Children of Marie Legier and Martin Estopinal are:

363  i.  Martin Albert Jr Estopinal, born December 1, 1868 in New Orleans Louisiana; died January 12, 1951 in St. Bernard Parish Louisiana. He married Bernice Cambre September 10, 1892 in Orleans Parish Louisiana; born January 2, 1870 in Louisiana; died Unknown.

Notes for Martin Albert Jr Estopinal:
Estopinal, Albert, Jr., sheriff of St. Bernard parish, was born in New Orleans, La., Dec. 1, 1868, a son of Albert and Eliska (Legier) Estopinal, the former being a native of St. Bernard parish and the latter of New Orleans. For detailed information regarding the parents' ancestry, see sketch of Rene L. Estopinal, elsewhere in this work. Albert Estopinal, Jr., attended the public schools of his home city and later a private school, after which he entered the Louisiana state university, remaining for 4 years. Following this he matriculated in the law school of Tulane university, graduating with credit in the class of 1890. The young attorney embarked upon his professional career at New Orleans, practicing very successfully for several years in that city and St. Bernard and Pointe la Hache. In 1892 he was elected district attorney of the 24th judicial district, and remained incumbent of this office for 12 years. He was then appointed by the governor to fill an unexpired term of 1 year as district judge, and following this was elected judge of the Court of Appeals at New Orleans, serving in this capacity for 5 years. Upon the expiration of this term Mr. Estopinal became a candidate for the office of sheriff of St. Bernard parish, and was duly chosen to fill the remainder of an unexpired term. His constituency was so well pleased with his able administration of the affairs of the office that he was again elected, and has served faith fully in this capacity up to the present time, proving himself an efficient and capable incumbent of the office. Judge Estopinal has been a lifelong advocate of the principles of Democracy, and is a devout member of the Roman Catholic church. Sept. 10, 1892, he was united in marriage to Berenice, a daughter of Michel and Azelie (Brignac) Cambre, natives of St. John the Baptist parish, but later residents of St. Bernard. Both parents are now deceased. No children have been born to Judge and Mrs. Estopinal.

Notes for William Menge:
A good man gone the way of all the earth to his just reward. Wm. Menge died at his home, City Price, La., Thursday, August 13 1925, aged 77 years and 9 months. When a good and true man passes away, it is but right some tribute should be paid by one, who always loved him. He was one of those beautiful characters that stand out as shining examples. His home was his kingdom. He reared a large family, and lived to enjoy fruits of this labors by seeing them become honored and respected members of society. He was a devoted husband and an affectionate father, sympathetic heartfull of charity, and always led a holy life; Not only was he an influence for good in his own home, but the circle of influence for good will widen to all eternity. The funeral services were held at the family home, by the Rev. Righter of the Episcopal church. Now that he has crossed the bar the memory of his handclasp and kindly smile are all that is left to us and these we shall always treasure among.

Notes for Leonce Pierre Bougon:
Mr Leonce Bougon died July 1, 1916 a native of Happy Jack, He was 69 years old. beloved husband of Lorenza Darocca by first marriage and Clemence Fontenelle by second; father of 1st- Mrs George Kaupp, Mrs Albert Toepfer, Mrs Wade LaBlanc, Mrs Clay Ledet, Clement Bougon, Mrs Fred Anderson,
2nd- Joseph Bougon, Van Bougon, Mabel Bougon,
Mrs J Slaughter and James Bougon;
brother of Emile Bougon and Marie Bougon;
also survived by 28 grandchildren.

Marriage Notes for Leonce Bougon and Marie Fontenelle:
MR. LEONCE BOUGON of Petite Prairie and MISS CLEMENCE FONTENELLE, daughter of Mr. Joseph Fontenelle of Pointe a la Hache, marriage was solemnized at St. Thomas Church at Pointe a la Hache on Saturday, 11 June, 1887. After the ceremony the friends of the happy pair assembled at the residence of the bride's father, where sumptuous collation was indulged in. Upon the arrival of the steamier "Neptune", the entire party embarked escorting the couple to their home in Petite Prairie. The large, well ventilated ballroom of Pierre Bremond was placed at the disposal of the party and dancing was indulged in far into the wee hours of the morning. A very large number of the friends of the twain were present to wish them joy, and Pointe a la Hache, Grand Prairie, Buras, Pointe Michel and Petite Prairie turned out in a body to do them honor. The bride, as all brides do, looked beautiful and the groom was radiant with happiness. Mr. Bougon is one of Petite Prairie's most thrifty and energetic rice planters, and his handsome young Orange Orchard gives evidence of the skill and industry of its owner. While we sympathize with our friend Fontenelle in the loss of his charming daughter, we eangratulate him upon the acquisition of a son-in-law so deserving. With the loss to Pointe a la Hache of one of its fairest ornaments in the person of Miss Fontenelle, Petite Prairie adds one more to its list of graceful matrons in thee accession of Mrs. Leonce Bougon. They have our best wishes for a happy and prosperous future. We extend thanks to the groom for an invitation to be present.
