disqualify them from serving on this occasion. He expected that, as they came up, they would discharge the duties of conscientious men, and candidly answer the questions put to them, and state all their objections against him. The deputy marshal then summoned Nimrod Saunders declared that he had expressed an opinion previously to his being summoned on the jury, that the prisoner had been guilty of treason. He was therefore set aside as incompetent. ■

ASSORTED QUERIES . . .

From Mario Perrino, 2941 Country Woods Lane, Cincinnati, OH 45248-5058, <mperrino@cinci.rr.com>. I'm looking for information about George W. Sanders or Saunders born abt 1760 - 1770. George is listed in the 1790 census of Chatham Co., N.C. He left the Chatham Co., N.C. area about 1797 and went to Anderson City, Tenn. and then to Rock Island within the present Warren Co., Tenn. about 1812. George continued to Huntsville, Ala. and then to Mississippi about 1829. He is listed in the Lowndes Co., Miss. census of 1830 and 1840. George may have married Sarah Roberts, the daughter of Reuben Roberts, a revolutionary soldier from N.C. Susan left Indiana with her son (my grandfather), Vilroy P Gibson, b. 1867 Valparisio Indiana, d. 1952 Pullman, Wash. Vilroy was 7 years old at the time. It is said a sister, Pearl, also traveled with them to Kansas. My photos of them were taken in Eureka and Topeka, Kansas. John Gibson is Vilroy's father. Don't know if Susan was married to him or not. Susan and Henry remodeled a home in Kansas, I have pictures of them and the home. They later moved to Missouri.

From Dick Edwards, 7809 Hayfield Rd., Alexandria, VA 22315, <RmlnRek@aol.com>. I am researching my g-grandmother, Sarah Cole. Family tradition has it that her maiden name was Sanders, and that she married a man named William Cole, who was killed in the Civil War. She subsequently married my g-grandfather, Andrew Edwards, in March 1862 in Brown County, Ohio. The marriage certificate simply states her name as "Sarah Cole." Sarah was probably born sometime during the period 1837-1842. Tradition also has it that she was from Clermont County. I have been to the courthouse in Batavia, but was unable to find anything that looked relevant on Sanders there. Sarah and Andrew moved to Greene Co., Ill., where my grandfather, Charles Henry Edwards, was born in 1871. Sarah died in Greene County in 1929. Does anyone know who Sarah's family could be?

Meigs, in this county, near Line Creek bridge. Their bodies were found the next morning in a sitting posture under the tree, where they doubtless sought partial protection from the rain. From some papers found upon the body of the white man, it is supposed his name was Moses Sanders, and that he had been recently in this city. Beyond that, all is mystery as to who he was, or where he was going with the colored woman." (page 143) ■
