

Clement King Heberle III

but had developed serious heart 15, 2014, at the age of 59. He graduate of Mainland High and enlisted in the U. S. Army one month later. His enlistment would evolve into a 20 year career which took him to Germany, the Netherlands, Korea as well as assignments here in the U.S. He was honorably discharged in 1994 with the rank of Sergeant 1st Class. During his army career, he was preparing himself for what would come after by making the most of every educational opportunity and he attended schools and colleges designed to nurture his growing interest in electronic technology and computers. He received a Bachelor of Science degree from Southern Illinois University graduating cum laude with a major in electronics management. Five years later he began his studies at Brenau University in Gainesville, GA and earned an MBA with a major in Computer Science and Technology. After returning to Daytona Beach he took a position with the Volusia County Health Department where he was employed at the time of his death. He soon established his own company which was called Floridawebmaster.net, Inc. Among other services, he supplied technology products, professions business printing, and created web sites for his more than 200 customers. In his spare time he was an avid golfer, enjoyed kayaking, fishing, and performing church duties which was central to his life. Among those left to cherish his memory and remember the good times at family gatherings are his loving wife, Lydia and her mother, Kim, his father, Clement King Heberle Jr., siblings, Peggy Butler (David) and children, Brent, Jeanna, and Hallie, Cindy Espy (Sonny), John Heberle, wife, Kristi and daughter, Jantzen, and uncles, Tony Brust and Dick Heberle. King's life will be commemorated at a Catholic Mass to be held at Our Lady of Hope Church, 4675 S. Clyde Morris Blvd, Port Orange, on Thursday, October 23, at 8:30 A.M.