

Wilkinson, Graham (from Forest Practices Authority Tasmania website and The Forester, 2007)

BSc Forestry ANU 1976. Awarded Schlich Medal. Masters graduate in forestry science. Accredited Environmental Auditor.

Forester Casino and Tumut with NSW Forestry Commission 1977-1984. Research Officer and later Principal Research Officer (Native Forest) with Tasmanian Forestry Commission 1984-1986. Chief Forest Practices Officer since March 1996 and, under the new legislation, joins the board for the first time. A masters graduate in forestry science, he is a specialist in forest practices with extensive national and international experience. He has over 30 years of experience covering forest operations, research, policy and regulation.