
Arrival of the Santiago de Cuba.

The steamship Santiago de Cuba, Capt. SMITH, from Greytown, arrived yesterday, after the unprecedented passage of six days nineteen hours—the fastest on record. She brings 554 passengers and $125,000 in treasure.

The New York Times

Published: June 8, 1866

Copyright © The New York Times