

Descendants of Robert Luttrell

Generation 1

1. ROBERT¹ LUTTRELL¹ was born before 1390 in Dunster, Somerset, England. He died between 1436-1437 in Luttrellstown, Dublin, Ireland. He married Ann Courtenay de Ashbourne, daughter of Elias de Astbourne in 1398 in Luttrellstown, Dublin, Ireland. She was born in 1378 in Devon, England. She died in 1400 in Luttrellstown, Dublin, Ireland.

Notes for Robert Luttrell:

Robert Luttrell of Luttrellstown Castle, Luttrellstown (the estate was most of Clonsilla parish, from the River Liffey to Clonsilla Church), between Clonsilla and Lucan, W Co. Dublin

Robert was a man of substance, and was employed by the Crown in the responsible position of collector of the subsidy in the Castleknock district. He inherited property, including Kindlestown, in the County Wicklow, from Sir Elias de Ashbourne, (Knight of Devon) who has been mentioned in connection with Knocklyon in the parish of Tallaght, and who appears as a witness of the transfer of the Salmon Leap property to Simon Luttrell. The Robert Luttrell who settled on the banks of the Liffey near Dublin at Luttrellstown, was in 1226 treasurer of St. Patrick's Cathedral, and in 1236 was lord chancellor of Ireland. There is mention of a Michael Luttrell, who owned the same estate at the close of the century, and later in 1349 of a Simon Luttrell, who died in the possession of the property. The next owner whose name we have is Robert Luttrell, who married a daughter of Sir Elias de Ashbourne, of Devon, England, and by this marriage added materially to his already large estate. Notes for Ann Courtenay de Ashbourne:

I have seen this listed as Margaret DeAshburne on Martha Wilson's genealogy, 20211 SW 85th ct, Tualatin, OR 97062 USA moka_joka@yahoo.com

Robert Luttrell and Ann Courtenay de Ashbourne had the following children:

- i. HUGH² LUTTRELL² was born in Luttrellstown, Dublin, Ireland. He died in Luttrellstown, Dublin, Ireland.
2. ii. CHRISTOPHER LUTTRELL^{3, 4} was born about 1400 in Luttrellstown, Dublin, Ireland. He died in Apr 1455 in Luttrellstown, Dublin, Ireland⁵. He married Catherine Rochfort, daughter of Thomas Rochfort about 1420 in Luttrellstown, Dublin, Ireland. She was born about 1400 in Ireland. She died in Luttrellstown, Dublin, Ireland.

Generation 2

2. CHRISTOPHER² LUTTRELL (Robert¹)^{3, 4} was born about 1400 in Luttrellstown, Dublin, Ireland. He died in Apr 1455 in Luttrellstown, Dublin, Ireland⁵. He married Catherine Rochfort, daughter of Thomas Rochfort about 1420 in Luttrellstown, Dublin, Ireland. She was born about 1400 in Ireland. She died in Luttrellstown, Dublin, Ireland.

Notes for Christopher Luttrell:

There is some confusion here as to who succeeded Christopher after his death in 1454-1455. Was it Richard or Thomas? In "History of West Virginia and It's People," it states that Christopher was succeeded by his son Richard who married Margaret FitzLyons, daughter of Patrick FitzLeons. (1) However, in "A History of the County Dublin" it claims that his son, Thomas, succeeded him. It also states that Thomas was only 19 at the time of his father's death in 1454 which would make his date of birth around 1435 and that he was already married to Ellen, daughter of Philip Bellew. At the age of 51, he is still alive with another comment, "In 1486 we find him filling the office of sheriff of his native county...." so we know he didn't pass away at least until after then. (2) It also further states that in 1527 Thomas (who married in 1506) appeared as a plaintiff in a suit in the Common Pleas in connection with the property inherited from Sir Elias de Ashbourne. (2) [This is no doubt the property that Robert Luttrell inherited through his wife, Ann Courtenay de Ashbourne, daughter of Sir Elias de Ashbourne]. "A History of the County Dublin" indicates that Christopher was succeeded in order of generations, by Thomas, Richard, then Thomas. And that Richards son, Thomas, was married in 1506 "when he can have been little more than a youth." Doing the math you can assume that Thomas' son Richard could have been born around the time when Thomas was only 19 (i.e. about. 1454-55). This would allow for Richard to father Thomas as early as 1475 but since we know that he "can have been a little more than a youth" in 1506, it must be assumed that Thomas was born much later. So it is reasonable that this could be true. I then looked to the other possibility of Christopher Luttrell being succeeded by his son Richard who had married Margaret FitzLyons, daughter of Patrick Fitz-Leons, Esq., and they had a son, Sir Thomas who became the chief justice of Ireland. (3) To do any confirmation at all, requires some dates of reference of which the "History of West Virginia and It's People" offers none. So I then turned to the other document, A History of the County Dublin for dates to work with. Working with the dates of 1454 (Christopher's death) and 1506 (Thomas' marriage) you have a difference of 52 years. If Thomas was only 10 years old (remember he was a youth) at the time of his marriage, then he could have been born in 1494 - this narrows the time range to 40 years. As has been seen in the past, many men have married more than once or married a younger wife and had several children well into their aged years. So this hypothesis is not unreasonable either. With this lack of information, I had to conclude that either could be true and therefore chose the path that most others had chosen, the Christopher to Thomas, to Richard, to Thomas.

Christopher Luttrell and Catherine Rochfort had the following child:

3. i. THOMAS³ LUTTRELL⁶ was born about 1435 in Luttrellstown, Dublin, Ireland. He died after 1486 in Luttrellstown, Dublin, Ireland⁷. He married Ellen Bellew, daughter of Philip Bellew before 1454 in Dublin, Dublin, , Ireland. She was born between 1435-1465 in Ireland. She died date Unknown in Luttrellstown, Dublin, Ireland.

Generation 3

3. THOMAS³ LUTTRELL (Christopher², Robert¹)⁶ was born about 1435 in Luttrellstown, Dublin, Ireland. He died after 1486 in Luttrellstown, Dublin, Ireland⁷. He married Ellen Bellew, daughter of Philip Bellew before 1454 in Dublin, Dublin, , Ireland. She was born between 1435-1465 in Ireland. She died date Unknown in Luttrellstown, Dublin, Ireland.

Notes for Thomas Luttrell:

Robert was succeeded by his son Christopher Luttrell, who died in 1454, and the latter by his son Thomas Luttrell, who was stated at the time of his father's death, although only nineteen years of age, to be married to Ellen, daughter of Philip Bellew. In 1486 we find him filling the office of sheriff of his native county, and a reference to the rejoicings on the occasion of the marriage of a daughter of the house of Luttrellstown (when more than forty archers attended to support the bridegroom, and many citizens came from Dublin), shows the esteem in which the family was held by the other inhabitants of the English Pale. The bridegroom was one Nicholas Travers, than whom amongst all the multitude at that wedding we are told, there was not a taller or better bowman, and it is probable from this alliance between the house of Travers and of Luttrell that Sir John Travers of Monkstown, who is frequently mentioned in connection with their affairs, was a near relative of the Luttrells. Thomas Luttrell was succeeded at Luttrellstown by his son Richard Luttrell, who married Margaret, daughter of Patrick FitzLyon; and the latter in his turn by his son Thomas, who adopted the profession of the law and was one of the most distinguished members of the family. Notes for Thomas Luttrell:

The Right Hon. Sir Thomas Luttrell, Chief Justice of the Common Pleas in Ireland, as he became, was a typical example of a gentleman of the English Pale of his time. In spite of the centuries which had elapsed since his family first settled in Ireland and of constant intercourse in his youth with the Irish, which is shown by his knowledge of the Irish language, he remained ever true to the interests of England, and looked upon Ireland, outside the small extent embraced in the Pale, as a foreign country. (1) At the same time the long separation of his family from England caused him to have little in common with the inhabitants of that country, and to take what may perhaps be described as a parochial view of English policy. Notwithstanding the residence in England necessary for his admission to the legal profession, during which he must have made acquaintance with many of English birth, his relatives and more intimate friends all belonged to the small community within the Pale. (1) One of his sisters was married to Sir Patrick Barnewall of Turvey, who, like himself, was a lawyer and became Master of the Rolls, and another married as her first husband Nicholas Barnewall of Drimnagh, and as her second Sir John Plunkett of Dunsoghly, who was also a lawyer and became Chief Justice of the Queen's Bench. (1) Of his two brothers, Robert, who was Archdeacon of Meath, never married, but the other, Simon, a merchant and alderman of Dublin, took as his wife a daughter of the house of Bathe. Both Chief Justice Luttrell's own wives-for he was twice married-were also taken from old Pale families, one being the daughter of Bartholomew Aylmer of Lyons, and the other the daughter of Sir William Bathe, of Rathfeigh. (1) Of Luttrell's early life little is known. His first marriage appears to have taken place in 1506, when he can have been little more than a youth, and in 1527 he appears as plaintiff in a suit in the Common Pleas in connection with the property inherited from Sir Elias de Ashbourne. (1) In 1532 his talents first received recognition from the Crown in his appointment as Solicitor-General and King's Serjeant in Ireland, and in 1534 he was promoted to the Bench as Chief Justice of the Common Pleas a position he filled until his death twenty years later. (1) He was an active member of the Council, in which capacity we find him accompanying Lord Deputy Grey on his expedition to meet Tirlagh O'Poole, and on another occasion taking charge of Dublin in the Lord Deputy's absence; and it has been stated that he was instrumental in securing the preservation of the public records in a place of safety. (1) When the Commission presided over by Sir Anthony St. Leger was sent to Ireland in 1537 by Henry VIII., Chief Justice Luttrell was one of those called upon to give evidence. He urged the desirability of restraining the defenders of the Pale in their exaction's, which he feared would soon reduce the Pale to the same condition as the rest of Ireland, where obedience to their Prince was only feigned; the necessity of subduing their nearest enemies, the Kavanaghs, O'Tooles and O'Byrnes; the danger of employing Irish soldiers; the advantage of a Lord Deputy of English birth but with long tenure of office; and, with reference to the inhabitants of the Pale, the benefit of making the English dress and language, as well as knowledge of the use of the bow, compulsory, of expelling Irish bards and musicians, of preventing the return of Englishmen to their own country, and finally, of printing the statutes, a work only now about to be accomplished. (1) Some letters from Chief Justice Luttrell written about this time are still extant; in one of these he refers to the capture of his relative Aylmer of Lyons, by the O'Tooles, and says that a ransom will have to be paid for his release; and in another he mentions the recent "ruffling time" with O'Neill, and says that rents will be slowly paid, as the farmers, whose services saved the Pale from utter destruction, are all lying out in camps. (1) In the latter letter the Chief Justice also mentions the dissolution of the religious houses, by which he profited. St. Mary's Abbey had owned from the time of its foundation the lands of Coolmine, in Clonsilla parish, and in addition had obtained in the fifteenth century lands in that parish which had belonged to the Priory of Little Malvern in England. (1) Of the latter lands Chief Justice Luttrell was tenant at the time of the dissolution, and doubtless then became owner. In addition he received grants of other monastic property, including some of the possessions of the Hospital of St. John the Baptist, to which he had acted as legal adviser. (1) The estate which he had inherited from his father was no inconsiderable one, and must have been of material assistance to him in professional advancement. Of this we catch a glimpse in the rare and much. prized goshawk sent by him as a present to Mr. Secretary Cromwell. (1) At the time of his death Chief Justice Luttrell was possessed of much personal as well as real property, and shortly after his death the Crown applied to his executors for the loan of what was then a very large amount of money. (1) He kept open house in the castle of Luttrellstown, and entailed on the future owners certain property for the maintenance of hospitality there, together with the use of a basin and ewer of silver, a silver gilt salt cellar and cover, a dozen spoons, and a chain of fine gold of twenty links - articles of no small value as is shown by their weight in ounces, which the Chief Justice sets forth in his will. (1) His death took place in 1554, and he was, doubtless, buried according to his directions, "honestly but without pomp," in Clonsilla Church, which he directed should be extended sufficiently to admit of a sepulchre being made for him on the north side of the new part. (1) He must have, at any rate outwardly, adopted the reformed faith, but his belief in its creed did not prevent his leaving money for the preferment in marriage of maidens of his kin in the hope of obtaining salvation for himself and his brother Simon. (1) Besides providing for the extension of Clonsilla Church he left money for the repair of the chancel and also for rebuilding the bridge at Mulhuddart. He left six sons and three daughters, one of whom was married to Luke Netterville of Dowth, who became one of the Justices of the Queen's Bench, and another to Thomas Dillon of Riverston. Another son, Richard, had predeceased him, leaving a daughter, for whom the Chief Justice made provision. (1) The Chief Justice was succeeded by his eldest son Christopher, who however survived him only a short time, and two years after the Chief Justice's death, in 1556, his second son, James, was in possession of Luttrellstown. (1) However, a manuscript I have on the Lutrel-Baron Lutrel lineage indicates that Thomas' oldest son, Richard was still alive and succeeded him. It further indicates that Richard Luttrell, Esquire, married Mary, daughter of Lord Dunsany, and widow of Thomas Plunket, Esquire, of Rathmore, and by her had two daughters and one son. The two daughters being Anne who died unmarried and Elizabeth who married Sir Christopher Nugent in 1601 and the son, being Thomas who married Eleanor Preston and succeeded him. (2) I must now wonder if this is the correct Richard to tie into this line especially since the marriage to Eleanor Preston is even in question. And by Ball believed to be Eleanor Cheevers instead. In that year the latter was Sheriff of the County Dublin, and in the expedition against the Scottish invaders was ordered to serve in person as well as to contribute four mounted archers His death, which took place in 1557, was, like that of his brother, premature. In his will he appears in a very pleasing light as a landlord, leaving legacies to those who had taken pains in the cultivation of the Luttrellstown lands, and mentioning that he had given leases in one case because the tenant had long served his family, and in another because the tenant's house and goods had been burned. (1) He married, the year before his death, a sister of one of his neighbours, Sir William Sarsfield, of Lucan - a lady remarkable for having no less than five husbands, of whom Luttrell was the second. By her he had a posthumous son, who only lived three years. (1) On the death of this infant Luttrellstown passed to the Chief Justice's third son, Simon Luttrell, from whom the subsequent owners were descended. Of his three younger brothers the eldest, Robert, settled at Tankardstown, in the County Meath; the second, John, who died in 1620 and was buried at Clonsilla, resided at a place called Killeigh; and the third, Walter, matriculated in 1572 at Oxford University. Notes for Simon Luttrell:

Simon Luttrell was only a youth at the time of his father's death, and six years after he succeeded to Luttrellstown, in 1566, he entered Lincoln's Inn as a student. He soon settled down to the duties of his position, and we find him acting as a Commissioner for the muster of the militia and sending two archers to the hosting against Shane O'Neill, and three to the hosting at Tara Hill. He was twice married, his first wife being a Miss Gaydon, and his second, who survived him, being Elizabeth, daughter of Richard Finglas. Besides his eldest son Thomas, he left several children, including a daughter, who married Nicholas FitzSimons of Baldoyle, and a son Nicholas, who died in 1610. In the previous year the latter made a will in which he mentioned that he had intended "to apply his study towards Oxford, then after to the Inns of Court," but that through want of means "he had altered his course" and intended to go into other countries "where he might attain the faculty of physic". Luttrellstown was then considered one of the principal castles in the County Dublin. It had been, no doubt, enlarged several times, and in his will Simon Luttrell, when directing that for some years the timber at Luttrellstown should not be cut, excepts such as should be required for the building, as well as the expense of the house. In his son's time we read of the great gallery furnished with cupboards and iron-bound chests in which the family papers were kept, and of the dining room with its tapestry hangings. There was then a mill in full working order on the lands, and at least one other house of considerable size besides the castle, within the parish of Clonsilla. This house was occupied by a first cousin of the Chief Justice's, Nicholas Luttrell, who appears from his will, made in 1568, to have been a man of good position, possessed of flocks and herds and much household goods, including plate, which he divided amongst a somewhat numerous family. The next owner of Luttrellstown, Thomas Luttrell, the eldest son of Simon Luttrell, was returned in 1613, with his relative Sir Christopher Plunkett of Dunsoghly, as Knight of the shire for the County Dublin, and took a prominent part in public affairs as one of the leaders of the Roman Catholic party in the House of Commons. ----- Ball, Francis Elrington, "A History of the County Dublin", Volume IV, Chapter 1. - i. ANNE⁷ LUTTRELL³⁴. She died date Unknown.
 - ii. ELIZABETH LUTTRELL. She died date Unknown. She married Christopher Nugent in 1601. He died date Unknown.
 - iii. ANNE LUTTRELL³⁵. She died date Unknown.
10. ANNE⁶ LUTTRELL (Thomas⁵, Richard⁴, Thomas³, Christopher², Robert¹) was born between 1530-1554 in Luttrellstown, Ireland. She died date Unknown. She married Thomas Dillon between 1546-1589. He was born in Riverston, County Meath, Ireland. He died date Unknown.

Notes for Thomas Dillon:

Thomas and Anne were the progenitors of the Dillon Baronets of Lismullen Co. Meath, Ireland. This Dillon family is being researched by: Clo Schwager, e-mail: cschwager@interbaun.com His father was Sir Bartholemew Dillon who died 1534 and his mother was Elizabeth, the only daughter of Thomas Barnwell or Barnewell of Irishtown. His grandfather was Sir James Dillon of Proudstown and his grandmother was either Honora, daughter of Sir John D'Arcy or Elizabeth, daughter of Bartholemew Bathe of Dullardstown. I have record of Anne and Thomas having only one son, Sir Robert of Riverston or Riverstown who died 27/07/1597. --Clo Schwager

Thomas Dillon and Anne Luttrell had the following child:

- i. ROBERT⁷ DILLON. He died on 27 Jul 1597.

Notes for Thomas Luttrell:

The next owner of Luttrellstown, Thomas Luttrell, the eldest son of Simon Luttrell, was returned in 1613, with his relative Sir Christopher Plunkett of Dunsoghly, as Knight of the shire for the County Dublin, and took a prominent part in public affairs as one of the leaders of the Roman Catholic party in the House of Commons. (1) He was one of those who in 1605 signed the petition from the Roman Catholic lords and gentlemen of the Pale, and his action at that time led to his confinement in Dublin Castle, and to a recommendation from the Lord Deputy that on account of his obstinacy in refusing to make any acknowledgement of wrong doings he should be sent into England. (1) He was foremost in the contest for the Speaker's Chair in 1613, and was one of those who went on the Roman Catholic deputation to James I. He had incurred the bitter enmity of Lord Deputy Chichester, and owing to the allegations which the Lord Deputy made against him was thrown into the Fleet Prison in London and kept a prisoner for eleven weeks. (1) The rapid changes of that time soon brought him into favour again. In 1627 he was returned as one of the men of fair estate in the English Pale who were fit to be placed in command of a troop of horse, and in 1634 he was again elected as one of the representative's of the County Dublin, and was present at the opening of Strafford's first parliament. (1) A few months after that event, in November 1634, he departed this mortal life, as a funeral entry informs us, and after a considerable interval necessary for the preparation of a stately funeral was interred in Clonsilla Church. (1) Thomas Luttrell died 12th Nov 1634, buried Clonsilla Church, [Ball, vol.4, 1906] references his will and funeral entry. Alison fl 1663. (2) Thomas Luttrell, a prominent Roman

Generation 7 (con't)

Catholic, was twice married, his first wife being in 1605 to Eleanor Preston [according to [Burkes Extinct], daughter of the Earl of Gormanston (2) (3), but [Ball, vol.4, 1906] says she was Eleanor Cheevers, daughter of John Cheevers] (2), by whom he had two sons, Simon and Stephen. Another source seems to confirm the Preston marriage. "Thomas, son of Richard Luttrell, had the audacity to make a comparison with the Earl of Thomond, the Chief of the O'Briens, in the Lord Deputy's presence. He married Eleanor Preston, daughter of Christopher, fourth Lord Viscount Gormanston, by Catherine, daughter of William Fitz-William and had a son, Simon." (4) Thomas Luttrell's second wife was Alison, daughter of Nicholas, twenty-first Baron of Howth, by whom he had also two sons, John and Thomas. (1) Besides sons he had a number of daughters, one of whom married William, third Viscount Fitzwilliam, of Merrion. Another married Walter Goulding. His provision for his second wife, who survived him, and for his children, indicates that the wealth of the Luttrells had not decreased in his hands. To his widow he left, in addition to her jointure, Diswellstown, in the parish of Castleknock, as a dower house; and besides much plate and household stuff he bequeathed to her twenty great cows with their calves, three hundred sheep, six rams of the English breed, and fifteen farm horses, as well as her riding horse and three horses to carry the servants in attendance upon her. (1) His eldest son, to whom he bequeathed his signet ring and gold chain, besides his furniture and the greater portion of his plate, succeeded under settlement to all his lands, but in consideration of the fatherly love and affection which he bore to his younger children he had laid up for them in the iron-bound chests in the gallery of Luttrellstown a great store of silver and gold, out of which they were to be paid substantial legacies in current English money. Notes for Alison St. Lawrence:

While staying at Howth Chichester referred to Nicholas as an old man who could not live long, and in less than two years his death took place. It was announced by Chichester on May 11, 1607, and his funeral is recorded in Ulster's office to have taken place at Howth 10 days later. His second wife survived him for a short time, until July 25, and proved his will. It had been made nine years before, on March 20, 1598, and shows that family affection was one of his attributes, and that his married life was happier than that of his father, or, as will be seen, than that of his son. He left, besides his heir, a younger son, Thomas, by his first wife, and three sons, Edward, Richard, and Almeric, by his second wife. He had also four daughters: by his first wife, Mary, who married William Eustace of Castlemartine; and by his second wife, Margaret, who married first Jenico, Viscount Gormanstown, and secondly Luke, Earl of Fingal; Elinor; and Alison, who married Thomas Luttrell of Luttrellstown. His successor, Christopher, had shown himself, as we have seen, before the close of Queen Elizabeth's reign a brave soldier, but had displayed the impetuosity and recklessness of character which are so often united with courage in the Irish race. ----- Ball, Francis Elrington, "A History of the County Dublin", Volume 5, Chapter 6 Online: <http://indigo.ie/~kfinlay/ball1-6/Ball5/ball5.6.htm>

Thomas Luttrell and Alison St. Lawrence had the following children:

Thomas Luttrell and Eleanor Preston (or Cheevers) had the following children:

- 14. ix. SIMON LUTTRELL was born in 1600 in Luttrelltown, Dublin, Ireland³⁸. He died in 1650 (Died in the Battle of Lindon, in the French army³⁹). He married Mary Preston, daughter of Jenico Preston and Margaret St. Lawrence in 1634 in Gormanston, Meath, Ireland. She was born about 1600 in Dublin, Ireland (Have also seen circa 1611 & 1629)⁴⁰. She died date Unknown.
 - x. STEPHEN LUTTRELL⁴¹. He died date Unknown.
 - xi. CATHERINE LUTTRELL. She died date Unknown. She married ROBERT HARTPOLE. He was born in Stirule, Queen's County, Ireland. He died date Unknown.
12. RICHARD⁷ LUTTRELL (Robert⁶, Thomas⁵, Richard⁴, Thomas³, Christopher², Robert¹)³⁰ was born about 1559 in Tankardstown, County Meath, Ireland³¹. He died in Oct 1633 in Tankardstown, County Meath, Ireland. He married Anne (Mary) Cusack, daughter of Robert Cusack about 1627 in Tankardstown, County Meath, Leinster Province, Ireland³². She was born about 1551 in Cussington, County Meath, Ireland. She died in 1633.

Notes for Richard Luttrell:

LDS Ancestral File submitted by Elizabeth Whitten, 720 Giles Drive NE, Huntsville, AL 35801. I have also seen Richard Luttrell's birth listed as circa 1602, in Tankardstown, Meath, Leinster Province, Ireland.

Notes for Anne (Mary) Cusack:

How can Anne have children as late as 1634 when she was born in 1551? She would have been 83 years old! Plus she would have been 77 years of age when her first child, Oliver, was born. I am positive I have a generation missing here.

Richard Luttrell and Anne (Mary) Cusack had the following children:

- 15. i. JAMES⁸ LUTTRELL^{42, 43, 44, 45, 46} was born about 1630 in Tankardstown, County Meath, Ireland^{43, 44}. He died in 1698 in St. Stephen's Parish, Northumberland County, Virginia, USA. He married SUSANNA TULLOS?. She was born on 06 Feb 1672 in Northumberland, Virginia, United States. She died before 1714 in St. Stephen's Parish, Northumberland County, Virginia, USA. He married SUSANNA TULLOS. She was born on 06 Feb 1672 in Meath, Ireland (or 6 Feb 1661). She died in 1714 in Northumberland County, Virginia.
- ii. JANE LUTTRELL⁴⁷ was born about 1632 in Cocklestown, Ireland. She died date Unknown. She married ROWLAND PLUNKETT. He was born in Cocklestown, Ireland. He died date Unknown.

Generation 7 (con't)

Notes for Jane Luttrell:

Per Lewis E. Roberts, Jr., 12014 NE 140th St., Kirkland, WA 98034 - 20 May 1990 letter: Walter Luttrell, 20, was "licensed to go beyond the seas" and on 2 May 1635 was transported from London to Barbados in the 'Alexander', Mr. Gilbert Grimes under Captain Burke. Of interest, there were also aboard Edward, 20; Thomas, 28; and Rowland 18 Plunkett. The name, Rowland Plunkett, has been documented as the husband of ...Jane Luttrell, daughter of Richard Luttrell and Anne Cusak.

- iii. MARY LUTTRELL⁴⁸ was born about 1634 in Tankardstown, County Meath, Ireland. She died date Unknown. She married GEORGE BATHE. He was born in Edickston, County Meath, Ireland. He died date Unknown.
- iv. OLIVER LUTTRELL⁴⁹ was born about 1628 in Tankardstown, (6 miles East of Navan), County Meath, Ireland. He died date Unknown.

Notes for Oliver Luttrell:

Forfeiting proprietor in 1654, Oliver was the father of five sons.

Generation 8

- 13. MARY⁸ LUTTRELL (Thomas⁷, Simon⁶, Thomas⁵, Richard⁴, Thomas³, Christopher², Robert¹) was born about 1620 in Ireland. She died date Unknown. She married WILLIAM FITZWILLIAM. He was born about 1610. He died in 1675.

Notes for William Fitzwilliam:

William Fitzwilliam, 3rd Viscount Fitzwilliam, born est c.1610, living in Dundrum Castle at the time of the outbreak of the Rebellion in Oct 1641, was driven out of it by the rebels, who themselves were driven out Jan 1642, his father and brother were also having to deal with rebels at this time, living in Dundrum Castle again as at 1646, mar Mary Luttrell [born est c. 1620, descendant of Edward I], the Fitzwilliams had left Dundrum Castle by 1653, and did not live there again, after the Restoration 1660 he lived at Simmonscourt Castle, died parish of St.Nicholas Within, Dublin (the area just in front of Christ Church, on the S side of it), 1675, age est c.65 yrs, Catholic, bur Donnybrook church,

William Fitzwilliam and Mary Luttrell had the following children:

- i. ELIZABETH⁹ FITZWILLIAM. She died date Unknown.
 - ii. THOMAS FITZWILLIAM was born about 1645. He died date Unknown.
- 14. SIMON⁸ LUTTRELL (Thomas⁷, Simon⁶, Thomas⁵, Richard⁴, Thomas³, Christopher², Robert¹) was born in 1600 in Luttrelltown, Dublin, Ireland³⁸. He died in 1650 (Died in the Battle of Lindon, in the French army³⁹). He married Mary Preston, daughter of Jenico Preston and Margaret St. Lawrence in 1634 in Gormanston, Meath, Ireland. She was born about 1600 in Dublin, Ireland (Have also seen circa 1611 & 1629)⁴⁰. She died date Unknown.

Notes for Simon Luttrell:

Troublous times fell to the lot of his eldest son, Simon Luttrell, who succeeded him, and who lived to see Ireland under the rule of the Parliament. He was thirty-four years of age when his father died, and had maintained the traditions of his family by his marriage to Mary, daughter of Jenico, fifth Viscount Gormanston, the widow of one of the Luttrell's near neighbours, Sir Thomas Allen of St. Wolstan's. (1) I have seen where his wife is listed as Janice but believe that the reading of Jenico is to be blamed. "He married Janice, daughter of the fifth Viscount Gormanston, a cousin, and had sons: Simon, Henry, Robert. The last named was the founder of the American family." (2) Whoever was the daughter of the fifth Viscount of Gormanston, that is whom he married. In 1643 he was returned to the dying Irish parliament at a by-election as member for the borough of Navan, and in the following year he waited upon Charles I. at Oxford. (1) Simon, son of Thomas and Eleanor (Preston) Luttrell, was made a gentleman of the Bedchamber to Charles the Second. (2) However, according to History of a Noted Irish Family, it states that it was Simon's son, Thomas, who was made a Gentleman of the Bedchamber not Thomas' son Simon. (3) Two years later, in 1646, he entertained the Marquis of Clanricarde at Luttrellstown, while the Marquis was carrying on the negotiations between Ormonde and General Preston, who had advanced as far as Lucan with the army of the Confederates. (1) His death took place about 1650, and he left several children, including his heir, Thomas Luttrell, but it was some time before the latter enjoyed the estates to which he had succeeded. Notes for Susanna Tullos?:

Susanna was James Luttrell's second wife. She immigrated to Maryland in 1667. It is believed, but not documented, that James Luttrell married Susanna Tullos, daughter of Claudious Tullos and Sarah Rodham, however, I checked the Tullos GenForum and their data on Susanna do not show her marrying a Luttrell. 16. THOMAS⁹ LUTTRELL (Simon⁸, Thomas⁷, Simon⁶, Thomas⁵, Richard⁴, Thomas³, Christopher², Robert¹) was born after 1634 in Ireland. He died in Aug 1674 in County Dublin, Ireland. He married BARBARA SEGRAVE. She was born after 1590 in Parish of Finglas, Ireland. She died date Unknown.

Notes for Thomas Luttrell:

Luttrellstown was too attractive a possession to escape the eyes of the new rulers of Ireland, and was quickly seized upon as a country residence, like Monkstown by Edmund Ludlow, by one of the authorities of the Parliament, Colonel John Hewson, who had been appointed Governor of Dublin. Hewson, once an honest shoemaker in Westminster, had served in the Parliament army from the beginning of the Civil War, and was one of the most unrelenting of the regicides. (4) He had come to Ireland with Cromwell, under whom he commanded a foot regiment, and was subsequently employed in the civil government of this country. He occupied a seat in the House of Commons, for some time as representative of Dublin, and was called by Cromwell, who conferred on him knighthood, to his House of Lords. (4) Hewson was at first given Luttrellstown on lease, but in 1659 he was granted it in fee farm, together with an immense extent of lands in the County Dublin, estimated to comprise nearly 7,000 acres. He spent much of that year in England, and at the time of the Restoration, when Hewson was obliged to fly to the Continent, Sir William Bury appears to have been in temporary occupation of Luttrellstown. (4) Sir William Bury, who belonged to a Lincolnshire family of that name, came over to Ireland as a member of Henry Cromwell's privy council, but continued to serve after the Restoration for a time, and is remarkable for having received the honour of knighthood both from Henry Cromwell and from the Lords

Generation 9 (con't)

Justices appointed by Charles II. (4) At that time Luttrellstown is described as a great mansion house with twelve chimneys, surrounded by offices, and having near it a malt house, a barn, and two stables. All the buildings were slated, and the exceptional value of £1,000 placed upon them shows their large extent. (4) Besides pleasure-grounds and ornamental plantations there were in the demesne a garden and no less than three orchards for the provision of the house, and two quarries for the supply of stone. There were also attached to the house a corn mill and a cloth mill, as well as a weir for catching salmon on the Liffey. (4) In the grange of Clonsilla there were a thatched house with offices, and another mill surrounded by an orchard and grove of ash trees, and upon the other lands belonging to the Luttrells a second thatched house of smaller size and about twelve cottages. (4) The only lands in the parish of Clonsilla which did not belong to the Luttrells were those of Coolmine, and Hartstown and Castaheany. The lands of Coolmine, which after the dissolution of St. Mary's Abbey, had been successively granted to Walter Peppard and the Earl of Thomond, had before 1641 come into the possession of Sir Edward Bolton, Chief Baron of the Exchequer, and on them were stated to be a thatched house with two stone chimneys, besides a barn, a stable, and several small cottages. (4) The lands of Hartstown and Castaheany belonged to the Barnewall family, and on them there was no building. Shortly before the Restoration the population of the parish was returned as forty-two persons of English birth and eighty-seven of Irish, the principal inhabitants besides Sir William Bury being Richard Broughall, who lived in the Grange, and James Russell, who lived on the lands of Coolmine. (4) During the Commonwealth the Luttrells resided in Dublin, and before the Restoration Thomas Luttrell married a lady belonging to a very old Dublin family, Barbara, daughter of Henry Sedgrave, of Cabra, by whom he had three sons, Simon, Henry, and Thomas. (4) About the time of the Restoration, Henry Segrave's death took place, and at Finglaswood, in the following October, his widow, Alice Noble, made her will. In it she bequeathed to her sons sacramental plate, some of which was in the hands of the priests, and farm stock at Finglaswood to her unmarried daughters, Alice and Elinor, houses called the Saracen's Head and the Horse-shoe, with a horse "to carry them on their journey and up and down"; and to her married daughters, Jane, wife of Benedict Arthur of Much Cabragh, and Barbara, wife of Thomas Luttrell of Luttrellstown, some of her mugs and other jewels. (5) Owing to the influence of the Duke of Ormonde, whose friendship the Luttrells enjoyed, Thomas Luttrell was one of those mentioned by name in the Act of Settlement as deserving of restoration to his estates, and in 1663 the Commissioners of Settlement directed that he should be placed in possession of them. (4) At the same time the widow of his grandfather, Thomas Luttrell, the Knight of the shire for the County Dublin, who stated that she had been a great sufferer by the Rebellion, and that she had maintained her husband's younger children with motherly care, proved herself an innocent Roman Catholic, as did also her son Thomas, the only surviving son of her husband, who mentioned that he had been partly educated in England, and who settled in the County Westmeath. (4) Some years later the owner of Luttrellstown took part in a remarkable duel, in which the principals escaped without hurt but the seconds sustained serious injury. Not long before his death, which took place in 1673, his son Simon was in the matrimonial market, and an agent of the Legge family, who was on terms of intimacy with the elder Thomas Luttrell, the uncle of the owner of Luttrellstown, tried to arrange a match between Simon Luttrell and a Miss Legge. (4) There seems to be some question as to who was the father of Henry and Simon who fought for King James II in the war with Prince William of Orange. Was it Simon or Thomas Luttrell? In an article published in a magazine in Ireland called THE SHAMROCK, it states, "When Simon Luttrell died in 1650, his son Thomas, who would have inherited Luttrellstown, was practically outlawed by Cromwell's government. On the death of the protector he availed himself of the Act of settlement, which was passed as soon as Charles II ascended the throne. The new King Charles II, did him the honor of making him a Gentleman of the Bedchamber, in addition to which he enjoyed the estate of Luttrellstown to the end of his days. Thomas Luttrell died in 1674, leaving four sons, the two eldest of whom, Simon and Henry Luttrell, were destined to have remarkable careers. At an early age these two young men served in the French army, and Simon Luttrell, the elder, attained the rank of Colonel." (1) This seems to also be confirmed in Notable Southern Families, however, it gives one conflicting statement. "He [Thomas] was succeeded by his son, Simon Luttrell, who was a gallant officer under King James II, and was a member of the Irish Parliament of 1698 from County Dublin and was appointed Military Governor of the City of Dublin. He was succeeded by his brother, Henry Luttrell, who was also a gallant soldier and became a Major General." (3) If Simon did indeed die in 1693 in the Battle of Lindon, (2) then there is no way that he could have been a member of Parliament in 1698. (3) But was this the same Simon who died in 1693? We know for sure that he had died by June 1699

Generation 9 (con't)

when his brother, Henry, wrote to the Lord Lieutenant regarding his brother's widow, Catherine (Newcomen) Luttrell's, return to Ireland.(1) If this is indeed the same Simon, then the date of 1698 must be incorrect. This would seem true according to the article in the Shamrock Magazine. "In the parliament of 1689 Simon Luttrell sat as one of the members for the County of Dublin, and Henry Luttrell sat as member for the County of Carlow."(1) It could be quite easy for a person to transpose the date from 1689 to 1698, therefore, we can with some confidence assume that yes, this is the same Simon. With this determined, we know then that we are not talking about two separate families. So then where does the conflict of Simon being the father come into place? In the book, The History of West Virginia and It's People, it indicates, "Simon, son of Thomas and Eleanor (Preston) Luttrell, was made a gentleman of the Bedchamber to Charles the Second. He married Janice, daughter of the fifth Viscount Gormanston, a cousin, and had sons: Simon, Henry, Robert. The last named was the founder of the American family. Simon and Henry, sons of Simon Luttrell, were both prominent in the war between James the Second and the Prince of Orange, Simon at that time being the governor of the city of Dublin."(2) However, the wife's name of Janice has been questioned as Mary instead with her father being Jenico, fifth Viscount Gormanston. (4) So we find that Simon and Henry definitely descend from Simon, the son of Thomas and Eleanor (Preston) Luttrell. The question remaining is whether they are the children of Simon or the grandchildren of Simon through his son Thomas. ----- SOURCES: (1) History of a Noted Irish Family, The Shamrock Magazine, Pages 811 and 812, 1895, Ireland which was mailed to Elston Luttrell on April 1895 by William Luttrell of Cappakeel, New Inn, Monasterevan, Queens County, Ireland. Thomas Luttrell and Barbara Segrave had the following children:

- i. SIMON⁷⁰ LUTTRELL⁶⁴ was born before 1654 in Ireland. He died in 1693 in the Battle of Lindon, in the French army. He married Catherine Newcomen in Aug 1672. She was born in Ireland. She died date Unknown.

Notes for Simon Luttrell:

Colonel Simon Luttrell was a man of handsome stature at the time he entered into possession of his ancestral estates, and although a match with Miss Legge had not taken place he had found a wife in Catherine, daughter of Sir Thomas Newcomen of Sutton. Her mother was a sister of Richard Talbot, Earl of Tyrconnel (A tombstone in Clonsilla Churchyard bears the following inscription: - "Here Lyeth ye Body of Frances Lady Newcomen, Wife to Sr. Thomas Newcomen of Sutton & Daughter to Sir William Talbot of Cartown Barronet, who deceased Feb. ye 17 1687."), but Miss Newcomen had been brought up as a Protestant, and the marriage was celebrated first by a clergyman of the Established Church, although subsequently by the Roman Catholic Archbishop of Dublin. (3) Colonel Simon Luttrell appears for many years to have suffered from ill health. In a letter written by him in London on Christmas Eve, 1688, to the young Duke of Ormonde, he states that he had been sick for ten years, and had symptoms of paralysis. (3) He had not been in Ireland for eighteen months, and on the strength of the friendship shown his father by the Duke's father and grandfather, begged the Duke to obtain license for him to go abroad, where he said he desired to be out of the way until things should come to a settlement, and where, if his health permitted, he would seek military employment. (3) Not many months later he threw in his lot with James II., and in September, 1689, we find him in Dublin, of which he had been appointed Governor, busily preparing the city against the danger of invasion, and "chaining up the streets and making breastworks in order to secure that naked place." (3) In 1688-1692 the following Warrens of the Pale, were in King James's Irish Army:

Generation 9 (con't)

Thomas Warren, of Warrenstown, Co. Meath, Captain; and Michael Warren, (*) of Warrenstown, Co. Meath (d. 1712), Ensign in his Company in the King's Regiment of Infantry, which, together with the Regiments of Fitz-James, Lord Galway, Col. John Bourke, Sir Maurice Eustace, Col. Ramsey, Col. John Hamilton, Lord Gilmoy, Lord Abercorn, James Preston, Viscount Gormanstown, Colonel Dominick Sheldon, Col. Charles Cavenagh, and Col. Simon Luttrell, constituted the besieging forces at Derry and Limerick, at the Boyne, and on the fields of Aughrim and Cavan. (4) He raised a regiment of dragoons for James, and was appointed by the latter Lord Lieutenant of the County Dublin, which he represented in James' parliament, as well as a privy councillor. He appears to have gone to France before the battle of the Boyne, but returned to Ireland for a short time during the siege of Limerick. He died abroad in 1698. (3) However another source indicates he died in 1693 killed at the battle of Landen commanding an Irish regiment in foreign service. (1) His widow survived him until 1704, and the year before her death married as his second wife the father of the eccentric Thomas Armory, the author of the "Life of John Bunclie, Esq." (3) To Colonel Simon Luttrell's confiscated estates and possessions his brother, Colonel Henry Luttrell, whose life, both public and private, brought his family into great disrepute, succeeded since Simon had no issue. (3) Simon and Henry, sons of Simon Luttrell, were both prominent in the war between James the Second and the Prince of Orange, Simon at that time being the governor of the city of Dublin. At the close of the war Simon chose to go to France with other Irish soldiers, and afterwards commanded an Irish regiment in foreign service. 20. ii. ROBERT LUTTRELL was born between 1645-1655 in Luttrelltown, Dublin, Ireland. He died date Unknown in Prince William County, Virginia (most probably). He married Anne Preston, daughter of Nicholas Preston about 1680 in Dublin, Ireland (Have also seen 1667). She was born about 1659 in Dublin, Ireland (Have also seen After 1620). She died date Unknown.
21. iii. HENRY LUTTRELL⁶⁵ was born in 1654⁶⁶. He died on 02 Nov 1717 in Dublin, Ireland (Have also seen October 22, 1717) (Assassinated in the City of Dublin, Ireland⁶⁷). He married Elizabeth Jones in Oct 1704 in Ireland. She was born about 1665 in Halkin, County Flint, Ireland. She died in 1723.
- iv. THOMAS LUTTRELL was born in Luttrellstown, Ireland. He died in 1688 (Assassinated for high treason in 1688).
17. JAMES⁹ LUTTRELL (James⁸, Richard⁷, Robert⁶, Thomas⁵, Richard⁴, Thomas³, Christopher², Robert¹)⁵⁴ was born about 1682 in St. Stephen's Parish, Northumberland County, Virginia, USA. He died date Unknown in St. Stephen's Parish, Northumberland County, Virginia, USA⁵⁵. He married SUSANNA. She died after 1748.

James Luttrell and Susanna had the following children:

22. i. JAMES¹⁰ LUTTRELL⁶⁸ was born on 10 Aug 1728 in North Farnham Parish, Richmond County, Virginia, USA⁶⁹. He died between 27 Apr 1780-01 Oct 1781 in Richmond County, Virginia (date of Will)⁷⁰. He married Frances about 1753. She died date Unknown.
23. ii. RICHARD LUTTRELL⁷¹ was born about 1730 in North Farnham Parish, Richmond County, Virginia, USA^{72, 73, 74}. He died about 1800 in Amherst County, Virginia⁷². He married Sarah Yeatman, daughter of John Yeatman and Hannah Lewis on 21 Dec 1752 in Richmond County, Virginia^{72, 75, 76, 77}. She was born on 28 Mar 1727⁷². She died date Unknown.

18. RICHARD⁹ LUTTRELL SR. (James⁸, Richard⁷, Robert⁶, Thomas⁵, Richard⁴, Thomas³, Christopher², Robert¹)^{56, 57, 58, 59} was born about 1687 in St. Stephen's Parish, Northumberland County, Virginia (or 1685 in Westmoreland County, Virginia which was created in 1653 from Northumberland Co), USA. He died on 25 May 1766 in Fauquier County, Virginia, USA (Per Last Will & Testament, probated May 26, 1766, will dated 27 Sep 1764.⁶⁰). He married Mary Dermont, daughter of Michael Dermont and Mary between 1717-1723 in possibly Stafford County, Virginia, USA. She was born before 1700 in Essex County, Virginia, USA. She died after 1764 in (Listed in husband's 1764 Will), Westmoreland County, Virginia, USA.

Notes for Richard Luttrell Sr.:

IMPORTANT NOTE: There is NO DOCUMENTED PROOF to show that Esquire Richard Luttrell, Sr. was fathered by James, b. about 1631 in Tankardstown, Ireland nor is there any proof that Robert, b. Bet. 1645 - 1655 in Luttrellstown, Dublin, Ireland is his father (the other assumption). What I do know is that I have a Richard Luttrell born 1685 in Westmoreland County, Virginia, with another birth date of 1687 in St. Stephen's Parish, Northumberland, Virginia. Is there actually two Richard Luttrell's here? I believe so. Since James is listed as dying in Northumberland, VA, it seems more likely that he is the father but he would have been quite old when Richard as born (age 56). I'd be more likely to suspect that I've got a generation missing there.

But in defense of Robert, his son, Simon, died in Westmoreland County, VA which is the other county I'm working with. Robert would also have been younger and sound more likely.

The most common "assumption" is that Richard is the son of James and therefore I've decided to link him as such only until I can find proof to show it differently.

Generation 9 (con't)

By deed of 26 November 1760, recorded in Fauquire County, Virginia, Richard Luttrell acquired from George Crump a track of 240 acres of land on a branch of Negro Run, which was granted to John Crump by the Proprietors of the Northern Neck on the 29 July 1745. By deed of 26 November 1760, Richard Luttrell, Sr., of Fauquire County, conveyed to his son, Samuel Luttrell, 70 acres of the 350 acres acquired from the Proprietors, as above shown.

Stafford County was erected in 1664 from Westmoreland; King George was taken from Richmond County in April, 1721; Prince William, embracing parts of Stafford and King George, was made a county in March 1731; and Fauquire County was erected from Prince William on 1 May 1759. Among the tax payers of Elk Run and vicinity in 1751, as shown in Bulletin #3, Page 239, of the Fauquier Historical Society, appears the names of Richard Luttrell, Richard Luttrell, Jr., and William Luttrell. "This William Luttrell is no doubt the son of John and grandson of Old Simon of Westmoreland County. Richard Sr., and Simon were brothers, sons of Robert Luttrell." [Haven't found proof of this]

By a deed of November 26, 1760, recorded in Fauquier County, Virginia, Richard Luttrell acquired from George Crump a track of 240 acres of land on a branch of Negro Run, which was granted to John Crump by the proprietors of the Northern Neck on July 29, 1745. By a deed of November 26, 1760, Richard Luttrell, Sr., of Fauquier County conveyed to his son, Samuel Luttrell, 70 acres of the 240 acres acquired from the Proprietors.

In his will recorded in Fauquier County, on September 10, 1764, Richard lists his eleven children: James; Michael; Samuel; John; Richard; Anstiss; Mary; Susanna; Robert; Catherine; Sarah. The dates of their births are not known but his youngest daughter Sarah must have been close to 18 years old for a specific young bay mare to be held for her.

Notes for Mary Dermont:

The Dearmont/Luttrell connection is also being researched by: Sceletta (Murphey) Shell <genquestlady@aol.com>; Dan Bell <dbell@badsector.com>; Michelle Dillon <mdillon@cannet.com> and Julie Schmees <4xj@comcast.net>. The 1730 Will of Michael Dermont from the Library of Virginia, Burned Record Counties Collection, dated 3 Feb 1730, probated 18 Apr 1733 names Richard Luttrell's children leaving one to believe that they are related in some way. "...Catherine and her heirs forever and in case she dies without heirs that then the said land be equally divided between Richard Luttrells children namely Catherine, James, Richard and Michael Litterals. Item I give and bequeath unto my daughter Catherine a certain piece of land from the White Oake Cabbin branch to the Long Branch going up to Tobias Woods on the east side of Town Run to her and her heirs forever and in default of such heirs to fall to my son Michael and if he dies without heirs that then said land to fall to the aforesaid Catharine, James, Richard and Michael Littrell..." I have seen Dermont/Dearmond/Dorment and Lawrence as possible last names of Richard's wife. All we seem to know for sure is that in his will he lists his wife as Mary.

Richard Luttrell Sr. and Mary Dermont had the following children:

24. i. MICHAEL¹⁰ LUTTRELL SR.^{78, 79, 80, 81, 82, 83} was born in 1720 in Fauquier County, Virginia, USA. He died between 16 Mar-24 Aug 1778 in Fauquier County, Virginia, USA⁸³ ((Will # 11869 dated March 16, 1778, Fauquier Will Book, Page 351. Probated August 24, 1778.; Will # 11869 dated March 16, 1778, Fauquier Will Book, Page 351. Probated August 24, 1778.)). He married Dinah Shumate? between 1738-1741 in Fauquier County, Virginia, USA ((1st known child is born in 1741)). She was born about 1721 in Fauquier County, Virginia, USA. She died after 1788 in Fauquier County, Virginia, USA ((Listed on her husband's Will)).

Generation 9 (con't)

- ii. JAMES LUTTRELL^{84, 85} was born in 1726 in Fauquier County, Virginia, USA ((Listed in Michael Dermont's Will of dated 3 Feb 1730)). He died between 1743-1816 in Knox County, Tennessee. He married MARY. She died date Unknown. He married MARY. She died date Unknown.

Notes for James Luttrell:

James Luttrell shows up on the 1770 and 1777 Fauquier County, Virginia Rent Rolls. By a deed of December 19, 1766, recorded in Fauquier County, Virginia, John Luttrell conveyed unto his brother James Luttrell, a parcel of land formerly belonging to Richard Luttrell, deceased; and, thereafter, James Luttrell and Mary, his wife, "of Fauquire County, Virginia," by deed of November 19, 1782, conveyed unto Charles Waller 147 acres of land, "being part of a larger tract formerly belonging to Richard Luttrell, Sr.," which he, in his life time, gave by deeds of gift to his sons James Luttrell and John Luttrell, which deeds are of record in Prince William County, and also part of a larger tract belonging to Michael Luttrell, deceased, which he conveyed unto James Luttrell by deed of December 22, 1766. [Source: Allied Families of Read, Corbin, Luttrell, Bywaters. Compiled by A.M. Prichard, Staunton, Virginia, 1980, Page 202] James was also a veteran of the Revolutionary War and received a pension (#6585) for his service.

- iii. CATHERINE LUTTRELL^{86, 87} was born before 1730 in Fauquier County, Virginia, USA (1730 Will of Michael Dermont from the Library of Virginia, Burned Record Counties Collection, dated 3 Feb 1730, probated 18 Apr 1733. Catherine is listed as a child of Richard Luttrell thus showing she was born prior to 1730 when the Will was written.). She died date Unknown in Fauquier County, Virginia, USA. She married RICHARDCHAMP CORAM. He died date Unknown in Fauquier County, Virginia, USA.

Notes for Catherine Luttrell:

Catherine Luttrell/Lutterell about 1741. Champe died in 1787 in Fauquier Co. Virginia. Descendants moved to Grainger, Knox County, Tennessee. Per Julie Schmees <4xj@comcast.net> "I did just run across information in John Alcock's book Fauquier Families 1759-1799, pg 76 which states Catherine Coram (Richard's Luttrell's daughter) She, widow of Champ, and Richard & Sarah Coram mortgage, then sell William Allason 227 a. where they live; in fork of Town and Middle Runs; bequeathed by PW will of Michael Dermont to Catherine Luttrell, now Coram; wit incl Champ and William Coram. The above would indicate that Catherine Luttrell Coram is relation to Michael Dermont (granddaughter)?"

25. iv. SAMUEL LUTTRELL^{88, 89, 90} was born between 1730-1745 in Fauquier County, Virginia, USA. He died between 1810-1819 in Franklin County, Virginia, USA⁹¹. She was born about 1665 in Halkin, County Flint, Ireland. She died in 1723.

Notes for Henry Luttrell:

Colonel Simon Luttrell's confiscated estates and possessions went to his brother, Colonel Henry Luttrell, whose life, both public and private, brought his family into great disrepute. Colonel Henry Luttrell appears to have passed his early life in France, where in 1684 we find him taking part in a quarrel, resulting in no less than three duels, in which he was wounded, and another of the combatants, Lord Purbecke, was killed. (1) When James II appealed to the Irish people to support his cause against the Prince of Orange, Simon and Henry Luttrell came back from France with the avowed object of fighting on the Jacobite side. They raised between them five squadrons of cavalry, and each of them obtained command of a regiment in the royal service. In the parliament of 1689 Simon Luttrell sat as one of the members for the County of Dublin, and Henry Luttrell sat as member for the County of Carlow. Macaylay says; of Henry Luttrell that he "brought back to Ireland a sharpened intellect and polished manners, a flattering tongue, some skill in war, and much more skill in intrigue." It certainly appears evident, from his subsequent conduct, that the younger of these two brothers was a thoroughly unscrupulous man. (3)

At first his efforts for James II., in whose army he commanded a troop of horses, are said to have been whole hearted, but with that monarch's falling fortunes his skill in intrigue began to assert itself. At Aughrim his defection is said to have contributed to the defeat of James' army, and during the siege of Limerick he was discovered in correspondence with the besiegers, and is said to have been condemned to be shot. (1)

Generation 10 (con't)

He was discovered in an attempt to betray his fellow countrymen to the Williamite General, and to his treachery we may fairly attribute some of the disasters that befell the Irish troops, in the closing of the campaign. He was tried on a charge of treasonable conspiracy and convicted, but he escaped the punishment due to his crime. (3)

On the surrender of Limerick he went over openly to King William, and was active in inducing Irish soldiers to join the winning side or to enlist in foreign service. Besides his ancestral estates a pension is said to have been given him. (1) From the time of the treaty of Limerick all communication between the two brothers, Simon and Henry appeared to have ceased. (3)

Simon Luttrell left Ireland before the treaty of Limerick was signed; and we find his name mentioned as "one of the officers belonging to the regiments of the Irish army beyond the seas," who were offered pardon and the restoration of their estates on condition of taking the oath of allegiance and returning to Ireland "within the space of eight months." He did not think fit to avail himself of this stipulation in the treaty, rightly suspecting, no doubt, that it would not be honorably adhered to; and his brother Henry easily induced Ginkell, the Williamite commander, to put him in possession of the mansion and demesne of Luttrellstown at the expiration of the period affixed in the articles for the exile's return. To show his loyalty, Henry Luttrell raised a splendid regiment of horses, which he enrolled in the service of King William. After this, he was frequently employed as a Government agent. (3) When the war of the Spanish succession broke out, Henry was, through the influence of William III, appointed the major-general in the Dutch army in 1702, with a regiment, and nominated to command on a military enterprise of importance, but at the death of King William he retired to his seat at Luttrellstown, Ireland where he chiefly resided, until his death. (2)

While in Luttrellstown, he did not behave well with regard to the jointure to which his brother's widow was entitled. A letter from him written in 1699 to a Minister of State is still extant, in which, after mentioning that his sister-in-law had come to England, he begs that steps may be taken to prevent her going into Ireland, and that in case she should give him trouble by her attorney he may be permitted to put in force the Act of Attainder against her. (1)

Henry Luttrell cherished great feelings of malignant animosity against his brother's widow, and in the month of June, 1699 he wrote to the Lord Lieutenant to warn the government that she had returned to Ireland, by means of an old pass given to her by Lord Romney. He begged of the viceroy that he might have permission "to make use of the outlawry against her, in case she should give him trouble by an attorney." He was evidently afraid that she would attempt to bring a suit for the recovery of Luttrellstown. Henry added; "she is a very intriguing woman and it was thought when she went for (sic) France that she went on a very intriguing message. I had my Lord Romney repent mightily giving her a pass, and I need not tell you lordship that there will be nothing left undone by the Jacobites here to perplex me in this affair." Simon Luttrell, had married Catherine Newcemen in August 1672, her father was Sir Thomas Newcemen. (3)

Subsequently she was enabled to take legal proceedings against him, and in a statement of her case by her second husband, Thomas Amory, there were allegations of conduct on the part of her brother-in-law not at all to his credit. (1) During this time, Colonel Henry Luttrell seems still to have professed to be a Roman Catholic, and a quarrel between him and Lady Eustace, a sister of Colonel Simon Luttrell's wife, is said, by Archbishop King writing in 1699, to have created two very furious parties amongst Roman Catholics. (1) Intrigue on his part was not confined to public affairs, and whether the assassin to whom his death was due was actuated by political or private motives is open to doubt, although the Irish parliament and the publisher of an elegy on his death attributed his murder to the former. (1)

On October 22, 1717, Henry Luttrell was fired at and mortally wounded while he was sitting in a hackney chair in which he was returning from Lucas' coffee house on Cork Hill to his town residence on Stafford Street, between the hours of 10 and 11 o'clock at night. A reward of 300 pounds, afterward increased to 1,000 pounds, was offered by the government for the arrest and conviction of his murderer. Although two persons were arrested, the assassin was never found. (1) (3)

We see a different death date given in Life In Old Dublin by James Collins, however, the bulk of the story remains the same. The fate of Luttrell, the traitor, is thus recorded in O'Callaghan's "History of the Irish Brigades":- "After King William's decease Henry Luttrell retired to Luttrellstown, and mostly resided there till November 2nd, 1717, when, being waylaid between 10 and 11 o'clock at night in Dublin, as he was proceeding from Lucas's Coffee House, situated where the City Hall now stands, to his town house in Stafford Street, he was fired at and mortally wounded in his sedan chair. He lingered until next day, and then died, in the 63rd year of his age. (5)

Two days after, a proclamation was issued by the Duke of Bedford, Lord Lieutenant, stating that on Tuesday, etc., 'between the hours of 10 and 11 o'clock at night, a tall man, with long, lank hair, in a short, light-coloured coat, did, in Stafford Street, in the City of Dublin, in a most barbarous and inhuman manner, murder and assassinate Colonel Henry Luttrell as he was going in a hackney chair from a coffee house on Cork Hill to his own house in Stafford Street aforesaid, by firing a pistol or gun laden with ball into the said chair, and thereby so dangerously wounding the said Henry Luttrell that he has since died of his said wounds; and that the said assassin found means of escape, and the authors and contrivers of such an horrid murder were still undiscovered ... and we hereby give the necessary orders for the payment of the sum of £300 to such person or persons as shall discover, take, or apprehend the person who fired the said pistol.' (5)

This reward not succeeding, as a further inducement the then Irish House of Commons authorised a further reward of £1,000 for the capture of the person who shot Luttrell. Some arrests on suspicion took place, but nothing of more consequence was the result of the efforts of the authorities. The memory of Colonel Henry Luttrell was held up after his death to national hatred in the following epigram, cited by Hardiman, and unsurpassed for comprehensive bitterness. (5)

"If HEAV'N be pleased when mortals cease to sin, And HELL be pleased when villains enter in, If EARTH be pleas'd when it entombs a knave, ALL must be pleased - now Luttrell's in his grave."

"Towards the end of the 17th century it is said that Henry Luttrell's tomb, near Luttrellstown, was broken open at night by some of the peasantry of the neighbourhood, and his skull taken out and smashed with a pickaxe by a labourer named Carty, who was afterwards hanged for being concerned in the plan to cut off Lord Carhampton in 1797, on his way to Luttrellstown, as a character not less detested living than his grandfather dead." (5)

Colonel Henry Luttrell had married late in life a Welsh lady, Elizabeth, daughter of Charles Jones, of Halkin, in Flintshire, and granddaughter of Sir Simon Clarke, a friend of Dugdale the historian. He left two sons, Robert and Simon. (1)

In a will made on his deathbed, for he survived the fatal shot a few hours, he committed the care of his sons to his widow and Lord Cadogan, Lord Gowran, and Sir William Strickland, and mentions an unmarried sister, a married sister Mrs. Slingsby (A stone at the east end of Clonsilla Church bears this inscription -"I.H.S. This Stone & Burial Place belong to Mr. Simon Slingsby of the City of Dublin Merchant & his Posterity. Here lieth the Body of the above Simon Slingsby who departed this life the 29 of December 1747 aged 57. Here also lieth the Body of his Mother Alice Slingsby alias Finglas who departed this life December the 19th 1717 aged 70. Here also lieth the Body of his Father Francis Slingsby Esq. who departed this life February the 9th 1719 aged 71." Colonel Henry Luttrell mentions in his will, besides his sister Mrs. Slingsby (who apparently had been previously married to a Mr. Finglas, and only survived her brother two mouths), his nephew Simon Slingsby.), and a niece Mrs. Delamar. He appears to have died a Protestant, and his sons were educated in England in that faith. The eldest, Robert, went to travel abroad in 1727, and owing to his premature death a short time afterwards, the second, Simon, succeeded to the estates of the Luttrell family. (1)

The hatred felt towards them in Ireland is shown by legends which linger round a place at Luttrellstown called the Devil's Mill. According to some of these the name commemorates a mill which was erected by Satanic agency for Colonel Henry Luttrell, who invoked the aid of Satan, but by outwitting him was successful in escaping with his life; while another legend attributes the name to the opposition offered by Satan to the erection of a mill in the place. (1)

In 1790, a nephew of the unhappy man, whose life had thus paid the forfeit of his treachery, was tried for willful perjury against two persons whom the enterprising youth had falsely accused of the murder. For this offense the young man was condemned in the pillory, to have his ears cut off and to be imprisoned for eight months. The real murder was, as it has been suggested, some "enthusiast who sought to avenge the wrongs of his country in the blood of a traitor." (3)

From Colonel Henry Luttrell's time a cloud of evil tradition and unpopularity has hung over the Luttrells, and probably the frailties of no family have ever been more fully chronicled than those of the Luttrells in the eighteenth century. (1)

This arose not only from the detestation in which Colonel Henry Luttrell's memory was held by the Jacobites, but also from the famous contest between his grandson and Wilkes for the representation of Middlesex, which brought the family under the lash of the terrible author of the Letters of Junius. (1)

The part taken by Colonel Henry Luttrell's grandson, the second Lord Carhampton, in suppressing the rebellion of 1798, occasioned a fresh outbreak of hostility against the family, and it is said that at that time the grave of Colonel Henry Luttrell in Clonsilla Churchyard was opened and his skull smashed with a pickaxe. (1) Henry Luttrell, whose tragic fate was so strongly suggestive, left two sons, Robert and Simon Luttrell, one of whom subsequently became Lord Carhampton. The infamous career of Henry Lewis, second Lord Carhampton, has made the subject of an interesting sketch in Mr. Fitzpatrick's "Ireland Before the Union." The only thing which need be mentioned here is that, exactly eighty years after Henry Luttrell's assassination, Lord Carhampton was also murdered under somewhat similar circumstances. (3)

His son, Simon Luttrell, second, married Maria, daughter of Sir Nicholas Lawes, and was raised to the Irish Peerage first as Baron Irnham, later as Viscount Carhamon, later still as Earl of Carhamon or Carhampton. He named his son, Henry Lawes Luttrell, who is accepted as the greatest Luttrell in Britain's history. He left no children, however, to succeed to the title which went therefore to his brother, John Luttrell. A sister of these two Luttrells was Anne Luttrell, who married the Duke of Cumberland, brother to King George III. John Luttrell, third Earl of Carhampton, died in 1829, without children, and the title became extinct. (4) -----

She was born on 28 Mar 1727⁷². She died date Unknown.

Notes for Richard Luttrell:

Richard Luttrell resided in Amherst County Virginia by 1764. I think I have this Richard Luttrell and children mixed up with the Richard Luttrell who married Sarah Churchwell in Westmoreland County, Virginia. I have the same names listed for both family's children.

Richard Luttrell and Sarah Yeatman had the following children:

Generation 10 (con't)

- i. ANN¹¹ LUTTRELL. She died date Unknown.
- ii. JOHN LUTTRELL. He died date Unknown.
- iii. ELIZABETH LUTTRELL. She died date Unknown.
- iv. JAMES C. LUTTRELL. He died date Unknown.

Notes for James C. Luttrell:

James C. Luttrell is shown on the 1815 Knox County, Tennessee Petition List.

- v. HANNAH LUTTRELL. She died date Unknown.
- vi. RICHARD LUTTRELL. He died date Unknown.
- vii. WILLIAM LUTTRELL. He died date Unknown.
- viii. MARY LUTTRELL. She died date Unknown.
- ix. SUSANNAH LUTTRELL. She died date Unknown.

24. MICHAEL¹⁰ LUTTRELL SR. (Richard⁹ Sr., James⁸, Richard⁷, Robert⁶, Thomas⁵, Richard⁴, Thomas³, Christopher², Robert¹)^{78, 79, 80, 81, 82, 83} was born in 1720 in Fauquier County, Virginia, USA. He died between 16 Mar-24 Aug 1778 in Fauquier County, Virginia, USA⁸³ ((Will # 11869 dated March 16, 1778, Fauquier Will Book, Page 351. Probated August 24, 1778.;Will # 11869 dated March 16, 1778, Fauquier Will Book, Page 351. Probated August 24, 1778.)). He married Dinah Shumate? between 1738-1741 in Fauquier County, Virginia, USA ((1st known child is born in 1741)). She was born about 1721 in Fauquier County, Virginia, USA. She died after 1788 in Fauquier County, Virginia, USA ((Listed on her husband's Will)).

Notes for Michael Luttrell Sr.:

This line of Michael Luttrell is being researched by Beverly Overman, Gurley, Alabama 35748, e-mail: mbover@nehp.ne It is not known where Michael Luttrell, Sr. is buried. What we do know is that he served in the American Revolutionary War (Pension # 532021), and that he owned land in Fauquier County, Virginia. [See Deed listings below]. He also shows up on the 1770 Fauquier County Rent Rolls. [Circuit Court of Franklin County, Va., Deed Book 5, Page 540]. Land that Michael owned went to his brother, James, of Fauquier County, Virginia. [Source: Deed Book 2, Page 589, December 22, 1766.]

Notes for Dinah Shumate?:

It is believed that Michael's wife is Dinah Shumate, the daughter of Daniel Shumate, however, I have found no proof to document this. I did find a Power of Attorney for Samuel Luttrell and wife Dinah requesting Samuel Shumate to represent them regarding Daniel Shumate's estate.

Michael Luttrell Sr. and Dinah Shumate? had the following children:

- i. MARY¹⁷ LUTTRELL¹⁴¹ was born in 1741 in Fauquier County, Virginia, USA. She died date Unknown. She married Jezadoh Roberts on 22 Oct 1818 in (This can't be right - she was 77 when she married!)¹⁴². He died date Unknown.
39. ii. LYDIA LUTTRELL^{143, 144} was born in 1742 in Fauquier County, Virginia, USA. She died in 1810 in Fauquier County, Virginia, USA. She married ROBERT LUTTRELL. He was born in 1738 in Fauquier County, Virginia, USA. He died in 1812 in Prince William County, Virginia.
- iii. FRANKLIN LUTTRELL^{145, 146} was born in 1743 in Fauquier County, Virginia, USA. She died date Unknown. She married MR. MCKINSEY. He died date Unknown.

He died on 19 Dec 1844 in luka, Marion County, Illinois, USA^{166, 167, 174}. He married Susanna Ann Shelton, daughter of James Shelton and Susanna Vardiman? before 1780 in Virginia, USA (Abstract of Graves of Revolutionary Patriots, Vol.3., Notes from page 227: Michael was about thirty years old and reported to have married a Miss Shelton.). She was born in 1760 in Virginia, USA¹⁷⁵. She died between 1820-1830 in Marion County, Illinois¹⁷⁶.
- vi. DINAH LUTTRELL¹⁷⁷ was born about 1755 in Fauquier County, Virginia, USA. She died date Unknown. She married George Peak on 20 Oct 1785 in Henry County, Virginia. He died date Unknown.
42. vii. SARAH (SALLY) LUTTRELL¹⁷⁸ was born about 1759 in Fauquier County, Virginia, USA. She died in 1786 in Fauquier County, Virginia, USA. She married John Combs Jr., son of John Combs Sr. in 1773 in Fauquier County, Virginia, USA. He was born in 1745 in Cherry Valley, Stafford County, Virginia, USA. He died on 06 Oct 1780 in Fauquier County, Virginia, USA.
43. viii. RICHARD C. LUTTRELL^{179, 180} was born before 1760 in Fauquier County, Virginia, USA¹⁷⁹. He died on 21 Aug 1815 in Adair County, Kentucky, USA¹⁸¹. He married (1) DEBRA FRANCES HEFLIN, daughter of William Martin Heflin and Margaret Nancy Haddux on 29 Mar 1800 in Fauquier County, Virginia, USA^{182, 183, 184}. She was born in 1778 in Fauquier County, Virginia, USA^{185, 186}. She died on 08 Nov 1852 in Russell County, Kentucky, USA¹⁸⁶. She died before 1800.
- ix. ABNER LUTTRELL^{188, 189, 190} was born in 1766 in Fauquier County, Virginia, USA. He died date Unknown. He married Sarah Kelly on 11 Mar 1786 in Fauquier County, Virginia, USA ((Robert Luttrell, Bondsman)^{191, 192, 193, 194}). She died date Unknown.

She died date Unknown.

Notes for Samuel Luttrell:

Samuel Luttrell is listed on the 1770 and 1777 Fauquier County, Virginia Rent Rolls (Leeds Manor or Leeds Parish). Although both he and his wife, Dinah obtained a power of attorney on October 24, 1808 in Franklin County, Virginia [Source: Circuit Court of Franklin County, Virginia Deed Book 5, Page 540], I show where he resided in Fauquier County, Virginia. [November 1, 1766, Fauquier County, Va., Deed Book 2, page 618] Franklin County, Virginia, Court Documents - Power of Attorney, Samuel and Dinah Luttrell to Samuel Shumate, October 24, 1808 To all to whom these presents shall come. Know ye, that I, Samuel Luttrell and Dinah Luttrell my wife, in the County of Franklin and State of Virginia, have by these presents, nominated, ordained and appointed Samuel Shumate in Henry County and State aforesaid, to ask, demand, sue for and recover such part, parcel or share, as we the aforesaid Samuel Luttrell and Dinah Luttrell may have a right on, on the Estate of Daniel Shumate, deceas'd, in Fauquier County and State aforesaid, either by will or otherwise, as his said estate may be left and by our attorney not only to ask, demand and receive, but also to receipt, acquit and discharge the Executors, administrators, or other persons who may have the same in possession, at his will and pleasure which receipt shall be as valid against us, as we could do in about the premises, ratifying and confirming generally whatsoever our said attorney may act, or do, in and about the Estate. In Testimony whereof, we the said Samuel Luttrell and Dinah Luttrell hath hereto set our hands and caused our seals to be affixed on the 24th day of October 1808. Teste: James Galloway, C.F.C. [Source: Circuit Court of Franklin County, Virginia Deed Book 5, Page 540]

I'm not sure where I got Annis Crowther as his wife. A deed list his wife as Dinah plus Samuel and Dinah gave a power of attorney to Samuel Shumate regarding the estate of Daniel Shumate [Franklin County, Virginia, Court Documents - Power of Attorney, Samuel and Dinah Luttrell to Samuel Shumate, dated 24 October 1808].

LAND DEEDS: SAMUEL LUTTRELL by deed of November 1, 1766, recorded in Fauquire Deed Book 2, page 618, Lord Fairfax leased to Samuel Luttrell 150 acres of and for the joint lives of himself, his wife Dinah, and his son, Daniel. By deed of 22 Oct. 1767, Samuel Luttrell leased unto Samuel Wood 70 acres of land devised to him by his father's will; and, by deed of 22 May 1788,

Generation 10 (con't)

Samuel Luttrell "of Leeds Parish, Fauquire County, Virginia," conveyed this 70 acres of land to his brother, Robert Luttrell. The deed above referred to shows that Samuel Luttrell had at least one child, Daniel. [Source: Prichard, Armstead Mead, Allied Families of Read, Corbin, Luttrell, Bywaters, (Staunton, Virginia 1930.), Page 202.]

Notes for Dinah Shumate:

HOW CAN DINAH HAVE A SON WHEN SHE IS ONLY 4 YEARS OLD!!!! She has to be born closer to her husband's date of birth (1730-1740).

Samuel Luttrell and Dinah Shumate had the following child:

- i. DANIEL¹¹ LUTTRELL^{202, 203, 204} was born before 1766 in Leeds Parish, Fauquier County, Virginia, USA (By deed of 1 Nov. 1766, recorded in Fauquier County, Virginia, deed book 2, page 618, Lord Fairfax leased to Samuel Luttrell 150 acres of land for the joint lives of himself, his wife, Dinah, and his son, Daniel.;By deed of 1 Nov. 1766, recorded in Fauqui). He died after 1810 in Franklin County, Virginia, USA.

26. RICHARD¹⁰ LUTTRELL JR. (Richard⁹ Sr., James⁸, Richard⁷, Robert⁶, Thomas⁵, Richard⁴, Thomas³, Christopher², Robert¹)^{93, 94, 95} was born about 1730 in Stafford County, Virginia, USA ((Listed in Michael Dermon'ts Will dated 3 Feb 1730)). He died between 24 Apr 1819-21 May 1821 in Culpeper County, Virginia, (Per Will). He married (1) RACHEL STALLARD, daughter of Walter Stallard and Hannah Pitt before 1785 in Culpeper County, Virginia, USA. She was born about 1759 in Essex County, Virginia, USA. She died after 1821 in (Listed in husband's 1819-1821 Will). He married (2) SARAH WATSON in 1784. She was born in 1735 in Virginia, USA. She died date Unknown.

Notes for Richard Luttrell Jr.:

Richard is designated as "Jr." in his father's will and also in a judgment which he recovered the 29th of August 1760, against FRANCIS BURGESS, [Fauquire Minute Book, 1759-63, Page 98], as well as in the following commission of which the original is in the possession of JOHN AUGUSTINE ADAMS LUTTRELL. [Source: Allied Families of Read, Corbin, Luttrell, Bywaters, by A.M. Prichard, Staunton, Virginia, 1930.]

In another letter written to Mrs. A.M. Prichard on the 20 Mar. 1927, Mr. John A. A. Luttrell said: "The Richard Luttrell Jr., commission was given to me by my father for the reason that I seemed to him the only child the least interested in Family History. I think it came down from each generation perhaps to the oldest son or to the one who administered the estate. It is in very good condition. He once had as well, a commission signed by Jefferson naming the same Richard, Governor of the County of Illinois, and I remember when a kid my father showed this one to a relative visiting from Missouri--well it was never seen after that. I have never looked up any records on this item, so never quoted it as a fact as I had no proof of it."

On the 18 Jan. 1928, Mr. George L. Osborne, Librarian of the Illinois State Historical Society, wrote: "I have no record of Richard Luttrell being appointed as Governor of the Illinois County."

The Commonwealth of Virginia To Richard Luttrell, Jr., Gentlemen, greetings: Know you that our Governour on recommendation of the Court of the county of Fauquire hath constituted and appointed you Ensign of a Company of Militia in said County. In testimony whereof these our letters are sealed with the seal of the Commonwealth and made Patent. Witness, Thomas Jefferson, Esquire, our said Governour at Richmond, the 25th day of October in the year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Eighty. {Seal}Thomas Jefferson

Generation 10 (con't)

As early as 1760 Richard Luttrell, Jr. shows up in Fauquier County, Virginia per his judgement above. This would be around the time that Fauquier County was formed, May 1, 1759, from Prince William County and in 1770 and 1777 he shows up on the Fauquier Rent Rolls. He is found in Culpeper County by July 31, 1797 when he witnessed the will of Joseph Pitts [Culpeper County, Virginia, Will Book D, Page 208], and of course on April 24, 1819 when he made out his own Will.

Here is the big question for the family, I'm not sure if this is the correct Richard Jr. to connect to Richard Sr., who lived in Fauquier County, Virginia. Richard Sr. indicated in his Will, "ITEM I give to my son Richard Luttrell my new patent of land containing 58 acres of land whereon he now lives."

This is the land indicated below of 58 acres.

[By grant of 12 March 1722, the Proprietors of the Northern Neck of Virginia conveyed unto "Richd Lutterall" of Stafford County, a track of 354 acres of land lying on "Brent Town Run" in Stafford County, Virginia; and, by subsequent grant of 7 July 1745, Lord Fairfax conveyed unto Richard "Lutteral" of Prince William County, a track of 58 acres of land adjoining the "said Lutterall's other land on a drain of Town Run."]

Prince William county was created in March 1731 embracing parts of Stafford and King George Counties. Fauquier County was created in May 1, 1759 from Prince William County. So it is quite likely that Richard lived in the same general area being born in Stafford County in 1730 then in 1731 being listed in Prince William County and later in 1759, being rezoned into Fauquier County without doing a lot of moving. But Culpeper County was cut off from Orange County in 1749 and to be shown living there, he would have had to move and most likely sell his land on "Brent Town Run" Fauquier County and purchase land in Culpeper County.

Unless I can find something to tell me that Richard, Jr. sold this land (and purchased land in Culpeper County), I can't come out and say that the Culpeper County, Richard Jr. and the Fauquier County Richard Jr., are the same person since in Richard Jr.'s Culpeper County, will, he didn't leave the Fauquier County land to any of his heirs. If I can find a land sale showing that he sold the land, then it might be a possibility, but I can't even find that. Let us not forget that there is another Richard Jr. and Sr. living in Westmoreland County at this very same time and I believe all the Westmoreland Luttrell's descend from Simon and Robert.

To also confirm that this might be the Westmoreland branch is a notation in Bulletin #3, Page 239, of the Fauquier Historical Society, where the names of Richard Luttrell, Richard Luttrell, Jr., and William Luttrell appear. "This William Luttrell is no doubt the son of John and grandson of Old Simon of Westmoreland County. Richard Sr., and Simon were brothers, sons of Robert Luttrell." -- Marcine Lohman, marcinelohman@comcast.net

In Vol. 19, Illinois Historical Collections, George Rogers Clark Papers, pp. 422, 439, and 441, it appears that the land claim was allowed to "Richd Lutterell," as a soldier. This claim was assigned to Richd LTerrell, to whom deed was issued, "for Luttrell 100 acres pt of 79." [Source: Allied Families of Read, Corbin, Luttrell, Bywaters, by A.M. Prichard, Staunton, Virginia, 1930, Page 205.]

BARBEY, & SINNITT YOUNG. [Extracted by Debi Houser from "Fauquier County, Virginia Deeds 1759-1778" by John K. Gott, Pages 205-211] SW: Brent Town Road By a deed of November 26, 1760, recorded in Fauquier County, Virginia, RICHARD LUTTRELL acquired from GEORGE CRUMP a track of 240 acres of land on a branch of Negro Run, which was granted to JOHN CRUMP by the proprietors of the Northern Neck on July 29, 1745. By a deed of November 26, 1760, RICHARD LUTTRELL, SR., of Fauquier County conveyed to his son, SAMUEL LUTTRELL, 70 acres of the 240 acres acquired from the Proprietors. In his will recorded in Fauquier County, on September 10, 1764, Richard lists his eleven children: JAMES; MICHAEL; SAMUEL; JOHN; RICHARD; ANTISS; MARY; SUSANNA; ROBERT; CATHERINE; AND SARAH. The dates of their births are not known but his youngest daughter Sarah must have been close to 18 years old for a specific mare to be held for her.

Notes for John Lewis Luttrell:

JOHN LUTTRELL. In Elston Luttrell's manuscript he is called one of the emigrant brothers. He may have been born abroad, but his father was certainly here with him. His wife, according to John Lewis Luttrell, No. 49, was Winifred Larrance who, with certain of her children, went from Fauquiere to Frederick County, Va., where she died on the 19 Mar. 1816 or 1818. By deed of Dec. 1766, recorded in Fauquiere deed book 2, page 590, John Luttrell conveyed unto his brother James, a parcel of land formerly belonging to his father, Richard. By act of the Virginia General Assembly in March 1756, John Luttrell was allowed compensation for services in the militia of Prince William County. (7 Henning's Statues At Large, 24.) He died before 28 June 1790, when inventory of his estate was recorded in Fauquiere County will book 2, page 171. In confirmation of the statement that his wife was Winifred Larrance, the will of Edward Larrance, Sr., dated 26 Mar. 1783, probated 27 Mar. 1786, and recorded in Fauquiere will book 2, page 82, devise three negroes to his daughter, Winifred Luttrell. She was born about 1719 in Westmoreland County, Virginia. She died after 1752 in Westmoreland County, Virginia.

Generation 10 (con't)

Notes for John Luttrell:

Tennessee Cousins, Page 223

It can be surmised that JOHN LUTTRELL, son of Simon, had a son who married a daughter of THOMAS SANFORD, of Westmoreland, and that they were the parents of four children:

1. THOMAS LUTTRELL
2. JOHN LUTTRELL
3. HUGH LUTTRELL
4. WILLIAM LUTTRELL

THOMAS SANFORD'S will mentions his wife MARGARET (who could have been MARGARET LUTTRELL, daughter of old SIMON) and his grandson THOMAS LUTTRELL. This SANFORD WILL was probated in Westmoreland County in 1770. And in 1770 a JOHN LUTTRELL was a young man. living in ORANGE County, North Carolina, who had married one of the HART daughters and was beginning his associations with JUDGE RICHARD HENDERSON, John Williams and his wife's folks about the HENDERSON PURCHASE of the Transylvania lands. When JOHN died, afterwards he left his interest in those same lands to his three brothers. HUGH, THOMAS and WILLIAM.

Notes for Catherine Thomas:

Catherine Thomas apparently died about 1734 probably while giving birth to James.

John Luttrell and Catherine Thomas had the following children:

58. i. JOHN¹⁷ LUTTRELL was born in 1733 in Westmoreland County, Virginia. He died in Feb 1782 in Orange County, North Carolina²⁴⁷ (Killed by Tories over the "Transylvania" tract of land in North Carolina.). He married Susannah Hart between 1772-1774 in North Carolina²⁴⁷. She was born about 1743. She died on 05 Aug 1827 in Fleming County, Kentucky.
- ii. JAMES LUTTRELL²⁴⁸ was born in 1734 in Westmoreland County, Virginia. He died between 1769-1775²⁴⁹ in Granville County, North Carolina. He never married..

Notes for James Luttrell:

James Luttrell resided between 1768 - 1769, in Granville County, North Carolina.

Notes for Francis Patience Sanford:

I have differing information as to who was the father of Francis Patience Sanford's husband, John Luttrell. The manuscript by Glenna L. Deal, 1989, indicates John is the son of John and grandson of James, Sr. However, the "Virginia Colonial Abstracts, Vol. III, Northumberland Co. Record of Births, St. Stephen's Parish" confirms that John was born to James on November 10, 1691 (St. Stephens Parish page 114) and then later (also page 114) shows that another John was born to John on July 16, 1717.

I also show a John b. October 08, 1712 to be the son of Simon and Elizabeth Canfield Pierce and he is also listed in his father's will. I believe this is a different John and not the one who married Francis Patience Sanford or Catherine Thomas.

The manuscript by Glenna L. Deal, 1989, lists the following children for John Luttrell: By Catherine Thomas: John b. Abt. 1740 James b. Abt. 1742 By Frances Patience Sanford: Hugh b. Abt. 1746 Thomas b. Abt. 1748 William b. Abt. 1750 There is no mention of Richard or Elizabeth

John Luttrell and Francis Patience Sanford had the following children:

188. iii. RICHARD LUTTRELL²⁵⁰ was born in 1735 in Westmoreland County, Virginia. He died on 11 Nov 1790 in Westmoreland County, Virginia (or 1800 in Amherst County, Virginia). He married Sarah Churchwell in 1754 in Westmoreland County, Virginia. She was born in 1732 in Westmoreland County, Virginia. She died on 25 Nov 1790 in Amherst County, Virginia (or 1792).

Generation 10 (con't)

- iv. THOMAS LUTTRELL²⁵¹ was born in 1748 in Westmoreland County, Virginia. He died before Jun 1780 in Kentucky (killed by Indians) (Killed by Indians.).

Notes for Margaret Luttrell:

This may actually be Margaret, born 1704 to Simon Luttrell and Margaret Churchwell, however, Simon's will states "Item - I give and bequeath to my daughter Margrett LUTTERELL, a feather bed and furniture and two thousand weight of tobacco to be paid her upon day of marriage or when she comes of age." This will is dated August 21, 1723 when the Margaret born in 1704 would be 19 years of age. I also show the 1704 Margaret as having a child (Francis Patience Sanford) circa 1719. THOMAS SANFORD'S will mentions his wife MARGARET (who could have been MARGARET LUTTRELL, daughter of old SIMON) and his grandson THOMAS LUTTRELL. This SANFORD WILL was probated in Westmoreland County in 1770. And in 1770 a JOHN LUTTRELL was a young man living in ORANCE County, North Carolina, who had married one of the HART daughters and was beginning his associations with JUDGE RICHARD HENDERSON, John Williams and his wife's folks about the HENDERSON PURCHASE of the Transylvania lands. When JOHN died, afterwards he left his interest in those same lands to his three brothers. HUGH, THOMAS and WILLIAM.

John and Rodham also sold land at this time. 1770 LUTTRELL MICHL Fauquier County VA Rent Rolls 1777 LUTTRELL MICHL Fauquier County VA Rental Rolls Illinois: Army Service number 26230 From: Heroes of the Revolutionary War, by Earl DeWitt Littrell, Page 227-229 He was a private in the Company commanded by Col. Churchill in the Virginia line for Militia. $20.00 Michael Luttrell was born in Fauquier County, Virginia, in October. 1751. The Luttrell families of Fauquier County and Michael's father, mother, brothers and sisters are described above, under Nathan Luttrell's story. MICHAEL LUTTRELL IS CALLED TO THE ARMY: Michael Luttrell was drafted to serve three months in the United States Army in February "before Cornwallis was taken", in 1781. He was in Captain George Shelton's Company in Colonel Billy Churchill's Regiment of Virginia Militia. This Regiment immediately marched to Williamsburg, Virginia. Their duty was to guard the sea coast. The purpose was to support General George Washington in his plan of battle against the British Army of Lord Cornwallis. A large British force landed about five miles from the Regiment's position. Colonel Billy Churchill received orders to retreat to Jamestown. They stayed there a short time and moved on to Richmond, Virginia. By then, Michael Luttrell had served about three weeks more than the three months draft. His time had expired. He was discharged and traveled home to Fauquier County, Virginia, and his family. The same year, in the fall of 1781, Michael Luttrell was drafted for another three month duty with the United States Army. General Washington was getting his forces ready for the final blow against the British southern army of Lord Cornwallis. Michael was drafted at Williamsburg, Virginia. He was in Captain Thomas Helm's Company of Major John Chun's Battalion. About three weeks later, General Washington's Army arrived. Michael Luttrell's unit marched to York with this Army. General Washington's strategy forced Lord Cornwallis to surrender his army at Yorktown on the 17th of October, 1781. So Michael was there, serving with the regular army, during the crucial days of battle preceding Lord Cornwallis' surrender. He knew General Wayne and General Greene, both of whom we have met in this history. The entire British Army of Lord Cornwallis laid down arms. Each British soldier was a prisoner-of-war. Michael Luttrell and his unit marched to Bartlett Barracks, Pennsylvania. There they guarded about 500 enemy prisoners. At that time, Michael had served three months and thirteen days. He was again discharged. Michael Luttrell returned to Fauquier County and to his family. MICHAEL LUTTRELL LEAVES FAUQUIER COUNTY: Michael Luttrell, Sr., the father of Nathan, Michael and ten other children, died in 1777 or 1778. His will was recorded 16th March 1778 and probated 24th August 1778. Michael Luttrell, Jr., and five of his brothers and sisters left Fauquier County, Virginia and moved to Henry County, Virginia. Were there too many heirs or too little land? On 18th May 1787, Michael Litral appears on the tax rolls of Henry County, Virginia. Michael was charged with the tax. There were no males listed from 16 to 25 years of age, there were no blacks. He was taxed for one horse and himself. On 7th December 1787, Michael Littrell bought 80 acres of land for 20£ from John Preston. Nathan Littrell witnessed the deed. Michael Luttrell then moved from Henry County, Virginia to Green County, Kentucky. The 1800 census of Green County, Kentucky lists Michael Litral. Also appearing in the census were Richard, Jesse and John Litral. Michael Luttrell resided in Jackson County, Alabama, in 1822. When he moved there with his brother Nathan has not been determined. While there, his residence burned and his papers, including his army discharges, were destroyed. Michael Luttrell moved to Marion County, Illinois, exact date not determined. In the 1830 census of Illinois, Michael Litrell is listed, his family at that time, shows: Males 1 age under 5; 1 age 20 to 30; 1 age 70 to 80. Females 1 under 5; 1 age 15 to 20. Also in the 1830 Illinois census are: Thomas Litrell; Nathaniel Litrell; William Litrell and John Lutrell, in Marion County, Illinois. It seems that Thomas and William Litrell are Michael's sons. Lot Litterl, Michael's youngest brother, is shown, in Morgan County, Illinois, in 1830. Michael Lutterell applied for revolutionary War pension on 24th March 1834. His application, number S32021 was approved, in the amount of $20.00 per annum. Beginning 4th March 1831. He received $70.00 in back pay for 1831 to 1834. Abstract of Graves of Revolutionary Patriots, Vol.3. Notes from page 229: Michael Luttrell died December 19, 1844, in Marion county, Illinois at age of 93 years, 2 months and ? days. He is buried in the Haddon Cemetery, near luka, Illinois. His surviving children were: Thomas, James, Alfred and William Lutterell and Nancy Matterly. Their places of residence are not definitely known but they made a affidavit in Marion County. His wife did not survive him. Her name is not given. Abstract of Graves of Revolutionary Patriots, Vol.3. Notes from page 227: Michael was about thirty years old and reported to have married a Miss Shelton. Revolutionary Soldiers Buried in Illinois, Author: Harriet J. Walker, Call Number: 6125, Page 89 MICHAEL LUTTRELL was born in Virginia, October, 1751, in Fauquier county. He served in 1781 under Capt. George Shelton and Col. William Churchill; again the same year with Capt. Thomas Helm and Major John Chun in the Virginia troops. He removed to Illinois, settling in Marion county, near Salem; later in iuka township. He died December 19, 1844, and was doubtless buried near luka. He was pensioned.

FIELDING LUTTRELL WILL In the name of GOD Amen. I Fielding Luttrell of the County of Frederick and State of Virginia being sick and weak in body but of sound mind and disposing memory for which I thank GOD and calling to mind the uncertainty of human life, and being desirous to dispose of all such worldly estate as it hath pleased GOD to bless me with, I give and bequeath the same in manner following, that is to say.

1st. I desire that a portion of my personal property be sold after my decease and out of the moneys arising therefrom all my just debts and funeral expenses be paid.

2nd. After the payment of my debts & funeral expenses, I give and bequeath to my wife Elizabeth Luttrell all my estate both real and personal for and during the term of her natural life for her support and to dispose of as she may see necessary, and after decease and after her expenses are paid what is left if any I give to my daughter Mary Luttrell for and during the term of her natural life for her support.

3rd. After the decease of my daughter Mary what is left if any I give and bequeath to my grand children. I desire that all my estate if any both real and personal of what nature or kind soever it may be shall be sold and the moneys arising therefrom shall be equally divided amongst Mary Ann, Nancy Catharine, Maria Evelina, Sarah Jane, John Wesley H. Switzer, these being the children of my daughter Elizabeth dec'd which was the wife of Jacob Switzer. Also Elizabeth A, Susan, Sarah and Maria Millers, these being the children of my daughter Nancy dec'd which was the wife of David Miller. To these my grandchildren I give the above remainder to them, their heirs, executors, administrators and assigns forever. N. B. I desire that my sister Frankey Luttrell shall have the same privileges of the same houses, stables, springs gardens, fields, meadows and orchards as she formerly had whilst she lives. And if Hany the colored man outlives her, he shall have the use of the kitchen, garden, spring, the lot around the spring and that above it during his natural life.

And lastly I do hereby constitute and appoint my friends Jacob Switzer and Elizabeth Luttrell my wife Executor of this my last will and testament hereby revoking all others or former wills or testaments by me heretofore made. In witness where of I have hereunto set my hand and affixed

Notes for Mary Peaceful:

Most of the census records seem to indicate that Mary (Peaceful) Littrell was born around 1790 which means that she could not have married in 1796 at the age of 6. I suspect that either this Rhodham did not marry Mary Peaceful and that he married a different Mary at a later date OR Mary (Peaceful) Littrell is not giving her correct age on all the census records. This should be investigated further.

Rodham Luttrell and Mary Peaceful had the following children:

She was born about 1743. She died on 05 Aug 1827 in Fleming County, Kentucky.

Notes for John Luttrell:

John Luttrell; birth 1733, went to North Carolina, in 1770 where he became clerk of the Crown for Orange County. He acquired a fortune as a member of the Henderson Company which came to own great amounts of land in Tennessee. In 1776 Daniel Boone with Judge Richard Henderson and associates made a treaty with the Indians on behalf of themselves in which they gained title to the vast "Transylvania" tract of land. A deed recorded in Knox County in 1800 shows the transfer of 190,000 acres of land from the estate of John Luttrell to a John Williams. John Luttrell was a Lieutenant Colonel in the army during the Revolutionary War; he was killed by Torries in 1782.

JOHN LUTTRELL, associated with Col. Richard Henderson and other men of capital, namely Thomas Hart, John Williams, James Hogg, Math. Hart, David Hart, Leonard M. Bulloch, William Johnson. They paid 10,000 pds. Sterling in merchandise, to the Indians for certain lands in 1775 at that time an enormous sum. Purchase named Transylvania, 9 Proprietors contemplated a separate and independent government but in a memorial address to the Continental Congress 1775, they asked for Transylvania to be added to the United Colonies. The land purchased was all of South Kentucky river beginning at the mouth or junction said river with Ohio to it's source thence south into Tennessee until a westerly line should cross the Cumberland Mts. So as to strike the ridge which divides the waters of the Tennessee river from those of Cumberland with that ridge to the Ohio river and with that river to the mouth of the Kentucky river. It included most of the land now known as Kentucky and Tennessee. The company took possession April 20, 1775 but the Government of North Carolina issued a proclamation declaring the purchase illegal, Virginia did the same. Later North Carolina allowed them 200,000 acres, Virginia declared a similar grant, State of Tennessee also. Judge Henderson opened land office in Nashville, then the French Lick for sale of those lands. JOHN LUTTRELL of Cheatham County, North Carolina was clerk of the Crown at Hillsboro 1770, before the Revolution. Col. In the American army during the Revolutionary evidently childless. Willed land to his widow Susan Hart and his brothers, William, Hugh, and Thomas Luttrell of Westmoreland County, Virginia. His widow paid cash to William and Hugh Luttrell for their share in land in Tennessee. She was the daughter of John Hart of North Carolina. Beginning with the Revolution in Virginia there were: Rodham, John, Richard, and Michael Luttrell, all soldiers in the war.

some of the fierce fighting that was done. In Evan Shelby's company at the battle of Point Pleasant in 1774, several Wataugans, who had volunteered, whose names are familiar in the records of the Watauge Settlement, included among these were:

John Sawyer, John Findley, John Williams, James Robertson, Valentine Sevier, George Ruddel, Emanuel Choate, Abram Bogard, William Tucker, John Fain, Samuel Vance, Samuel Fain, Samuel Handley, Geo. Armstrong, Robert Handley, Mack Williams, Conrad Nave, John Stewart, Elijah Robertson, Rees Price, Charles Fielder, Richard Holloway, Andrew Goff, Henry Spann, Jarret Williams, Julius Robertson, and others, some of whom I have omitted because in doubt.

After that engagement the Indians gave up their claims to all lands South of the Ohio and Daniel Boone and Judge Richard Henderson and associates made a treaty in behalf of themselves in which they evoked a title from some of the Indians to the great "Transylvania" tract of land, afterwards annulled so far as they were concerned. The names of Judge Henderson and associates in this deal were:

Richard Henderson, Thomas Hart, Judge John Williams, James Hogg, Nathaniel Hart, Leonard Henley Billock, *John Luttrell, William Johnston, In 1776 our Wataugan friends, then holding titles to their lands direct from the Indians, petitioned the Legislature of North Carolina for annexation to that "Province", in response to which they were "noticed" and the county of Washington, N. C. established in 1777.

I am still collecting data on the LUTTRELL, HART, PRESTON and PATTON families of IRELAND, and the information on the land granted to the PATTON family by the KING; 200,000 acres in Virginia. The PATTONS were ship builders in IRELAND. The PATTONS served under the KING in the ROYAL NAVY. They came to AMERICA by way of CANADA. I do believe that COL. JOHN LUTTRELL was only trying to collect on the land of his grandmothers birth right. We find much written on this and all I find will be added later. -- Juanita L. WILL of COL. JOHN LUTRELL/LUTRELL 1775

In the name of God, Amen. I, John Lutrell, of Orange County in the province of North Carolina of sound mind and memory do make and constitute this my last will and testament, in manner and form following. This first my will and desire is that the moneys and profits arising from the sales, rents or leases of my share of the lands purchased by Richard HENDERSON and Company, of the Cherokee Indians on the waters of the Mississippi River, be applied towards defraying and paying all my just debts and lawful debts and that one third of the residue of the said lands to be given unto my three brothers Thomas LUTRELL, Hugh LUTRELL and William LUTRELL to them and their heirs and assigns forever. Secondly; my will and desire is that my beloved wife, Susannah Lutrell have the residue of my estate both real and personal until the time that my child or children that she is now great with shall arrive to the age of twenty one years or get married whichever of them circumstances first happens. My will is that my estate be equally divided between them to them and their heirs or assigns forever, but if it should so happen that my wife should not be with child or that her child she is now great with should die before it arrives to twenty one years of or gets married as before mentioned in that case it is my desire that after the sequence paid my brothers and my just debts satisfied my estate be at her disposal to do with as she pleases. In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 20th day of March 1775.

She was born in 1732 in Westmoreland County, Virginia. She died on 25 Nov 1790 in Amherst County, Virginia (or 1792).

Notes for Richard Luttrell:

Richard Luttrell m. Sarah Churchwell. About 1764 the family moved to a farm near Rockfish Creek, in Amherst County, Virginia the last two of the children born were William and John Luttrell. Richard Luttrell and his sons James and Richard, Jr. served in the Revolutionary War. Richard Sr., served in the Virginia Troops under the command of Gen. George Rogers Clark in the Illinois Campaign. The land conquered from the British in this campaign became the Northwest Territory and later formed the state of Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan, Wisconsin, and part of Minnesota. For his services Richard was given a grant of 108 acres of land in the present state of Illinois which he sold in July of 1789. Amherst County, Virginia land records show his continued presence in Virginia in the years 1787, 1788 and 1794. They remained in Amherst County, Virginia until death. Luttrell (Luttrell) Richard : Amherst County, Virginia (Deed book G, p. 478, 1794) power of attorney. Notes for Richard Luttrell:

HISTORY OF VIRGINIA, (Vol.6) Page 270-271, American Historical Society, 1924
HUGH M. LUTTRELL IVANHOE FARM FAUQUIER CO. VIRGINIA Hugh M. Luttrell. To say that Hugh M. Luttrell is master of Ivanhoe Farm, one of the pure bred stock farms of Fauquier County, is to give him a high and widely recognized tribute as one of the most successful stockmen of Virginia, one whose prize products have been exhibited not only in state but national shows and fairs. Mr. Luttrell represents a Colonial Virginia family. The Luttrell's originally lived in France, went from there to England, thence to Ireland and from Ireland came to America in the early part of the eighteenth century, settling in Prince William County, Virginia. Richard Luttrell, son of the first Richard Luttrell, through the influence of Thomas Jefferson was commissioned an ensign from Fauquier County in the Revolution, and after the close of the war for independence he was appointed by President Thomas Jefferson, governor of Illinois Territory. Richard Luttrell married a Miss Frances Hambleton. They were the parents of James Richard Luttrell, who married a Miss Bywaters, and by that union had one son and three daughters. The son was Burrell Edmond Luttrell, father of the proprietor of Ivanhoe. Burrell Edmond Luttrell was a Confederate soldier, acting as a recruiting officer for Gen. J.E.B. Stuart and General Beauregard. He was captured at the battle of Strasburg, Virginia, and was confined at Point Lookout, Maryland, until the end of the war. He was a native of Culpeper County, had a liberal education, was a teacher after the war and he then settled down to the business of farming, which had been the occupation of his ancestors for generations. He became the owner of the old Nelson farm, Locust Grove, in Rappahannock County, and was a breeder of pedigreed cattle and sheep. He died at Locust Grove in 1912, at the age of seventy-six. He was one of the courtly old citizens of his time, and was a devout Baptist. B. E. Luttrell married Mary Nelson, daughter of James Richard Nelson, of Culpeper County and a descendant of the famous old General and governor Nelson of Revolutionary times. James Richard Nelson was a farmer, and his wife was Elizabeth Bywaters. Mrs. B. E. Luttrell died in 1909 and she and her husband are buried at Amissville, Virginia. They reared a family of seven sons and one daughter. Capitola; wife of John S. Hughes, now a resident of Richmond; Richard Edmond, a Rappahannock County farmer who married Miss Ada Browning; Hugh Montgomery; Frank, a farmer in Rappahannock County; Charles, who died unmarried at the age of twenty-four; Warren, who died while a Baptist missionary in India; Russell, in the insurance and loan business at Falls church, Virginia; and John A, an insurance man at Waynesboro, Pennsylvania. Hugh Montgomery Luttrell was born at Olive, Culpeper County, Virginia, January 18, 1868. He grew up in Rappahannock County, and was well educated, attending the Virginia Military Academy at Culpeper Court House and Richmond College. His early training on the farm decided him in his course of a vocation, and after a year of ranching experience in California he returned to Virginia and established himself at Ivanhoe, and from the first has specialized in the raising of high grade stock. For many years he bred and showed hunting horses, but from that he concentrated his attention on Aberdeen Angus cattle and Poland China hogs. As a horse breeder he won several hundred prizes, exhibiting his stock at the important horse shows of the country, and has ribbons by the boxfull. He raised "Bowling" and brought out "Eagle" and "Willow King" as well as "Majesty." In the cattle industry he showed the Red Polled for five years, and later his Aberdeen Angus cattle were exhibited at the Chicago International Stock Show, winning several seconds. He won the junior championship of the State Fair three years in succession, owning the grand champion steer at the Richmond State Fair, and two dozen silver cups and vases in his home indicate to what extent his exhibits have been considered in competition with other prize stock horses, Hogs, Wheat and Corn grown at Ivanhoe has been awarded an aggregate of 530 ribbons. With a long and successful experience as a stock breeder Mr. Luttrell has contributed of his experience to the benefit of others and has written a number of articles for magazines on stock breeding and animal husbandry. He was one of the founders of the Fauquier Agricultural Society and its President for ten years, and that he is one of the most prominent men in the agricultural industry today is indicated. By the fact that he is Vice President of the Virginia State Fair Association, Vice President of the State Farmers Union, President of the Fauquier County farmers Union and President of the Virginia Aberdeen Angus Association. The old home at Ivanhoe was built seventy-eight years ago by Lewis F. Marshall, a nephew of Chief Justice Marshall. This residence was burned in 1895, and the present owner of Ivanhoe replaced it with a modern mansion located opposite the old home of Chief Justice Marshall, Oak Hill. It is also near the birthplace of the Confederate General Turner Ashby, and not far away is the home of Admiral Jones of the United States Navy. During the war between the states, Ivanhoe was in the path of General Jackson's army and Col. John S. Mosby's troops as they went up and down skirmishing and campaigning. At that time Lewis F. Marshall was occupying Ivanhoe, and some of his sons were in the Confederate army battling for the cause of the South. Mr. Luttrell was reared a Baptist, but is now a member of the Presbyterian Church and one of the trustees of the Westminster congregation at Delaplane. He cast his first presidential ballot for Grover Cleveland, and has never failed to cast his ballot for the national head of the party since then. In Westminster Church at Delaplane, July 10, 1894, Mr. Luttrell Married Miss Atlanta Singleton, who was born at Baltimore, August 19, 1867, daughter of Andrew Jackson Singleton. She was the only child of her parents to grow to maturity, and was educated in the Carey School

Notes for Mary Peaceful:

Most of the census records seem to indicate that Mary (Peaceful) Littrell was born around 1790 which means that she could not have married in 1796 at the age of 6. I suspect that either this Rhodham did not marry Mary Peaceful and that he married a different Mary at a later date OR Mary (Peaceful) Littrell is not giving her correct age on all the census records. This should be investigated further.

Notes for Sarah Ann Bryant:

Sarah smoked a pipe for years and lived to be 102 years old. SARAH BRYANT LUTTRELL 100 YEARS OLD BIRTHDAY PARTY 6/30/1892 ASTORIA ARGUS, ILL. In the year 1792; there was born on the James River in Virginia, a child, who God had decreed should live to celebrate her 100th anniversary, and on last Saturday the friends and relatives to the number of 600, gathered at the old homestead three miles southwest of Baders, and honored the old lady by their presence. All day on Saturday the people came and went. We arrived about one o'clock and found a bounteous supply of food ready for those who desired to partake. The residence where the old lady has lived for forty-six years was found to be a LOG CABIN, such as our forefathers lived in years gone by, and in fact the entire surroundings were such that reminded one of pioneer days. Within this cabin rested MRS. SARAH LUTTRELL, for such is her name, on a bed in keeping with the other surroundings, and nearby stood the three daughters ready to assist their aged mother, who is at present quite poorly. On last Saturday a week, the old lady while in the act of arising from a chair, in some way stepped on her dress, causing herself to fall to the floor, thus injuring herself in such a manner as to prevent her being up and around. Prior to this time her health had been of the best, and at all times she was able to do her own work and walk to different points of the old homestead. MISS SARAH BRYANT was born on the James River, Patrick County, Virginia, 6/25/1792, and spent her early days there. Her parents, John Bryant and Judy Winfrey emigrated from Virginia, while she was yet a child, into Kentucky and while yet quite small moved into Tennessee where she was reared to womanhood, and on the 18th of November, 1813 was married to SHELTON LUTTRELL, in Lincoln Co. Tenn., s/o Nathan Luttrell, Sr. After living in that state a short time together with her husband,, she moved to Alabama, and later to Arkansas. A few years later, becoming dissatisfied they again emigrated, this time into the state of Illinois and in the year 1831 settled on the farm where the old lady now lives. Her parents were both English, which fact she seems to be very proud of, and her father took an active part in the Colonial period of the United States. Her husband was a soldier in the Indian War of 1812 and their married life lasted over a period of sixty-nine years, when at the ripe old age of eighty-eight years he died. Mr. & Mrs. LUTTRELL were the parents of twelve children, ten girls and two boys. However, Mrs. Mary Mace, age 78, Mrs. Sallie Skiles, age 71, and Mrs. Felix Thornton, age 76 are the only surviving children. Her grandchildren number fifty-seven; great grandchildren number one hundred and fifty-seven; great great grandchildren number forty-nine; g g g grandchildren number fourteen and g g g g grandchildren number two. Thus it will be seen that this aged lady is one of Six Generations and has at the present time, some three hundred descendants, and of these about two hundred and fifty were present at her one hundredth birthday anniversary. Grandma LUTTRELL has been a constant smoker for sixty years and in response as to what she contributed her long life to said; "plain dieting". Her principal food is corn bread and milk. No difference how many luxuries are placed before her she refuses them all in preference to this plain food. She never went to school a day in her life, and never learned to read or write. In statue she stands about five feet five and weights about 110 pounds. Her hearing is somewhat hard and her sight is such that she cannot recognize an object very far away. This remarkable woman has been a member of the CHRISTIAN CHURCH for 75 years and has been known to walk to Baders, a distance of three miles, to church many times. The accident that befell her a week ago causes her much pain, yet her faith in the Redeemer has not been shaken, and she spends most of the time in prayer. She seems anxious and ready to die that she may meet her husband and children that have gone on before to prepare for her coming. The exercises held during the day were of a religious nature. She had requested that hymns be sung and a short sermon preached. So the large audience gathered in front of the picturesque cabin where singing was indulged in; after which, Rev. Harbey Skiles delivered a short address of a religious nature, touching upon the events and life of Grandma LUTTRELL. Following are a few of the names of the relatives present: Felix Hill Thornton, wife Ollie Luttrell and children. Mrs. Thornton is a daughter of the venerable lady and they live on the homestead. Mr. & Mrs. Swope and two children, of Baders, Mrs. Carrie Rodgers, of Astoria, J. W. M. Skiles, wife and four children of Browning, M. V. Wright, and wife and two children of Browning. BIOGRAPHICAL REVIEW OF CASS: Page 348, Schuyler and Brown Counties 1892. Mrs. Sallie (Bryant) LUTTERELL, of section 9, Browning township, was born in Virginia in 1792. She is the oldest person in Schuyler County, and there are very few in the State who can boast of being 100 years old. Should she live until the 25th of June she will be 100 years old. She came to Schuyler County in 1830, and has been a resident of the county ever since. Her husband, Shelton Lutterell, was a soldier in the war of 1812, and fought at the battle of Horse Bud and various other points. They were married November 13, 1813, and their married life lasted for sixty-nine years, four months and seventeen days, when Mr. Lutterell died, in the house where his widow still resides. He was born May 12, 1794. They were among the first settlers of Browning township, where Mr. Lutterell owned a farm. Mrs. Lutterell's parents were natives of Patrick County, Virginia. Mrs. Lutterell raised a family of twelve children and she has survived all but three of them. Sarah Skiles, Nancy Wright and Ollie Thornton. Mrs. Lutterell has lived with her daughter, Mrs. Thornton, since the death of her husband. Mr. Thornton, the husband of her daughter, was born in Jackson County, Tennessee, september 10, 1819, and he was the son of Felix and Celetha (Holly) Thornton. They were born and reared to maturity in Raleigh, North Carolina, but came to this county in 1829, and located on a farm near Mr. Lutterell's. They had five sons and the same number of daughters, but only five of them are living. Mr. Thornton was married in Browning township, June 23, 1844, to Miss Ollie Lutterell. They have eight children, but only four are living: William I. deceased; Sarah C., wife of John Flemming, and lives in Browning village; Delilah J., deceased; Patsy Ann, wife of David Steadman, and lives in Browning township; Martha Ellen married William Thornton, and lives in the same place; John A. lives in Browning. Two children died in infancy. A grandson, Chester R., lives with his grandmother. Mrs. Lutterell's father was a John Bryant, and was the son of another John Bryant. Her mother was Judy Wentfrey. She is a member of the Christian Church, as are Mr. and Mrs. Thornton, and she has been one for fifty years. Mr. Thornton has been a resident of the township for sixty-three years, and he has seen many wonderful changes thake place in the county. He has traveled in the States of Kentucky, Iowa, Missouri, Arkansas, Mississippi, Louisiana and Illinois. He has always been a farmer by occupation. He is a Democrat in politics, and his sons are Democrats in their political views.

Generation 12 (con't)

Notes for Martin Luttrell:

Soldier of War of 1812 (January 10, 1814 to March 17, 1814) For the benefit of the Luttrell family who might read this, the record of the land warrant 10220 shows "80 acres on 7-17-1851 to Martin Luttrell, 1st Sgt.in Captain Bacon's Company, East Tennessee Militia, War of 1812" He gave rights to Kersey H. Fell of McLean Co., Illinois on 5-14-1852. Should anyone in the Luttrell family try to place Martin Luttrell accurately with his early East Tennessee family, it will be helpful to know that the same records show that on 9-28-1850, 80 acres were also awarded to his brother George Luttrell. He is listed as a Corporal in Captain Tunnell's company, 3rd regiment, Tennessee Militia, War of 1812. Martin and George were brothers to Mason (my ggg grandfather). I know this isn't much but I hope it helps. Lorene Ingroum, email: ringroum@cox.net -----
I am the ggg-granddaughter of Martin Luttrell b ca 1782 in Fauquier County, Virginia, and died 1860 in Meigs County, Tennessee. He was married the first time to unknown, in 1805 in Fauquier County, Virginia and had Eliza b 1806, Nancy b 1810, Casewell D. b 1812, George b 1813, ? b 1821 & James b 1825. Martin's first wife evidently died between 1825 & 1832, and he remarried Elizabeth Booth Goforth, (widow of John Goforth) Dec. 29, 1832 in Roane County, Virginia. They together had Columbus Cambell b 3/23/1833 (my line), Marshall b 1834 & Churchwell b 1838. I would love to know Martin's first wife, and especially more about his sons Marshall & Churchwell. I am trying to find the parents of STACY BURNETT in Roane County, TN. From her marriage bond, I suspect it is MOSES BURNETT, b. circa 1771, in Henry County, VA but I need more proof. I can't seem to find any children for him. He married ELIZABETH MELVIN, Aug 2, 1792 (Henry County, VA, Marriage Bonds, 1778-1849, page 89), in Henry County, Virginia. Possible genealogy from what I've collected on the internet. None of this is proven with documentation. (1) Jeremiah Burnett (son of Jeremiah). Born, 1740, in Talbot County, MD or Virginia. Died, before JUL 1816 in Turkey Creek, Wayne County, KY. He lived in Henry and Patrick County, VA until about 1808 when he moved to KY. Marriage 1 Nancy BURK, Marriage 2 Elizabeth CLAYBROOK, Married: ABT. 1760. Their son: (2) MOSES BURNETT. Born, circa 1771, in Henry County, Virginia. He married Elizabeth Melvin, Aug 2, 1792 (Henry County, Virginia, Marriage Bonds, 1778-1849, page 89), in Henry County, Virginia. Listed on 1830 Roane County, TN census, not found on 1840 Census. Rumored that he moved to Missouri and died in 1836. Possible child: (3) STACY BURNETT born circa 1797 in Roane County, Tennessee or Henry County, Virginia, died 1849. Married SILAS LUTTRELL on September 07, 1812 in Lenore City, Roane County, TN (Marriage Bond lists Moses Burnett for security bond).

Notes for James Churchwell Luttrell:

James Luttrell served as Minuteman under Capt. James Dillard and Lt. Thomas Morrison. Was sheriff of Knox County in early 19th Century. His place of residence during the Revolution was Amherst County, Virginia. Rejected Pension Claim due to serving less than the required 6 months for such claim. Senate Executive Document # 37 issue, Feb. 1852, Tenn. Div. See Will of 1796. Source: Tennessee Cousins: A History of Tennessee People, by Worth S. Ray, Published by the Author, Austin, Texas, 1950, Call Number: F435.R3, page 222.

Have also seen James Churchwell Luttrell I, resident of Tennessee early in 1800, married probably 1805 to Martha Armstrong the second daughter of Robert and Margaret Cunningham Armstrong. They had 6 children. Some Tennessee Heroes of the Revolution, Fourth Pamphlet, Page 108 James Luttrell James Luttrell applied for revolutionary pension which was not allowed because he had served only six months. At the date of his application more than six months' service was required. Later, when that requirement was abated, he did not again apply. He was born February 12, 1755, in Westmoreland County, Virginia and was the son of Richard Luttrell who was also a soldier of the Revolution. James Luttrell served in Virginia troops under Captains James Dillard and Charles Christian and Colonels Peter Rose and Charles Lynch. He married Elizabeth Witt, daughter of Abner Witt. Their children were William, Nancy, James Churchill, Martha, Lewis, Abner, Elizabeth, Sarah, rhoda and Robert. He died in Knoxville, Tennessee in 1848.

James Churchwell Luttrell and Martha Armstrong had the following children:

She died on 02 Feb 1863 in Knox County, Tennessee, USA.

Notes for William Luttrell:

William and Elizabeth (Witt) Luttrell had a son James Churchwell Luttrell, born 1803 on the forks of the Holston River. William and Elizabeth Luttrell emigrated from Virginia to Tennessee accompanied by Elizabeth's father, Jesse Witt, soldier of the Revolution. Jesse Witt and wife had a number of children with only 2 known, Elizabeth and Abner Witt. William and Elizabeth Luttrell lived on the "forks" and raised a large family. William Luttrell died 1814. Some of their children were: Hugh; Eliza; James Churchwell; Matthew, and John Luttrell. William Luttrell's name was spelled Litterall on marriage license.

Notes for Elizabeth C. Witt:

I have seen conflicting parents listed in other people's research for Elizabeth C. Witt and believe I have discovered the cause although I do not have the proof of which is correct. In the "Marriages of Virginia Residents" Elizabeth is listed as the granddaughter of William Witt and the daughter of John Witt. However in "Notable Southern Families" the author Zella Armstrong indicates that Elizabeth was the daughter of Jesse Witt and that he accompanied her from Amherst County, Virginia to Knox County, Tennessee in 1796. There is also another Elizabeth Witt listed in "Some Tennessee Heroes of the Revolution" who is the daughter of Abner Witt. That Elizabeth married James Luttrell. However in "Notable Southern Families" the author Zella Armstrong indicates that Elizabeth was the daughter of Jesse Witt and that he accompanied her from Amherst County, Virginia to Knox County, Tennessee in 1796. There is also another Elizabeth Witt listed in "Some Tennessee Heroes of the Revolution" who is the daughter of Abner Witt. That Elizabeth married James Luttrell. Marriages of Virginia Residents Vol II, Part I, Surnames K-L, Page 192 Luttrell, William, b. 1760; d. Dec. 1813; m. 5 June, 1787, Elizabeth C. Witt, grda. of William Witt. Huguenot Founder. "William and Elizabeth Witt Luttrell emigrated from Virginia to Tennessee about the year _____. They were accompanied by Elizabeth's father, Jesse Witt, who had been a soldier of the Revolution. Jesse Witt and his wife had a number of children of whom we know Elizabeth, married William Luttrell, and Abner Witt." "William and Elizabeth Luttrell lived on the "Forks" of the Holston and raised a large family. William Luttrell died about 1814. Some of their children were: Hugh Luttrell, Eliza Luttrell, James Churchwell Luttrell, Matthew Luttrell and John Luttrell."

Notes for William Luttrell:

William and Elizabeth (Witt) Luttrell had a son James Churchwell Luttrell, born 1803 on the forks of the Holston River. William and Elizabeth Luttrell emigrated from Virginia to Tennessee accompanied by Elizabeth's father, Jesse Witt, soldier of the Revolution. Jesse Witt and wife had a number of children with only 2 known, Elizabeth and Abner Witt. William and Elizabeth Luttrell lived on the "forks" and raised a large family. William Luttrell died 1814. Some of their children were: Hugh; Eliza; James Churchwell; Matthew, and John Luttrell. William Luttrell's name was spelled Litterall on marriage license.

William Luttrell and Elizabeth C. Witt had the following children:

She married John Luttrell, son of John Luttrell and Ruth about 1735 in Westmoreland County, Virginia. He was born on 16 Jul 1717 in St. Stephens Parish, Northumberland County, Virginia¹²². He died on 15 Dec 1794 in Westmoreland County, Virginia, USA.

Notes for Francis Patience Sanford:

I have differing information as to who was the father of Francis Patience Sanford's husband, John Luttrell. The manuscript by Glenna L. Deal, 1989, indicates John is the son of John and grandson of James, Sr. However, the "Virginia Colonial Abstracts, Vol. III, Northumberland Co. Record of Births, St. Stephen's Parish" confirms that John was born to James on November 10, 1691 (St. Stephens Parish page 114) and then later (also page 114) shows that another John was born to John on July 16, 1717.

I also show a John b. October 08, 1712 to be the son of Simon and Elizabeth Canfield Pierce and he is also listed in his father's will. I believe this is a different John and not the one who married Francis Patience Sanford or Catherine Thomas.

The manuscript by Glenna L. Deal, 1989, lists the following children for John Luttrell: By Catherine Thomas: John b. Abt. 1740 James b. Abt. 1742 By Frances Patience Sanford: Hugh b. Abt. 1746 Thomas b. Abt. 1748 William b. Abt. 1750 There is no mention of Richard or Elizabeth

Notes for John Luttrell:

Tennessee Cousins, Page 223

It can be surmised that JOHN LUTTRELL, son of Simon, had a son who married a daughter of THOMAS SANFORD, of Westmoreland, and that they were the parents of four children:

1. THOMAS LUTTRELL
2. JOHN LUTTRELL
3. HUGH LUTTRELL
4. WILLIAM LUTTRELL

THOMAS SANFORD'S will mentions his wife MARGARET (who could have been MARGARET LUTTRELL, daughter of old SIMON) and his grandson THOMAS LUTTRELL. This SANFORD WILL was probated in Westmoreland County in 1770. Notes for Richard Riney Luttrell:

This branch being researched by Brenda at birds27@msn.com Richard R. Luttrell b1818 in Casey Co, Ky, is the son of Rodhum Luttrell and Matilda Horton. Nancy Jane Russell, wife of this Richard R. Luttrell was born 1823 in Casey Co, Ky, the daughter of Byrd Russell and Treacy Norris and the Granddaughter of Absalom Russell and Elizabeth Gaines. She is often confused with the Nancy Russell who married Richard Luttrell b1804 Va, son of Richard Luttrell and Deborah Heflin. This Nancy Russell was the DAUGHTER of Absalom Russell and SISTER of Byrd Russell. Hope this is not too confusing. Does anyone have ANY information on the above Treacy M. Luttrell, d/o Richard R. Notes for Mary Elizabeth Pierce:

In trying to determine the parentage of Elizabeth Pierce who married Shelton Luttrell, the 1850 census indicates she was born circa 1827 in Arkansas. Since there was a Francis Pierce living closeby with child age 13 born in Arkansas, I chose to check this person out in Arkansas to see whether he could be a candidate. Finding him on the 1830 Washington County, Arkansas census, he does indeed list a female in his household under age 5. Since there is a Foster Pierce, age 20, listed with Elizabeth and Shelton on the 1850 census, I suspect he is Elizabeth's brother. Then in 1840, Francis shows a son age 5-10 which matches Foster. 1850 Denton County, Texas Census, Roll M432_910, Page 109, Image 202, dwelling 52. He married Hannah Jarrett, daughter of Nathan Jared and Nancy Johnson on 12 Jan 1854 in Smith County, Texas^{896, 897}. She was born between 1832-1837 in Tennessee^{902, 903}. She died after 1880 in Wood County, Texas.

Notes for Colbert C. Luttrell:

Colbert C. Luttrell was killed on leave in Kentucky, during the Civil War (Union Army). In trying to locate Colbert Luttrell in Texas on the 1850 census I've discovered that his brother's name is indexed very misspelled (Sulrell) and suspect his name is likewise butchered. I did a search on Colbert and found only one Colbert on the index - Colbert Black, age 16, and brother James, age 14, living with the Wm. Shaw family. (1850 Cherokee County, Page 877, Image 411). Not sure if this is the same person but Colbert does have a brother named James.

Colbert C. Luttrell and Hannah Jarrett had the following children:

- i. MELISSA¹⁴ LUTTRELL¹⁶⁷¹ was born in 1855 in Flora, Smith County, Texas.
 - ii. WILLIAM S. LUTTRELL¹⁶⁷² was born in 1857 in Flora, Smith County, Texas.

Milton Thornton was a Union Veteran of the Civil War, in the Missouri Militia Home Guard, Osage County, 8th Regiment, Captain Charles D. Martin Commander. Milton enlisted on June 22, 1861, was mustered out December 20, 1861, enlisted again at Lebanon, Missouri October 26, 1863 in M.S.M. Calvery 8th Regiment, Captain Jacob Casseints commanding. (Consolidated with county Militia.) He was honorably discharged July 17, 1865 but was bushwacked and hung by ex-confederates shortly after the war. Family stories tell that his son was with him and he persuaded the ex-confederates to let his son go home (so he wouldn't have to watch his father die).

Civil War Service Records indicate he was a musician. This is confirmed by a newspaper article dated 2 Feb 1921 in a Schuyler County, Illinois Newspaper which talks of a 200 year old fiddle that originally belonged to Milton Thornton. This may also offer a reason for his death as he was listed as a member of the Jesse James Gang in the newspaper article. However, I find this doubtful since Jesse James had confederate ties and Milton was a Union Soldier who was hung by ex-confederates.

"The violin originally belonged to Milton Thornton, a member of the Jesse James gang, which terrorized the middle west. It came into the hands of a man named Spillers who lived in the vicinity of Beardstown. James Teel, now deceased, secured it from him, and Mrs. James Teel gave it to her daughter's husband, the present owner, recently. He is repairing it and in due season the mellow tones of this old violin will recall the memories of long ago."

Notes for Huldah Melissa Haney:

[GleeKrapf.FTW] Her birthday on her tombstone is 20 November 1861 but she is on the 1860 census with her parents at age one month old. So whoever put that birthdate on her tombstone was incorrect. She would not be on 1860 census if she was not born yet.

- v. MARY AMANDA "MANDA" HANEY^{1881, 1882} was born on 15 Sep 1850 in Marion County, Illinois^{1879, 1882, 1883}. She died on 28 Mar 1928 in Cherokee County, Oklahoma¹⁸⁸². She married SAMUEL B. Generation 13 (con't)

Notes for Mary Amanda "Manda" Haney:

[GleeKrapf.FTW] My Mother, Jewell Neel Van Osdol, says that Mary Jarvis was a midwife and delivered several of the older children of her family. She brought Jewell into this world. She was a very sweet old lady and would come and stay several weeks at a time with the Callie Neel family. She had asthma very bad and suffered greatly with it. Jewell says that she would smoke something that would relieve her asthma. She was at their house one time when Callie was gone and when he came home in the dark they heard him coming and he was drunk. He was mean when he was drinking and everyone was in bed already. She was sleeping with Jewell and she started to pray for their safety and Jewell says that she felt the angels hovering over them as Mary Jarvis prayed. My grandmother Willora Cleora Bee Neel would get the gun and hide under the porch so Callie could not find it. She was afraid that he might shoot them for the first thing that he did was look for his gun. Many times she sent the kids outside to hide somewhere till he fell asleep. Told to me Willora Glee Krapf over the phone by my mother May 12, 2000.

- vi. BENNETT CALVIN "CAL" HANEY¹⁸⁸⁵ was born on 05 Jan 1861 in Camden County, Missouri (Miller^{1885, 1886}). He died on 30 Sep 1895 in Mountain View, Howell County, Missouri¹⁸⁸⁵. He married Martha Ann Shelton, daughter of James Shelton and Hester Carter on 22 Aug 1880 in Miller County, Missouri by Joshua Cochran, Minister¹⁸⁸⁵. She was born on 28 Feb 1861 in Richwoods, Miller County, Missouri¹⁸⁸⁵. She died on 20 Dec 1930 in Pocahontas, Randolph County, Arkansas¹⁸⁸⁵.

Notes for Bennett Calvin "Cal" Haney:

[GleeKrapf.FTW] Theresa could not read or write. She had Jesse Luttrell write down her children's birth dates for her. She says this in her pension application papers. I Believe that Bennett's middle name was Calvin and when it was recorded that it was written down wrong as B instead of C. His nick name was Cal and Benjamin Calvin Neel's mother was a sister of Bluford and think that his middle name was for her brother Bennet Calvin. Notes for Celia Mary Frances Witt:

Miller County Autogram Newspaper, Tuscumbia, Missouri, Feb. 3, 1921 OBITUARY OF CELIA FRANCIS WITT LUTTRELL Celia Francis Witt was born in the state of Illinois January 11, 1836; died at her home near Brumley, January 19, 1921 at 7;30 p. m. after a lingering illness of three weeks. All that skilled physicians, loving hearts and willing hands could do was done but alas, her work was done; the lord said "It is enough, come up higher." She, with her parents came to Miller county in the year 1840 and has resided in Miller county ever since except one year she lived in the state of Iowa. In the year 1862, she was united in marriage to Henry Luttrell and to this union were born 8 children--two girls and six boys, her husband and George, the oldest son, having preceded her to the spirit world many years ago. Those still living are B. D., W. S. and H. M. Luttrell of Brumley; and J. J. and Bluford Luttrell of Miami, Oklahoma; Mrs. Joe Duncan and Mrs. Greenberry Pemberton of Brumley. She was the grand- mother of 43 grandchildren and 56 great-grandchildren. She had lived a devoted Christian. Funeral services were held from the Mount Union Church January 21st at which time the writer tried to speak words of comfort to the sorrowing ones from Jobe 14;14. "If a man die shall he live again"--after which all that was mortal of our beloved sister was conveyed to the cemetery near by and there amid sobs and sighs of a host of relatives and friends was laid beside her husband to await the second coming of our blessed Saviour, at which time all that are in their graves shall come forth; They that have done good to life eternal, but they have done evil to everlasting destruction. How consoling the thought when we think of the words of the beloved, which died in the Lord; from henceforth, yea sayeth the spirit, they shall rest from their labors and their works to follow them." And now dear ---es let us bow our heads in humble submission to Him that doeth all things well and until that great day let us say, "Dear Mother, farewell." R. F. Moneymaker Card of thanks B. D. That she was married to said Thornton by a Justice of the Peace in Camden County, Missouri January 18th, 1860. And that the records of said Camden County have been burned so that she cannot obtain a copy and that the Justice who married them moved away during the civil war and she does not think of any one living now who was present at the time that. That she has the original record made by Thornton of her marriage. And the births of their children. That there is no record of the death of either of her husbands. So far as she is advised for the reason that there was no official or church records made of deaths at that time in this country.

Affidavit of (J.M. WARNELL, AGE 76 YEARS BORN 1841 BRUMLEY, MO)

Prior to the civil war his fathers family and he with them lived in Camden County, Mo. and in sight of the residence of Milton O. Thornton, in about 1858. That said Thornton, first wife died about 1858. That he and his sister sat up with the corps (corpse?) the night she lay corps. And that she was buried at the Glover Graveyard about one mile from our homes. That he was acquainted with said Thornton, until the time of his death or until he heard of his getting killed sometime after the close of the civil war.

Notes for Jesse Marion Witt:

The Miller County Autogram Newspaper, Tuscumbia, Mo., Thursday June 23, 1932, Pg 3, Column 6 James Witt Obituary The Death Angel has visited our home again and taken from our midst another loved one. Jesse M. Witt was born August 22, 1841; departed this life May 31, 1932. He was united in marriage to Martha A. Luttrell April 23, 1866; to this union was born seven children, namely: George Witt of Marionville, Mrs Ruthie Drouillard of Terminal Island, Cal. Mrs W.T. Luttrell of Montreal, Mrs Frances Drouillard (deceased) Haman Witt, Tom and John of Brumley. Two have preceded him to the great beyond. He was a soldier of the Civil War. He enlisted in Co D 6th Mo cavalry in 1861 and served till 1865, but the greatest of all, he was a true devoted and faithful soldier of the Cross till death. He was set for the defense of the gospel, ready and eager to give a reason for the hope within him; his utmost desire and ambition in life was to be a Christian. He obeyed the gospel early in life. He was 99 years, 9 months and 9 days of age when the loving father saw fit to remove him from earth and earthly cares and from the evil which so often vexed his righteous soul. Our lives cannot tell we miss him; our hears cannot tell what to say; God alone knows how we miss him, in a home that is lonesome today. He will sadly be missed by us all. Funeral services were conducted at the Mt. Union Cemetery by Rev. V.M. Smith where the remains were laid to rest to await the resurrection- written by a loving granddaughter. 1880 Miller County, Missouri Census, Auglaze Township, S.D. 3, E.D. 102, Pages 25-26, Dated 17 Jun 1880, Dwelling No. 234. Notes for Joseph Littrell:

There is a J.G. Littrell, born Oct. 6, 1836, buried in Oaklawn Cemetery in Wynnewood, Oklahoma. He died June 28, 1905. There is no stone next to him for a wife. I am wondering if this is Joseph Littrell. I am wanting to know, specifically, if he was a Confederate soldier and if so what his military unit was. We are planning to build a monument here in honor of all of the approximately 140 Confederate veterans who once lived in Wynnewood, and I want to work up a biographical sketch on each one. Each man's name, rank, and military unit will go on the monument in bronze. All we need to do is raise $45,000!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!! So, it won't be done right away! But, if anyone has information that would connect this J.G. Littrell with your Joseph, please let me know. Thanks! If you want me to mail you some printed material about the monument, tell me how to mail it to you. Michael A. Grissom rebel1@telepath.com

Notes for Caleb Columbus Luttrell:

All census records show Nancy with no husband listed however family stories indicate that he is Caleb Luttrell. The 1850 census records for Casey County, KY show a Caleb Luttrell born 1832 which compared to Nancy's 1808 birthdate would make him more likely a son than a husband. That Caleb Luttrell is a son of Rhodham & Matilda Luttrell and married Malinda Meek on 26 Dec 1853 in Casey County, Kentucky. That pretty much rules him out. But the Caleb, son of Richard Luttrell and Hannah C. Brown fits perfect and in 1860, Caleb's wife, Nancy is living in California with a Joshua Luttrell living close by. Richard & Nancy had a son named Joshua. ----- My information for Calab and Nancy's children comes from a publication by Rev. Terril D. Littrell, "Luttrell Kentucky Ancestors". The 7 children are listed as follows: 1) Sarah, b. Nov. 6, 1828; 2) Mary Ann, b. Sept. 1, 1833, m. John Louis Hawkins Dec. 25, 1851, d. Nov. 21, 1893; 3) Thomas J., b. Aug. 25, 1836, m. Sarah Hawkins Apr. 18, 1852, d. Nov. 16, 1877; 4) Cahille, b. Dec. 17, 1837, d. Apr. 3, 1848; 5) Jasper Newton, b. Dec. 3, 1838 in Bolivar, MO, d. Mar. 11, 1897; 6) Cordelia, b. Notes for Nancy Winfrey:

Obituary of Nancy "Winfrey" Luttrell In Pine Grove, March 26, 1894, Mrs. Nancy Luttrell a native of Kentucky aged 85 years, 7 months, and 8 day's. Deceased was one of the earliest settlers in this vicinity having resided here most of the time for about 39 years, during which time she formed a large circle of acquaintances and warm friends. Grandma Luttrell, as she was always called was born in Adair County Kentucky, August 25 1808. In early life she was converted to the Christian religion. At the age of 20 years she was married to Caleb Luttrell, a few years later they removed to the State of Missouri, and settled in Bollivar, then the county seat of Polk County, and remained there until the Spring of 1846 when with her husband and family she journeyed across the plains. Late in October they arrived in Placerville, then a mining camp. Three day's later her husband died of pneumonia having caught a severe cold while standing guard while crossing the mountains. Then she was left alone in a strange land with five children to provide for but she did it nobly and well. Many a woman would have given up in despair under similar circumstances but she did not. She was energetic and far seeing and in a year's time accumulated enough yellow metal to return to her relatives in Missouri and buy a farm. Four years later she came again to the golden state and in 57 and 58 kept a provisions store in Pine Grove in the building where J.T. Wheeler now keeps store. In 1856 she again crossed the plains and settled in Dallas County, Missouri intending to remain there the balance of her days but the civil war broke out, the country was rent asunder and all was turmoil and strife and her home was broken up, so she determined to return to again to California landing at San Francisco Dec. 15, 1865. She came direct to Pine Grove and has resided here ever since. She was the mother of seven children of whom but 3 survive her. Mrs. Delia Lowry and C.C. Luttrell of Pine Grove and a son living in the East. The late Mrs. Mary Hawkins who died in lone 4 months ago was also her daughter. She has many grand children and great grand children. She was a kind and loving mother always doing deeds of kindness and trying to make others happy. "Weep not that her toil is over Weep not that her race is run God grant that we may rest as calmly When our work, like hers is done." I have been unable to find this family on the 1850 census records. 1860 Green, Dallas County, Missouri; Roll: M653_617; Page: 0; Image: 322. Nancy Luttrell, age 51, (born circa 1809), Kentucky. She was born in 1732 in Westmoreland County, Virginia. She died on 25 Nov 1790 in Amherst County, Virginia (or 1792).

Notes for Richard Luttrell:

Richard Luttrell m. Sarah Churchwell. About 1764 the family moved to a farm near Rockfish Creek, in Amherst County, Virginia the last two of the children born were William and John Luttrell. Richard Luttrell and his sons James and Richard, Jr. served in the Revolutionary War. Richard Sr., served in the Virginia Troops under the command of Gen. George Rogers Clark in the Illinois Campaign. The land conquered from the British in this campaign became the Northwest Territory and later formed the state of Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan, Wisconsin, and part of Minnesota. For his services Richard was given a grant of 108 acres of land in the present state of Illinois which he sold in July of 1789. Amherst County, Virginia land records show his continued presence in Virginia in the years 1787, 1788 and 1794. They remained in Amherst County, Virginia until death. Luttrell (Luttrell) Richard : Amherst County, Virginia (Deed book G, p. 478, 1794) power of attorney. She died date Unknown.

Notes for Richard Luttrell:

HISTORY OF VIRGINIA, (Vol.6) Page 270-271, American Historical Society, 1924
HUGH M. LUTTRELL IVANHOE FARM FAUQUIER CO. VIRGINIA Hugh M. Luttrell. To say that Hugh M. Luttrell is master of Ivanhoe Farm, one of the pure bred stock farms of Fauquier County, is to give him a high and widely recognized tribute as one of the most successful stockmen of Virginia, one whose prize products have been exhibited not only in state but national shows and fairs. Mr. Luttrell represents a Colonial Virginia family. The Luttrell's originally lived in France, went from there to England, thence to Ireland and from Ireland came to America in the early part of the eighteenth century, settling in Prince William County, Virginia. Richard Luttrell, son of the first Richard Luttrell, through the influence of Thomas Jefferson was commissioned an ensign from Fauquier County in the Revolution, and after the close of the war for independence he was appointed by President Thomas Jefferson, governor of Illinois Territory. Richard Luttrell married a Miss Frances Hambleton. They were the parents of James Richard Luttrell, who married a Miss Bywaters, and by that union had one son and three daughters. The son was Burrell Edmond Luttrell, father of the proprietor of Ivanhoe. Burrell Edmond Luttrell was a Confederate soldier, acting as a recruiting officer for Gen. J.E.B. Stuart and General Beauregard. He was captured at the battle of Strasburg, Virginia, and was confined at Point Lookout, Maryland, until the end of the war. He was a native of Culpeper County, had a liberal education, was a teacher after the war and he then settled down to the business of farming, which had been the occupation of his ancestors for generations. He became the owner of the old Nelson farm, Locust Grove, in Rappahannock County, and was a breeder of pedigreed cattle and sheep. He died at Locust Grove in 1912, at the age of seventy-six. He was one of the courtly old citizens of his time, and was a devout Baptist. B. E. Luttrell married Mary Nelson, daughter of James Richard Nelson, of Culpeper County and a descendant of the famous old General and governor Nelson of Revolutionary times. James Richard Nelson was a farmer, and his wife was Elizabeth Bywaters. Mrs. B. E. Luttrell died in 1909 and she and her husband are buried at Amissville, Virginia. They reared a family of seven sons and one daughter. Capitola; wife of John S. Hughes, now a resident of Richmond; Richard Edmond, a Rappahannock County farmer who married Miss Ada Browning; Hugh Montgomery; Frank, a farmer in Rappahannock County; Charles, who died unmarried at the age of twenty-four; Warren, who died while a Baptist missionary in India; Russell, in the insurance and loan business at Falls church, Virginia; and John A, an insurance man at Waynesboro, Pennsylvania. Hugh Montgomery Luttrell was born at Olive, Culpeper County, Virginia, January 18, 1868. He grew up in Rappahannock County, and was well educated, attending the Virginia Military Academy at Culpeper Court House and Richmond College. His early training on the farm decided him in his course of a vocation, and after a year of ranching experience in California he returned to Virginia and established himself at Ivanhoe,

and from the first has specialized in the raising of high grade stock. For many years he bred and showed hunting horses, but from that he concentrated his attention on Aberdeen Angus cattle and Poland China hogs. As a horse breeder he won several hundred prizes, exhibiting his stock at the important horse shows of the country, and has ribbons by the boxfull. He raised "Bowling" and brought out "Eagle" and "Willow King" as well as "Majesty." In the cattle industry he showed the Red Polled for five years, and later his Aberdeen Angus cattle were exhibited at the Chicago International Stock Show, winning several seconds. He won the junior championship of the State Fair three years in succession, owning the grand champion steer at the Richmond State Fair, and two dozen silver cups and vases in his home indicate to what extent his exhibits have been considered in competition with other prize stock horses, Hogs, Wheat and Corn grown at Ivanhoe has been awarded an aggregate of 530 ribbons. With a long and successful experience as a stock breeder Mr. Luttrell has contributed of his experience to the benefit of others and has written a number of articles for magazines on stock breeding and animal husbandry. He was one of the founders of the Fauquier Agricultural Society and its President for ten years, and that he is one of the most prominent men in the agricultural industry today is indicated. By the fact that he is Vice President of the Virginia State Fair Association, Vice President of the State Farmers Union, President of the Fauquier County farmers Union and President of the Virginia Aberdeen Angus Association. The old home at Ivanhoe was built seventy-eight years ago by Lewis F. Marshall, a nephew of Chief Justice Marshall. This residence was burned in 1895, and the present owner of Ivanhoe replaced it with a modern mansion located opposite the old home of Chief Justice Marshall, Oak Hill. It is also near the birthplace of the Confederate General Turner Ashby, and not far away is the home of Admiral Jones of the United States Navy. During the war between the states, Ivanhoe was in the path of General Jackson's army and Col. John S. Mosby's troops as they went up and down skirmishing and campaigning. At that time Lewis F. Marshall was occupying Ivanhoe, and some of his sons were in the Confederate army battling for the cause of the South. Mr. Luttrell was reared a Baptist, but is now a member of the Presbyterian Church and one of the trustees of the Westminster congregation at Delaplane. He cast his first presidential ballot for Grover Cleveland, and has never failed to cast his ballot for the national head of the party since then. In Westminster Church at Delaplane, July 10, 1894, Mr. Luttrell married Miss Atlanta Singleton, who was born at Baltimore, August 19, 1867, daughter of Andrew Jackson Singleton. She was the only child of her parents to grow to maturity, and was educated in the Carey School in Baltimore. Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Luttrell have one daughter and two sons: Mary Singleton Luttrell who finished her education in May Baldwin Seminary; Hugh M. Jr. and Singleton Luttrell. The sons are assisting their father in the management of Ivanhoe farm. Hugh, Jr., finished his education in Randolph-Macon Academy and in a business school at Washington. 1810 Botetourt County, Virginia Census; Roll: 66; Page: 639; Image: 623.00. Notes for Nancy Ann Luttrell:

Nancy Ann Luttrell was the daughter of William Melton Littrell and Mary K. Floyd. The name Littrell seems to change back and forth between Littrell and Luttrell. Mary K. Floyd was William's second wife and she had two sisters who also married Luttrell's - Caroline Nancy Floyd and Elizabeth Elender Floyd. William Melton Littrell and Mary K. Floyd were married on September 10, 1867 in Hickory County, Missouri.

Now to Nancy and Millard Butler:

I have Millard F. Butler born circa 1855-1856 in Illinois according to the 1870 and 1880 Hickory County, Missouri Census. Millard is a School Teacher.

1870 Tyler, Hickory County, Missouri Census; Roll: M593_779; Page: 69; Image: 139. Post Office: Elkton, Missouri.

John A. Butler, age 44 (born circa 1826), male, white, farmer, born Tennessee.
Mary Butler, age 43 (born circa 1827), female, white, keeping house, born Illinois.
William H. Butler, age 18 (born circa 1852), male, white, farm laborer, born Illinois.
Peter D. Butler, age 16 (born circa 1854), male, white, farm laborer, born Illinois.
Millard F. Butler, age 14 (born circa 1856), male, white, farm laborer, born Illinois.
George W. Butler, age 9 (born circa 1861), male, white, farm laborer, born Illinois.
Sarah A. Butler, age 8 (born circa 1862), female, white, born Illinois.
Edwin S. Butler, age 6 (born circa 1864), male, white, born Illinois.
Listed next to Samuel Butler and Thomas Butler.

Henry Mc Claslin, age 60 (born circa 1820), farmer, born North Carolina, parents born North Carolina.

Rachel Mc Claslin, age 58 (born circa 1822), wife, born Tennessee, father born TN, mother born PA

John Mc Claslin, age 21 (born circa 1859), son, clerk in store, born Missouri.

Jimmie Ervin, age 16 (born circa 1864), servant, housekeeper, born Illinois, father born Ohio, mother born Iowa.

F. M. Butler, age 25 (born circa 1855), boarder, School Teacher, born Illinois.

I have Nancy as born circa 1866 according to the 1870 census records where she is listed as 4 years of age. Because her mother didn't marry until 1867, both Nancy and her brother William were born out of wedlock. Something not uncommon in that area.

1870 Waynesville, Tavern Township, Pulaski County, Missouri Census; Roll: M593_801; Page: 211; Image: 101.

Littrell, Melton, age 45 (born circa 1825), male, white, Farmer, born Illinois.
Littrell, Mary, age 26 (born circa 1844), female, white, keeping house, born Illinois.
Littrell, Elizabeth, age 21 (born circa 1849), female, house keeper, born Illinois.
Littrell, Susan, age 19 (born circa 1851), female, white, at home, born Illinois.
Littrell, John, age 17 (born circa 1853), male, white, farm laborer, born Texas.
Littrell, Ellen, age 15 (born circa 1855), female, white, born Texas.
Littrell, William, age 5 (born circa 1865), male, white, born Missouri.
Littrell, Nancy, age 4 (born circa 1866), female, white, born Missouri.

Generation 14 (con't)

Littrell, Melton, age 2 (born circa 1868), male, white, born Missouri.

The 1900 census, however, indicates that William Littrell was born Sept. 1867 and that Nancy Ann Littrell was born Aug 1874 but with a age of 36, they must have meant 1864. I have serious doubts that these years are correct. Surely Mary Floyd would know if William was 3 years old or 5 years old in 1870 when it is closer to the child's birth.

1880 Green, Hickory County, Missouri Census; Roll: T9_690; Family History Film: 1254690; Page: 513.1000; Enumeration District: 238; Image: 0108.

William Luttrell, age 60 (born circa 1820), white, male, farmer, born Illinois, parents born Kentucky. Mary Luttrell, age 30 (born circa 1850), white, female, wife, keeping house, born Tennessee, father born Kentucky, mother born Tennessee.

John H. Luttrell, age 26 (born circa 1854), white, male, son, at home, born Texas, father born Illinois.

Nancy A. Luttrell, age 15 (born circa 1865), white, female, daughter, at home, born Missouri, father born Illinois, mother born Tennessee.

William T. Luttrell, age 12 (born circa 1868), white, male, son, at home, born Missouri, father born Illinois, mother born Tennessee.

James S. Luttrell, age 10 (born circa 1870), white, male, son, at home, born Missouri, father born Illinois, mother born Tennessee.

Mary M. Luttrell, age 8 (born circa 1872), white, female, daughter, born Missouri, father born Illinois, mother born Tennessee.

Sarah M. Luttrell, age 6 (born circa 1874), white, female, daughter, born Missouri, father born Illinois, mother born Tennessee.

Benjamin H. Luttrell, age 4 (born circa 1876), white, male, son, born Missouri, father born Illinois, mother born Tennessee.

Christena Luttrell, age 1 (born circa 1879), white, female, daughter, born Arkansas, father born Illinois, mother born Tennessee.

In April 21, 1881 Nancy Ann Floyd and F. M. Butler were married in Hickory County, Missouri. I find it strange that she is listed as a Floyd and not a Littrell. I figure that Nancy was about 15 years old when she married. (My aunt was 14 when she married so this is not unusual).

My grandmother, Stella Thornton, who was raised in neighboring Miller County, MO, was also born out of wedlock and she always used her mother's maiden name of Thornton. Her mother had married an Ash when Stella was 2 years old and she repeatedly tried to get Stella to use Ash as her last name indicating that Ash was her father but she refused because she didn't like Green Ash. It wasn't until years later on her mother's death bed that it was learned that Stella was fathered by Andrew Irwin. I have to wonder if this could also be the case here. So was Nancy and William actually the children of William Melton Littrell or were they born to a different man and prodded to use Littrell in an effort to legitimize their births?

It is mentioned that Nancy was half Cherokee and half Acadian French (Cajun). The Floyds came from South Carolina where Mary's father (Thomas C. Floyd) was born in 1823 in Spartanburg, South Carolina. Nancy S. Reynolds was Mary Floyd's mother and she was from Alabama. The Luttrell's were from Virginia and were originally Irish. The only way Nancy could have some Indian in her is if William Melton Littrell wasn't her biological father which by the census could be quite likely. On the Ash side, Green Ash had a brother who was also part Indian (per family stories). So it is not unlikely.

It seems that the 1900 census for Nancy Littrell Butler was quite confusing - none of the birthdates given add up to their respective ages. Nancy is listed as living with her mother who is widowed. Nancy was formerly written with a last name of Butler but it was erased and Littrell written instead. Nancy is also listed as widowed however her husband, Millard F. (Filmore?) Butler, is found living in St. Clair County, Missouri with a new family. His oldest son being born Nov 1890.

1900 Green, Hickory County, Missouri Census; Roll: T623 858; Page: 7A; Enumeration District: 96. Mary K. Littrell, head, age 48 (born May 1852), widowed, had 8 children with 6 surviving, born Tennessee, father born Virginia, mother born Tennessee.

Nancy A. (Butler erased) Littrell, daughter, age 36 (born Aug 1874 - did they mean 1864?), widowed, had 2 children with 2 surviving, born Missouri, father born Illinois, mother born Tennessee.

Henry Butler, age 14 (born Aug 1885), grandson, single, born Missouri, father born Missouri, mother born Tennessee.

Harvey Butler, age 9 (born April 1891), grandson, single, born Missouri, father born Missouri, mother born Tennessee.

Henry Butler, age 38 (born circa 1882), head, married, born Missouri, father born USA, mother born Missouri, Farmer.

Etta Butler, age 32 (born circa 1888), wife, born Wisconsin, father born Norway, mother born Wisconsin, Public School Teacher.

Ferroll W Butler, age 9 (born circa 1911), son, single, born Colorado, father born Missouri, mother born Wisconsin.

Hazel Butler, age 6 (born circa 1914), daughter, single, born Colorado, father born Missouri, mother born Wisconsin.

Donald H Butler, age 1 4/12 (born circa 1918), son, single, born Colorado, father born Missouri, mother born Wisconsin.

Mary Lampe, age 67 (born circa 1853), mother-in-law, divorced, born Wisconsin, parents born New York.

Another thing I find strange is that if Harvey was 9 in 1900 and born in 1891, then how did Millard F. Butler and Jeline Minnie Browning have Bernus Butler on November 06, 1890. The dates overlap. Both Millard Butlers are teachers and have the same birth year and place so I'm sure they are the same person. Was Millard seeing both women? He indicates that he was married to Jeline Browning for 12 years in 1900 (circa 1888) which is shortly after Henry is born. I also find it strange that on the 1900 census, Harvey is listed as unable to read or write yet his father is a teacher. Was Harvey even fathered by Millard F. Butler?

All I know is that I have a definite date of marriage for Nancy A. Floyd and F. M. Butler of 1881 and then find that by 1888 he has left her and married another woman and started a new family.

She died on 26 Dec 1945 in Hickory County, Missouri. She married William Thomas Pitts, son of Barney Pitts and Emmaline Isabelle Stricklin on 07 Apr 1890 in Hickory County, Missouri^{1645, 1648, 1652}. He was born on Feb 1868 (or Feb 1870 per 1900 census) in Missouri^{1653, 1654}. He died in 1914 in Missouri, USA.

Generation 14 (con't)

William Thomas Pitts and Sarah Melvina Luttrell had the following children:

- i. LIVING PITTS^{2641, 2642, 2643}.
- ii. ARTIE PITTS^{2644, 2645, 2646} was born in May 1894 in Missouri^{2644, 2646}. He died on 05 Jul 1920 in Miami, Saline, Missouri, USA.

213. SUSANNA ANN¹⁴ LITTRELL (William Melton¹³, William James¹² Luttrell, Nathaniel¹¹ Luttrell, Michael¹⁰ Luttrell Sr., Richard⁹ Luttrell Sr., James⁸ Luttrell, Richard⁷ Luttrell, Robert⁶ Luttrell, Thomas⁵ Luttrell, Richard⁴ Luttrell, Thomas³ Luttrell, Christopher² Luttrell, Robert¹ Luttrell)^{1510, 1663} was born about 1851 in Denton County, Texas^{1510, 1511, 1512, 1513}. She died about 1882 in Camden County, Missouri. She married George Washington Luttrell Sr., son of William "Lewis" Luttrell and Mahala Ann Luttrell on 13 May 1872 in Texas County, Missouri. He was born on 19 Aug 1846 in Browning, Schuyler County, Illinois^{1485, 1486, 1487, 1488, 1489, 1491, 1492, 1493, 1494, 1495, 1496, 1497, 1498}. He died on 31 Jul 1925 in Sullivan, Franklin County, Missouri^{1491, 1497, 1499, 1500}.

Notes for Susanna Ann Littrell:

Since Susan shows a child born in 1882 which also died in 1882, I suspect that she may have died from complications of childbirth. Her widowed husband remarried in 1889 to Martha Ann Thornton.

Notes for George Washington Luttrell Sr.:

He was a son of Henry J. and Celia F. Luttrell. He was born in Miller County near Brumley Feb. 14, 1872; was united in holy matrimony to Lena Shelton Oct. 8, 1893. To this union were born three children-Arthur Luttrell of Swedeborg and Henry and Ace Luttrell of St. Louis. He leaves to mourn his loss his wife, three children, three brothers and two sisters who are John Luttrell of Republic, B.D. and W.S. Luttrell and Mrs. Green Pemberton and Mrs. Joe Duncan, who all live near Brumley, and a host of other relatives and friends to mourn their loss. He had been suffering for many months from leakage of the heart and high blood pressure. Funeral services were conducted by the writer January 14th, after which the remains were placed in the silent city of the dead. It is again we are reminded that we are swift passengers from time to eternity. The old must die and young may. " It is appointed unto man once to die and after this the judgement." Heb 9: 27 " Man that is born of woman is of a few days and full of trouble. He cometh forth like a flower and it cut down; his flesh also as a shadow and continueth not." Job 14: 1-2 As we are now, so once was he, As he is now , some day we'll be; "Life is just a vapor that appeareth for a little time and vanishes away." James 4: 14-- V.M. The Miller County Autogram Newspaper, Tuscumbia, Missouri, Thursday, January 8, 1919, Page 1 LUTTRELL WRITES FROM NANCY We are indebted to Bluford Luttrell of Brumley for the following letter from his son in France: Nov. 27, 1918 Nancy, France Mr. Bluford Luttrell: Dear Father. How are you all by now? I am just fine. Hope you all are the same. What are you all doing now? I am working in the kitchen. Well I will try and continue my trip now the best I can remember. We left Camp Dodge Aug. 9 for Camp Mills. The states went through were Iowa, Ill., Tenn, N.Y., N.J. We landed at Hoboken Aug. 12 left there Aug. 14 for Philadelphia boarded a ship there sailed down to the New York harbor stayed there till the 16th of Aug. Then sailed for England. Got a train there rode across England and landed in South Hampton then got on a boat there and went across the English Channel to La Harve on Sunday morning. Got a train there went to Gresigny. We stayed there two or three weeks. Got a train there and went to Vazolaiz left there for Frountel stayed all night there and came back to Vezolais. Left there and went to Raqoicent, landed there and then left for camp Norman and stayed there a week or so then went into the trenches left the trenches Nov. 2. Stayed one day in Donnearre on the third of Nov biked from there to La Salbert one night distant 28 miles La Salbert is near Belfort Left Salbert for Lucy landed in there and we will leave this in a few days. Don't know where we will go but hope for home. Lucy is near Nancy and ?ovl. You can take a map and tell very near how much of France have seen. And all of this traveling hs been done on foot or in a box car. From 30 to 40 men in one car and they aren't more than half as large as the ones at home. Tomorrow is Thanksgiving but guess we won't have Turkey. Will close. Your son Benjamin A. Luttrell

Notes for Melinda Jane Luttrell:

The Miller County Autogram, Tuscumbia, Missouri, Thursday January 16, 1941. Pg4, Column 7 Obituary of Mrs. Malinda Jane Duncan Malinda Jane Duncan was born September 17, 1867; departed this life December 27th 1940 being 73, 3 months and 10 days old at the time of her death. She was united in marriage to Joseph Duncan, October 8th, 1887 and to this union was born 8 children. Her husband, Joseph Duncan, and one child preceded her in death. Those living are: Lizzie Reinhart, George and John Duncan of Brumley, Francis Brumley of Iberia, Ada Plemmons and Ida Duncan of Brumley and Ethel Luttrell of Brumley. She united with the church of Christ early in life and lived faithful until death. Our hearts were heavy but not like those who have no hope. She lived to a ripe old age and had come to the place in life that she could not do anything for those who were near and dear to her, and it seems to the writer that death would be sweet when our bodies are afflicted with pain that if we are ready to go it is far better to go to be with the loved ones gone on before. Our faith in God and his dear Son helps us to look beyond this veil of bitter tears to that city that has foundations whose builder and maker is God where there is no more suffering and pain, no more tears, no more sad farewells and where God with his own hand will wipe away all tears from our eyes and we have the promise of dwelling with all the redeemed for ten thousand years and time will be no shorter than when it first begun. Sister Duncan leaves her 7 children, 63 grandchildren and 23 great grandchildren to mourn her going, also W.S. Luttrell of Watkins, who was her brother and will be the last one of a large family to cross over the great divide, and a large number of other relatives and many friends. Her fleshly tabernacle was taken to the Mt. Union Church where the writer spoke words of comfort to the sorrowing relatives and friends, after which the body was placed in the silent city of the dead to await the resurrection morning---Virgil Smith.

Notes for Joseph Greenberry Duncan:

The Miller County Autogram, Tuscumbia, Missouri, Thursday, December 6, 1928, Page 5, Column 7 Joseph Duncan Obituary The Death Angel visited our home and took from our midst a kind and respected husband and father. Joseph Duncan was born April 18, 1869; and died Nov. 12 1928: age 59 years, 6 months and 24 days at the time of his death. He bore his suffering patiently for 9 days when God called him home. He was united in marriage to Malinda Luttrell and to this union were born 8 children namely: Mrs Lizzie Reinhart, George and John Duncan, Mrs. Frances Brumley, Mrs Ada Plemmons, Mrs Ida Shelton, Mrs. Ethel Luttrell and Greenberry who preceded him to the Great Beyond at the age of 11 months. He obeyed the gospel at an early age and lived a devoted Christian life. He leaves to mourn his loss, wife and children and grandchildren, 1 sister-Mrs John Will, three Brothers, Oliver, Dee and John Duncan. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. V.M. Smith Tuesday, Nov 13 amidst sorrowing relatives and friends. After the services his body was laid in the Mount Union Cemetery to await the Resurrection Morn. Father, thou has gone and left us, and your voice we hear no more, But we hope to meet you someday.

Notes for Mary Magdalene Duncan:

The Miller Co Autogram Newspaper, Tuscumbia, Missouri, Thursday May 10, 1923, Page 1, Column 7 Mrs B.M. Luttrell Buried at Mt. Union Brumley, Mo- Mrs. Mary Luttrell was born July 4, 1870; being the the age of 53 years, 10 months and 2 days old. When a young lady she was united in marriage with B.M. Luttrell. To this union 10 children were born- 5 boys and 5 girls, 2 dead and 8 living. Those who are left to mourn her loss are a loving husband and children- Mrs Effie Jane Thornton of Sedalia, Willard Luttrell of near Crocker, Mrs Annie Davenport on the home place. Hamon, Tom, Mell, John and Parthina at home. She died at the old home place where they have spent their married life. She united with the church of Christ at Mt. Union several years ago spending her life in the hope of our Master. She died with that hope saying while she was the Master will guide and take care of me. She was a good wife and a loving mother a good neighbor, always ready and willing to help in time of need. Weep not dear family for our loss in her eternal gain; be prepared to meet her where parting is no more. Funeral services were conducted by the pastor of the church. G.S. Baugh after which the body was laid to rest in the Mt. Union cemetery to wait the calling of the Lord- Written by Rosa Luttrell. Card of Thanks We desire to express our sincere appreciation to all our neighbors and friends for their help during the sickness and death of our wife and mother- B.M. Luttrell and family.

Notes for Laura Elizabeth Luttrell:

[Juanita Berrian.FTW] Miss Laura E. Luttrell, did not marry. She was a census taker and belonged to the East Tennessee Historical Society, of Knoxville, Tennessee. Maybe this letter was written to this Laura: by John A. Luttrell of Waynesboro, Franklin Co. Pennsylvania, on August 28, 1920. At, or about, the time one Robert Luttrell was lost sight of in Ireland, one of the same name appears in Prince William Co. VA and he had a son Simon, a very uncommon name, and yet a family name of the Irish Robert. I am inclined to the opinion that we were all descendants of one original Luttrell by the name of Robert. LDS; records show Anne to be his Wife's name. Based on Simon's age Robert would likely have been born about 1640 and may have immigrated to Virginia about 1665. See more information under: Robert and Anne LuttrellMiss Laura Luttrell was a member of the East Tennessee Historical Society of Knoxville, Tennessee.

Notes for Christopher Columbus Luttrell:

Obituary of Christopher Columbus Luttrell Pine Grove May 9. Death has entered into our midst, and this time was taken from us one of our well-known and highly esteemed citizens, C.C. Luttrell. The news of his death came as a shock to his many relatives and friends Saturday evening, May 4th, when after a brief illness, he passed away. The larger portion of his life has been spent in Pine Grove since his coming to California in 1849. He was born Polk County, Missouri in 1845. During his residence here as a merchant and a citizen, his many fine qualities have won for him a host of friends who will deeply miss him for his accustomed place in their community. Funeral services were fittingly conducted from the residence in Pine Grove, Rev. R.E. Wenk of Jackson. Interment took place in the Pine Grove cemetery. There we have left him among the flowers, which are such an appropriate emblem of our thoughts toward him, but our deepest sympathy goes to those left lonely in the home, his wife, his sister, Mrs. Lowry of Pine Grove and five children, Mrs. W. Wilson of Meloncs, Calaveras county; Mrs. Murphy, Miss Madge Luttrell and Hugh Luttrell of Pine Grove and Homer Luttrell. 1880; Census Place: Township 3, Amador, California; Roll: T9_63; Family History Film: 1254063; Page: 60.2000; Enumeration District: 35; Image: 0123. Notes for James Churchwell Luttrell:

James Luttrell served as Minuteman under Capt. James Dillard and Lt. Thomas Morrison. Was sheriff of Knox County in early 19th Century. His place of residence during the Revolution was Amherst County, Virginia. Rejected Pension Claim due to serving less than the required 6 months for such claim. Senate Executive Document # 37 issue, Feb. 1852, Tenn. Div. See Will of 1796. Source: Tennessee Cousins: A History of Tennessee People, by Worth S. Ray, Published by the Author, Austin, Texas, 1950, Call Number: F435.R3, page 222.

Have also seen James Churchwell Luttrell I, resident of Tennessee early in 1800, married probably 1805 to Martha Armstrong the second daughter of Robert and Margaret Cunningham Armstrong. They had 6 children. Some Tennessee Heroes of the Revolution, Fourth Pamphlet, Page 108 James Luttrell James Luttrell applied for revolutionary pension which was not allowed because he had served only six months. At the date of his application more than six months' service was required. Later, when that requirement was abated, he did not again apply. He was born February 12, 1755, in Westmoreland County, Virginia and was the son of Richard Luttrell who was also a soldier of the Revolution. James Luttrell served in Virginia troops under Captains James Dillard and Charles Christian and Colonels Peter Rose and Charles Lynch. He married Elizabeth Witt, daughter of Abner Witt. Their children were William, Nancy, James Churchill, Martha, Lewis, Abner, Elizabeth, Sarah, rhoda and Robert. He died in Knoxville, Tennessee in 1848.

James Churchwell Luttrell and Martha Armstrong had the following children:

She died on 02 Feb 1863 in Knox County, Tennessee, USA.

Notes for William Luttrell:

William and Elizabeth (Witt) Luttrell had a son James Churchwell Luttrell, born 1803 on the forks of the Holston River. William and Elizabeth Luttrell emigrated from Virginia to Tennessee accompanied by Elizabeth's father, Jesse Witt, soldier of the Revolution. Jesse Witt and wife had a number of children with only 2 known, Elizabeth and Abner Witt. William and Elizabeth Luttrell lived on the "forks" and raised a large family. William Luttrell died 1814. Some of their children were: Hugh; Eliza; James Churchwell; Matthew, and John Luttrell. William Luttrell's name was spelled Litterall on marriage license.

Notes for Elizabeth C. Witt:

I have seen conflicting parents listed in other people's research for Elizabeth C. Witt and believe I have discovered the cause although I do not have the proof of which is correct. In the "Marriages of Virginia Residents" Elizabeth is listed as the granddaughter of William Witt and the daughter of John Witt. However in "Notable Southern Families" the author Zella Armstrong indicates that Elizabeth was the daughter of Jesse Witt and that he accompanied her from Amherst County, Virginia to Knox County, Tennessee in 1796. There is also another Elizabeth Witt listed in "Some Tennessee Heroes of the Revolution" who is the daughter of Abner Witt. That Elizabeth married James Luttrell. Notes for Stella Agnes Thornton:

There is a question as to who is the father of Stella Agnes Thornton. It had been believed that Green Berry Ash was the father and that he married her mother two and one-half years after her birth. However, new information has surfaced indicating that she was fathered by Andrew "Drew" Irwin. Apparently, Louis Thornton's daughter, Delsie Remenda (Thornton) Godfrey, had visited her aunt Nancy just before she died and was called to her bedside whereupon Nancy stated that she had given birth to two boys from Andrew Irwin (Andrew & Bill) and that Stella was also Drew's child. Delsie stated that she would swear that her aunt had told her that. Until this time, Nancy had always told everyone that Stella's father was Green Berry Ash. I was told that after Nancy found religion and started going to church, she destroyed any documents showing Stella was illegitimate. Stella Thornton, didn't care much for Green Berry and went by Thornton (her mother's maiden name) and never took the name of Ash even after her mother had married and urged her to do so. She used Thornton as her maiden name on all documents except for the birth certificate of her daughter, Norma. On Norma's birth certificate, Nancy, Stella's mother, gave the information, rather than herself, and she gave the name of Stella Ash. My mom told me that her mother had always thought she might be an Irwin since all of the children by Green Berry Ash were blonde haired and blue eyed and she was brown hair, brown eyed - just like the two boys by Drew Irwin. I was told that Green Berry Ash would always run off Stella's boyfriends until William M. Littrell came along. He was hard-headed and couldn't be chased off. He was also related which made him harder to run off. Stella Thornton attended Warren School in Miller County, Missouri and finished 7th and 8th grade at Sullivan, Missouri.

William Milton "Jack" Littrell and Stella Agnes Thornton had the following children:

Notes for Nancy Ann Mahala Thornton:

Nancy Ash was 9 years old when they left Schuyler County, Illinois for Missouri and was 13 years old when her father died. Nancy Ash had a unique gift and would read the grains of tea or coffee left in the bottom of a glass and had, on several occasions, predicted someone's death. On one occasion, Nancy saw stars falling and ran into the house. Upon everyone reassuring her that the stars were indeed NOT falling, she told them that someone in her family was going to die. Her son, Leonard, fell under a train and was killed at the gravel plant where he worked. This happened at the old gravel plant in Pacific across from the Pennsylvania Glass and Sand plant where my dad, Andrew Amelung, worked (on Osage Street just east of town near where the old ice plant stood). Her daughter, Marcella, seemed to have the same gift as she had a premonition about Lois' fiancée many years earlier and asked him not to go to work. He was run over by a train at the very same gravel plant where Leonard was run over. Marcella had also seen or dreamt strange things the night before a death including her husband's death and her sister's. I've spoken with one other currently living relative who also has this same gift. -- Marcine (Amelung) Lohman, 11285 Deerfield Drive, Firestone, CO 80504-5504 1900 Miller County, Missouri Census, Glaze Township (East Part), ED 83, Sheet 14A, Dwelling No. 261. Notes for Green Berry Ash:

Green Berry first shows up in the 1880 Miller County Census records (Glaze Township) indicating that he was 5 years old and his father was born in North Carolina. Although it is not documented, family stories have indicated that his father was Frank Rodden. I noticed with his brother Everet O., who was only 3 years older, that his father was also born in North Carolina. This makes me wonder if they were both fathered by Frank Rodden. Their mother never married their fathers.

My mother told me an interesting tidbit about Green Ash. It seems that he was a bit of a "mama's boy" and even after he had married Nancy Thornton, he didn't stay at their house all the time. He'd go back home and stay with his mother, Elizabeth Ash. Elizabeth had inherited a lot of land from her father, Samuel Ash, and all her children had houses built on her land so none of them lived far away. Green had several half brothers, my mom 'thinks' there might have been six in all, but he was apparently his mother's favorite. Although Green didn't seem to show any interest in working, his wife Nancy would cut railroad ties to make money for the family. She said it was easier work than ironing and cleaning for other people which was her other option. It is rumored that Green's brothers burned down his house in order to drive him away from the area. At least that was what Green had always thought. After his house burned down, Green and Nancy moved to Sullivan and finally to Pacific, Missouri in Franklin County. While in Pacific, Green worked for the railroad. He operated the gates at the railroad crossing on First Street between St. Louis Street and Orleans Street. This was before they had automated gates.

Notes for Vincent Andrew "Drew" Irwin:

The Miller County Autogram Newspaper, Tuscumbia, Missouri, Thursday, December 9, 1915, Page 1. In the case against Andrew Irwin for passing a bogus check, Irwin was convicted and sentenced to penitentiary for two years; application was made for a parole. (This could be the son, Andrew Irwin). Andrew "Drew" Irwin and Nancy Ann Mahala Thornton were never married but had three children together (Andrew Irwin, William Wesley Thornton, and Stella Agnes Thornton). Drew's mother was a midwife and delivered the three children. My mom said that Drew Irwin and Nancy Thornton were second cousins, but I haven't found any proof of this at all and I've got both lines researched pretty far back. Notes for Everett Oliver "Coot" Ash:

Family stories indicated that when Everett was younger, he cut off several fingers while chopping wood. His mother, Nancy, put turpentine on it and immediately wrapped his hand up in cob webs (lots of cob webs). Well, I've since learned that this story is not be true. My mom was always told that Coot lost his fingers by a wood chopping accident, but Kathleen Branson spoke to someone who said they accidentally shot Coot in the hand and that is how he lost his fingers. Either way, he was missing several fingers. I finally found out from his daughter, that Coot accidentally shot his own fingers off. He also jumped off a barrel when he was little and hurt his hip (I suspect he dislocated it). Back then they didn't take you to the doctor unless you were dying so left untreated, he walked with a limp from that time on.

Notes for Oma Britton:

On Oma's Social Security form this is what it has: 900 West Broadway ,Lenior City, Tenn. She was married to James when she applied for her social security appl. She was working at Charles H. Bacon Company which is a hoisery co. She was 58 at that time. Appl was on Nov. 25, 1936. Family said she never talked about her family. I believe that her mother Tressie had her at a very early age and not married. This may have been the reason she never talked about her family. On her #SS appl. it said for her father Robert Britton and mother Tressie Britton and that, it was her name. When her first grandchild Denzil Melvin Jr. Lawson died at the age 2 1/2 she had him laid out in her home. Also on her tombstone her birth is 1877 I will check into this.

Notes for Amanda Victoria Lawson:

And One other thing, I don't understand yet but Victoria was born in 1866 and James Melvin Lawson and Catherine Luttrell was married in 1870. What do you think of that!! I suspect that Catherine could have had the child already??? Could Catherine have been married before, I can't believe that They would have had a child out of wed lock and not married. But yet on the 1880 census it said daughter for her age 12. Her tomb stone says Aug 22, 1866- June 1, 1912 DEATH CERTIFICATE NUMBER: 54958 Name: Victoria Earley Date of Death: 6/1/12 Sex: Female Color: White Age: 46 Married or Single: Married Place of Death: Lenoir City Cause of Death: Tuberculosis Place of Birth: Not known Occupation: Housekeeper

Notes for Everett Oliver "Coot" Ash:

Family stories indicated that when Everett was younger, he cut off several fingers while chopping wood. His mother, Nancy, put turpentine on it and immediately wrapped his hand up in cob webs

Generation 16 (con't)

(lots of cob webs). Well, I've since learned that this story is not be true. My mom was always told that Coot lost his fingers by a wood chopping accident, but Kathleen Branson spoke to someone who said they accidentally shot Coot in the hand and that is how he lost his fingers. Either way, he was missing several fingers. I finally found out from his daughter, that Coot accidentally shot his own fingers off. He also jumped off a barrel when he was little and hurt his hip (I suspect he dislocated it). Back then they didn't take you to the doctor unless you were dying so left untreated, he walked with a limp from that time on.

Generation 16 (con't)

My mother has told me some interesting tidbits about Marcella and her mother Nancy Ash. Both seemed to have premonitions when someone close was going to die. For instance, Marcella, knew when her sister, Lois, had died, she had dreamt that she saw her sister on a cloud waving goodbye to her and then she disappeared. Marcella found out the next day that her sister had indeed died from food poisoning, although the family believed otherwise. Rumors were that she was poisoned since her husband wanted to marry another girl, who by the way, he married two weeks later. On an earlier occasion, Marcella had warned her sister Lois' fiancée not to go to work one day. She just had a feeling something bad was going to happen. He was also run over by a train while crossing the tracks at the Gravel Plant where he also worked. This was the same place where their brother Leonard had been run over by a train. The last known premonition was when Marcella had seen a man standing in a doorway wearing very old style nickers. Upon mentioning it to her husband, Jesse Moege, he saw nothing and when she turned back, the man was gone. Her husband died the next day.

My mother also mentioned a story that Marcella told her not long before she died when my mother and aunt went up to visit her. It seems that when Marcella was a little girl and her mother made a fire to make lye soap (they used a big pot and cooked it outside), Marcella would start dancing around the fire and chanting. Nancy finally prayed to God that if she went to church could he please make Marcella stop doing this. Well, she became a church-goer and sure enough, Marcella stopped and never did it ever again.

Notes for Stella Agnes Thornton:

There is a question as to who is the father of Stella Agnes Thornton. It had been believed that Green Berry Ash was the father and that he married her mother two and one-half years after her birth. However, new information has surfaced indicating that she was fathered by Andrew "Drew" Irwin. Apparently, Louis Thornton's daughter, Delsie Remenda (Thornton) Godfrey, had visited her aunt Nancy just before she died and was called to her bedside whereupon Nancy stated that she had given birth to two boys from Andrew Irwin (Andrew & Bill) and that Stella was also Drew's child. Delsie stated that she would swear that her aunt had told her that. Until this time, Nancy had always told everyone that Stella's father was Green Berry Ash. I was told that after Nancy found religion and started going to church, she destroyed any documents showing Stella was illegitimate. Stella Thornton, didn't care much for Green Berry and went by Thornton (her mother's maiden name) and never took the name of Ash even after her mother had married and urged her to do so. She used Thornton as her maiden name on all documents except for the birth certificate of her daughter, Norma. On Norma's birth certificate, Nancy, Stella's mother, gave the information, rather than herself, and she gave the name of Stella Ash. My mom told me that her mother had always thought she might be an Irwin since all of the children by Green Berry Ash were blonde haired and blue eyed and she was brown hair, brown eyed - just like the two boys by Drew Irwin. I was told that Green Berry Ash would always run off Stella's boyfriends until William M. Littrell came along. He was hard-headed and couldn't be chased off. He was also related which made him harder to run off. Stella Thornton attended Warren School in Miller County, Missouri and finished 7th and 8th grade at Sullivan, Missouri.

Notes for Laura Elizabeth Luttrell:

[Juanita Berrian.FTW] Miss Laura E. Luttrell, did not marry. She was a census taker and belonged to the East Tennessee Historical Society, of Knoxville, Tennessee. Maybe this letter was written to this Laura: by John A. Luttrell of Waynesboro, Franklin Co. Pennsylvania, on August 28, 1920. At, or about, the time one Robert Luttrell was lost sight of in Ireland, one of the same name appears in Prince William Co. VA and he had a son Simon, a very uncommon name, and yet a family name of the Irish Robert. I am inclined to the opinion that we were all
