

Haines, Russell (from LinkedIn)

Education

The Australian National University B.Sc. (For), Forest management, ecology, silviculture 1970 – 1972
University of New England (AU) Ph.D., Reproductive Biology (trees) 1975 – 1980

The University of Queensland Grad.Cert.Mgmt, Business Planning, Financial management, Accounting and Corporate Governance, HR Management 2003 – 2007

Experience

Scientist/Senior Scientist, Tree Breeding and Propagation Queensland Forest Research Institute 1981 –1993
Gympie, Queensland. Designing and implementing a range of research projects aimed in particular at improving the genetic quality of the State's forest plantations

Director Queensland Forestry Research Inst 1994 –2002 Gympie, Queensland. Leadership of the organisation to ensure appropriate underpinning of the State's forest industries.

General Manager Sustainable Systems RIRDC 2003 –2004 . Developing and managing strategically focussed portfolios of projects in several programs; Agroforestry and Farm Forestry; Environment and Farm Management Systems; Rangeland and Wildlife Systems; Organic Systems; Human Capital, Communications and Information.

Forestry Research Program Manager ACIAR 2004 –2010 . Developing research strategies, and developing and managing a portfolio of some 25 international research projects contributing to poverty alleviation and economic development in ACIAR's partner countries, especially PNG, Indonesia, Vietnam, Laos and the Pacific

Private consultant Griffith University 2010 – . Project development and review, especially for ACIAR.

Adjunct Professor Griffith University 2010 – . Assist in development of research projects and partnerships