Annette DeCourcy Towler Note: The majority of the research was taken from Bill Owen's works that was published in the William and Mary Quarterly. An original 1925 copy was mailed to his cousin, my grandmother, Catherine Emma Ellis DeCourcy. A couple of gedcoms were added which were found on the internet and are documented. A free website <http://stafa.gq.nu/> with an email of stafaatbellsouth.com is a place to keep track of some of the names. Other research that was done, was at Pendleton County Court House in Falmouth, KY in June 2004. This family has double cousins, as you will see by two children of the 2nd George Lewis children married. They were Joseph Robert Ellis and Asenath Mains. The direct line of the author's is in pink color. Any changes or additions, please contact the author at genbitsatcharter.net. Change the at to @.

First Generation

1. George LEWIS¹⁻² was born in 1730 in Pennsylvania.

He owned 150 acres in May 1769 in Loudoun County, Virginia.³ He bought from David James this property, in the sum of Pennsylvania money and still possessed when he died in 1807. This land was described as located on the road from Leesburg to Sniggers Gap (now Bluemont), and was conveyed in Feb 1765 to David James of Chester County, PA by Thomas Humphrey, to whom it was conveyed by Jonas Potts, to whom it was granted in 1761 by patent from the proprietors for the Northern Neck of Virginia. This land was assess in the name of Mary Lewis in 1807 and in 1809 in the name of Mary Marmaduke. She probably married Samson Marmaduke who died in 1809. His will dated Feb 1809 and proven in April 1809 does not name a wife but was witnessed by Rachel Lewis. He signed a will on 2 Jul 1800 in Shelbourne Parish, Loudon County, Virginia.³ George signed a will on 28 Apr 1807 in Shelbourne Parish, Loudon County, Virginia.³ He died about 15 May 1807 at the age of 77 in Shelbourne Parish, Loudon County, Virginia. He had his estate probated on 14 Sep 1807 in Loudoun County, Virginia.³ He provides for disposition of real estate and personal property to his wife Mary; the children of his daughter Mary Evans; the children of his only son Lewis Lewis; his two minor daughters Sarah and Rachel Lewis; and to Thomas James, son of his wife by a former husband. George had inventory and appraisal of his personal property on 18 Sep 1807 in Loudoun County, Virginia³

George Lewis probably came to Loudoun County, VA from Pennsylvania and probably from Chester Co., PA. The tax lists of Chester Co show the name of George Lewis in Vincent Township for the years 1765, 1766, 1767, and 1768. The Lewis' were numerous in both Chester Co PA and Loudoun Co VA during that time but he was not identified as related to any of whom a record was found, however the records examined contained little or no information for identifying the family of some who were there. Many of those of the name in Chester, Bucks and Philadelphia Counties, PA were apparently Welsh Quakers, as to whose families the Quaker meetings records contained more or less information, also the records of Baptists and other denominations contained references to the name, but from these and other records examined including abstracts of wills, etc., from the county records his ancestry was not determined. He is not the George Lewis who lived in Loudoun Co, VA about the same time, whose wife was Violet Lewis and who was apparently the son of Vincent Lewis. It seems probable that George Lewis was born about 1730, earlier or later, and that his wife Mary was not his first wife and not the mother of his oldest two children.

George LEWIS and Unknown [LEWIS] were married before 1 Jan 1754 in Virginia. Unknown [LEWIS]² was born (date unknown). George LEWIS and Unknown [LEWIS] had the following children:

- +2 i. Mary LEWIS.
- +3 ii. Lewis LEWIS.

George LEWIS and Mary HUMPHRY were married before 1788 in Virginia. Mary HUMPHRY⁴ was born about 1745.³ She owned a plantation and leased it to son-in-law Samuel Moore in Mar 1814 in Loudoun County, Virginia.³ She died after Mar 1814 at the age of 69 in Loudoun County, Virginia. George LEWIS and Mary HUMPHRY had the following children:

- +4 i. Sarah LEWIS.
- +5 ii. Rachel LEWIS.
