

Mrs. Martha Cass Passes After Short Illness

Jan 27 1946

Mrs. Martha Tufts Cass, 69, widow of Alonzo Beecher Cass, former president of the Southern California Telephone Co., died yesterday at Huntington Memorial Hospital, Pasadena, following a short illness.

Mrs. Cass, who lived at 4545 Palm Drive, La Canada, was one of Southern California's leaders in charity work. In 1920 she helped Mr. Cass raise more than $30,000,000 as a Christmas gift for hungry children in Europe.

She leaves 10 sons and two daughters, who plan to gather a children's charity fund as a memorial to their parents. They are Philip, Frank, Louis, Don, Quincy, Harold, John, William, Robert and Dr. Alonzo Cass Jr., and Mrs. Emily Sanson and Mrs. Marcia Stewart.

Funeral arrangements are being handled by Pierce Bros.
