

William N Heberle (1830-1915) Reading PA

Passes Away in his 84th Year

William Heberle, aged 83 years, 11 months and 23 days, a well-known retired tanner and hotel man, died at 2 a.m. today of asthma and kindred ailments due to his age, after an illness of six months, at his home, 155 Walnut Street. Deceased was born in Rottenburg on Neckar, Wurtemberg, Germany, May 1, 1831. He emigrated to America April 9, 1849, landing in Baltimore, and came to Reading three years later. The following year he was married on June 12, to Pauline Goeltz, of this city. Mr. Heberle removed to Hamburg, where he engaged in the tanning business, and discontinued this in 1869 to enter the hotel business. He conducted a hotel for 30 years at 228 Chestnut Street. In 1900 he retired, and has lived at his present location since.

Mr. Heberle was one of the oldest members of St. John's German Luthern Church, and also of the Teutonia Lodge, No. 367, F. & A. M. His wife, Pauline, died five years ago. There survive the following children: Amelia, wife of Frank P. Lauer; Anna, wife of B.Y.Landis, and William C. Heberle, all of Reading.
