*This Atkinson Wright Brettell MUST BE part of the family also??... source: IGI

The birth cert for Harriott, Fanny or Thomas would prove beyond a doubt what their mother's maiden name was (JONES or CHISHOLM).

The Atkinson Wright connections are a puzzle as I have no Brettell marrying an Atkinson.

I have a William Brittell marrying a Catharine Wright at Penn, Staffs in 1766;

Penn is probably derived from the Welsh language, signifying a hill or promontory, and is believed to refer to the hill on which St Bartholomew's Church stands. In 19th century censuses, Merry Hill, Bradmore and Warstones are understood to form part of Penn, although these areas are generally understood to be separate today. However, there has never been any doubt that the two historic settlements of Upper and Lower Penn form the core of the area.

...& Mary Ann Brettell marrying Christopher Norton Wright in 1824 at Aston.
