South Carolina in 1895
The following are the main events that affected political boundaries, record keeping, and family movements in South Carolina:

- 1670 The first permanent English settlement was made at Albemarle Point (Charles Town).
- 1729 The South Carolina region separated from North Carolina and became a royal colony. Records were kept in Charleston.
- 1730 Settlers began to move into the interior when the colonial government provided incentives for landowners in new townships.
- 1760-1761 The Cherokee War ended in a treaty that opened the up country for settlement. The Bounty Act of 1761 offered public land tax free for ten years, and settlers from other colonies began pouring into the up country.
- 1769 Nine original judicial districts were established, but records continued to be kept in Charleston until 1780.
- 1788 South Carolina became a state and ratified the Constitution. The state government was moved from Charleston to Columbia in 1790, although some functions remained at Charleston until after the Civil War.
- 1830-1840 Overseas immigration to South Carolina, which had begun to decline about 1815, virtually ceased in this decade.
- 1860 South Carolina was the first state to secede from the Union. The Civil War began there in 1861. About 63,000 men from the state served in the Confederate armed forces.
- 1868 South Carolina was readmitted to the Union. Districts were now called counties.¹

An especially helpful source for studying the history of South Carolina is David Duncan Wallace, South Carolina: A Short History 1520-1948 (Columbia, SC: University of South Carolina Press, 1951).

The above is adapted from the FamilySearch Guide, South Carolina Historical Background, Version 02/12/01.

¹ Please note that although I am aware of when the districts become counties, I have been inconsistent with applying this, therefore, sometimes they’re counties, sometimes districts despite the 1868 date. - Ed.

Letter from the Editor

Well, obviously, this volume is about South Carolina Franklins, so once more, we are looking in the South. As you may recall, with these state-based issues, I am alternating regions from the north, south and midwest. I am also alternating every other issue with various data, and the state-based information. FFRU has previously published some materials about South Carolina. This material includes the Andrea Papers (1995-1996) which is a compoilation of various research papers and correspondence by Leonardo Andrea.

Previous FFRU articles on South Carolina Franklins include:

- North and South Carolina Marriage Records from the earliest Colonial Days to the Civil War (Vol 1)
- Chester County Marriages 1778-1879 Implied in Chester County, South Carolina Probate and Equity Records (Vol 1)
- Index to South Carolina Wills (Vol 1)
- Index to Wills of Charleston County, South Carolina 1671-1868 (Vol 1)
- John Franklin of Chester, South Carolina (Vol 4)
- 1790 South Carolina Census (Vol 8, reprinted in this volume)
- Thomas B. Franklin And Jemima Morris (Vol 8)
- Wills of Edgefield County, South Carolina (Vol 13)
- Fairfield County, South Carolina Deed Book A (1785-1794) (Vol 13)
- Benjamin C. Franklin, born 1799 in South Carolina (Vol 28)
- The Battle of Cowpens, South Carolina, 17 Jan 1781 (Vol 34)

This issue does not include the 1900 - 1930 Census, because it is already larger than the target size of 50 pages.

I have come across some information that I want to share with you and see if you have anything further on any of these Franklins.
I found a Selby Franklin who married Mary B. Vandome on 7 Jan 1799 in Worcester County, Maryland. This is a much older Selby Franklin than the one in Lowndes County, Georgia in the 1850 census.

I then found a Selby Franklin who married Susannah Dasher. Susannah died in Effingham County, Georgia in 1811 perhaps at the birth of their son: John Robert Franklin. Again, this one is much older than the Selby Franklin in Lowndes County, Georgia in the 1850 census. Do you have information on John Robert Franklin?

I found this civil war information on John Robert Franklin: Company I, 32nd Regiment; Upson County, Georgia Nickname: “Woodson Guards” Prior Service: Many of the soldiers in this company were originally in Company I, 6th Regiment Georgia State Troops.

The only roll of this company on file is the muster-in roll dated 7 May 1862. in the absence of official records, there are probably many inaccuracies. in most instances the words “Surrendered at Greensboro, N. C.” were added to roll by members of the company years after the war.

John Robert Franklin, 3rd Corporal. He was wounded at James Island, South Carolina, 5 Jul 1864. 3rd Corporal John Robert Franklin enlisted as a private in Company I, 6th Regiment Georgia State Troops Oct 18,1861. He was mustered out in Apr 1862, and was appointed 3rd Corporal of Company I, 32nd Regiment Georgia Infantry on 7 May 1862. He was severely wounded with both jaws broken at James Island, South Carolina, on 5 Jul 1864. Records show he was at home, wounded, at the close of the war.

I was told that there were intermarriages between the Selbys, Franklins, and Purnells in Worcester County, Maryland in the 1700s. Are you aware of any of this?

Are you familiar with a book, Selby Families of Colonial America, by Donna V. Russell, Catoctin Press, 709 East Main St., Middleton, MD 21769, printed in 1990. I have been looking for a copy, but no luck so far.

In the 1850 Bulloch County, Georgia census, there is an Edward Franklin living with Pernal Franklin’s family. This Edward was born in Maryland around 1790 or so. Do you know who he might be?

Yes, I still live in Nashville, Tennessee; still trying to find my elusive Franklins and Dixons.

I emailed the publisher of “Selby Families of Colonial America.” They responded that only 100 were printed and it was not going to be printed again. I’ve called a couple of old book places in Nashville and checked some online, but I haven’t found a copy yet. I think I will try the TN State Archives and Nashville’s downtown library. They both have great books -- many I’ve only found there.

Thank you for the information on a couple of the Maryland ancestors. I really believe that my line of Franklins came out of Maryland; now, I just need to find the proof.

I misstated something in my prior email to you: “In the 1850 Bulloch County, Georgia census, there is an Edward Franklin living with Pernal Franklin’s family. This Edward was born in Maryland around 1790 or so. Do you know who he might be?” He was actually living with Timothy Bryan and wife, Sarah Franklin Bryan and there children plus two small Franklin girls in the 1850 Bulloch County, GA census. Do you have anything on Sarah Franklin or Edward Franklin?
I try to read your Franklin booklets that are posted online, but haven’t had much luck with them on my Franks. Do you still publish the quarterly Franklin booklets? If so, please let me know the cost so that I can subscribe again. I enjoyed them very much.

Editor’s Reponse (note this is a combination of a series of messages): Yes, I’m at least vaguely aware of the various Selby references that you mentioned. Most of what I can quickly locate and what is found in previous issues of FFRU pertain to the latter Selby Franklin (of Georgia), and his son, Selby Washington Franklin.

About the Selby Families of Colonial America, no, I haven’t heard of it before. The only place I know of a copy, without doing a real library search, is the FHL in Salt Lake City. I see that this copy is also not microfilmed, so it can only be accessed there. Have you tried contacting the publisher? Since it has Wayne County, Tennessee references, I wouldn’t be too surprised to locate a copy somewhere in that area, but that isn’t too near Nashville - Do you still live in Nashville?

I don’t have very many references to the surnames Selby or Purnell:

From Franklin Fireplace, page 323:

Biographical Cyclopedia Of Maryland And District Of Columbia page 231 Franklin, Littleton Purnell, son of Henry and Mary (Purnell) Franklin, was born 18 Jan 1831, at Berlin, Worcester County, Maryland. His father and mother were natives of Maryland, and both of English descent. His father was a farmer, and a man of high standing in the community, having been called upon to fill several public positions, and chosen as one of the electors for the election of United States Senator. Mr. Franklin attended the public schools in his native county until the age of fourteen, when he went to Bridgeport and studied at the boarding school of the Rev. Henry Jones, preparatory to entering upon a collegiate course. From there he went to Yale College, entering the third term of the freshman class, and graduating with honor at that institution in the year 1849. He then read law with Judge John R. Franklin, recently deceased, of Snow Hill, Worcester County, Maryland, and was admitted to the bar in the year 1852. Being in delicate health in early life, he never entered upon the practice of his profession, and his time has principally been employed in farming. He has been School Trustee for many years; Director of the Wicomico and Pocomoke Railroad; was a member of the Convention of 1867, that framed the present Constitution of Maryland; was elected member of the Maryland House of Delegates, on the Democratic ticket, in 1871, and elected to the Senate in 1877. He was married in his twenty-second year to Miss Sarah E. Chaney, daughter of Thomas and Emily Chaney of Issaquina County, Louisiana. He is a member of the Presbyterian Church, and has for many years filled the position of church trustee, and in every position which he has been called upon to fill, has performed his duty with credit to himself and his constituents.

page 23 1831, Dec 21. At the house of Henry Franklin, Esq., near Berlin, by Rev. Alexander Campbell, Dr. James A. I. Purnell to Miss Mary Franklin, all of this county.
There are various Worcester County, Maryland references in FFRU backissues: 5:14, 5:15, 5:16, 12:14, 12:15, 12:16, 12:17, 32:40, 35:37, 35:38

I assume that by now you may have checked all of the past issues of FFRU for Bulloch County mentions, but here they all are:

Georgia:
Bullock County 9:21, 29:3, 29:4

...hmmm.... Looks like I have some typos to fix...
Franklin Fireplace: Only a few mentions. Nothing interesting. All spelled "Bullock County"
