Dewalt Angene

Dewalt Angene

1A. Dewalt Angene, born on 11/16/1727 in Lambsborn, Germany, died on 3/11/1781 in Clear Springs, Washington Co., Maryland. Other names for Dewalt were Dewalt Ankeney and Johan Theobald Dewalt Ankeney.

General Notes: Dewalt (Theobald) Anconey or Angene supposedly left the Rhine Palatinate, Germany area and traveled to Rotterdam, Holland where he boarded the ship "Neptune" bound for America in 1746. The ship ported in Philadelphia on October 25, 1746. Dewalt settled in Lancaster (now Lebanon) Co., Pennsylvania. The Dewalt Ankeney family soon moved to Clear Spring, Washington Co., Maryland.

Served in the Revolutionary War, was sworn in February 28, 1778 at Washington Co., Maryland, rank unknown.

History of Greene County, Ohio Volume II

Its people, Industries and Institutions by Broadson 1918

"The progenitor of this branch of the Ankeney family in America was Dewalt Ankeney, who in 1746, he then having just reached the age of conscription in one of the kingdoms of what is now Germany, was brought to this country by his maternal uncle, Casper Dewalt, in order to keep the lad out of the army into which all his older brothers had been drafted, Uncle Casper Dewalt and his nephew embarking at Rotterdam, Holland, and coming over on the vessel "Neptune" and landing at the port of Philadelphia. Dewalt Ankeney, then about eighteen years of age, was trained to the trade of shoemaking and later, during the Revolutionary War, made shoes for Washington's soldiers at Valley Forge. He became a farmer and the owner of a tract of land in the vicinity of Clear Springs, in Washington Co., Maryland, where his last days were spent. Dewalt Ankeney was twice married and had twelve children. It is well to note, in passing, that the Dewalt's, the family of Dewalt Ankeney's mother, were French and had fled from France into Germany during the time of the Huguenot persecution. Dewalt Ankeney became a considerable landowner, his large farm being given the name of "Wellphased", and his last will and testament disposing of his estate is now in the possession of his great-great-grandson, Albert Ankeney, of this county."

Dewalt Ankeney and his family were members of the Reformed Church. According to baptismal records of his children, the Ankeney's attended the Jonestown Reformed Church in Lancaster (Lebanon) Co., Pennsylvania, the Host Church on Big Swatara Creek in Berks Co., near Jonestown, Pennsylvania, and the Salem Church in Washington Co., near Hagerstown, Maryland.

According to Albert S. Ankeney, Dewalt was the youngest of seven sons in his family

- Alt. Birth; 11/16/1727, Rhine Palatinate, Germany.
- Alt. Birth; 11/16/1727, Wurtemberg, Germany.
- Alt. Birth; 1728, Wurtemberg, Germany.
- Residence; 1762, Clear Springs, Washington Co., Maryland.
- Immigration; 1746, Germany.

Dewalt married Mary Jane Dorner in 1748 in Lancaster Co., Pennsylvania. Mary was born about 1730 in Germany, died about 1790. The cause of her death was injuries received while saving a horse from a burning barn. Other names for Mary were Catherine Domer, and Mary Jane Domer. They had five children: Christian, Peter, Katharina, Rebecca, and Anna Maria.

General Notes: Regarding Thomas Dorner, Mary Jane's father, "There arrived from Germany December 3, 1740, at Philadelphia, the ship "Samuel", Hugh Percy, Captain, from Rotterdam and last from Deal, England. She brought 175 Palatines who were Germans from the Palatinate Provinces to the Rhine. Among them was a man who took the oath of Allegiance and signed his name with his own hand as Thomas Dorner. This man was the only emigrant of his name among thirty thousand who arrived in Pennsylvania between 1727 and 1776. He settled in Washington Co., (then Frederick Co.,) at or near Hagerstown, was doubtless married upon his arrival in this country and brought at least three children with him: sons, (Christian and Peter) mentioned in Maryland Deeds, and a daughter, (Mary Jane Dorner), born in Germany, who married Dewalt Ankeney."

Dewalt Next married Margaretha Becker about 1758 in Maryland . Margaretha was born about 1730 and died about 1790 Other names for Margaretha were Margaret, and Margaret Baker. They had seven children: John Michael, Henry G., Margretha, David,

Jacob, George, and Elisabetha.

Margaret, the widow of Noah Frederick, had been killed by Indians. It is said that a band of Shawnees came on Noah Frederick plowing in his field, killed and scalped him, and carried away Thomas, who was with him. They plundered his house and carried away everything that suited their purpose. Noah's wife and daughters were at the barn and escaped by hiding. Thomas remained seven years with the Indians until the end of the French and Indian War, when he was given up at Fort Duquesne. There was no one to claim him, and he was taken to Philadelphia and apprenticed to a shoemaker by the name of Stone, whom he served seven years. Then he started out as a traveling shoemaker, seeking his home. By telling his story and recalling recollections of his childhood, he finally came across a man who knew his mother and who took him to the wife of Dewalt Angny. He was now nineteen years old. His mother identified him by a scar on his neck where his father had opened a boil.

2B. Henry G. Angene, born in 5/1760 in Lancaster (Lebanon) Co., Pennsylvania, died on 5/17/1810 and was buried in Near Hagerstown, Washington Co., Maryland.

Henry married Susanna Jones about 1779. Susanna Jones died in 1819 Another name for Susanna was Susannah Jones. They had ten children: Salome, Mary Ann, Henry, David, George, John George, Jacob, Elizabeth, Margaret, and John.

General Notes: At the time of his death he was living on one of the original Dewalt Ankeney farms on the Conococheague in the Clear Spring neighborhood of that county.

The Maryland Herald and Hagerstown Advertiser of Wednesday, May 23, 1810 published this obituary:

"Departed this life on Thursday night last, after a lingering illness, at his farm on West Conococheague, Henry Ankeney, Esquire, in the 50th year of his age. That circle of society in which his worth was known will long revere his virtues and deplore their loss. To his family the privation is irreparable, to his friends it will be the subject of long and painful remembrance."

History of Greene County, Ohio Volume II

Its people, Industries and Institutions by Broadstone 1918

"Henry Ankeney, second son of Dewalt and Margaretha (Frederick) Ankeney, grew up on the home farm in the Clear Spring neighborhood in Maryland and after his marriage established his home on a farm in that same neighborhood and became a farmer on his own account."

Henry G. Ankeney and his family were of the Reformed faith, being members of St. Paul's Church in Washington Co., Maryland. Henry was one of the members of the Church Council when the congregation was incorporated.

General Notes: History of Greene County, Ohio by George F. Robinson 1902
Its people, Industries and Institutions by Broadstone 1918

"The Ankeney's have been represented in this section of Ohio ever since the year 1827, when Samuel Ankeney, then nineteen years of age, and the eldest of the ten children of David Ankeney, left his home in Washington Co., Maryland, and came into Ohio with a view to selecting a spot for the settlement here of the family, David Ankeney having decided to move over here into the country out of which such excellent reports were coming back East. In 1830 David Ankeney followed with the rest of the family and settled on a tract of land in Madison Co., not far east of South Charleston, and there he and his sons put out some corn, but not liking that point on account of the level ground, presently moved with his family, in the fall of that same year, down into Greene Co. and bought a tract of two hundred and ten acres in the Alpha neighborhood in Beaver creek Twp. and there decided to locate. He did not live long, however, to enjoy his new home or to develop the same in accordance with his expectations, for on the evening of November 2 of that same year he died suddenly, in the forty-second year of his age, He died in his chair while at the supper table, suffering from a paralytic stroke, and his widow was left with the ten children to carry out the plans which the family had made for the establishment of a permanent home in this county. She was born Elizabeth Miller, in Maryland, in the Hagerstown neighborhood in Washington Co., and survived her husband for more than twenty years, her death occurring on December 23, 1852, she then being sixty-two years of age."

"...David Ankeney, the Ohio pioneer, whose plans for developing a farm in Greene Co. were suddenly checked by his death in 1830, as set out above, and whose body for nearly ninety years has been at rest in the Xenia Cemetery, but whose name is perpetuated in this section and whose memory is cherished by the large connection of the Ankeney's and related families based upon his establishment of his home here in pioneer days."

"...the pioneers, who had come here from Washington Co., Maryland, in 1830, with their nine children; and of how David Ankeney died suddenly in the fall of that same year, another child being born to his widow not long after his death, and of how that pioneer farm was developed by the family and has ever since continued in the Ankeney name.

David Ankeney and his family were members of the Reformed Church, St. Paul's Church in Washington Co., Maryland and Beaver Reformed Church in Beaver creek Twp. near Alpha, Greene Co., Ohio.

General Notes: Aged 59y 2m 24d

In 1827 Samuel Ankeney, then 19 years of age and the eldest of the ten children of David Ankeney, left his home in Washington (formerly Frederick) Co., Maryland and came to Ohio with a view to selecting a spot for the settlement here of the family. David Ankeney had decided to move here into the country out of which such excellent reports, from numerous relatives, were coming back East. In 1830 David Ankeney followed with the rest of the family, but died in November of the same year. As the eldest of the children, Samuel assumed the responsibility of developing the home place and assisted his widowed mother to keep the family together. He also taught in the primitive log schoolhouse (Beaver School) located west of Beaver Church. He married Margaret Gettard, who was born in Warren Co., Ohio but moved into Greene Co. and Beaver Creek Twp. as a child. After his marriage, Samuel continued his home on the home farm, of which he eventually became sole proprietor, and later became the owner of the neighboring farm of 222.50 acres, thus being the owner of 432.50 acres of land. He built a brick home on the latter farm in 1854, and on that place he spent his last days. Politically, Samuel was a Republican. He and Margaret were members of Beaver Reformed Church.

5A. Joanna Ankeney, born on 2/12/1840 in Homestead, Beaver Creek, Greene Co., Ohio, died on 6/23/1922 in Her Home in Xenia, Greene Co., Ohio and was buried in Beaver Cemetery, Beaver Creek, Greene Co., Ohio. Other names for Joanna were Joan and Joan Ankeney.

Joanna married Frederick Christian Trebein on 11/16/1869. Frederick, born on 10/24/1833 in Dayton, Montgomery Co., Ohio, died on 6/4/1900 in Trebein Rd., Beaver Creek, Greene Co., Ohio and was buried in Beaver Cemetery, Beaver Creek, Greene Co., Ohio. Other names for Frederick were F. C., and F. C. Trebein. They had two children: Elizabeth T. and Bertha Eleanor.

General Notes: F. C. grew to manhood in Dayton, his parents having come from Germany to settle there and his older sister, Mary having been born in Germany. F. C. rose from a chore-boy in a store to a partnership in the business, and later he owned and conducted a dry-goods store on 3rd St. in Dayton. Failing health determined him to leave the store, and in 1868 he disposed of his interests in Dayton and came over into Greene Co. and engaged in the milling business on the Little Miami River at the point, later, and ever since known as Trebein, or Trebein Station, where he spent the rest of his life. In addition to his milling business, Mr. Trebein also possessed considerable property in Xenia and was identified with several industries there.

General Notes: Joan spent her married life at their Trebein home, but after F.C.'s death she moved into Xenia on N. Detroit St. to live next to her daughter Elizabeth and near her only sister Elizabeth. Joan's other daughter Bertha lived with and cared for her in her declining years.

6A. Elizabeth T. Trebein, born on 3/30/1871 in Trebein Rd., Beaver Creek, Greene Co., Ohio, died on 9/25/1924 and was buried in Beaver Cemetery, Beaver Creek, Greene Co., Ohio. Another name for Elizabeth was Lizzie Trebein.

Elizabeth married Patrick Henry Flynn on 6/20/1894. Patrick, born on 7/4/1861 in Brookfield, Worcester Co., Massachusetts, died on 4/12/1934 and was buried in Beaver Cemetery, Beaver Creek, Greene Co., Ohio. General Notes: History of Greene County, Ohio Volume II
Its people, Industries and Institutions by Broadstone 1918

"Nelson Ankeney, eighth in order of birth of the ten children born to David and Elizabeth (Miller) Ankeney, born in the vicinity of Clear Spring, in Washington Co., Maryland, September 15, 1825, and was thus but four years of age when his parents came to Ohio and settled in Greene Co. and was but little more than five when his father died. He grew up on the farm now occupied by Albert Ankeney and for some years during the days of his young manhood occupied his winters in teaching school at the Beaver School, located next to Beaver Church. When twenty-five years of age he married and bought the Miller farm (now owned by Ervin Nutter) on Trebein Rd. This was later sold and, he returned to the old home farm. In 1876 Nelson bought another farm consisting of 90 acres, on Trebein Rd. He erected a large new barn upon buying the farm and in 1879 erected a wooden dwelling house, replacing a smaller wooden house already there. At one time a log cabin stood on the farm near the back property line, close to Ankeney Rd.. Nelson lived on this farm for the rest of his life, his death resulting from being injured by some cattle in the barn. Sidney (Grandma Sid as she was called by the family) continued to live on the farm with her daughter Emma, and the farm was kept up by their son L.W.. Sidney died of a stroke on the farm in 1921, the farm was deeded to the daughter Clara."

Nelson Ankeney was a Republican and he and his family were members of the Beaver Reformed Church.

Jessie, born on 4/27/1861 in Cline Farm On Beaver Valley Rd., Beaver creek, Greene Co., Ohio, died on 1/5/1901 in Cline Farm On Beaver Valley Rd., Beaver creek, Greene Co., Ohio and was buried in Beaver Cemetery, Beaver creek, Greene Co., Ohio. The cause of her death was pneumonia after the birth of a child. Another name for Jessie was Jessie Cline. They had six children: Fred Cline, William Nelson, Catherine, John Blaine, Lois, and Jessie Marie.

General Notes: Jessie was an exceptional artist and did several beautiful paintings, which are treasured keepsakes of the Ankeney family.

- Alt. Marriage: 1882.

General Notes: After his marriage L. W. bought his uncle Henry D. Ankeney's farm (previously the John Steele farm) of 160 acres on Fairground Rd. in Beaver creek Twp. He also rented his father-in-law's farm on Beaver Valley Rd. The family lived on the Cline farm for a few years, moving here in 1889, and L. W. had tenants live in the farmhouse on the Fairground Rd. farm. During this time Jessie died, and L. W.'s sister Clara came from her parents' farm on Trebein Rd. to join the family and care for the children. In 1914 L. W. bought the T. H. Bell farm of 64 acres on Trebein Rd., which was located between his father's farm and his brother Charles' farm. The family moved here, and L. W.'s son Blaine managed the Fairground Rd. farm. In the spring of 1919 L. W.'s other son William Nelson and his family returned to run the Fairground Rd. farm, and Blaine went to a place in Blanchester, Clinton Co., Ohio. In 1921 L. W. moved with his sister Clara to their parents' farm, for their mother had died and left the farm to Clara. Blaine and his family came up from Blanchester to run the farm on Trebein Rd. where L. W. had been living. L. W. lived on his parents' farm with his sisters Emma and Clara until he died of cancer. L. W. and Jessie were members of Beaver Reformed Church.

Henry G. Angene
David Ankeney

Conservatory of Music in Chicago. She was on her way to college in Valparaiso, Indiana by train when she met Nelson. After their marriage they lived in Washington D.C. and Lillian was the organist for the First Reformed Church. After moving back to Ohio, Lillian was the organist for the First Methodist Church in Xenia. for a time. Lillian began teaching piano and organ in their home. Lillian stayed on the farm after Nelson's death and became more active in teaching music. She continued to teach from her home and also in Xenia at the "Band Box". She joined Beaver United Church of Christ (Beaver Reformed Church) and was the organist there for several years. For many years she belonged to the Business and Professional Women's Club of Xenia and was its president at one time. In the spring of 1974 Lillian suffered a paralytic stroke, becoming confined to a wheelchair. She since made her home at the Hospitality Home West Nursing Home in Xenia.

General Notes: Nelson was born on the Fairground Rd. farm, but the family moved to the Cline farm on Beaver Valley Rd. when he was 3 years old, and Nelson grew up there. He graduated from Beavercreek High School in 1905 and went on to Heidelberg University at Tiffin, Ohio, graduating from there in 1909. Nelson then taught botany at Ohio State University at Columbus in 1915 and 1916. He got his Master's degree in entomology from this institution in 1917 and got a job with the Department of Agriculture as a plant pathologist. He was assigned a summer field trip to Big Rapids, Michigan with the Heinz Company when he met Lillian on a train from Columbus. She and Nelson were married that autumn and went to live in Washington, D.C., where Nelson did work on plant diseases for the Department of Agriculture. Nelson and the family returned to the Fairground Rd. farm from Florida in the spring of 1919. He operated this farm for his father. Nelson's brother Blaine, who had been living on the farm, went to a place in Blanchester, Ohio. L. W. was currently living on the farm he had purchased on Trebein Rd. After his father's death Nelson received the Fairground Rd. farm with his sisters' Catharine and Lois. He bought out Lois' share, giving him 138 acres. In 1946 Nelson bought the 90 acre farm of his late Aunt Clara, and he and Lillian moved here to live. Nelson was killed when his tractor overturned on him while doing field work on the Fairground Rd. farm. Nelson was a Republican, and he and Lillian were members of the First Presbyterian Church of Xenia, where he was an elder, although their children had gone to Sunday school at Beaver Reformed Church.

Greene Co., Ohio. The cause of her death was lung cancer. Other names for Luella were Lu, and Luella Ankeney. They had two children: Joan Ellen and Dale Frederick.

General Notes: Luella grew up in Athens and moved to Alpha, in Beavercreek Twp., Greene Co., when she was 15 years old. Her dad was taking a job at Wright-Patterson AFB in Fairborn, Ohio. She met Fred through his younger sister Lucile, with whom Luella was a girlfriend. She graduated from Beavercreek High School in 1943 and wanted to be married before Fred went overseas to fight in the war.

After Fred's death, Luella stayed on the farm. She joined Beaver United Church of Christ (Beaver Reformed Church) and was church secretary for a time.

General Notes: Fred was born on Cline Farm on Beaver Valley Rd. Fred grew up on the Fairground Rd. farm. He went his first three years of school to Alpha School No. 13 and the remaining years at the central Beavercreek School, graduating in 1941. Fred went to the Ohio Military Institute at Cincinnati, Ohio for one year, graduating in 1942. Then he joined the Army Air Force. The war ended while Fred and Luella were in Texas, so they returned to the Fairground Rd. farm to live. Fred's parents were getting ready to move to the Trebein Rd. farm. Until the spring of 1953 Fred continued the Holstein dairy operation his dad had started on the farm. Fred and Luella had a smaller brick house built on the farm and moved here in 1953, renting out the large farmhouse to tenants. Fred had gone into raising sheep after he quit dairying and then went solely into raising crops. He died from a brain tumor while at home on the farm. He was a Republican, and he and Luella were members of the First Presbyterian Church of Xenia.

General Notes: After marriage, Catharine and Jim lived for a short time in the little village of Goes, located northeast of Xenia in Greene County. Then Jim bought a farm on Indian Ripple Rd., where they moved, and Jim farmed. Catharine kept her portion of the Fairground Rd. farm, 22 acres, when her father died. Their son Bob helped with the field work on the farms. Catharine was a lifelong artist. She attended Heidelberg University and Oxford College for Women and then studied art in Dayton, Ohio. She taught art for a couple years before her marriage, and after having her children she held art classes in her home on Indian Ripple Rd. She continued teaching art and painting until she was close to 90 years old. She enjoyed painting china and doing painting in oils. After Jim's death Catharine remained on the farm, and her son Bob continued to do the field work. The next year after Bob's death, Catharine reluctantly went to live with her daughter Nelle and her husband in Kettering, Montgomery Co., Ohio. Nelle was worried about her mother being alone, since her health wasn't as good as it had been. Before her death from old age Catharine sold her part of the Fairground Rd. farm to her son-in-law, and after her death the Indian Ripple Rd. farm was left to her daughter Nelle.

For a time he lived in the dwelling house on Catharine's portion of the Fairground Rd. farm. The family said the reason Bob couldn't keep a wife was that he drank and turned mean when he was drunk, otherwise he was very pleasant. After his last divorce he made his home with his parents and remained there on the farm until his death.
