

The Far Flung Flinns

Afterword

I received much help in putting this book together from my beloved wife Jean, and my dear sister, Ila FLINN Raviart, of Las Cruces, New Mexico, and my cousin Barbara Wagner of Chula Vista, Ca. Cindy Jenkins supplied additional info on the Crossville, TN. Flinns, as did Charles Flynn of Ohio. Copious amounts of data came from Lucy Arflinn Webb on the Blount County Flinns. Also I thank Bonnie Wagner, Debbie, Bvie, Yvonne, and Calvin Flinn for the Arkansas and Indiana connections. Liegh Flynn Shriver, Alice Flinn Taylor, Helyn Guery , and many many others provided the necessary links and stems to different branches of the Flinn / Flynn family tree.

Robert Cawley was essentially the architect in fitting together the framework of the very early Flinns in America.

The unproven connections (in Chap. VI, so noted as they occur) are solely mine and I take responsibility and apologize for any errors. Those connections are very highly probable (95%+) and I firmly believe they are true. Several small limbs of the tree I had to omit, because I couldn't fit them in as descendants of Edmond, or could not find their parentage.

Thanks for your patience in reading this genealogy.

Much of the information in the chapters regarding ancient Ireland and its early settlers was gleaned from "The Annals of The Four Masters", The Holy Bible, " A History of Ireland" by Edmund Curtis, and "Story of The Irish Race" by McManus.
