married 16 January 1923 David Lindsey High. Pearl has been of great help and a moving force in the compilation of this record. "Dave" had a daughter, Carrie, by a former marriage. Pearl writes of the incident that gave her, her foster daughter.

Carrie was my step-daughter. She was married at the age of nineteen years to William Martin Breeding, Jr. They were married 31 December 1927 and Jean, their little daughter, was born 11 December 1928. Carrie had come home with the baby who was only six weeks old. She had "Child bed fever" and we were caring for her. We heard the baby crying about 2 o'clock in the morning and Dave went to the bed and Carrie was dead. The Dr. said he couldn't tell how long she had been gone. We raised Jean and loved her as our very own.

JOSEPH JARED DESCENDANTS

*2 JOSEPH JARED 2 (John 1) born 2 January 1760 at Loudoun County, Virginia, a son of John and Hannah (Whitacre) Jared, died 4 March 1835, Jackson (now Putnam County) Tennessee, married 23 October 1780 (1) Agnes "Aggie" Beard; married (2) 19 January 1802 Elizabeth "Betsy" Baker, born 22 February 1773, died 14 December 1836, daughter of Samuel and Mary Baker.

An interesting marriage contract lies in the vaults of the Bedford County Court House in Virginia. It reads "Know all men by these presents that we Joseph Jarrett and George Simmons are held and firmly bound unto Patrick Henry Esquire Governor or Chief Magistrate of the State of Virginia in the sum of Fifty pounds to which paim 't. (payment) well and truly to be made to the said Patrick Henry or his Successors we bind ourselves and each of our Joins and several Heirs. Exor's and Admir's. firmly by these present. Sealed with our seals and dated this 23 day of October 1 780.

The condition of the above oblign is such that whereas there is a marriage shortly to be had and solemnized between Joseph Jarrett and Aggy Beard. Now if there shall be no lawful Cause to Obstruct the s 'd marriage then the above Oblign. to be void. Else to remain in full force and virtue.

Filed with this bond was a paper stating that Margit Young, mother of Aggy Beard gave her consent to said marriage.

In the marria ge contract Joseph's surname is written Jarrett. He signed the documents "Joseph Jared."

Joseph (2) was the second son of John Jared (1), wagon-maker of Virginia and his Quaker wife, Hannah Whitacre. His mother received permission to remove from the Quaker community of Kingswood Monthly Meeting in New Jersey to Loudoun County, Virginia. It is possible, since his mother died before Joseph was three years old that he had no one to tell him his exact place of birth. We do know he was the second son of John.

He was a veteran of the American Revolution. He enlisted on the 12th day of October 1779 in— LOUDOUN COUNTY, VIRGINIA at LACEY'S TAVERN—ON BULSKIN CREEK—in the service of the United States as a volunteer.

His regiment was immediately marched from Lacey 's Tavern aforesaid to Richmond, Virginia, with an expectation of going from that place to Hillsborough but when they arrived at Richmond, they were ordered to march on Portsmouth on Nancymond River. After being at Portsmouth a few days they were marched to Cabbins Point, here they stayed a few days and were thence marched to an oil field, the distance not recollected, where they were stationed about ten or fifteen days. At this place they built large tents of green pines with much order and regularity as to their arrangement after the manner of streets of a town and in consequence of this circumstance they called the place Green-Town, by which name it has been called and known ever since. From Green-Town they were marched to Petersburg, Virginia, and were stationed about one mile from that place. Here they remained until the time for which they had volunteered, had expired, and during the time they were at this place, the Regiment was reviewed by General Stuban, after which the General complimented the soldiers for their patriotism in volunteering in the service of our country, called them good boys, and then dismissed the soldiers from further service at that time. They received no written discharges. Joseph returned home and remained until sometime in the summer of 1781, and again volunteered in the service of the United States in Loudoun County, Va., and at the same Lacey 's Tavern. They again marched to Richmond, thence immediately to Gloucester in Gloucester County near Little York, where he joined the main Army under General Washington. Here he remained during the balance of the summer and fall until sometime after Cornwallis' surrender. After the battle was over they were employed in guarding the prisoners, until they started to Nowling's Ferry on the Potomac River, to which place they guarded the prisoners. They were again discharged from service without receiving written discharges. He was not engaged in any other battle or engagement but the Battle of Little York. He was engaged in the service during the last campaign at least three months and to the best of his knowledge it was more than that length of time—which together with his first mentioned service would make more than six months—he has no documentary evidence of his services—never having received any written discharges from any of his Officers nor does he know of any person by whom he can prove his services.

William Jared was one of the first settlers of Putnam County, Tennessee, arriving there in 1795 to take up his lands and establish his family. He perhaps influenced his brother Joseph to join him. According to Joseph's statement in the foregoing application for pension, he took up his residence in Jackson County, Tennessee, about 1810.

*3784 JOHN JARED 3 (Joseph 2, John 1) born 19 Sept 1787 at Bedford, Virginia, son of Joseph and Agnes (Beard) Jared, died near Roseville, Warren County, Illinois on May 10, 1844; married 10 July 1813 Elizabeth Bandy, born 15 June 1799 in Bottetourt County, Virginia, daughter of George and Druscilla (Meadows) Bandy.

Millie Hoffneagle tells us

After John Jared and Elizabeth Bandy were married they lived in Bedford County, Virginia, near Fincastle, about 90 miles southwest of Lynchburg.

They left Virginia and traveled through what is now Tennessee and then into Breckenridge County, Kentucky and stayed there about five years. They then came up into Illinois and stopped in Morgan County near Jacksonville. Some of the boys came to Warren County to see if the Indians were gone. Leaving Morgan County after one year, they came on to Warren County.

Joel, a brother of John, settled north and west of John's place. Joel Jared married Loretta Adkisson, a sister of "Bill" Adkisson. Their father was Pleasant Adkisson.

William Jared, a brother of John and Joel, settled on land where the farm home of Albert Holeman now is. He bought an acre of John Jared's across the road where the barn stands and built a house there so he could live and vote in the same township where his brothers, John and Joel did. Elizabeth Bandy Jared died in this house in April 1879.

John and Elizabeth Bandy Jared had thirteen children, eight of whom were born in Virginia.

When Joseph was six weeks old his mother died. One neighbor took care of the little baby while the father went back to Illinois to get help from his family to raise his children. When he came back for the baby the family had moved to Missouri and taken his little son with them. He never found the child.

Joseph was nearly twenty years old when his foster mother became very ill and thought she would die. She called Joseph to her and told him his real name and that he was not her son, as he had been raised to believe. When he could make arrangements to do so, he went to Warren County, Illinois, and found his father and brothers and sisters. He returned to Missouri and married late in life. He had no children. He is buried beside his wife at Enid, Oklahoma.

John Jared married for his third wife, Margaret Huff. Margaret had two children by her first marriage, Victoria and William Huff. Victoria's two children must have been congenial with John's ten because Victoria's daughter and namesake, Victoria Huff, married John's son, Frank, when the two reached a suitable age.

John Jared is the father of fifteen children and raised two step-children. He married twice later in life but no children were born to the last two marriages. His wives were Ann Riper and Nettie Womack. Ann Riper was a widow, who had two children, but John's marriage with her was not compatible and they separated after a few years.

John went to Wildwood, Oklahoma about 1889 at the time the Indian Territory was being opened up for claims. John rode a mule from the starting point to a point nine miles north of Loyal, Oklahoma, to establish his Homestead Claim to 160 acres. Many of John's descendants now reside in Oklahoma. Jim L. Wearmouth of Frederick, Oklahoma, has a lamp that was owned by his grandmother Edith (Davis) Jared. It was used to light their dugout in about 1845. The dugout home was common in Oklahoma about the "year of Run."

We were told, that when John Jared was eighty years old, he could stand out by the barn and shoot pigeons as they flew from their cot in the rafters.

In the year 1889 one of John's sons, Charlie, came to Oklahoma with a wife and four children. They all spent the winter in their Wagon box home.

*3834 ISRAEL "PIG" JARED 4 (John 3, Joseph 2, John 1) son of John and Elizabeth (Bandy) Jared, born 5 August 1829 at Bedford County, Virginia. He died 6 March 1897; married 25 December 1859, Mary Jane Kelsey born 1 October 1835, daughter of James and Elizabeth (Vandivere) Kelsey.

Israel K. Jared of Point Pleasant Township, was one of the leading agriculturists of Warren County. He was 6 months old when the removal to Kentucky was made. He was 15 years old when his father died. He remained in the family of his mother until he went to California in 1852. On April 16 of that year he set out for the land of gold and crossed the plains with an ox team. After four months of travel his party arrived at Placerville, California, which then rejoiced in the significant name of Hangtown. Mr. Jared remained there six years and passed the first four years in mining and the next two in the business of a farmer. In 1858 he returned home from the West, via the Isthmus of Panama and thence to New York and then home.

He resumed farming in Warren County, locating on the land he had bought before leaving for California. After a residence on it of about 16 years, he sold out and located on farm which he has since occupied in the Township of Point Pleasant. He bought the property in 1862, and at that time it consisted of wild prairie and timber. The farm is all improved, and is well supplied with good buildings. He is the owner of 470 acres, in the township where he resides and of 115 acres in Swan Township, of which he has retained the ownership since it became his property.

*4132 GEORGE B. JARED 5 (Israel 4, John 3, Joseph 2, John 1) born 10 May 1868 in Swan Creek, Ill., married 26 June 1888 Sarah "Sadie" Lippy, born 15 May 1868, daughter of John H. and Huldah (Luper) Lippy.

At the age of 19 yrs, he began to practice veterinary medicine; having learned the trade from his Uncle Thomas Jared, who for many years had been a farmer and practitioner in Warren County, Ill. At the time George B. started his practice, Thomas presented him with all his accumulated instruments and literature. This was the beginning of a practice which lasted 52 years.

Mr. Jared of this sketch intermittently tried various fields of endeavor. He ran a saw mill farmed and trained race horses in Illinois, owned and operated a pool hail and duck hunting concession in Stuggart, Arkansas. From there to the Klondike Gold Rush in Alaska. After failing to find riches in gold, he returned to Illinois to resume the operation of another saw mill and part-time practice of veterinary medicine.

In 1907 Mr. Jared and his family moved to a farm ten miles northwest of Apache, Oklahoma where he lived until his death in 1940. These 33 years were spent in farming and treating animals with a few attempts in the field of show business. He organized several road trips for Indian shows where they charged admission to watch his Apache Indians perform their ceremonial dances. These trips proved fruitful but short as he usually paid his performers after two -weeks on the road. The first thing they did after getting paid would get drunk and the next time Dr. Jared would see them would be after he moved his tent and all equipment back home. Some of these Indians and their descendants still sing tribal songs describing these trips to the County Fairs in Waco, Texas.

Dr. Jared was married to Sarah Jane Lippy of Prairie City, Illinois in Swan Creek, Illinois, in 1888. Two children were born to this union. The first, a daughter Leona, died of diphtheria sometime soon after 3 years of age. The second child Elmer Brinton, born at Swan Creek, Ill. April 10, 1890 spent the first 17 years in the county of his birth and after his marriage to Mabel Jones in Oklahoma, he farmed with his father until 1925 when he built his own business—a country general store located 8 miles northwest of Apache, where he resided until shortly before his death in 1954.

Dr. George Brinton Jared, a name-sake of General George Brinton McClellan passed away suddenly at a dance in the home of his son, Elmer, May 18, 1940. Dr. Jared had been dancing a Paul Jones less than a minute before he collapsed. He was buried at Apache, Oklahoma still wearing his long braids that hung below his waist. His funeral was largely attended by both Indians and white people.

Sara Jane (Sade) followed her husband in death some seven years later, expiring on July 1, 1947, she was laid to rest beside her husband of 52 years. —Dr. Marvin B. Jared, Apache Oklahoma.

As a little girl I remember meeting my Grandmother, Miriam Jared Bair, at the railroad station. She had been on a visit to Minden Mines, Missouri to her sister Elizabeth Jared and husband Lilburn Bair. They had lots of apples and my Grandmother wanted to bring some home so she emptied her trunk that she had taken on her visit full of clothes, and she filled the trunk with apples. She put all her clothes, that she had taken with her, on and when we met her at the station, she was so fat she could hardly walk. — Louise Talkin

A short sketch of the life of Miriam L. Jared

I was born August 2, 1842 in Swan Township, Warren County, about 4 miles southeast of Roseville, Illinois.

The house I was born in was a hued log house 18' x 24' It had an attic, and a ladder that we used for a stairway. When we wanted to go to bed, the candles were blown out and that made the partitions. This house burned in 1868.

There were thirteen children, 8 boys and 5 girls. I was the youngest child. My father died in May 1844 when I was only 21 months old, leaving my mother with the greater part of these thirteen children and several grandchildren. She had 80 acres of land to finish paying for.

I was married to Caleb Bair, June 2, 1864. I have had 6 children. Three died at ages of 1, 5 and 15 years respectively. I have befriended three children, they having lived in our home until maturity. One boy we adopted. As I had lost three children of my own, I felt like I wanted to raise some other mother's children.

In 1866 we moved to Kansas. We had taken a claim and had it all fenced and a house, barn and crib built when a prairie fire came along and burned everything. The ashes weren't left even, because the wind blew them away.

We worked out for a while, but wages were very small and after a time, a man who had a claim there, let us live in an old shack that he had. We slept on the floor on a pile of hay in the corner, and had a tub for a table. We had bought two new tin cups to drink out of and we also used them for a mirror.

My little boy Jacob Emery was very good under such conditions. My husband and I became ill with malaria, and a doctor stopped once a week, and a lady from a neighboring town came on horseback and gave us fresh water and cleaned as best she could. We finally got able to work again. Most everything had been eaten by grasshoppers that year.

After we had gotten enough to be able to make the trip, we went back to Illinois in a covered wagon. We lived on a farm near Roseville till March 1899. We then bought a home in Roseville and moved there.

My husband, Caleb Bair, passed away June 7, 1909. In July 1911, our house burned again. I lost nearly all I had. With some insurance, I bought a smaller house and have lived in it ever since. After my husband's death, I made my living by daily work and selling fruits and garden vegetables.

I joined the Church when about 18 years of age in a creek and they had to cut several inches of ice to have a place for the service. I now am a member of the Christian Church in Roseville, Illinois.

The preacher came by their house on his rounds and was sympathetic with their destitute condition so on his next trip the following spring he brought them a gift of twelve chickens.

When he came the next time he asked how their flock had prospered. "All dead," came the sad answer. "We'ens got hungry and had to eat 'em."

*4427 THOMAS JEFFERSON JARED 6 (William Ensor 5, Jackson 4, Charles 3, Joseph 2, John 1) born 21 November 1892, son of William Ensor and Mary Beauregard (Evans) Jared; married 10 September 1911, L. Maude Roberts, born 3 May 1893 at Boma, Tennessee, daughter of Winfield Scott and Elizabeth (Franklin) Roberts.

I was raised up on a little hill farm two miles west of Boma, a small flag station on the Tennessee Central Railroad. A large family as you see, not much educational advantages just grade school. Worked on the farm during summer months and fall and winter with a lumber company. My father and mother were members of the Old John Wesley Methodist Church. We children were taught to be honest and truthful and to practice the Golden Rule. I was married to Laura Maude Roberts September 10, 1911. We had one child, Boda Pauline, at Boma in December 1912. After disposing of what property we had we boarded the train for Oklahoma. We arrived at Ada, January 2, 1913, farmed until 1941. In 1934 God called me to preach. I evangelized until 1940 and then began to Pastor and Pastored until 1957. Then I had to retire. I have had scores of people converted in my ministry. I have four sons preaching the gospel and one granddaughter. We are members of the Church of God of Prophecy. We are not partial toward any one. We love all God's people. Also poor sinners that are lost and undone.

My youngest brother, William Looney Jared, has one son who is a lawyer. There are several teachers in the William Ensor Jared family. Wife and I were saved August 1, 1920. We did what Solomon said to do in Proverbs 22:6, "trained up a child in the way he should go and when he grows old, he will not depart from it."

I have never been arrested nor paid a fine in my life. Not a child has ever been arrested or paid a fine. They were all saved in their teenage.
