

Francis, Peter (from Gottstein Trust 1992 report)

Details as at 1992.

Peter Francis is Manager, Plantation Production in the Queensland Department of Primary Industry Forest Service. He is a forestry graduate from Australian National University and Oxford University, and holds a Bachelor of Economics Degree from Queensland University, and business management qualifications from the Institute of Corporate Managers, Secretaries and Administrators. He is the winner of several awards including the 1979 Russell Grimwade Prize and is Queensland Chairman of the Institute of Foresters.

His Gottstein Trust study tour enabled him to research trends and issues in North American forest management and their implications for the Australian forestry and forest products sector.
