Sir

I have the honor to return with report of Special Examination, the papers in the above cited claim, the same having been referred to the S.B.D. August 13, 1894, for investigation to determine whether soldier's death was a result of army service, and general merits of the claim.

There is a list of comrades with the papers and the certificate of disability on which the soldier was discharged, giving cause in detail, filed in the B.G. It is not probable that any comrade could now tell any more about his disabilities in service, than appears in his certificate of discharge. for that reason I did not see any comrades. It appears from depositions
