

Byrne, Greg (from Linked In)

Education

The Australian National University B.Sc.(Forestry) 2002 – 2005

Experience

Field surveyor Forests and Environment 2010 – 2010 Marysville/Toolangi area, Vic. Conducting regen surveys for Vicforests and DSE post 2009 bushfires, GIS/GPS.

Operations Forester ITC 2008 –2009 Cooktown, QLD.Responsible for the supervision of contract staff and activities associated with the establishment of tree crops.

Field operative Katherine Tree Maintenance 2009 – 2009 Darwin Area, Australia Assisting heavy machinery in completing scheduled and contracted tasks, including wildfire suppression where necessary.

Forest Management Officer Department of Environment and Conservation 2006 –2008 Manjimup, WA. Forest management tasks, both field and office/desktop based. GIS, GPS, field interpretation/demarcation, database management, pre and post harvest inventory, report/manual writing, sampling design, etc.

Field casual HVP Plantations 2008 Myrtleford, Vic. Post plant QA, aphid surveys and establishing field trial.

Project fire-fighter DSE 2004 –2005 Ovens, Vic. Primarily concerned with wildfire suppression. Supervised less experienced staff in field to ensure safe and prompt work practices. Led planning work in preparation of forthcoming hazard reduction burns.

Voluntary experience Forests NSW 2004 –2004 Narrandera, NSW.Gained a week in all of production nursery, callitris and river red-gum forests. Including operational demarcation, pest control and thinning operations.

Project fire-fighter DSE 2003 –2004 Ovens, Vic. Primarily concerned with wildfire suppression. Involved with planning work in preparation of forthcoming hazard reduction burns.

Voluntary experience DSE July 2003 Ovens, Vic. Liaised with private landholders and conducted inventory in fire-killed Ash stands.

Project fire-fighter DSE 2002 –2003 Ovens, Vic.

Voluntary experience ACT Forests 2002 Canberra Area, Australia Inoculation for the Sirex wasp, establishing recreational facilities and post-plant QA.

Forestry training experience HVP Plantations 2000 Myrtleford, Vic.Assisting heavy machinery with road construction, granular application and stressing individual tress as part of the Sirex wasp program.