The Newsletter has a new Editor.

Adeline asked me if I would be willing to help her out with the newsletter and I was delighted to accept. Adeline will continue to be the treasurer so please continue to send your dues to her. We do realize that many people write in their news when they are sending their annual dues, which makes perfect sense. I know she enjoys hearing from everyone and that she will want to stay in touch so please keep writing to Adeline. However, if you choose to do so, you may write or e-mail me directly and I will be happy to pass on your news to Adeline. I hope you will have patience with me as I learn your names, where you're from and how you would like the newsletter to serve you. I always welcome suggestions, corrections, and criticisms. The newsletter is for all of you and therefore, it should meet your expectations.

I have three Colby lines but the one I usually list is Anthony(1), Samuel(2,3), Obadiah(4,5), William(6), Obadiah(7), Mary Josephine(8), Seth Hamlin Gage(9), Hermaline Florence Gage(10), Charles Albert Zdravesky(11), Barbara Jeannette Zdravesky(12). My Colby progenitors stayed in Amesbury, my great grand-aunt was married in the Macy-Colby House, and my grandmother is buried in Josiah Bartlett Cemetery. I am extremely proud of my Colby heritage, my connection to New England history, and now, to be the editor of this very important newsletter.

49th Annual Reunion was Another Success!

The reunion was held at the Sheepscoot River Inn in Edgecomb, Maine. It was sunny and warm, the food was fantastic, and the absolutely beautiful setting made for a perfect day. We saw about 54 in attendance, including several new members. See the Secretary's Report on page 2 for all the details.

Next year's reunion will be held in East Orange, Vermont on Saturday, August 16, hosted by James W. Colby of Falls Church, VA. Jim's line is Anthony(1), John(2,3), Joseph(4), Binaiah(5,6), Jonathan(7), Edson E.(8), Charles M.(9), Edson J.(10), James W.(11). It's sure to please so mark your calendars now!

Heads Up!!

Or should I say down?

It has come to our attention, thanks to Luther Colby, who lives in Amesbury, that the floorboards in the Macy-Colby House have a lot of dry rot and the floor has dropped almost two inches. We are told that there are slats across the floor to prevent any further damage from current visitors. The rough estimate given for the cost of repair to the floor will be at least $3,000.00. We would like to assist the Daughters of the Revolution and the Friends of the Macy-Colby House in caring for this precious family home, by providing a donation to fix the floor. This will be discussed further at the next reunion and you will be informed of how you can help in this dire situation.

If you see a red check here, your annual dues are not paid. If there are two red checks, you have not paid for two years. Remember that if you do not pay your dues for more than two years, you will be taken off the mailing list. Your annual dues help pay for this newsletter and keep you in touch with the rest of the members. We appreciate your dues!

Dr. Benjamin Colby's GUIDE TO HEALTH (1848).

"Colby was probably the most popular and readable of all the followers of Samuel Thompson (1769-1843). Thomson himself made a living as a practitioner ("Root Doctor" was his preferred term), and by selling, for $50, the "Patent" to practice as he did...this included books and some training. A true populist, he refused to sell "patents" to trained physicians. When George Washington lay dying, the country's best physicians, from Harvard and Yale, proceeded to kill him by draining 3 QUARTS of blood, giving him several doses of Calomel (mercury sub-chloride) and covering his body with blisters. Into this milieu came Thomson, who believed that all health derived from life energy, and nearly all diseases derived from congenital, environmental and life-style compromises to that life energy. Although both he and his early followers were persecuted in a number of highly publicized trials, the Thomsonians flourished everywhere. Colby delineated the basic practices and philosophy of Thomsonian Medicine in this widely sold book."

Dick Colby of Hermitage, TN writes that when he was a "very small boy," he found a copy of James W. Colby's "History of the Colby Family" in his aunt's library and he almost wore it out with his attention. James W. speculates that our Colby ancestors came from the Danish Island of Samsø where there was a township named Koldby. Dick was able to visit Copenhagen and got a map of the Island of Samsø and saw the village of Kolby marked on the map. To visit this island, one would have to catch a ferry from Copenhagen to the Kolby dock. Dick also writes that Thomas Elliott Colby, b. January 31, 1734, d. October 4, 1760 at Crown Point, NY while on an expedition in the French and Indian War. He was then in the Colonial Army under the British flag. Any one who claims him as an ancestor can also be a Colonial Dame in the DAR or a member of the Colonial Wars in the SAR. Colby(8), winner of the Congressional Medal of Honor for bravery, May 23, 1863, at Vicksburg, MS. Carlos served in Company "G," 97th Illinois Volunteer Infantry. He was the only CMH recipient in that area. His 46-star flag was sent to be flown at the Memorial Day service and then went to the Historical Society. John's line is: Anthony(1), Thomas(2,3), Ezekiel(4), Elliot(5), John(6), James(7), Carlos(8), Henry(9), John(10).

From the President Neal Slocum

At the meeting on August 17, new member, Marjorie R. McCabe presented a request for the Colby Clan to consider a gift to the town of Amesbury to help pay for one of the new park benches and lamp posts in downtown Amesbury. In return for the gift, a small name plaque on one of the benches/posts would say something like, "In Memory of Anthony and Susannah Colby."

At the meeting, a motion was made to form a small committee to study this request, as it would involve a large sum of money over a three-year period. The committee felt it would be best to decline this request at this time, after considering the following information.

1. A three-year donation of over $800 for a $2,500 bench is far too much money for the Colby Clan to support on a limited income.
2. With only 54 members at our August reunion, we currently lack the support and the necessary income that we once had with 90-100 members attending each year.
3. Treasurer, Adeline Stack, informed me that she did not receive the usual donations from some of the Colby Clan members.
4. The most serious point was made when former Colby Clan president, Luther Colby of Amesbury, made me aware that the floorboards in the Macy-Colby House are in need of repair (see page 1). We feel that the Colby Clan should continue to use our funds to maintain the Macy-Colby home.

If anyone feels they want to do this on an individual basis, you may contact Marjorie McCabe at 9 Evans Place, Amesbury, MA 01913.

Secretary's Report

The 49th annual reunion of the Descendants of Anthony and Susannah Colby, Inc. was held on August 16 and 17 at the Sheepscoot River Inn on Davis Island, Edgecomb, Maine. Twenty one members attended the Friday evening social gathering in the Atrium Room of the inn lobby, hosted by Jim Colby, past-president and current recording secretary. Jim is a native of Wiscasset, Maine and his line is Anthony(1), Samuel(2,3), Ruggles(4), Henry(5), Ebenezer(6), Edward(7), James(8), Henry(9), Daniel(10), Horace(11), Earl(12). Ruggles was the ancestor who, with his brothers Ambrose and Benjamin, were blacksmiths and settled in Wiscasset and opened a forge. Ruggles acquired a land grant on Westport Island (formerly Jeremysquam), which was a part of Edgecomb at the time (Edgecomb was formerly known as Freetown). Ruggles was a sawyer and farmer. Jim had maps of the original land grants (Westport and Davis) circa 1815. He also had copies of the Colby pages extracted from the family records of Westport Island compiled by

Beatrice Harriman in the 1940's and include Westport town records, records from Colby family Bibles, and an oral history that Ms. Harriman collected while she was the town clerk of Westport. This document is 33 pages and is available from Jim for $3.00 plus postage and handling. Jim is looking into getting reprints of the land grant map available for sale. It is a rather large document and may not be available until next year. (Jim Colby, P.O. Box 6663, Scarborough, Maine 04070-6663).

Registration and events on Saturday, were held in the upstairs function room in the inn's restaurant with a beautiful and commanding view of the river and the Wiscasset shoreline. Members enjoyed meeting, talking, and sharing genealogical information. Coffee and danish were served by the restaurant staff. Doby Colby Hall of Danbury, CT offered grace before the luncheon. The annual business meeting was chaired by President Neal Slocum. The meeting began with the traditional presentation of gifts, this year by new member Bob Whidden of Belfast, Maine. The youngest in attendance was C.J. Bond, 4 years old, of Hubbardstown, MA, attending with his parents, Dee Dee Bond and Richard Student. The eldest in attendance was Adelaide Ellis of Virginia Beach, VA, attending with her daughter Pat Archer. The person who traveled the farthest distance was Arnold Sears of San Francisco, California. Arnold later offered the memorial tribute to those members and relatives who have died since the 2001 reunion. (see the printed list on page 3).

Janis Harriman of Union, Maine won the raffle of a Colby tee shirt, donated by Nancy Poland of Cape Elizabeth, who assisted Adeline with registration duties. C.J. Bond, our youngest in attendance, drew the winning ticket.

Jim Colby of Scarborough, Maine, recording secretary, moved the acceptance of the minutes of last year's meeting as published in last September's newsletter. The motion was seconded and carried. Adeline Stack, of South Portland, Maine, our hard-working treasurer and newsletter editor gave her treasurer's report which was accepted as read. Adeline is happy to acknowledge that she will be getting help from her new co-editor of the newsletter, from the host of the 1999 reunion in Rhode Island, Barbara Zdravesky, of Pawtucket, Rhode Island. This will allow Adeline more time to concentrate on answering mail and queries from members.

President Neal Slocum moved on to new business by having new members in attendance introduce themselves and where they were from. All stayed for a group photo. A lively discussion ensued with the second order of business. It was mentioned that the Association may want to purchase a plaque for a park bench or lamp post as part of the beautification of downtown Amesbury. It was moved, seconded, and carried that Neal be empowered to name a committee to study the proposal and report back to the membership through the newsletter, or at next year's meeting. It was then moved, seconded, and carried to make our annual donation of $400.00 to the up-keep of the Macy-

Colby House in Amesbury, MA. The final item of business was next year's reunion in East Orange, VT. Host James Colby will be sending out information to the membership in the near future. It was expressed that we would like to have the reunion in Amesbury in 2004 but, as of yet, no person or group has stepped forward to host it. No other site was discussed. There being no further business to discuss, the meeting closed with a benediction offered by Doby Colby Hall. A brief presentation followed by host Jim Colby about the Colby ancestors who settled locally and historic sites that could be visited later that day. Several people stayed to chat further and, of those staying through the weekend, several gathered for dinner that night at Le Garage Restaurant in Wiscasset. Among the sites mentioned by Jim were the site of the reunion itself, Davis Island, the inn property, old Fort Edgecomb (which sits on Folly Point directly across from the tip of Westport Island, home of our Colby forebears in this area), the Marie Antoinette House (purchased and appointed with the ill-fated queen's possessions now dispersed), Colby cemetery locations on Westport Island, and the location of Ambrose and Benjamin Colby's forge and blacksmith shop (now the Lilac Cottage Antique Shop on Route 1 in Wiscasset). President Neal Slocum thanked Jim for his work in hosting this year's reunion. See you all in East Orange for our 50th!!

Books

Scott Brown of Vernon, CT had, in his mother's collection, a book, "One Hundred Acres – More or Less" by David Bundy (1975), and donated it to the Colby Clan, in care of Adeline Stack. The book is a history of Bow, NH where many of our Colby ancestors lived. It is about the life and times of the people and dates back to the 18th century. Scott's mother, Dorothy Colby Brown, grew up in Bow. The book was at the Colby reunion last month and many folks enjoyed it. There is a good index, 555 pages, and pictures of the people and places of Bow. A BIG thanks to Scott for sharing this good book. One of Scott's two lines is: Anthony(1), Thomas(2,3), Abraham(4), Willaby(5), James(6), Lucinda m. Reuben Colby(7), Leonard, Herbert(8), Orlando(10), Dorothy b. 1901, d. 1983(11), Scott Brown(12).

Ron M. Colby of Kearns, UT has done a lot of research on the descendents of Anthony and Susannah Colby. He sent a book of 1436 pages with an index to Adeline which she took to the Colby reunion in Edgecomb, ME. It was very popular! Ron said all the pages in the book can be found on his home page at <http://freepages.genealogy.rootsweb.com/~colby/colby.fa>. Thanks Ron for the wonderful work you do and sharing it with us! Ron's line is Anthony(1), John(2,3), Joseph(4), Nathan(5), Ezekiel(6), Abner(7), Alanson(8), Joseph(9), LeRoy(10), Murvin L.(11), Ron M.(12).
