

Munrow, Cameron (from Linked In)

Education

The University of Queensland Master of Integrated Water Management, Environmental Science 2013 – 2015

Institute of Management Diploma of Project Management, Project Management 2013 – 2014

The Australian National University Bachelor of Science (B.S.), Environmental Science, Distinction Average 2003 – 2006

Experience

Senior Water Policy Officer EPA Victoria April 2015 – . Melbourne Area, Australia

Assistant Director Australian Government Department of the Environment 2013 –2015 Canberra,

Programme Officer United Nations Education, Scientific and Cultural Organization October 2011 – January 2013 (1 year 4 months)Beijing, China

Assistant Director Australian Government Department of Sustainability, Environment, Water, Populations and Communities 2009 –2011 Canberra, Australia, Murray-Darling Basin Policy Branch.

Consultant International Union of Forest Research Organisations October 2007 – December 2007 Vienna, Austria
Employed as a consultant to assist with the preparation of the IUFRO publication: ' Policy Programmes and Instruments for the Adaptation of Forest to the Impacts of Climate Change as indicated in the UNFCCC National Communications and National Adaptation Programmes of Actions'. Other duties included reviewing literature and preparing briefings for an IUFRO international expert panel on adaptation of forests to climate change.

Consultant Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations May 2007 – October 2007 Rome Area, Italy
Employed as a consultant to develop an internet based database for the FAO website incorporating international case studies of economic valuations of non-timber forest products. This task required an ability to effectively acquire and synthesise a large volume of information and present this in a way that was easily accessible to policy makers in developing countries.

Forestry Officer Metsäntutkimuslaitos (Finnish Forest Research Institute) February 2007 – May 2007 Rovaniemi, Finland
Employed as a forest surveyor as part of the National Finnish Forest Inventory based in the Lapland region of northern Finland. In this role, I worked in remote locations as part of a small inventory crew undertaking field based measurements of forests.

Student Forester Forests NSW 2006 –2007 NSW Employed as Student Forester at Forest NSW offices in Tumut and Bathurst

Intern Australian Government Bureau of Rural Sciences 2005 –2006 Canberra, Australia Involved in a project to assess the distribution and seasonality of bushfires across Australia utilising GIS ArcView mapping and data analysis to assess the extent of 'fire footprints'.