Dedication

We, the class of 1952, dedicate this yearbook to Mrs. Alton, who has worked hard and survived through the thirty-four years she has taught in this school.

During her years of service, she has seen our school grow from a very small institution to its present size and has watched with deep interest the progress of the boys and girls who have gone from its doors to face the world.

Mrs. Alton has always been well-liked by the teachers and students with who she has worked. We hope that she will have a bright, happy future ahead of her.

*Best wishes
Ethel Alton*

Principal's Message

Now, as another year is approaching its end, we appreciate the opportunity to again greet you. Because we profoundly dislike and fear regimentation and indoctrination of any kind, we have tried to keep hard set rules at a minimum. We have attempted in this way to make you realize the responsibilities and duties, as well as the liberties, of a self-governed social order. We hope and believe that, as a result, you will be better citizens of a free democratic society.

Herby Jensen,
athletic ace,
Just got into the human race.

A handsome,
dashing lad is Hitch
But is he smart--
Ho ho, that's rich.

Ladies shriek,
girls go insane,
When they see,
Lover Boy Lane.

Mike Lane

Old Kenny with his wobbly knees
Was Fleischmanns
star of the J.V's.

Scotty Bouck's
stay is dimmin,
He's gottin' too old
for wine and women.

A lass that we are proud of knowin',
This lovely colleen
Miss Willa Owen.

Bill Schumer's fame
is far and wide,
That's why he came up here to hide.

George Smith plays
piano that's inhuman
That's why he's known
as Fleischmanns' Truman

One smile and she
starts forest fires,
Oh, flaming youth--
Miss Audrey Squires.

As fair a girl
as we've ever seen,
The blonde-haired
beauty,
Miss Ruthie Greene.

Margaret Merwin
she's not blue,
She'll graduate in '52.

If you go to Pine Hill, (you really should do so)
You'll meet this beauty
Miss Josie Mancuso.

No wonder Florence
Jocelyn's gay,
That smiles for graduation day.

Class History

In the begining of our Frosh year we started out with 18 students:

Audrey Ballard
 Richard Baker
 Ruth Greene
 Merrill Hitchcock
 Herbert Jensen
 Florence Jocelyn
 Joan Kaperka
 Kenneth Kurtz
 Frank Lane
 Robert Lockwood
 Josephine Mancuso
 John Marriotti
 Chloe Maxim
 Margaret Merwin
 Willa Owen
 George Smith
 Elsa Soibelman
 Audrey Squires

During the next years we lost seven of our classmates. In the Junior year Scott Bouck and Bill Schumer joined our happy clan.

Most of all of us had our own special job with cheer-leading, band, chorus, basketball, baseball and football. Some of the more daring students took to prize speaking.

Our Frosh year was a busy and successful year. The first dance we had was one of the most successful dances at FHS. Other activities were the bake sales, and magazine sales. Mr. Peter Fagone, our class advisor for the Frosh and Soph years was always behind us pushing.

In our Junior year, Mr. Sterlin Reber came as our class advisor.

Our big event was the Junior Prom "Moonlight and Roses" dance. Although it wasn't a success financially, everyone had a good time.

Senior Class History

In our Senior year we had an amateur show and of course the Senior Play. Its title was the "Boarding House Reach" and it starred in the title role Herby Jensen as Wilbur Maxwell. Others in the cast were:

George-----	Mr. Maxwell
Audrey-----	Mrs. Maxwell
Josephine-----	Aunt Mary
Florence-----	Betty-Lou Maxwell
Margaret-----	Connie Maxwell
Merrill-----	Hercules
Ruthie-----	"Roughhouse Ruby" Jones
Frank-----	Herman "Ninety Volts" Jones
Bill-----	Limpy McGuirre
Willa-----	Nora McGuirre
Kenneth-----	Mr. Potter
Scott-----	Detective Connolly

The Play was a great success in every way.

The Class Officers for the four years were:

Frosh year-----	George - President	Joan Secretary-
Soph year-----	Audrey - President	Ruth Vice President
		Florence Secretary-Treasurer
Junior year-----	Ruth - President	Joan Vice-President
	Audrey Secretary	George Treasurer
Senior year-----	Bill - President	Audrey Vice-President
	George Secretary	Josie Treasurer

After our Senior trip to Washington D. C., We can sit back and relax. That is until regents exams, and ah at last graduation!

In October, just as we were returning to the routine of school, we held our annual magazine sales to raise funds for our future senior trips.

Individual honors were taken by DICK KRATOCHVIL and DONNY BLISH who were presented with statuettes.
