

Ritson, Owen

Owen's Tree Service has been servicing Fremantle and surrounding areas since 1982. Owner/operator, Owen Ritson, holds a BSc Forestry from Australian National University, Canberra and, over the course of many years working in the tree industry, has gained extensive experience in all aspects of tree work. His staff are a loyal and well organized team, some who have been with the company for 25 years.

He worked for the Forests Department for a few years in the 1970s, at Manjimup Research and elsewhere.
