

San Antonio Express-News, Thursday, 25 March 2004

Nancy Cox Wilkes, our beloved mother, peacefully went to rest with her Lord on March 20, 2004 in Houston, TX. She was born on February 7, 1918, the daughter of Henry Oren Cox and Amelia Margaret Young, at the family farm near Maryville, TN. A direct descendant of both Mayflower ancestors and pioneer settlers, she valued her heritage and her family. Nancy touched many lives and will be greatly missed by family and friends alike. She was preceded in death by her husband of 33 years, Col. Harvey Alonzo Wilkes, her grandson John Quenzer, Jr., her sisters Annabelle and Margaret and her brother Henry. She is survived by her daughters, Margaret Harper of Houston, TX and Carol Quenzer and husband John of Kingwood, TX and by her sons, William Wilkes and wife Denny of Memphis, TN, John Wilkes of Houston, TX and Charles Wilkes and wife Rosemary of Bulverde, TX. She is also survived by her grandchildren, Sarah Schmidt of Houston, TX, Charles Schmidt and wife Jennifer of Houston, TX, Mark Quenzer and Bruce Quenzer of Houston, TX, Steven Quenzer and wife Angelina of Las Vegas, NV, Deron Wilkes and wife Amy, Jessica Howerton and husband Billy, Tad Wilkes and wife Mindy, Amy Wilkes and Jonathan Wilkes, all of Memphis, TN; Drew Wilkes of Houston TX, Matthew Wilkes and Daniel Wilkes of Bulverde, TX; as well as seven great-grandchildren; numerous nieces and nephews. Graveside Services will be held at Fort Sam Houston National Cemetery on Friday, March 26, 2004 at 2:15.

