Dedication

We the Associated student Body of Port Townsend High School, dedicate this edition of our annual to our outstanding school buildings, and especially to the man who has been largely responsible for their erection.

We speak, of course, of our entire school plant, and Mr. William H. Carder. He has worked tirelessly to give us the best of housing, but we mustn't forget that our academic program has kept pace with our building program at all times.

Again, with respect and pleasure, we dedicate this edition of our annual to Mr. William H. Carder.

A. S. B. Officers

Bob Lockhart, president of the student body, should be congratulated for the fine year he has put in as president.

Roger Irle, vice president, voiced his opinions in many Student Council meetings and kept them going.

Secretary Jackie Robertson made it possible for the minutes to be in the show case in the main hall. She also has done a fine job.

Don Williams has done a very good job as treasurer. He worked on the books and made sure they were all in order.

Mr. Riley, student body advisor, is thanked by the entire student body for the guidance and assistance he gave in working out the problems of our school.

"Student Council was a highly competent group during the past year. Not only did the personnel of the Student Council carry on their usual duties, but they were always vigilant in noting areas of revision and legislation. The associated students have been well represented."

Daniel P. Riley, advisor

"It was really great to work with such a swell group of students. I know that I'm going to miss them all as will Student Council when they leave. I'm sure that in coming years, this same group will turn out to have some very competent leaders."

Bob Lockhart, president

Student Council

The Student Council, under the leadership of Bob Lockhart, student body president, and Mr. Riley, student body advisor proved themselves, as a group, to be both good leaders and good workers.

This year they accomplished several tasks, placed their decisions on many important matters, and, in general, led the student body through a very successful year.

$485 was granted for the purchase of band uniforms by a unanimous decision of the Student Council members.

Student Council promoted annual sales this year with the presentation of an assembly advertising the annual.

A very nice Halloween party and dance was sponsored for the student body by the Student Council, also.

Since previous Initiations have been carried farther than necessary, Student Council this year went on record as recommending that a freshman initiation committee be set up to work with the administration to keep initiation that of an evening of enjoyment instead of punishment.

Snapshots of School Action

Here are a few students and teachers just waiting for the camera. The pinochle players didn't even seem to know their pictures were being taken. And look, there's LaVola ready to make a 40-yard dash.

Mr. Baugh and Mr. Wagner, what nice whiskers you have; and Ray, that's a nice looking "Bug" race you're having.

Was Nancy Morris bashful or didn't she want to go the rest of the way over the fence? Take a gander at those "Hula Girls." They're just waiting to do the "Hawaiian War Chant."

What with Doug Larson on crutches and Mrs. Johnson ready to take dictation, this is a sample of the everyday life at P.T.H.S.

As the class of 1952 leaves the halls of P.T.H.S., with them goes our hope for continued success.

During their four years of high school, they proved themselves outstanding, not only scholastically, but as entertainers and leaders as well.

As freshmen, they astounded the high school with their wide variety of talent, displayed in their assembly, in their freshman dance, "April Showers," and general participation in school activities.

Through their sophomore and junior years, their ability and interest in our school continued to grow. During those two years, their most outstanding production was their junior assembly, a minstrel show.

With the successful presentation of "Second Fiddle," their senior play, "Arabian Nights," the annual senior ball, and their senior assembly, "TV Station PTHS," their high school career has come to a close.

Senior Play

On November 16, the senior class again took the stage for the presentation of "Second Fiddle," directed by Mr. Seeley, dramatics and debate coach.

The action of the play revolves around Harold Werple, who rehearses a wedding ceremony with Joan Keeler, only to find out that rehearsal was the real thing. The trouble begins when Dorothy Van Straaten, Harold's fiancée, finds out about the wedding. The climax is the happy ending when Harold and Joan become the real Mr. and Mrs. Werple.

Bob Lockhart as Harold Werple, and Barbara Robb as Joan Keeler, led the play to make it an outstanding hit.

The entire senior class wishes to express its appreciation to Mr. Seeley for directing the play in such fine style.

Senior Ball

With the theme of "Arabian Nights" the Seniors successfully turned the Rec. Hall into an oasis for the biggest dance of the year.

Palm trees covered the ceiling of the Rec. Hall, and murals of Arabian dancing girls looked down from the walls.

The committees under the general chairman, Marjorie Brannick, put forth their talents and ideas and worked hard together to put over a very fine ball on November 30, 1951.

Senior Assembly

For a review of their school career as a whole, the senior class presented a TV program featuring entertainment that was outstanding throughout their previous assemblies.

Virginia Teitzel at the piano the Bromac Sisters, John Norwood imitation the late Al Jolson, and the jokes and ad lib of Tom Baker and Dick Gleason are only a few of the acts that will be remembered when thinking of the lass of '52.

Senior Snaps

Here we have some seniors that were caught off guard. The upper left and extreme lower right were pies taken at a party. What happen, Bob Lockhart seems to have four hands.

Looks as though Mary Haugen just came home from the Rhody Festival parade, and Howard Gardiner is enjoying the beach and Jan Savage the sun.

What's Jaki Van doing? Oh, nothing, she just has a Flash bulb suspended in air at Johnson's when the girls were working on the Girls' Club Tolo.

Don and Jooen were having a fine time in journalism class up in the library.

Jim Myers ought to give those boys a ride in his hot-rod convertible, but how can he, he's one of the boys. Maybe his car ran out of gas.

Junior Class

As the class of '53 moves up to the rank of seniors we look back through their high school career thus far.

As Frosh, their assembly was topped off with a shadow ballet, and a boys' bathing beauty contest.

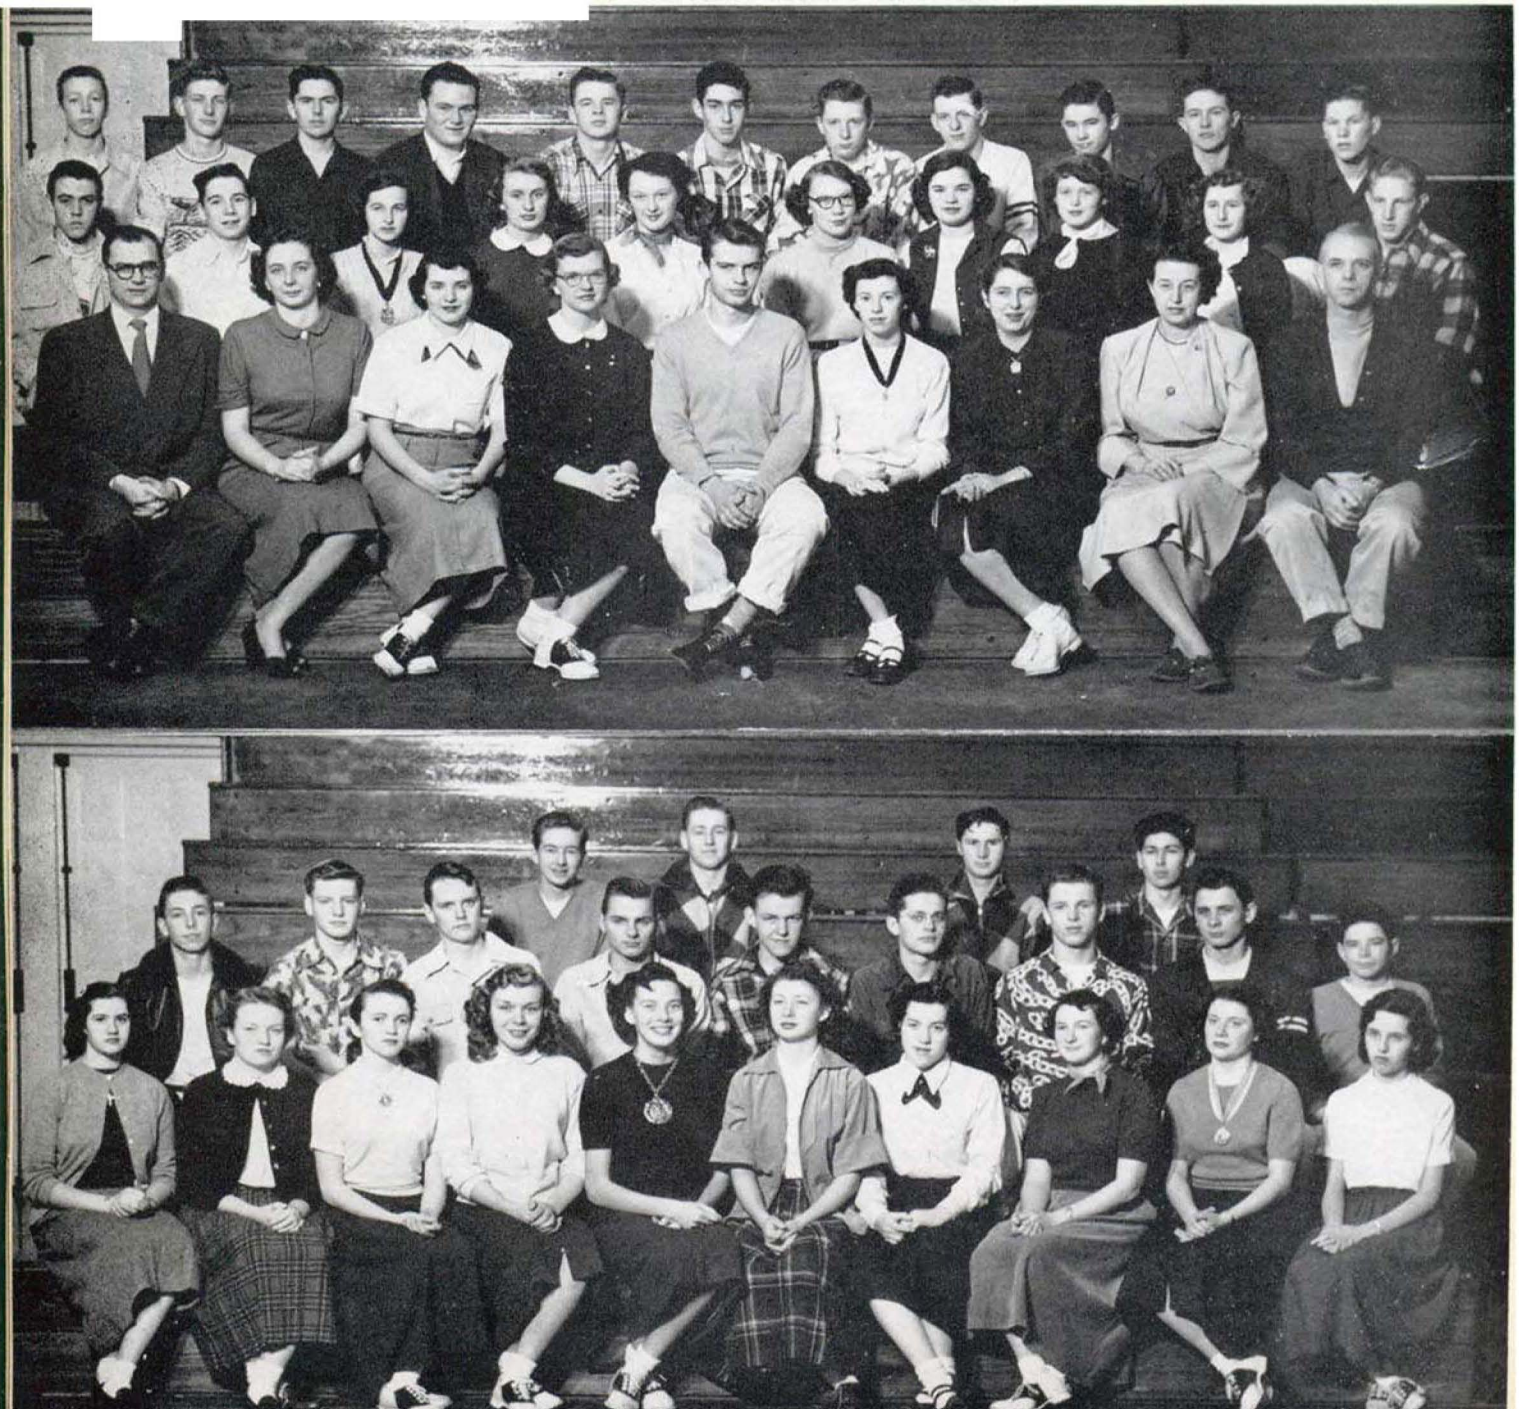

In their sophomore year they presented "The Family Album" as their assembly, and the "Pioneer Prance," in keeping with the Centennial atmosphere, as their sophomore-senior dance.

This year they continued their flair for dances with the sponsoring of "Bermudan Waters," the annual Junior Prom.

From this class come the leaders of the student body for the school year 1952-53.

Junior Snaps

These junior lads and lassies seem to all be having a good time. Some look busy, like Ray Powers and Paul Lindgren, but others are just enjoying themselves.

That pop looks good that Dan Winchester is drinking.

Diane Drake and Kathy Davis really like dogs, don't they?

And there's Sid Hubbard, boy cortor-tionist, or is it trick photography?

Dan Winchester also seems to be going on a Boy Scout hike.

Don't Doris Steers and Gayle Rogers look quaint in their old-fashioned costumes?

What's Phil Rayan hiding from?

Jill MacKaig and Carol Sampson look like they're enjoying the slimmer sun and salt water.

This class, which put on a fine Junior Prom this year, has high hopes of being a big success next year as seniors.

Junior Assembly

With the setting of a hill billy cabin in the back woods, Pa and Ma were very well depicted by Herb Swanson and Donna Larsen. The entire assembly went off with a big bang, including Henry Lammers continual outbursts concerning a barn being on fire.

The entire performance was about the family and their friends. Some of the friends played instruments, others sang and two daughters, Nancy Anderson and Doris Steers did a dance called the Chicken Reel.

All in all the junior class should be congratulated for its fine assembly.

Sophomore Class

The sophomores took part very supporting, under the leadership of President Doug Larson and advisors Mrs. Lutz, Mr. Baugh and Mr. Sullivan, in many of our school activities.

"Hot Rod" was their dance theme for the sophomore-senior dance which was given in honor of the senior class. Epitaphs of the graduating seniors covered the walls, and replicas of many seniors' hot rod cars and trucks were used as decorations,

Sophomore Snaps

Here are some snappy guys and gals. In the upper left hand corner we see Daryl Eslinger being bear-hugged by Doug Larson. In the very middle we see Rosie Fecho and Pat Hillhouse enjoying the sunshine.

Some of the girls look a little camera shy, but others look just plain photogenic. At the upper right hand corner the girls seem to be looking for something instead of at the camera. Could be a four leaf clover? Whatever it is this looks like a fine group of kids that make up the fine sophomore class.

Freshman Assembly

"Showboat" was the theme of the freshman assembly this year which, with the cooperation of the freshman class working together, was a big success.

The freshman jazz hand, all-girl chorus tap dance by Linda Murdock and Joleen Lux, and Joy Geick as a southern mammy are only a few of the highlights of a very entertaining and exciting hour of laughs presented by the class of 55.

Freshman Initiation

This year's frosh initiation was whipped into shape with much success by the class of '52.

The initiation was conducted on a Saturday and Saturday evening, thus eliminating the inconvenience caused by holding it during class time.

This was the first year any initiation was held during the afternoon down town with the co-operation and help of the local police force and local merchants.

At the Recreation Center that evening the seniors really put the frosh through the paces.

Canvas tunnels, pablum and water, and an invigorating vitamin drink from the seniors' own cook book, are a few of the happenings that will be remembered by the class of '55 for many years to come.

Band Assembly

For the first time in its history Port Townsend High School that whole-heartedly supported a benefit show. This was called the Variety Show and was put on entirely by the students and faculty of the school. Student's, as well as teachers, put in many hard-working hours to get everything in readiness. Each piece of scenery had to be made and painted, and some made again. When it was finally ready and presented it was a huge success. For the performance given, a surprising amount of money was made to provide the band with new uniforms.

At the 1952 Rhododendron Festival the band was all decked out in new uniforms.

A feeling of gratitude and thanks is expressed by the whole student body to those who worked so hard to make the show a success and to those who were responsible for helping our band get new uniforms.

Girls' Club Tolo

Under a blue sky and silver star atmosphere, the theme of "Starlight Serenade" was carried out beautifully for the Girls Club Tole which was held October 19.

Jaki VanValkenburg and Donna Plaster, co-chairmen, [leen Johnson, decoration chairman, and many other girls worked hard to put over the first big dance of the year. Much of the success of the dance was due to Miss Essig's wonderful help and upervision which was appreciated by all.

During intermission Kathy Zimmerman crowned her escort, John Norwood, as the 1951 Tolo King. Anita Hart, Girls' Club president, gave Johnny a very nice gift on behalf of the Girls' Club.

Among the other activities of the Girls' Club during the year was their assembly on November 21. This was the annual basket assembly to aid the less fortunate at Thanksgiving time.

On May 9 the Girls' Club gave a very lovely tea for the mothers of all the girls. As entertainment at the tea the girls presented a fashion show, modeling clothes they had made in home economics classes.

All School Play

On April 18, 1952, the actors of our school presented the play "Cheese Cottage" under the direction of Miss Gloria Nelson.

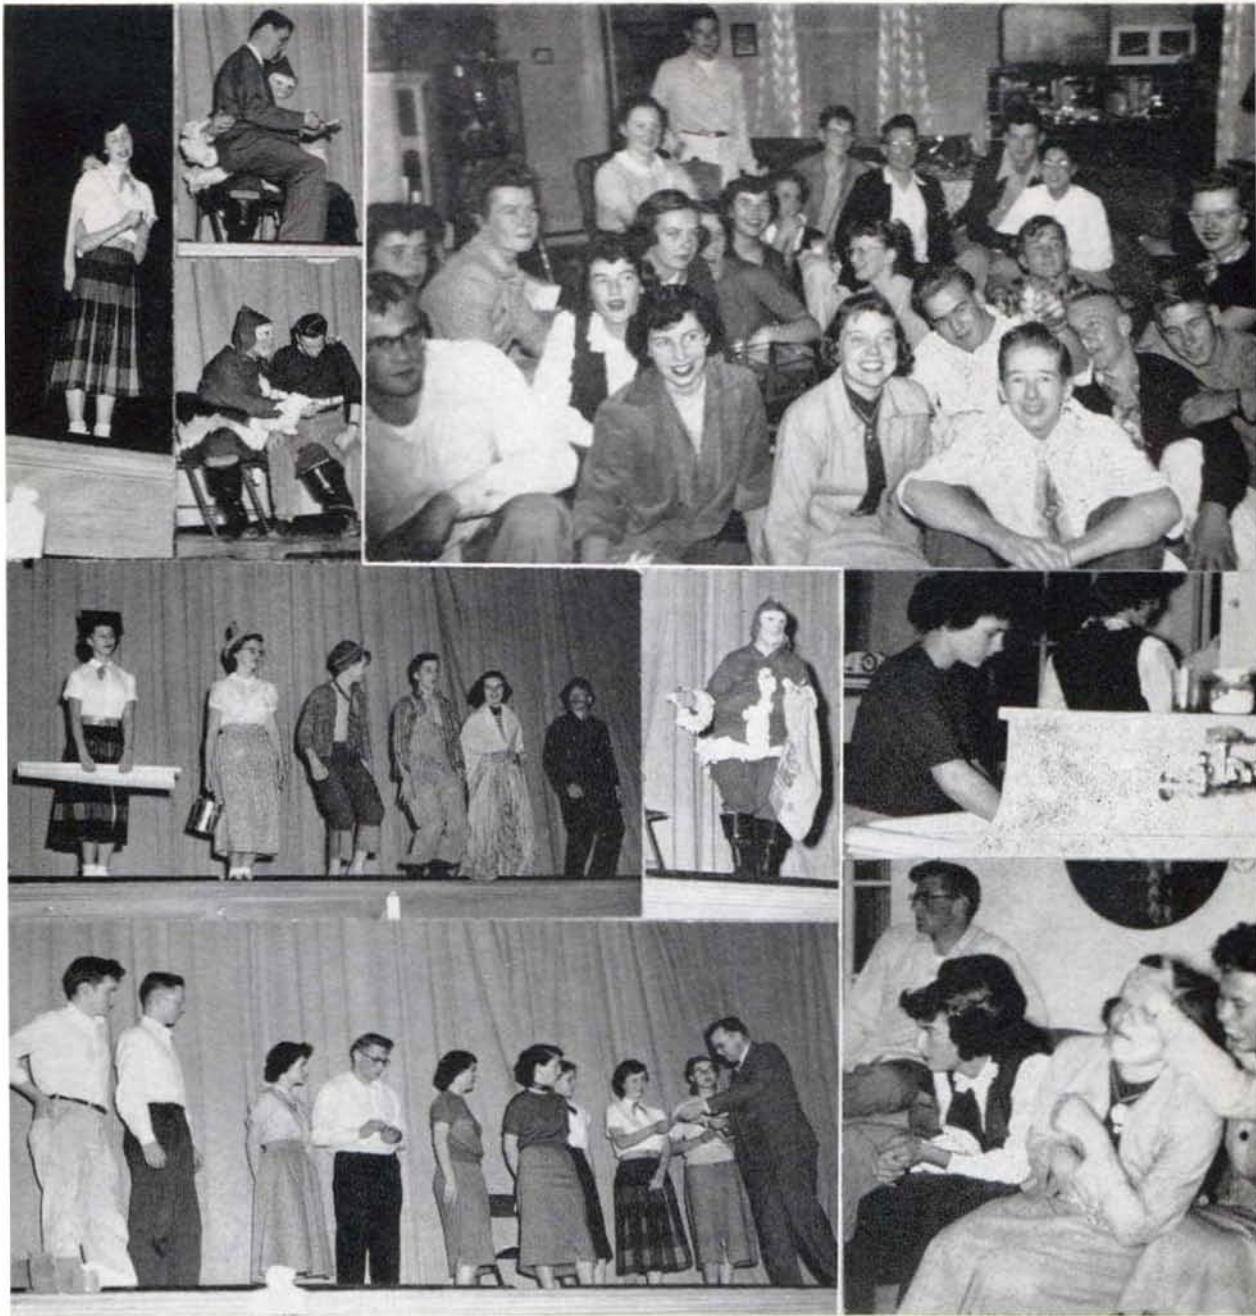

The setting of the play all took place at a run-down resort cabin on an out-of-the-way lake.

Bob Lockhart, as Mr. Hinkle, accustomed to fine living, made the comedy a sue-cess with his amusing anger and complaints of such living quarters.

Most of the students acting in this play were under-classmen, doing so for the first time. They show promise of fine acting ability to be used in our future high school plays.

Miss Nelson should be congratulated for her fine job of directing.

Torch Honor

The Torch Honor Society, with the assistance of Miss Gloria Nelson, their advisor, proved themselves to be a group of students that could really work together and have Fun doing it. Proof of this was their Christmas assembly, progressive dinner and their dance, "Torchy Tornado."

Santa appeared at their Christmas assembly with the help of Bob Lockhart, who has assisted Santa for two years. He passed out presents to some of the students and also to some teachers, as the snapshot of Mr. Sullivan on Santa's knee illustrates. The Torch members received their pins from Mr. Caldwell at the assembly, also.

The progressive dinner was held at the home economics Jab, with some small courses held at some of the members' homes. Miss Stanton, one of the Quests carved the turkey.

Library Club

This year the Library Club had a variety of "get togethers" held in the Cozy Room after school. They also had their annual Christmas party which was held in the home economics lab. And, as in other years, they had the Library Club picnic at Chetzemoka Park. All these parties and cozies were under the able planning of Bertv Mefford, social chairman.

The entire club helped throughout the year in decorating the library to keep it attractive. Most of the displays were put up by the 1st period librarians, and were helped along by the others bringing flowers, holly and other shrubs that were in season.

All this helped to keep the library alive and the students and faculty enjoyed them as well as the books.

One of the most successful years in the GAA has just been completed under the direction of their advisor, Miss Stanton. The GAA revised their constitution enabling the frosh to participate for the first time.

Participation in GAA has increased tremendously with the addition of the new sports such as volley-tennis, baseball, badminton and tennis.

Besides participating in sports, the girls held their annual "Santa Sox Stomp" and because of the success of last year's award picnic, they have decided to make it an annual event.

Although they did not play host, the PTHS girls played an active part in the "Play Day" at Port Angeles, Central Kitsap and, for the first time, the U. of W. "Play Day."

Debate

This year the debate squad widened its field of speaking to take in not only university style of debating but also students were entered in the field of oratory, extemporaneous speaking and oral interpretation.

The number of debaters in our school is steadily increasing, showing that the students are becoming more interested in this extra curricular activity, which offers not only enjoyment to the student but is actually one of the most educational activities offered in our school.

Pep Club

The 39 members of the Pep Club really were peppy this year under the leadership of LaVola Craig, the 1951-52 president.

The club really should be commended on its fine co-operation on the many club functions.

During football season, numerous pep dances were given, and the goal posts were decorated for every Football game.

The gym was brightly decorated with signs and posters at every game.

Standing: Joan Condon, Carolyn Tickner, Sallie Broomall (cheerleaders). Sitting: Herb Swanson, secretary; Carol Gustafson, Veep; LaVola Craig, president; Mr. Balcom, adviser.

Boys' Club

Several speakers were presented to the Boys' Club this year. Some were on forestry, recruiting officers for the armed forces, and the police force.

President Tom Baker represented the Boys' Club very capably at Student Council meetings during the year.

Boys' "T" Club

Initiation of the new members highlighted the year's events for the Boys' "T" Club.

The basketball and football awards for the boys were presented at a student body meeting held during the year.

Howard Gardiner proved not only to be a capable president of the club, but also received the football Inspirational Award.

Howard Scott, secretary; Mr. Blevins, adviser; Howard Gardiner, president; Pat O'Meara, vice-president.

Boys' Service Squad

Boys Service Squad, under the leadership of Daryl Eslinger, again proved itself a valuable organization in our school by assisting at the home games of basketball, football and baseball.

Taking tickets, ushering at ball games, keeping aisles clear at games, setting barricades are only a few of the many jobs this club has done this year.

Mr. Raymond, adviser; Dan Winchester, secretary; Daryl Eslinger, president; Ken Williams, vice-president.

Majorettes

One of the snappiest groups to entertain at ball games this year was the Majorettes. These girls were led by Helen McMillen, who also led the band.

Not only did they perform for school activities but they also made a good showing at the Rhododendron Festival.

Sallie Broomall, Judy Zink, Alice Stenstrom; Helen McMillen, drum majorette.

Girls' Service Squad

Assisting the faculty serving refreshments at ball game and ushering at concerts in the auditorium are only a few of the many activities of the Girls' Service Squad.

Regular meetings were called to order once a month by President Alice Stenstrom.

The emblem banquet topped off their year. It was held in the cafeteria and girls received awards for their most appreciated work during the year.

Nora Ryan, vice-president; Kathy O'Donnell, secretary; Alice Stenstrom, president; Sharon Doll treasurer; Miss Essig, adviser.

Order of Gregg Artists

The order of Gregg Artists is an organization made up of the top shorthand students of our school. This year they worked together and formed a new constitution which will be followed by the future O.G.A. members.

Under the leadership of Colleen May, president, and Miss Marian Ott, adviser, the girls put on a very good initiation, dance and several dinners.

Annual Staff

The annual staff, headed by Barbara Robb, editor, and Mr. Sullivan, adviser, deserve recognition for the work they did this year. These students started working on the annual during the early part of the year instead of waiting until the last few months. Consequently, they have published a very fine annual representing a lot of work, co-operation and ingenuity.

Working hand in hand with the annual staff was the "Salad Days" staff, headed by Don Williams, editor, and Gayle Rogers, assistant editor. Their staff also devoted a lot of time to putting out the second volume of our high school literary magazine.

Stage and Sound Crew

Parking cars, working stage lights and curtains, helping to construct and set up stage props and running the public address system are all part of the duties of the members of stage and sound crew.

This year eleven boys took part in these duties under the direction of Mr. Baugh. These boys are a great asset to our school.

Football

This year's football season was one of the most outstanding in the history of Port Townsend High School.

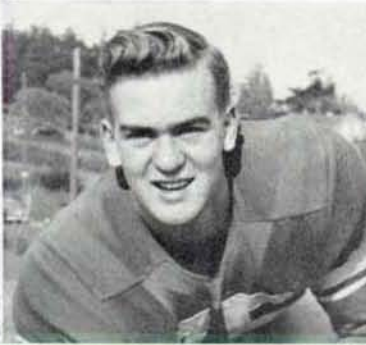

The Redskins won the Olympic League Championship Trophy, the first time a "B" team has ever placed first in the league: This was the first time since 1913 that the Redskin team was completely undefeated and untied.

Many other events took place for the first time in our school. Vern Geick was chosen as a first string end on the An State football team with John Norwood as alternate. This was the first time for any Port Townsend player to hold such a position.

Also for a first time, Coach Blevins was chosen as head coach for the All State Team. Not only was this the first time the honor was ever bestowed upon Down: Coach Blevins , Bob Lockhart 66, Phil Rayan.

Football

Basketball

Tournament hopes for our basketball team this year were shattered when our team was defeated by Yelm, who took third place in the district tournament. This was the first year in six that we have not placed first or second in district tournament.

Since many of the district schools reached their peak this year, we were playing against much stiffer teams than some of them in years past.

In all, we played twenty-four games this year, winning seventeen and losing seven.

Vern Geick, Jim Thomas, Tom Baker, Ed Martin, Skip Baker, Charley Watts, Marvin Miller.

Basketball

Our team placed second in the Olympic League with a standing of nine wins and three losses.

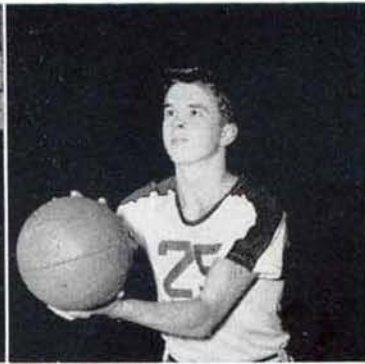

Vern Geick, for the third time, was named for the all-league first team.

Larry Kidd also placed in all-league, being chosen as a member of the second team.

Very good sportsmanship and team work were shown by the basketball team this year. Also, the entire student body displayed good school spirit and sportsmanship during the games, rallies and pep assemblies.

This year the basketball "B" squad had quite a successful year.

The "B" squad is made up of sophomore and junior boys. It is from these boys that our first string basketball team is picked.

The team is coached by Mr. Robert Charles. The "B" squad league is made up of the same schools as in the "A" squad league.

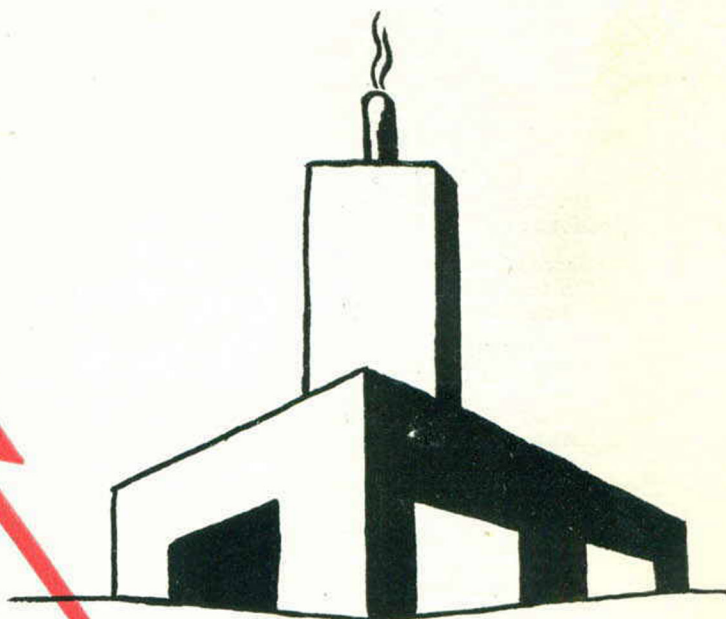

League standing for the team at the end of the season was nine wins and nine losses.

Our 'B' string football team also put in a very good season this year. They are coached by Mr. Kirby Sooy and ended the season with a total of four wins to their credit and no losses.

The "B" squad has no league. The team is made up of sophomores and juniors.

The "A" squad is picked and the remaining sophomores and juniors form the "B" squad with an opportunity to work up to the "A" squad.
