Kellems Family of Crawford County.

Several weeks ago someone sent me an e-mail wanting to know who the children of James Kellems were. So, I logged on to Ancestry.com and found the following:

The first census of Crawford County was the 1820 Federal Census. In this census we find:

James Kellems in a family of 13 persons,

James Kellems in a family of 6 persons,

Isaac Kellems in a family of 3 persons.

In the 1840 Federal Census, I found the following Kellems families:

James Kellems in a family of 17 persons,

Sally Kellems in a family of 13 persons,

William Kellems in a family of 8 persons.

In the 1850 Federal Census, the first to name all family members, I find the following:

Sarah Kellam, age 55, born in TN, living in Patoka Township with the following children:

David Kellam, age 21

Lucinda Kellam, age 16

Martha Kellam, age 13.

Also in Patoka Twp. in 1850 is William Kellams, i.e. Hellams, age 55, born in TN with the following wife and children:

Mary, age 39

Milla, age 20

Spencer, age 20

Thomas, age 19

Nancy, age 11

Catharine, age 7

Elizabeth, age 5

Another Failure at English.

ENGLISH, Ind., Sept. 11.— The English Electric Light and Manufacturing Company has failed for several thousand dollars. The assignment was made on Saturday and W. L. Luckett, banker, and J. R. Duffin, merchant, were appointed assignees, with Jerry L. Sudharth as attorney. The company furnishing light for the town of English had a large spoke factory, and it carried an immense stock of agricultural implements, buggies, wagons and commercial fertilizers. It had branch houses at Birdseye, Eckerty, Marengo, Milltown and Corydon. The stockholders were Amos Atkins, Otis Kirkpatrick, John V. McCoy, who is county auditor, J. N. Fleming and John H. Weathers, the latter figuring in the bank wreck of 1897. The company was apparently doing a flourishing business. The assets and liabilities are not known.
