Advisor, Mr. Raymond

The class of 1950 is going to leave behind some real memories for P. T. H. S. Their Senior Ball changed the Rec Hall into the Golden 50 Club with all the trimmings. From the appearance of the crowd it was the success of the seniors' high school career.

The class also showed their talent with "Inner Willy," the senior play for this year. Mr. Seeley directed this production and it was enjoyed by many people.

It was a hard race for scholastic honors this year, but these five were finally chosen as graduation speakers: Jeannie Westall and Gordon Irle, co-valedictorians; Lael Franklin, salutorian; Beverly Banko and Jean Young.

GOLDEN 50 CLUB

The Senior Ball was sponsored by the class of '50 in the Recreation Center November 18. The theme of this first formal dance of the year was "The Golden 50 Club." As each couple entered they were greeted by door men and ushered to their reserved tables. Here they were served refreshments whenever they wished by the eighth grade waitresses.

Blue and gold crepe paper decorations transformed the rec hall into a night club where couples danced to the music of the Bow Ties.

Everyone agreed that the swirling effect of the girls' formals and perfume from their lovely corsages helped to make this ball an affair to remember.

MINNEHA-HOP

"The Minneha Hop" was the name of this year's Tolo Dance sponsored by the Girls' Club. Pat Flynn was chairman of the dance.

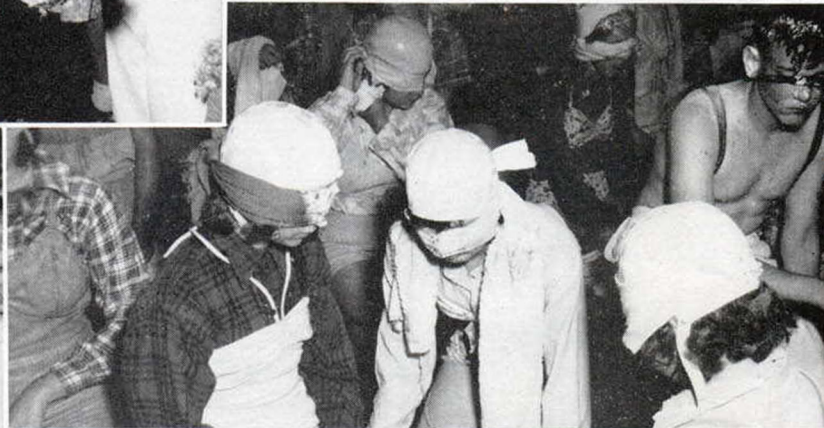

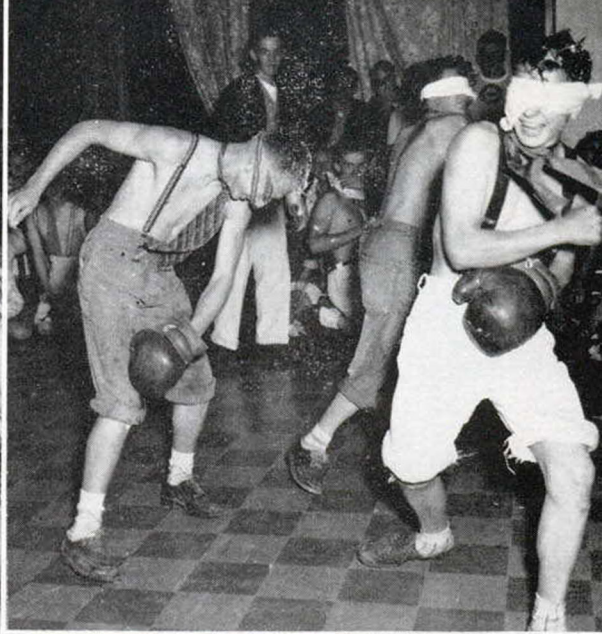

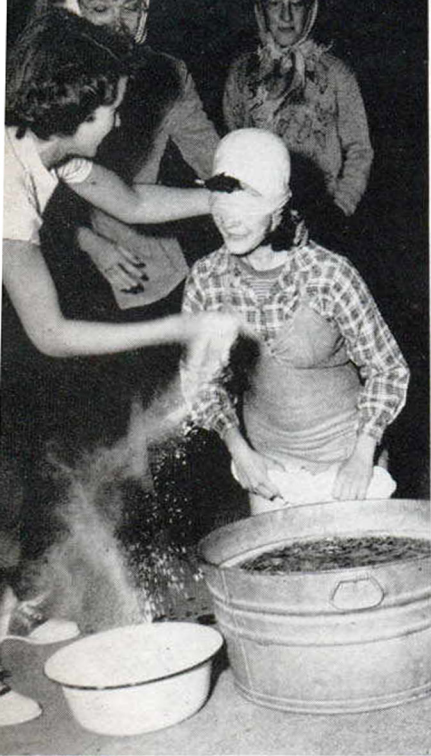

Pat King and Shirley Rogers, co-chairmen of the decoration committee, and many other hard-working girls did their utmost to make the dance the great success that it was. Much credit must be given to Miss Poore, girls' advisor, who worked especially hard right up to the last minute.

During the intermission, Rosie Thornton crowned her date, Bud Campbell, King of the Tolo and presented him with a gold feather headdress sprinkled with colored sequins for a crown. Lael Franklin, Girls' Club president, gave Bud a gift from the Girls' Club.

SENIOR PLAY

This year's Senior Play, "Inner Willy," was considered by many townspeople and students to be one of the most successful plays ever given at Port Townsend high school.

It was the story of a shy, coddled boy, played by Donald Williams, who was brought up by his three old maid aunts. He was coached by his conscience, "Inner Willy," played by Bob Witzdam, into developing a mind of his own.

The laurels go to Bob Witzdam for doing such an outstanding job on a difficult role. He captivated the audience with his sarcasms and witticisms.

The cast, under the direction of Mr. Seeley, truly did an excellent job in this comical farce.

"SAN JUAN STORY"

"San Juan Story" turned out to be one of the biggest productions that P. T. H. S. has ever put on. It took more people, costumes and scenery than any other play that we can remember.

The story of the operetta is all tied up with the "pig war" on San Juan Island. When Lyman Cutter shot Charlie Griffith's pig, it practically started a war between England and the U. S. It also messed up the love life of Seth Cutter and Amanda Griffith. All worked out in the end, though, with the boundary peaceably decided and Seth and Amanda married.

FROSH ASSEMBLY

The Freshman assembly featured a variety of entertainment which included singing, stunts and shadow ballet. The assembly was topped off by a boys' bathing beauty contest, the boys wearing girls' suits.

SOPH ASSEMBLY

"Recollections of PTHS 1950" was the theme for the Sophomore assembly in which a grandfather told his grandson of the entertainment and activity of that time. The recollections were tap dancing, boys doing the can-can, singing, and chair tricks. It was a fine assembly.

SENIOR ASSEMBLY

Radio station PTHS, 1950 motorcycles on your dial, came into being during the senior assembly. With Bob Witzdam as Master of Ceremonies and Jack Bishop as the Disc Jockey the assembly was really a radio station for an hour.

JUNIOR ASSEMBLY

The Junior Assembly was given as a talent show. A skit, "Ain't Love Grand", was one of the main attractions. A dance routine and several musical numbers topped off the assembly.

Girls' Club Officers

Minneha-Hop, the Girls' Club Tolo, was a great success.

The Girls' Club auction was another exciting event.

Other events this year were the Thanksgiving Basket Assembly and the Mothers' Tea.

Sitting-Joan Emerson, vice-president; Lael Franklin, president; Shirley Rogers, historian; Sally Lashua, secretary.

Pep Club

Another peppy sports year was witnessed under the able leadership of our Pep Club.

They decorated the goal post and the gym at home games as well as produced a few new yells.

Much of the credit should go to the yell leaders for their fine loyalty, hard work and sportsmanship.

First row-S Broomall, secretary; D. Drake, L. V. Eggert, Mr. Balcom, S. Campbell, president; B. Whiteman, vice-president; L. Toman.

Second row-C. Baker, T. Doneyhue, B. Ziel, M. Powers, J. Tickner, R. Irle, B. Kenyon, D. Wiley.

Debate

This year's debate squad were mostly first year debaters. They have a pretty good record against other schools.

They attended two round-robins this year, one at Port Angeles and one at South Kitsap. Port Angeles was down here once. The big event of the year was the tournament at C.P.S. where they met teams from all over the state.

Standing-L. Kidd, Mr. Seeley, C. Guntley, R. Irle, F. Tennant.

Boys' Club

The Boys' Club had a very well-planned year of activities. During the year several movies were shown to the club. There were also several speakers, two were army, not recruiting officers, and a state patrolman.

Some of the furnishings in the Boys' Club room were bought by the Boys' Club.

Gregg Artists

The Order of Gregg Artist, presided over by Kathy Thorp, is an organization of our top shorthand students. ## GIRLS' ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

When you see a girl wearing a squawhead or a "T", you can bet she has sweated blood to get it.

If requirements are met, a squawhead is awarded the first year, a letter the second year, and a pin and guard the third year. Requirements include turning out for team sports including softball, basketball, volleyball, and soccer; officiating; and participating in unorganized activities,

Every year, a senior girl receives the G.A. A. Inspirational Award for outstanding activities in sports.

GIRLS' SERVICE SQUAD

Did you ever stop to think who does all the dirty work at games, school plays, assemblies, and other school functions, so that you can enjoy yourself? You never stop to realize the hard work that the Service Squad does for your benefit. Service Squad girls deprive themselves of their study halls and participation with the rest of the kids at games and assemblies to serve you.

All girls are eligible, but they must earn sixty points each year to remain in Service Squad. The first year award is a triangle badge, the second year is a pin with a red "T", the third year is a gold "T", and the fourth year they receive a guard to go with their "T". Earning sixty points is a tough job and very few girls receive their fourth year awards. President Lucy Toman is one of the few to receive the fourth year award this year.

ANNUAL STAFF

This year's annual is unusual in that the covers for it were made by the annual staffs, with the help of the Home Economics classes.

Editor Gordon Irle spent much time planning this year's annual. Time spent at Western Engraving yielded many different effects. The co-operation of Redding's Studio and of the Leader Company has helped to make this year's annual the book that it is.

FOOTBALL

Thanks to the faculty, the proceeds from their basketball game with Sequim here helped to finance a huge part of the baseball season.

Port Angeles, Sequim, and Port Townsend were included in the league.

The Redskins attained many high honors this season when the tough Olympic league was won, the title as champs of the West Central B Tourney was retained, and a seventh place in the State B Basketball Tourney was won.

In the winning of the Olympic League, it was the first time a team of P. T. H. S. had ever attained that position. It was also the first time in the league history that a "B" team had won first place.

The winning of first place in the district tournament gives this title to the Redskins two years in a row. The Redskins had also won a high place in the district tourney in 1947.

This was the second time a Redskin team had placed in the state tourney. In 1949 the Redskins had placed sixth in the state tourney, one place higher than this year's squad did.

Mike Bertak, acting captain, scored over 300 points by the end of the season and was chosen as the center on the all state second squad.
