From the Dallas Morning News, Wednesday, April 30, 1913:

Fort Worth, Tex., April 29. -- John Heberle, aged 60 years, who resided on the White Settlement road, three miles northwest of the city, died at a local hospital late last night. Heberle sustained a slight abrasion on the right hand a week ago and it is thought his death resulted from blood poisoning. The deceased is survived by his widow and two daughters. Funeral services will be held tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock at St. Patrick's Roman Catholic Church, Rev. Father Nolan officiating. Burial will be in Calvary Cemetery.
