

Germantse, Robert (based mainly on NSW Forestry Corporation website)

Graduated with BSc Forestry from ANU in 1983. Commenced as Assistant divisional Forests Officer with W.A. Forests Department in 1983/84. District Manager in Katanning 1987.

With NSW Forestry Corporation since c1989 and has worked in major plantation growing areas around the New England Tablelands (Walcha), Batlow, Tumbarumba and Bombala. In 2005 appointed Regional Manager Hume Region around Tumut, Batlow and Tumbarumba. Also spent 4 years in Forestry Corporation divisional office at Albury working in softwood sales. He was previously Forestry Corporation regional manager in the Monaro Region, based at Bombala, working with the customers and contractors around Bombala, Canberra and Penrose.

In 2005, he lived in Tumut with wife Kristen and two children who attended Tumut High School.