

hauling bombs balls ammunition &c from Lewis river about 12 miles distant - applicant states that he continued in the said service at Yorktown untill the surrender of Comwallis after which time applicant continued in the same service untill the army had reached Fredericksburg to which place applicant had hauled a load of baggage, and was accompanied by a great portion of the army with many prisoners - At Fredericksburg applicants time of service having expired he was discharged and returned home - applicant states that he has served in the Revolutionary army as well as he now believes between seven and eight months of one campaign of three months as a volunteer, to within two weeks of the expiration of the time - between one and two months of another three months campaign, and another campaign as a drafted private, for three months - applicant states that he lived in Pittsylvania County during the whole war of the Revolution, and untill 1796 when he moved to Knox County Tennessee, then a Territory, where he has continued to live ever since he states that he has a record of his age in a bible - he states he believes he got a written discharge at the expiration of each of his campaigns but he has lost them - he says he has no documentary evidence whatever of his service - and he knows of no person, other than the one whose certificate is herewith annexed, whose testimony he can procure who can testify to his service - He hereby relinquishes every claim whatever to a pension or annuity except the present, and declares that his name is not on the pension roll of the agency of any state sworn to and subscribed in open court.

this 24th day of August 1832

Wm Spradley

Harris Gammon

State of Tennessee

Knox County I Alexander Norton of Blount County, Tennessee, aged seventy three years, do hereby certify that I lived in Pittsylvania County Virginia, during the Revolutionary war - that I knew Harris Gammon who has sworn to