

Ashcroft, Noel G

Mr Noel Ashcroft AM JP - BSc (Forestry) (1967). Master of Science from Oxford University, U.K. and was awarded the university's Jubilee Prize in Forestry.

Noel Ashcroft AM, JP. Member of Bush Fire Front. Son of Arthur Ashcroft. Over 25 years experience in forest fire prevention and control in South West forests.

OIC Forests Department Districts & Regional Leader 1968-1977. In Walpole with the Forests Department in late 1960s, then moved to Nannup in 1972. Left Nannup in 1973. Regional Manager Forest Policy, Planning & Development Forests Department 1980-1983. Seconded to Department of Premier and Cabinet in 1983/84.

Over 20 years experience at State, national and international level in the agriculture, mining and resources processing industries. Chaired Boards and Committees dealing with land use planning and management, and infrastructure development for a number of high value multiple use areas across the State of Western Australia.

Executive Officer for Director General of WA Department of Premier and Cabinet 1983-1986. Director positions in WA Ministry of Economic Development 1989-1994. Executive Director positions in WA Department of Resources Development 1998-2001. Deputy General Investment Services WA Department of Industry & Resources 2003-2005. Agent General for WA in Europe 2005-2008. Chief Executive Government Relations The Griffin Group 2008- .

Member of the Order of Australia, for his service to W.A. and to the development of trade and industry links between Australia, Britain and Europe. The Australia Day Honours offers a way for the country to celebrate its best people. We congratulate alumni of The Australian National University who received recognition in the 2013 Australia Day Honours List 2012 : For service to the public sector in Western Australia, and to the promotion and development of trade and industry links between Australia, Britain and Europe.