

THOMAS THORNTON, I

BY MARCINE E. LOHMAN

Generation No. 1

1. Thomas¹ Thornton I was born before 1719 in North Carolina¹, and died before July 16, 1777 in Duplin County, North Carolina. He married Martha _____before 1735 in Virginia, North Carolina, or elsewhere². She died before July 16, 1777 in Duplin County, North Carolina.

Thomas Thornton, the father of John Thornton of my ancestry, has been a mystery for years. Unable to locate any information further back in North Carolina prior to 1747, I began searching in Virginia for any Thomas who matches him that could have relocated to North Carolina with no luck.

The latest revelation has come from the Thornton DNA project which indicates we are not related to anyone tested thus far in Virginia or elsewhere for some 30,000 years. Since the William Thornton, the immigrant; Luke Thornton, and Mark Thornton lines are all participants in the Virginia DNA, this excludes them as being closely related to my line. We are Group B (Virginia-B) R1b1a2 and don't match with anyone else as of this writing. This leads me to believe that Thomas is the immigrating ancestor. Further DNA testing through 23&Me have indicated that I have ancestors in Counties Cork and Kerry in Ireland (the southern tip of the island) - this has to be the Thornton's as I've got everyone else traced back to England, Germany, or Norway. I also found that Thornton is the anglicized version of Meenaghan which is spelled several different ways. This could make the research harder as we go further back.

As to Thomas Sr's wife, her name is Martha but the only document that indicates so is the bible record of their son, John Thornton, indicating his parents are Thomas and Martha Thornton. No proof has been found to confirm her maiden name although Hampton and Newby have been suggested. This is NOT the Thomas Thornton who married Martha Boykin as he died 20 Apr 1762 in Perquimans County whereas this Thomas' estate was filed on July 16, 1777, in Duplin County, North Carolina [File Number CR 035.508.89 at the State Archives] and he is clearly alive in 1772 when he deeded land to his son John.

Thomas shows up in 1747 in Johnston County shortly after it was divided from New Hanover County. Other researcher's have remembered stories that this Thornton line called themselves Scotch-Irish - another hint towards Ireland. Also, the only listing of Martha as his wife comes from John Thornton's bible. I have no concrete proof that the other children listed are actually John's brothers. They merely lived and bought land in the same area of Duplin/Sampson/Johnston County, North Carolina - although they did seem to buy land with each other witnessing the documents.

I also believe that there are three generations of Thomas Thornton's who are being mistaken for each other all the time.

(1) Thomas Thornton I, d. before July 16, 1777 in Duplin County (Estate sale lists his oldest son Thomas). If Thomas Sr. was at least 18 when he had his first son, Thomas, then he would have to have been born before 1719.

(2) Thomas Thornton, II, purchased land from Mark Phillips on March 15, 1755 which was witnessed by Thomas Thornton, Sr. I'm told that persons had to be at least 18 years of age to purchase land. This means that Thomas Jr. was born before 1737.

(3) Thomas Thornton III & wife Rebecca Lee listed on will of Peter Lee, Sr., dated 28 Jan 1804, probated 12 Nov 1804. This Thomas served in the Rev. War and was born 1755 and died in 1806. I have found no Rev. War records for him.

Notes for Ferebe (Hampton or Blackman?):

Just for the record, this is not the Phereby (Lee) McClenny born circa 1790 who married Herod Thornton, son of John Thornton and Agnes Hill. That Phereby and Herod settled in Fayette County, Georgia. This Phereby and Herod settled in Oglethorpe County, Georgia. I have seen this Phereby listed in other people's research as Phereby Hampton and Phereby Blackman. I have found no documents to confirm this.

Children of Herod Thornton and Ferebe Blackman?) are:

[Marcine's Note: This can't be the Nathaniel Thornton who purchased land in 1760. This Nathaniel's maximum age is 44 which would mean he was born after 1756. The Nathaniel who purchased land in 1760 had to be at least 18 to buy land and thus was born before 1742 plus he was a witness on a deed between Mark Phillips of Cumberland County to Thomas Thornton Jr. dated: 15 March 1755. If he was at least 18 to witness the land transfer then he was born before 1737. So is the Nathaniel (son of Thomas I) born before 1737/1742 even still alive by this time? I found no other Nathaniel Thornton's on the Census Indexes. Does this mean that this Nathaniel Thornton, born after 1756, is the son of Thomas II? Or Nathaniel Jr. son of Nathaniel Sr?]

- 56 vi. Wiley Cornelius Thornton, born 1804 in Oglethorpe County, Georgia; died 1883. He married H. H. Hardin; died Unknown.

Notes for Wiley Cornelius Thornton:

There is a Wiley Thornton who married H. H. Hardin on 26 Apr 1821 in Oglethorpe County, Georgia which is the area where Herod James and Sarah settled.

Charles Thompson purchased tracts of land in the neighboring county of Walton on 30 December 1823, 16 January 1828, and 2 June 1829. He sold his Walton County properties on 7 September 1846. He moved to Claiborne Parish Louisiana soon after that sale. It is interesting that Charles purchased that property from Thurman Harris and sold it twenty years later to James Harris.

The records show that Wiley Thornton, a friend of Charles, sold his Walton County property in 1845. He may have moved to Claiborne Parish and wrote to Charles saying, "Come on out, the fishing is great." Thereafter, Charles sold his property and hauled his family to Louisiana in wagons. He lived near Wiley.

Seaborn J. Thompson returned to Claiborne Parish about 1861 from Mississippi. A widower, he married Sallie Corry in 1863. Sallie was a widow of A. N. Corry. She was the daughter of Wiley Thornton who lived near Charles Thompson in Walton County Georgia in 1840. In 1850, Wiley lived near his friend Charles Thompson in Claiborne Parish Louisiana. They apparently moved to Louisiana together. Other families were listed being from Georgia on the Claiborne Parish censuses.

Title: Thornton

Author: Jackson, Willene Davies, compiler

Call Number: 929.273/T394j

Text: "Herod Sr. served on the county jury and the Grand Jury in Johnston County. (Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions, Bk. IX, 1812-1815). In 1820 he lived next door to Lewis Jackson and Mack Bundy. His last land transaction in Johnston County was 18 Nov 1827, (Sampson County DB 14, Pg. 39). He appears on the Fayette County, Georgia Tax List 1829. "Uncle Neely" was probably right in saying that he settled in Fayette County in 1828.

His friend Samuel Lee also left North Carolina and came to Georgia and was in Dallas County, Alabama by 1830. I often wonder if these two old friends ever saw each other again.

Herod could not write his name. He was born in 1778 and it is doubtful that he ever saw the inside of a school. Yet, he bought and sold so much land that it is difficult to keep track of his holdings.

C A Thornton (Uncle Neeley) was 14 when Herod, Sr. died. He said that Herod moved his family to Georgia from North Carolina in horse carts. It is possible that Herod told him about their move. It must have been hard for a 50-year-old man to sell everything and leave his family knowing he would never see them again. I don't know how long it took them to travel to Georgia, but I have read that roads were nothing more than cleared paths and sometimes tree stumps were not even removed. Too, they had young children.

Name (Alternate): Zilpha Blackman

Notes for Phereby Lee:

She has also been listed as "Phereba Lee".

Phereby married Herod Thornton in Johnston County, North Carolina after her first husband, William McClenny, died. The McClenny's and Thornton's had been neighbors in Sampson County in 1810 and had close family ties when they lived in Johnston County, North Carolina prior to that. Herod & Phereby left North Carolina and settled in Fayette County, Georgia in the late 1820's. Phereby was listed in the 1860 Census, page 117, # 840 in Fayette County, Georgia as 70 years of age, a farmer, born in North Carolina. Her $ 502.25 estate was settled on 1 January, 1877 and she was buried in Thornton Cemetery, Hopeful Community, North Fayette County, Georgia along with her second husband, Herod Thornton.

Phereby's will was probated in 1872 and the heirs by William received sums in the amount of $71.35.

Children of Herod Thornton and Phereby Lee are:

- + 68 i. Haywood⁴ Thornton, born March 13, 1821; died October 26, 1864 in the Civil War (while a prisoner at Rock Island, Illinois).

24. Felix³ Thornton (John², Thomas¹) was born February 06, 1783 in Duplin County, North Carolina (known as Sampson County after 1784)^{58,59,60,61,62,63}, and died May 01, 1857 in Browning, Schuyler County, Illinois^{64,65}. He married Mary Celetha Holly 1810 - 1812 in Johnston County, North Carolina. She was born circa 1786 in Burke County, North Carolina^{66,67,68,69}, and died Aft. 1850 in Schuyler County, Illinois most likely.

Felix Thornton was born in Duplin County, North Carolina (known as Sampson County after 1784) and is seen living in Sampson County, North Carolina on the 1810 Census records with two adults born before 1765 (his parents). John Thornton, Felix's father, deeded (Deed Book 14, Pages 308-309) "the Plantation whereon the said John now lives" to his son, Felix Thornton for $500 dollars. This deed, dated 20 March 1807 is signed by John and Agnes Thornton. Since Felix has children born as late as 1816 in North Carolina, this would indicate that he moved to Smith County, Tennessee sometime between 1816 - 1820 (when he shows up on the 1820 census there) and if we are to believe the 1850 Schuyler County, Illinois census records, left for Schuyler County, Illinois sometime between 1828/1829 when his son, Francis M. Thornton, was born in Tennessee and 1830 when Felix shows up on the Schuyler County, Illinois census.

He married Rebecca Scales November 08, 1838 in Fayette County, Georgia²⁶⁰, daughter of Joel Scales and Fannie Cash. She was born 1818²⁶¹, and died November 07, 1867 in Fayette County, Georgia²⁶².

Herod Thornton (son of Herod and Zilpha Blackman Thornton) married Rebecca Scales. Issue: Cornelius Andrew Thornton b) 14 Nov 1841 Fayette County, GA, d) 11 Nov 1935 , m) Joannah Jackson. The Marriage of Herod Thornton to Sally Smith that you mention is an Oglethorpe County, GA marriage. This Herod is Herod James Thornton b) 1777 to Herod (

#46 in your posting) and Fereby Thornton. The marriage date is 17 Mar 1800 and their were 11 children born to this union. I have much documentation on this line. It is very confusing to follow these names without careful attention. There are two father son groups of Herods. Herod Thornton Sr. born circa 1740 and his son Herod James born circa 1777. There are deeds in Duplin/Sampson and Johnston/Wake Counties of NC to Wilkes /Oglethorpe Counties of GA. then to MS. The second group being the son of John Thornton (Herod Thornton Sr.'s brother). The elder Herod of this group b) 13 Feb 1778 and his son Herod b) 1815 - 1891. [Note the similar years of the Herods born 1777 and 1778.] The second group of Herods have deeds in Sampson and Johnston Counties of NC and then in Fayette County, GA.

The Rushville Times Newspaper, October 14, 1909, Rushville, Illinois

Death of Schuyler Pioneer.

Mrs. Louisa Thornton Reno had lived in Schuyler County eighty years.

Mrs. Louisa Thornton Reno, Schuyler county's oldest resident, died at the home of her son, Benjamin F. Reno, in Browning township, on Sunday evening, aged 96 years, 9 months and 7 days.

Mrs. Reno was a native of North Carolina, and came to Schuyler County with her parents in 1829, and they were among the first settlers of Browning township, which was to be her home for nearly eighty years.

In 1838 Louisa Thornton was united in marriage to Jonathan Reno, son of a pioneer of the same name, who had come to Schuyler in 1825. Their marriage was solemnized in Browning township, and here the greater portion of their lives was spent, as they returned to Schuyler in 1843 after spending one year in Iowa on what was then the frontier of our western civilization. Mr. Reno died on the old homestead farm in 1884, and since then his widow has made her home with her son, Benj. F. Reno, who purchased the old home place.

Tho she lived to a remarkable old age, Mrs. Reno was ever possessed of an unusually active mind and she retained her faculties to the end of her long, useful and beautiful life. Her memory was clear of the early pioneer days and her friends delighted in her stories of the log cabin and tallow dip days and especially of the winter of 1830, known as the winter of the big snow. Almost incredible seem the experiences of the people who were making that early history, and the discouragements they encountered and obstacles they overcame pronounce them people of more than ordinary purposes and determination. Mrs. Reno recalled the wigwam of the Indians and her many experiences with them, although for the most part they at that time had moved to other hunting grounds, returning, however, occasionally to the former place of their abode.

Notes for Jonathan Reno, Jr.:

Jonathan Reno went to Schuyler County, Illinois in 1825. He received a bounty land warrant for NENE Section 36, Township 03N, Range 01W, Meridian 4 for 40 acres which is shown dated 12 November 1827. He purchased additional property in 1833 and 1836. (<http://www.sos.state.il.us/departments/archives/genealogy/landsrch.html>)

Jonathan served in the 4th regiment. of the Illinois Mounted Volunteers during the Black Hawk War in 1832 and received a Bounty Land Warrant (No. 26119) for 120 acres of land in 1855. He gained the rank of Corporal even though it is recorded he lost his horse. In 1836 they purchased a farm near Ridgeville. He was a township supervisor and one of the founders of "The Church at Ridgeville." He was also a Private. in Capt. Vance's Co. of the 1st

Illinois Mounted Volunteers in Duncan's Brig. in the Sac & Fox War. His widow Louisa (Thornton) received a pension for his military service, Pension Bureau File No. 703-205 (William L. Reno, 1975, ms.). Roger Reno adds that "Their farm, acquired in 1836, remained in the family for 132 years before it was sold by Ellsworth Reno in 1968 at his retirement." The Thorntons came to Schuyler County, Illinois, in 1829 from which Louisa Thornton is associated.

Sue Damewood adds that Jonathan and his family lived in Iowa in 1842-1843 but by 1849 they are shown living in Browning Township in Schuyler County, Illinois.

I had listed that Albern was born in Smith County, Tennessee, however, younger siblings were born in North Carolina. I suspect he may have been born in NC and this is also listed as such on the 1850 Schuyler County, Illinois Census records.

My mom told me that Alburn was hit by a peach seed when he was trying to break up a fight and the wound became infected causing his death. But the below obituary would seem to show another cause of death.

Milton Thornton was a Union Veteran of the Civil War, in the Missouri Militia Home Guard, Osage County, 8th Regiment, Captain Charles D. Martin Commander. Milton enlisted on June 22, 1861, was mustered out December 20, 1861, enlisted again at Lebanon, Missouri October 26, 1863 in M.S.M. Calvery 8th Regiment, Captain Jacob Casseints commanding. (Consolidated with county Militia.) He was honorably discharged July 17, 1865 but was bushwhacked and hung by ex-confederates shortly after the war. Family stories tell that his son was with him and he persuaded the ex-confederates to let his son go home (so he wouldn't have to watch his father die). Civil War Service Records indicate he was a musician. This is confirmed by a newspaper article dated 2 Feb 1921 in a Schuyler County, Illinois Newspaper which talks of a 200-year-old fiddle that originally belonged to Milton Thornton. He was listed as a member of the Jesse James Gang in the newspaper article, however, that is unlikely since he fought on the Union side and Jesse James fought on the Confederate side.

"The violin originally belonged to Milton Thornton, a member of the Jesse James gang, which terrorized the middle west. It came into the hands of a man named Spillers who lived in the vicinity of Beardstown. James Teel, now deceased, secured it from him, and Mrs. James Teel gave it to her daughter's husband, the present owner, recently. He is repairing it and in due season the mellow tones of this old violin will recall the memories of long ago."

Lives next door to James Littrell/Luttrell & James C. Shelton.

Where Milton was born is also in question. He has indicated Tennessee and Alabama on census records however, when he was only 1 year old, he appears on the Schuyler County, Illinois census records. His next older brother, Francis Marion Thornton, has consistently indicated that he was born in Tennessee so we are sure the family were in Smith County, Tennessee until 1828 or 1829. What we are not sure of is since his father, Felix, purchased land in Schuyler County, Illinois in 18 Dec 1835 and 09 Mar 1838 does that show as proof that they were living in Schuyler County, Illinois as early as 1835 thus making Milton born in Schuyler County, Illinois?

OWNS VIOLIN 200 YEARS OLD

February 2, 1921

Illinois

Pioneer Residents of Frederick Danced to the Music of This Old Fiddle.

Ernest E. Bowman of Industry has a violin, which he claims is 200 years old, and its history is narrated as follows by the editor of the Industry Press, and old time Schuylerites may be able to corroborate the story of its ownership in Schuyler 60 years ago.

That it is of great age and has had much use is plainly apparent. The ebony finger board has been worn thru by the fingers of several generations of players. The portion of the instrument held by the players' chin has been worn so thin that paper has been pasted on it to keep it from wearing thru. The present owner has applied a regular chin rest to protect the remaining wood. While we are not versed in the art of violin manufacture certain differences in the construction of the instrument as compared with modern violins, are noticeable. The neck is thicker, the vertical strip of wood around the outside of the soundbox is divided differently and the top of the box is considerably higher under the "E" string than on the other side.

The most interesting thing about the instrument as well as the circumstance which gives most weight to the claim of age is the inscription in the bottom of the box or sound chamber which reads as follows: "Antonious Stradivarius Ceremonenfis Faciebat Anno 1721."

The personal knowledge of the instrument by people now living reaches back over a period of sixty years or more. Mrs. Sarah Teel (Sarah M. Thornton, dau. of Alburn & Nancy), grandmother of Mrs. Bowman and now living at Vermont, danced to the music of this instrument on Frederick landing when she was a girl.

The history as far back as it can be traced is as follows:

The violin originally belonged to Milton Thornton, a member of the Jesse James gang, which terrorized the middle west. It came into the hands of a man named Spillers who lived in the vicinity of Beardstown. James Teel, now deceased, secured it from him, and Mrs. James Teel gave it to her daughter's husband, the present owner, recently. He is repairing it and in due season the mellow tones of this old violin will recall the memories of long ago.

Mary's father, Bill Anderson, was an outlaw according to family stories. I've not found any proof of this but noticed that on the 1880 census, John & Mary (Anderson) Thornton are listed next to James Anderson born Kentucky and Mary does indicate that her father was born in Kentucky. A coincidence?

She married William Shelton Thornton⁷⁴² September 07, 1871 in Schuyler County, Illinois⁷⁴³, son of Milton Thornton and Judith Luttrell. He was born January 27, 1851 in Schuyler County, Illinois^{744,745,746,747}, and died March 23, 1925 in Browning, Schuyler County, Illinois^{748,749}.

Notes for William Shelton Thornton:

The parentage of this William Shelton Thornton has been questioned. He does not show up on the 1860 census with the family of Milton Owen Thornton when he would be 9 years old but he does show up with the family of Shelton and Sarah (Bryant) Luttrell who were the parents of Milton's first wife, Judith Ann Luttrell (Judith had died in 1858). I believe he is living with his grandparents rather than his father and that I have the parentage right. In Elizabeth Elender Floyd's widows affidavit for her deceased 1st husband, Milton Owen Thornton, she indicates that "Milton O. Thornton first wife was born Feb. 15, 1830, her name is Julie Ann Littrell. Their son name, William S. Thornton, born Jan 27, 1851. Died Schuyler County, Illinois." She indicates that William Shelton Thornton is deceased by the date of the filing of her affidavit which was February 10, 1917 which conflicts with the March 23, 1925 date I have. Since he stayed in Schuyler County, Illinois, would she even know if he was still alive?

William Shelton Thornton had children by both wives who were sisters - Deliah and Martha Thornton.

"...I notice that William Thornton and Martha were married in 1879, but Chester Roy Thornton is listed as born in 1875. I suspect that Chester was the son of William's first marriage to Delilah Thornton.

I have received a copy of a letter from Lee Winston, a grandson of Cora Bell, that mentions a half-brother, John C. Thornton, born 8 May 1872, died 18 Mar 1881..."

Notes for William Shelton Thornton:

The parentage of this William Shelton Thornton has been questioned. He does not show up on the 1860 census with the family of Milton Owen Thornton when he would be 9 years old but he does show up with the family of Shelton and Sarah (Bryant) Luttrell who were the parents of Milton's first wife, Judith Ann Luttrell (Judith had died in 1858). I believe he is living with his grandparents rather than his father and that I have the parentage right. In Elizabeth Elender Floyd's widows affidavit for her deceased 1st husband, Milton Owen Thornton, she indicates that "Milton O. Thornton first wife was born Feb. 15, 1830, her name is Julie Ann Littrell. Their son name, William S. Thornton, born Jan 27, 1851. Died Schuyler County, Illinois." She indicates that William Shelton Thornton is deceased by the date of the filing of her affidavit which was February 10, 1917 which conflicts with the March 23, 1925 date I have. Since he stayed in Schuyler County, Illinois, would she even know if he was still alive?

Wm S. Thornton, age 9 (born circa 1851), male, born Illinois.

William Shelton Thornton had children by both wives who were sisters - Deliah and Martha Thornton.

"...I notice that William Thornton and Martha were married in 1879, but Chester Roy Thornton is listed as born in 1875. I suspect that Chester was the son of William's first marriage to Delilah Thornton.

I have received a copy of a letter from Lee Winston, a grandson of Cora Bell, that mentions a half-brother, John C. Thornton, born 8 May 1872, died 18 Mar 1881..."

361. Nancy Ann Mahala⁶ Thornton (George Mason Dallas⁵, Albern J.⁴, Felix³, John², Thomas¹) was born December 25, 1874 in Beardstown, Schuyler County, Illinois^{963,964,965,966,967}, and died August 19, 1958 in Pacific, Franklin County, Missouri⁹⁶⁸. She met (1) Andrew "Drew" Vincent Irwin, son of Vincent Irwin and Elizabeth Polly. He was born January 03, 1873 in Camden County, Missouri^{969,970,971,972}, and died August 07, 1963 in Iberia, Miller County, Missouri⁹⁷³. She married (2) Green Berry Ash December 01, 1900 in Iberia, Miller County, Missouri⁹⁷⁴, son of Frank Rodden and Elizabeth Ash. He was born July 20, 1874 in Brumley, Miller County, Missouri (Tombstone says Aug 13, 1874)^{975,976,977,978,979,980,981}, and died December 13, 1957 in Pacific, Franklin County, Missouri^{982,983}.

Notes for Nancy Ann Mahala Thornton:

Nancy Ann Mahala (Thornton) Ash was 9 years old when they left Schuyler County, Illinois for Missouri and was 13 years old when her father died. My mom told me that Nancy use to cut railroad ties to make extra money when Green Berry would run back home to his mother to stay. She found cutting railroad ties much easier work than doing other people's laundry and it paid much better.

Nancy Ash had a unique gift and would read the grains of tea or coffee left in the bottom of a glass and had, on several occasions, predicted someone's death. On one occasion, Nancy saw stars falling and ran into the house. Upon everyone reassuring her that the stars were indeed NOT falling, she told them that someone in her family was going to die. Her son, Leonard, fell under a train and was killed at the gravel plant where he worked. This happened at the old gravel plant in Pacific across from the Pennsylvania Glass and Sand plant where my dad, Andrew Amelung, worked (on Osage Street just east of town near where the old ice plant stood).

Her daughter, Marcella, seemed to have the same gift as she had a premonition about Lois' fiancée many years earlier and asked him not to go to work. He was run over by a train at the very same gravel plant where Leonard was run over. Marcella had also seen or dreamt strange things the night before a death including her husband's death and her sister's.

I've spoken with one other currently living relative who also has this same gift.

Notes for Andrew "Drew" Vincent Irwin:

The Miller County Autogram Newspaper, Tuscumbia, Missouri, Thursday, December 9, 1915, Page 1.

In the case against Andrew Irwin for passing a bogus check, Irwin was convicted and sentenced to penitentiary for two years; application was made for a parole. (This could be the son, Andrew Irwin).

Andrew "Drew" Irwin and Nancy Ann Mahala Thornton were never married but had three children together (Andrew Irwin, William Wesley Thornton, and Stella Agnes Thornton). Drew's mother was a midwife and delivered the three children. My mom said that Drew Irwin and Nancy Thornton were second cousins, but I haven't found any proof of this at all and I've got both lines researched pretty far back.

Notes for Green Berry Ash:

Green Berry first shows up in the 1880 Miller County Census records (Glaze Township) indicating that he was 5 years old and his father was born in North Carolina. Although it is not documented, family stories have indicated that his father was Frank Rodden. I noticed with his brother Everet O., who was only 3 years older, that his father was also born in North Carolina. This makes me wonder if they were both fathered by Frank Rodden. Their mother never married their fathers.

My mother told me an interesting tidbit about Green Ash. It seems that he was a bit of a "mama's boy" and even after he had married Nancy Thornton, he didn't stay at their house all the time. He'd go back home and stay with his mother, Elizabeth Ash. Elizabeth had inherited a lot of land from her father, Samuel Ash, and all her children had houses built on her land so none of them lived far away. Green had several half brothers, my mom 'thinks' there might have been six in all, but he was apparently his mother's favorite. Although Green didn't seem to show any interest in working, his wife Nancy would cut railroad ties to make money for the family. She said it was easier work than ironing and cleaning for other people which was her other option. It is rumored that Green's brothers burned down his house in order to drive him away from the area. At least that was what Green had always thought. After his house burned down, Green and Nancy moved to Sullivan and finally to Pacific, Missouri in Franklin County. While in Pacific, Green worked for the railroad.

Notes for Cora Belle Thornton:

Cora Belle Thornton's marriage to John Waters was brief having married him on June 13, 1896 whereupon he then married Frances Edna Harris, two years later, on November 24, 1898. Both marriages occurred in Schuyler County, Illinois. I suspect John has a third marriage since the 1900 census shows John and Edna with a child Anna born in May 1894. Edna is only 20 and married for one year, therefore, the child is not hers unless she gave birth at age 14 and out of wedlock. I have no idea who the third wife could be. Also, Cora Belle Waters had two children before she married William Edward Winston but after her first husband had remarried. Are these children fathered by William Edward Winston? They have his last name.

Notes for William Milton "Jack" Littrell:

William Milton Littrell could not read or write and it is believed it was due to dyslexia. His World War I Draft Registration shows his mark confirming he could not write. Whether it was due to his inability to write or another reason, William changed his last name to Littrell. I remember my grandparents always walked everywhere and didn't have a car. The town of Pacific is small and it was easy for them to get around. Grandpa would always cut grass around town which ultimately led to his death. He was struck in the side by a flying rusty nail which led to a blood clot while he was in the hospital. The Dam at Lake of the Ozarks covers the place where he use to live as a child. My mother also told me that his autopsy indicated he had diabetes (which no one was aware of) and had, at one time, suffered from consumption (Tuberculosis).

My mom also mentioned that he, his parents, and all his brothers and sisters had blue eyes with light to dark brown hair.

Notes for Stella Agnes Thornton:

There is a question as to who is the father of Stella Agnes Thornton. It had been believed that Green Berry Ash was the father and that he married her mother two and one-half years after her birth. However, new information has surfaced indicating that she was fathered by Andrew "Drew" Irwin. Apparently, Louis Thornton's daughter, Delsie Remenda (Thornton) Godfrey, had visited her aunt Nancy just before she died and was called to her bedside whereupon Nancy stated that she had given birth to two boys from Andrew Irwin (Andrew & Bill) and that Stella was also Drew's child. Delsie stated that she would swear that her aunt had told her that. Until this time, Nancy had always told everyone that Stella's father was Green Berry Ash. I was told that after Nancy found religion and started going to church, she destroyed any documents showing Stella was illegitimate.

Stella Thornton, didn't care much for Green Berry and went by Thornton (her mother's maiden name) and never took the name of Ash even after her mother had married and urged her to do so. She used Thornton as her maiden name on all documents except for the birth certificate of her daughter, Norma. On Norma's birth certificate, Nancy, Stella's mother, gave the information, rather than herself, and she gave the name of Stella Ash. My mom told me that her mother had always thought she might be an Irwin since all of the children by Green Berry Ash were blonde haired and blue eyed and she was brown hair, brown eyed - just like the two boys by Drew Irwin.

I was told that Green Berry Ash would always run off Stella's boyfriends until William M. Littrell came along. He was hard-headed and couldn't be chased off. He was also related and apparently you don't run off relatives.

Stella Thornton attended Warren School in Miller County, Missouri and finished 7th and 8th grade at Sullivan, Franklin County, Missouri.

She married William Milton "Jack" Littrell¹¹⁹⁸ April 26, 1917 in Sullivan, Franklin County, Missouri^{1199,1200}, son of George Luttrell and Martha Thornton. He was born March 10, 1892 in Bagnell, Camden County, Missouri^{1201,1202,1203,1204,1205,1206}, and died May 04, 1974 in St. Joseph Hospital, Kirkwood, Missouri (St. Louis County)^{1207,1208}.

Notes for Stella Agnes Thornton:

There is a question as to who is the father of Stella Agnes Thornton. It had been believed that Green Berry Ash was the father and that he married her mother two and one-half years after her birth. However, new information has surfaced indicating that she was fathered by Andrew "Drew" Irwin. Apparently, Louis Thornton's daughter, Delsie Remenda (Thornton) Godfrey, had visited her aunt Nancy just before she died and was called to her bedside whereupon Nancy stated that she had given birth to two boys from Andrew Irwin (Andrew & Bill) and that Stella was also Drew's child. Delsie stated that she would swear that her aunt had told her that. Until this time, Nancy had always told everyone that Stella's father was Green Berry Ash. I was told that after Nancy found religion and started going to church, she destroyed any documents showing Stella was illegitimate.

Stella Thornton, didn't care much for Green Berry and went by Thornton (her mother's maiden name) and never took the name of Ash even after her mother had married and urged her to do so. She used Thornton as her maiden name on all documents except for the birth certificate of her daughter, Norma. On Norma's birth certificate, Nancy, Stella's mother, gave the information, rather than herself, and she gave the name of Stella Ash. My mom told me that her mother had always thought she might be an Irwin since all of the children by Green Berry Ash were blonde haired and blue eyed and she was brown hair, brown eyed - just like the two boys by Drew Irwin.

I was told that Green Berry Ash would always run off Stella's boyfriends until William M. Littrell came along. He was hard-headed and couldn't be chased off. He was also related and apparently you don't run off relatives.

Stella Thornton attended Warren School in Miller County, Missouri and finished 7th and 8th grade at Sullivan, Franklin County, Missouri.

Religion: Baptist

Notes for William Milton "Jack" Littrell:

William Milton Littrell could not read or write and it is believed it was due to dyslexia. His World War I Draft Registration shows his mark confirming he could not write. Whether it was due to his inability to write or another reason, William changed his last name to Littrell. I remember my grandparents always walked everywhere and didn't have a car. The town of Pacific is small and it was easy for them to get around. Grandpa would always cut grass around town which ultimately led to his death. He was struck in the side by a flying rusty nail which led to a blood clot while he was in the hospital. The Dam at Lake of the Ozarks covers the place where he use to live as a child. My mother also told me that his autopsy indicated he had diabetes (which no one was aware of) and had, at one time, suffered from consumption (Tuberculosis).

My mom also mentioned that he, his parents, and all his brothers and sisters had blue eyes with light to dark brown hair.

Notes for Marcella May Ash:

Moege, Marcella M., 88, homemaker, died Wednesday, Feb. 7, 2001. Visitation with family 1:30 to 2 p.m.; service 2 p.m. both Saturday, Campbell Funeral Home.

Survivors: sons, Jesse Jr. of McPherson, Gary of Warrensburg, Mo.; daughter, Helen Falls of Reed Springs, Mo.; stepdaughter, Patricia Sherman of Toronto, Kan.; 17 grandchildren; several great-grandchildren and great-great-grandchildren.

My mother has told me some interesting tidbits about Marcella and her mother Nancy Ash. Both seemed to have premonitions when someone close was going to die. For instance, Marcella, knew when her sister, Lois, had died, she had dreamt that she saw her sister on a cloud waving goodbye to her and then she disappeared. Marcella found out the next day that her sister had indeed died from food poisoning, although the family believed otherwise. Rumors were that she was poisoned since her husband wanted to marry another girl, who by the way, he married two weeks later. On an earlier occasion, Marcella had warned her sister Lois' fiancée not to go to work one day. She just had a feeling something bad was going to happen. He was also run over by a train while crossing the tracks at the Gravel Plant in Pacific where he also worked. This was the same place where their brother Leonard had been run over by a train. The last known premonition was when Marcella had seen a man standing in a doorway wearing very old style nickers. Upon mentioning it to her husband, Jesse Moege, he saw nothing and when she turned back, the man was gone. Her husband died the next day.

My mother also mentioned a story that Marcella told her not long before she died when my mother and aunt went up to visit her. It seems that when Marcella was a little girl and her mother made a fire to make lye soap (they used a big pot and cooked it outside), Marcella would start dancing around the fire and chanting. Nancy finally prayed to God that if she went to church could he please make Marcella stop doing this. Well, she became a church-goer and sure enough, Marcella stopped and never did it ever again.

Marcine Lohman, personal genealogy research, marcinelohman@comcast.net (11285 Deerfield Drive, Firestone, CO 80504), <http://freepages.genealogy.rootsweb.com/~celticlady/default.htm>, Date of Birth of Nathaniel Thornton is estimated assuming that the was at least 18 when he was a witness on Thomas Thornton's land purchase of 15 March 1755 (DB 2, Pg. 288) and when he purchased land from Samuel Eldridge on 2 April 1760 (Sampson-Duplin County, DB 3, Pg. 90).

4. Sampson County Census Records, For Nathaniel Thornton to be age 45 or older in 1810, and age 26 to 44 in 1800, he would have to be born between 1756 - 1765.

5. Notes & Comments: Marcine Lohman, 11285 Deerfield Drive, Firestone, CO 80504-5504, marcinelohman@comcast.net, "In 1800 the only Nathaniel Thornton shown on the census records was born circa 1756-1774 which is much too young to be the same Nathaniel who witnessed deeds in 1755 and 1760. I am "assuming" that the earlier Nathaniel is deceased at least by 1800 and I'm thinking before 1790. The age given on the 1790 census indicates that Nathaniel was born before 1774 which would fit both Nathaniel's, however, with 4 males under age 16 (born circa 1774-1790) and only 1 male over age 16, it seems to lean more towards the younger Nathaniel born circa 1756-1765."

6. Duplin County, North Carolina, Thomas Thornton, Jr. date of birth estimated assuming he was at least 21 years of age when he purchased land from Mark Phillips on 15 March 1755 (Sampson-Duplin County, DB 2, Pg. 288) and sold land on 11 August 1756 to John Teele (DB 2, Pg. 389).

Marcine Lohman, personal genealogy research, marcinelohman@comcast.net (11285 Deerfield Drive, Firestone, CO 80504), <http://freepages.genealogy.rootsweb.com/~celticlady/default.htm>, I believe that the date of birth of October 10, 1882 is incorrect for Eugene D. Reno since he clearly shows up on the 1880 census records and has consistently on later census records indicated his birth as 1878-1879. I believe the September 27, 1878 date to be correct.

816. Marcine Lohman, personal genealogy research, marcinelohman@comcast.net (11285 Deerfield Drive, Firestone, CO 80504), <http://freepages.genealogy.rootsweb.com/~celticlady/default.htm>, Although Sarah Jane Thornton (b. July 22, 1857) has Elizabeth Floyd listed as her mother on her death certificate, she was actually the daughter of Judith Ann Luttrell who died in 1858. Her father, Milton Owen Thornton, remarried to Elizabeth Elender Floyd on January 18, 1860 when Sarah was only 2 1/2 years old. This is confirmed by Elizabeth (Floyd) Luttrell on the 1900 and 1910 census records where she indicates she had 8 children - four by Milton Owen Thornton and four by Hamen C. Ellan Luttrell.
