A large Selection of MEMORIALS on view in GRANITE, MARBLE, and STONE.

At midnight on Friday night the cells in the Central Police Office, Dundee, and also those of the district offices, were empty, there having been no "captures" during the day or evening.

All the ruptured who consult Dr. J. A. Sherman, 64, Chancery lane, London, and secure his treatment, we are pleased to say, highly recommend it. His is the only known certain cure without operation. His book of information and English endorsements is 6d.; write for it. There is no record of a single case treated by this Sherman method meeting with the misfortune of strangulated rupture, a signal advantage over the use of trusses, from the use of which all suffer and get worse. apl2
