Dear Sir:-

Would you be kind enough to extend us the courtesy of granting an interview to our representative in reference to making a sitting at your office?

We have the films of many executives of leading industries as well as members of the American Bankers' Association, and we would be honored to have yours among them. All your negatives will be copyrighted and will not be given for publication without your consent.

Very respectfully yours,

Gentlemen:

I wish to thank you for your offer to take a picture in my office, but the fact is that pictures taken some years ago are more pleasing than the ones of today as I have steadily grown older, so I am not desirous of perpetuating my present appearance, preferring the ones taken in the past.

I thank you.

Very truly yours,
