When Spotsylvania County, Virginia was formed in 1721, it covered an area which now includes Orange, Madison, Culpeper, and Rappahannock counties. This collection of records contains information on wills, deeds, administrators' and guardians' bonds, marriage licenses, and lists of revolutionary war pensioners. Each entry reveals valuable information on persons, dates of vital events, places of occurrence, and relationships, all extracted from the original courthouse records.

He served along with CON and JOHN BEAGLE, Robert and John NELSON, Robert YOUNG and William CARMACK among others.

This places JOHN DAMERON as one of the eldest sons of THOMAS DAMERON. It appears that Joseph was a minor at the time of his marriage as he was a ward of a "Mr. William P. BALL".
