

culminating with the celebration of my grandparents' golden wedding celebration in 1912.

At that time this area was known as Allison Lane and a street car ran from Leechburg through North Vandergrift and Allison Lane to Apollo. The old Apollo Fair - another summer attraction - was also reached by street car to Allison Lane and then a long dusty walk up the lane to the Fair grounds.

After the death of Mary Elizabeth, their daughter Maisie and her husband David Olinger lived in the home for a period of time and later Dale Olinger and his wife Naomi (Snyder) and their family occupied it until 1936. It was finally sold to Dr. Norton who did extensive remodeling and renovating and his family is the present occupant. The home is still known in the area as the old "Burkett home".

Mary Elizabeth died December 4, 1920 and is buried in the Apollo cemetery. Her husband, George W. died October 28, 1922 and is buried by her side.

George W. and Mary Elizabeth Burkett were the parents of eleven children: John Franklin, Thomas and Adda Jane (twins), Lillie, Maisie, Minnie (died in infancy), George W. Jr., Blanche (died in infancy), Sallie and Paul (twins) (Paul died in infancy), and Barton Hill.

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Hill:

I can imagine you will be very surprised to receive this letter from me. May I first introduce myself to you: I am the niece of Hans and Emma Burkhardt you met sometime last autumn in Herbrechtingen near Heidenheim. My father is Bernhard Burkhardt, Hans' oldest brother and living in Heidenheim. When I visited my family and the relatives this Christmas, I was told that you had been looking for relatives on the occasion of a tour of Germany and I heard that unfortunately a real conversation was not possible due to language problems. I am very sorry indeed that we could not get in touch at that time as I speak English fluently. My aunt and uncle gave me your address and I gladly promised to send you a letter immediately after my vacation.

However, the main reason for my writing is the following: I understand you are very interested in getting to know more about our ancestors, and so is my brother Friedrich (38). He already gathered as much information as possible and now hopes to perhaps receive some more details from you. Since he left school, he forgot much of his English and, therefore, asked me to write to you also in his name. You know, I stayed in the USA three times, together approximately 2 1/2 years, as a bi-lingual secretary. Six years ago, I returned the last time, and am now an executive secretary in an industrial company in the area Heidelberg/Mannheim. I understand Mrs. Hill's maiden name is Burkhardt and I wonder how we are related with each other. Up to now, I had not known that there existed relatives in the States. Almost every year since about 1970, my father's youngest brother Wilhelm organizes a family gathering of the Burkhardt's in Herbrechtingen. Some of them came from Switzerland (near Zürich), Stuttgart, Reutlingen, Karlsruhe. In order to give you some idea of at least my closest relatives, here a little chart:
