

Crisp, Andrew (from Linked In and Poyry website)

Principal, Pöyry Management Consulting, London, UK

B.Sc. (Forestry) ANU 1996-2000 and BEcon from Australian National University. Has worked for Pöyry in their Beijing, Shanghai, Melbourne, Singapore and London offices. Senior Consultant Pöyry Melbourne and Shanghai offices from 2004 to 2008.

Andrew has 18 years of experience in the forest industry and has previously worked for State Forests New South Wales as a resources forester for their planted forests branch and merchandising forester in Hume Region, Tumut c2008. He has undertaken a number of feasibility studies, wood market reviews, forest valuations and due diligence exercises.

Worked for the Victorian Department of Sustainability and Environment in a project to develop a new sustainable forest management decision support system for natural forests 2008-2010. Pöyry Singapore office 2011-2012, Melbourne office 2012 - .

Andrew has also undertaken fieldwork on a number of projects in both plantation and natural forests in China, Australia, New Zealand, Malaysia, Thailand, Vietnam, India, Russia, Congo, Suriname and Guyana. He has a deep understanding of the main forestry regions and resources in the world and end product markets in China.