

—Dallas News Staff Photo.

THRILL OF GOOD FOOD STILL THERE

Sgt. Lawrence Buzbee of Ruskin, Fla., first Communist-released prisoner to arrive in Dallas, says he orders steak just to remind himself of what he missed during thirty-three months in Red hands. Here, he is served a cooling drink by Delta-C&S Air Lines Stewardess Mary Ruth Rouse Saturday at Love Field. Buzbee was en route from California to his home.