

Will of Dennis Carrico, father of Tabitha Carrico White

WILL OF DENNIS CARRICO

In the Name of God, Amen, I Dennis Carrico of Greene County and State of Illinois being feeble in body but of sound mind and memory do make ordain and establish this to be my last will and testament ^{revoking} ~~making~~ all former wills and testaments which I heretofore have made.

[1] First: it is my will that my funeral expenses and all my just debts be fully paid.

[2] Second I give and devise and bequeath to my beloved wife Mary Carrico ^[nee M. E. James] the sum of five hundred dollars to be paid unto her by my executor out of my estate twelve months after my decease and also all those articles of specific property then allowed unto her by the laws of this State.

[3] Thirdly I give and bequeath and devise unto the heirs or legal representatives of my eldest son Nathaniel Carrico deceased.

the sum of fifty dollars to be divided equally between them and to be paid unto them by my executor twelve months after my decease.

[4] Fourthly I give and bequeath and devise unto the heirs or legal representatives of my eldest daughter Susannah Brown deceased the sum of fifty dollars to be paid unto them by my executor twelve months after my decease.

[5] Fifthly I have heretofore given and paid over unto Elizabeth White wife of Josiah White all that I intended she should possess of my estate.

[6] Sixthly I give and bequeath unto the heirs of Mary Reddish ^{Reddish} deceased the sum of twenty five dollars to be divided equally between them and to be paid unto them by my executor twelve months