

State Declaration of Thomas Lammie a citizen of Union County Tennessee, in order to obtain the benefit of an act of Congress passed June 5th 1832

State of Tennessee
Union County } Circuit Court at August Session 1832

On this 26th day of August 1832 personally appeared before me Samuel Powell one of the Judges of the Circuit Courts of law and equity in and for the State of Tennessee being counts of record and having the power of fine and imprisonment, Thomas Lammie a citizen of said County aged seventy four years, who being duly sworn in open Court, according to law doth on his oath make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the provisions of an act of Congress passed June 5th 1832 -

That he was born in Pennsylvania County Virginia on the 28th day of September 1757, from whence he was taken when quite an infant to be preserved from the outrages of the Indians to Roanoke, where he was kept for sometime - from Roanoke he was taken according to the information of his Parents to some other Counties, but before yet a boy he was taken by his parents back to Pennsylvania County where he continued to reside until sometime in 1775 or 1776 as well as he now recollects, he thinks however it was before he was placed on the muster roll, he enlisted or perhaps was enrolled in a Company of minute men as a volunteer private, which company was under the command of Captain Peter Perkins, who lived in the said County of Pennsylvania on Dan river, and who was afterwards called Col. Perkins, said Company was also commanded by Lieutenant Lipe Hend - Applicant does not now recollect whether his said company was of the Continental establishment or not - he knows they were called minute men, and were obliged by the terms of their enlistment or enrollment, to be in constant readiness to take the field at a minutes warning - Applicant states that about the period above mentioned his Company was ordered to rendezvous at a place in said County of Pennsylvania, known by the name of Rachelens-hall, and were enrolled for a three months tour - After the said Company had met they were marched under the above mentioned officers to Petersburg, where they remained
