

Ferris J. Garrett

GARLAND — Ferris Jones Garrett, 78, died March 15, 1990, at his home in Garland.

He was born May 8, 1911, in Garland, a son of John W. and Jessie M. Jones Garrett.

He married Eva Lue Frandsen, May 21, 1954, in Logan, they were later divorced.

He was reared and educated in Garland. He had lived in Soda Springs, Idaho, Georgetown, Idaho, and Garland. He was a member of the Rodeo Cowboy Assn., also served as a rodeo judge in local rodeos. He had worked as a meat cutter and was a meat instructor at U.S.U. in Logan, through Bridgerland Area Vocational Center, retiring in 1980. He was a past President of the Garland Lions Club, 1984-1985, served on the Board of Directors of the Garland Lions Club, 1985-1986, was Lion of the year in 1981. He was an avid fisherman.

He was a High Priest in Garland 1st LDS Ward. He had served in the past as Stake Special Interest Coordinator and home teacher.

Surviving are one son and one daughter and their spouses, Debra Lee and Dan Ames, Laketown; Michael F. and Sheri Garrett, Tremonton, five grandchildren; one brother Wayne Garrett, Logan; He was preceded in death by one sister, Cora.

Funeral services will be conducted Tuesday, March 20, 1990, 11:00 a.m. Garland Ward Chapel, with Bishop Brent A. Kirkland, officiating.

Friends may call Monday 6 to 8 p.m. and Tuesday, 9:30 to 10:30 a.m. at Rogers & Taylor Funeral Home, 111 N. 1st. E. Tremonton.

Interment Garland City Cemetery.

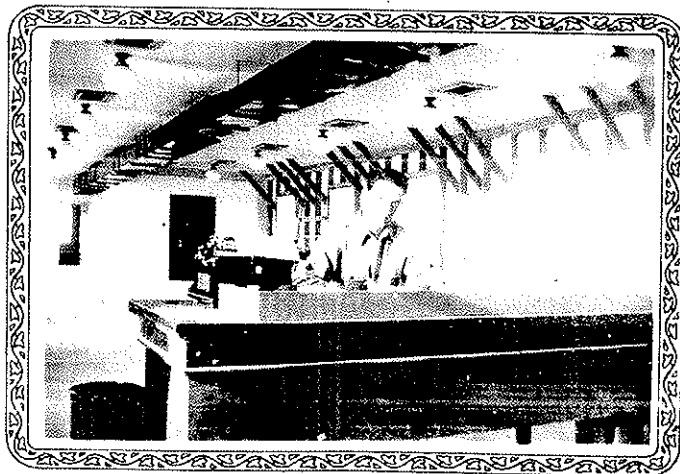

Jessie Jones Garrett

John Garrett

GARLAND — Funeral services for John W. Garrett, 78, of Garland, will be conducted tomorrow at 1 p.m. in the LDS Garland First Ward by Bishop Art Michaelis.

Friends may call at the Rogers Mortuary in Tremonton tonight from 7 to 9 and tomorrow from 10:30 a.m. until services. Burial in the Wellsville Cemetery.

Wayne Garrett