

O'Donnell, John (from LinkedIn)

Education

The Australian National University Bachelor Science Forestry 1973 – 1977. Bachelor of Science (Forestry) Hons, 1978, Australian National University. Commonwealth Forestry Scholarship 1976 and 1977. North Australia Research Unit Grant 1977, including 4 months study in the NT with CSIRO Division of Forest Research.

University of Western Sydney Water Quality 1992 and Noise Assessment and Control 1993 courses (one semester each) 1992 – 1993.

The University of Adelaide Post Graduate Diploma in Agronomy and Farming Systems, majoring in environmental subjects 1996 – 1997.

Experience

District Forester and Forester Forestry Commission of NSW 1978 –1989.

Environmental Officer Hydro Electric Commission Tasmania 1989 –1991.

Head Programs Unit Murray Environment Protection Authority 1992 –1997 Murray and Murrumbidgee catchments.

Environmental Services Manager Pacific Highway Upgrading Roads and Traffic Authority 1997 –2010 North Coast NSW.

Environment Manager Connell Hatch 2008 –2008 Brisbane. (Wiggins Island Coal Development Project Gladstone Queensland.

Director Value Environmental Infrastructure Pty Ltd April 2010 – . Grafton NSW. Key environmental capability areas associated with the development, construction and operation of major freeway, highway, road, hydro-electric, coal port/ rail terminal and industrial infrastructure developments.