

Clifton, Alice

BSc Forestry Australian National University 2011.

From Carwoola, NSW. Lived on a small farm. Was president of the Fenner School Society which is the social society for the Forestry and Environment School at the ANU.

Spent summers working in forestry. This involved planting trees at the National Arboretum in Canberra; spending 3 months in Southern Tasmania working for Forestry Tasmania. Attended the International Forestry Students Symposium in Finland 3rd – 18th August 2011.