

Wettenhall, David (from Linked In)

BSc Forestry ANU graduated 1975. Master of Forest & Ecosystem Science from the University of Melbourne.

Over 30 years professional forestry in plantation management, harvesting and log procurement management, mill environmental management. Specialties: Plantation inventory, Eucalyptus plantation silviculture, management and harvesting. Private forest management, log supply. Independent expert forester.

Forester APPM 1976 – 1980. Harvest planner and operational supervisor for woodchip exports. Technical Manager Brymay Forests Pty Ltd 1980 –1984 Yarrowonga, Victoria. Forester responsible for forest inventory and harvesting of irrigated and rain fed poplar trees for match splints. Forestry Manager AFI 1985 –1997. Managed the log supply to the integrated Myrtleford sawmill/ply mill/pulpmill complex. Softwood and hardwood logs. Environment Manager for the site including development of EMS and monitoring & reporting environmental performance. General Manager Operations ITC Forestry 1998 –1999, hardwood plantations in the Albany region WA. Business Development WA CSIRO 2003 – 2005. Identifying and promoting CSIRO forestry capabilities to industry. applications. PLANTALL Forestry NCSI Environmental Management Systems (RABQSA - EM) 1999 – , Albany, WA. Freelance forestry management focusing on hardwood plantations and inventory in WA. Principal Consultant NCSI Environmental Management Systems (RABQSA - EM).

Registered Professional Forester and Fellow of the Institute of Foresters of Australia. Director, Chair WA Division Institute of Foresters of Australia 2005 –2011.