there then was and still is no resident clergyman in his neighborhood who has resided there for a time sufficient to have known of his and reputation, nor has he stated as stated in his former declaration that he has a record of his age in the bible which he now has and which was taken from his father's bible he states that those persons in his neighborhood who can testify to his veracity, and his reputation in the neighborhood, for having performed revolutionary services, are Ed-
