--- 6th Generation ---

32. JEREMIAH⁶ BROUWER was probably born on 26 Feb 1738 at New Jersey (date recorded in a ledger belonging to his son). Jeremiah is possibly a son of Jurge Brouwer and Elizabeth Holmes, but the relationship has not been proved. DNA tests involving descendants do confirm that he is a descendant of Adam Brouwer of Gowanus, L. I. Jeremiah was likely born in either Bergen or Hunterdon Co., New Jersey and lived for some time at Cortlandt Manor, Westchester Co., New York. During his service with the Westchester Militia in the French & Indian War, he spent time in the vicinity of present day Saratoga County and afterwards settled there at "Newtown on the Half Moon Patent." He was a Loyalist during the Revolution and at the close of the war became one of the first settlers at Missiquoi Bay in northern Vermont on the Canadian border. About 1806 he is believed to have settled at Petersburg, New York with his youngest sons, Jeremiah and Serring. His son, Peter, remained at Highgate, Vermont, and many of his descendants went to Wisconsin. He married HANNAH THOMAS, daughter of (PETER?) THOMAS, before 1776. He was living on 4 Sep 1806. He possibly died on 13 Mar 1822 at Petersburg, Rensselaer Co., New York, according to a ledger that is said to have belonged to Jeremiah and then his son, Jeremiah, Jr. (it was last in the possession of descendant, Nellie Smith of Wisconsin who d. in June 2006, ae. 100).

33. HANNAH⁶ THOMAS was born circa 1757 at New York or Massachusetts. 256. ADAM⁹ BROUWER was probably born circa 1620 at Köln (Cologne, then a free city, now in the German state of Nordrhein-Westfalen). Also known as Adam Brouwer Berckhoven (the name he called himself in his will) he is the progenitor of the largest of the three Brouwer families found in 17th century New Netherland. He and his wife, Magdalena Verdon, had fourteen children reach adulthood, who in turn left at least 97 grandchildren, and more than 350 great-grandchildren. In 1641, as a soldier in the service of the Dutch West India Company (WIC), he sailed to Brazil on the ship Swoi. There he served, for at least some period of time, at Fort St. Louis de Marinhan. The first record of Adam in New Amsterdam is found in February 1645, when he bought a house lot in New Amsterdam from Hendrick Jansen. During the 1650s he relocated to Gowanus (in present day Brooklyn) on Long Island and built, what is considered to be, the first grist mill on Long Island. He married MAGDALENA JACOBS VERDON, daughter of JACOB VERDON and MARIA BADIE, at Reformed Dutch Church, New Amsterdam, on 21 Mar 1645 (Banns 19 Mar 1645).
