

Crompton, Heather

BSc Forestry ANU 1976. Graduate Diploma in Development Studies Murdoch University 1992.

Forester for over 20 years, initially with ACT Forests. Forester in ACT for 5 years. Tutored in fire management at ANU Department of Forestry. Joined Australian Centre for International Agricultural Research (ACIAR) in 1988, by 2000 was Assistant Forestry Program Manager. Left by 2010. Member and Fellow (first woman Fellow) of Institute of Foresters of Australia, National President 2000-2002. Member of Friends of Royal Botanic Gardens NSW.