The purpose of this magazine is to present historical and genealogical information about the early settlers of southern Florida. Several biographical sketches of pioneers will appear in each issue along with assorted records, such as census information, cemetery records, Bible records, pension applications, marriages, probate records and other court data. Photographs of the pioneers will also be presented when they are available. Many of these records have never been published before. It is hoped that some of this information will aid a family historian or researcher who has ancestors "lost" in southern Florida. Contributions of pioneer sketches or records of any type will be printed with contributor receiving credit for their work. Queries are free to subscribers. To appear in forthcoming issues will be sketches of James Mitchell "Acrefoot" Johnson the famed barefooted mail carrier of the Peace River Valley; Francis Calvin Morgan Boggess, veteran of four wars; William Herndon; John Addison; and other pioneers.

Second Printing: February 1977

Elias E. Johnson was born in Georgia on February 15, 1818 son of James Madison Johnson. Nothing is known about his earlier years. He married Elizabeth Keen in Columbia County, Fla. on November 3, 1846. She was born on January 13, 1832 in Appling County, Georgia oldest daughter of James M. and Assilla Keen. She moved to Columbia County along with her parents and her relatives in 1836. Children of Elias and Elizabeth Johnson were:

1. Georgianna A. Johnson, born Oct. 29, 1847; married Alonzo Johnson, 1st; married Stephen McClenithan, 2nd.
2. Susan "Sara" Jane Johnson, born Feb. 6, 1850; married George Washington Tippins on Aug. 22, 1867.
3. James Mitchell "Acrefoot" Johnson, born Feb. 28, 1851; married Margaret Isabelle Chester on Jan. 22, 1877.
4. Florida A. Johnson, born Nov. 1, 1853; married J. B. Thomas on Sept. 14, 1884.
5. Moses A. Johnson, born May 23, 1854; married Louisiana Renfroe on March 27, 1875.
6. Alice Johnson, born Aug. 13, 1855; died June 16, 1858.
7. William J. Johnson, born May 16, 1857; married Mary Ann Douglas on Jan. 4, 1877.
8. Marrietta Caroline Johnson, born Feb. 9, 1859; married Atha Talton Douglas on Jan. 29, 1880.

Elias Johnson and his family were living in Columbia County during the 1850 and 1860 census. Elias enlisted on August 12, 1863 at Lake City, Florida as a Private in Company G, 5th Battalion of the Florida Cavalry of the Confederate States Army. On Sept. 24, 1863 he was discharged because he was over 45 years of age. He enlisted on May 20, 1864 at Lake City as a 2nd Sgt. in Capt. Hawkin's Company of Reserves of the State of Florida. This company later became Company G, 1st Regiment Florida Reserves. Elias was listed as one of the prisoners of war who surrendered to Brig. General E. M. McCook by Maj. General Sam Jones, CSA at Tallahassee, on May 10, 1865. He was paroled at Madison, Fla. on May 16, 1865. He was then described as being 5'11" tall, with yellow hair, blue eyes and light complexion.

Sometime after the war, probably about 1866, Elias and his family moved to Manatee (now DeSoto) County, where his daughter, Susan Jane, married George W. Tippins on Aug. 22, 1867. They were in that county in 1870 but by 1880 they had moved into Polk County in the vicinity of Bereah, Florida. Elias died on Aug. 24, 1884 and was buried in the Corinth Cemetery at Bereah. He was one of the first people buried there. He had visited that particular area and considered it such a lovely spot that he requested when he died, he was to be buried there. His wife, Elizabeth, sick with rheumatism in her later years, lived with various of her children at Fort Ogden and other areas on the prairie. She received a pension from the State of Florida for her husband's military service for the Confederacy during the Civil War. It began on Sept. 4, 1907 at the rate of $120 per year. Elizabeth died on Mar. 31, 1912 & was buried at the Fort Ogden Cemetery next to her youngest brother, Elias Britton Keen.

ROWLAND WILLIAMS 1812-1867

Rowland Williams was born in Bryan County, Georgia on February 16, 1812 son of Roland Williams and Jincy (Jane) Banks. He was a veteran of the Seminole Indian Wars in the Florida Territory. His first enlistment was in December of 1835 under Capt. Andrew Jackson Bird's Company. At the time of his enlistment he was 23 years old, 5'8" tall with black hair and his occupation was farming. He joined Capt. Niblack's Company in 1836 at Alligator (Lake City), Fla. He enlisted as a Private at Jacksonville on June 17, 1837 under Capt. William Haddock's 1st Regiment of Florida Mtd. Volunteers and served until Sept. 18, 1837. He next enrolled on Nov. 14, 1839 as a Private in Capt. Andrew Jackson Bird's Company, 1st Regiment of Fla. Mtd. Volunteer Militia commanded by Col. John Warren and was paid from Dec. 3, 1839 at Fort Heilaman, East Florida until he was discharged at Thigpen's Deep Creek, East Florida on May 14, 1840. His last service was as a Private in Capt. Aaron Jernigan's Company, 1st Regmt. of Florida Mtd. Volunteer Militia. He volunteered at Trader's Hill, Georgia on Nov. 6, 1840 and was discharged at Moniac, Georgia on May 30, 1841.

Rowland Williams married Nancy Ann "Annie" Sweat in Columbia Co., Florida in the spring of 1839. William Williams, Justice of the Peace, performed the service. Since the early Columbia County records burned the exact date of their marriage is unknown. Rowland probably met Annie while he was in the service in that area. Annie was born on May 13, 1816, daughter of Abner W. Sweat and Rebecca Anderson.

Abner W. Sweat was born in Cheraw District, South Carolina, in 1776, a son of James Sweat. He was brought by his parents in his boyhood to Beaufort District, SC., after the Revolution, and from there they moved to Bulloch County, Georgia. Abner W. Sweat was living in Tattnall County in the 1820 census but by the 1830 census had moved back to Bulloch County. From there he with his family moved to Columbia County, Florida about 1835. He served in the Indian War as a Private in Capt. Aaron Jernigan's company, Jan. 10th to Sept. 30th, 1837.

Rebecca Anderson was born in South Carolina in 1790, daughter of John and Mary Anderson. Her father was born in 1759 in North Carolina. He served as a Private in the North Carolina Militia in the Revolutionary War, residing at the time first in Duplin County and then in Bladen County. After the War, he moved to South Carolina and then later he settled in Tattnall County, Georgia. Rebecca Anderson Sweat died in Baker County, Florida on Dec. 26, 1883.

Rowland and Annie Sweat Williams had fifteen children:

1. John Anderson Williams, born April 10, 1840; married 1st, Martha _____; married 2nd, his cousin, Mary Ann "Mollie" Williams, daughter of Thomas & Matilda Herndon Williams, in Polk County on July 30, 1866.
2. Mary Ann Williams, born 1842; married James Washington Mathis (Matthews), 1st; married Edward Whidden, 2nd on April 20, 1867 in Manatee County, Fl.
3. James W. Williams, born 1843; married Clemantine Durrence, in Polk County on Oct. 18, 1865.
4. Nathaniel Knight Williams, born April 11, 1844; married 1st, Susan Smith; married 2nd, Cecilia Durrence (sister of Clemantine) in Orange County on Sept. 3, 1869.
5. Simeon Banks Williams, born Aug. 22, 1845; married Mrs. Narcissus Clemantine Wingate Whidden, widow of Willoughby Whidden, on July 8, 1867 in Manatee County.
6. Martha A. Williams, born 1846; married 1st, John Ticeson (Tison); married 2nd, Joseph Patrick on Oct. 1, 1866.
7. George W. Williams, born June 9, 1847; married 1st, Sarah Ann Gaskins; married 2nd, Minnie _____.
8. Sarah "Sally" Jane Williams, born Feb. 9, 1852; married 1st, James Washington Mathis (Matthews); married 2nd, Washington Morgan.

9. Ida Williams, born 1854?, died young.
10. Jasper Williams, born 1856?, died young.
11. Andrew Jackson Williams, born 1857; married Georgia Ann Cautheran (Cauthiran) on March 26, 1880.
12. William Williams, born 1860, died young.
13. Rebecca Ellen Williams, born Nov. 28, 1860; married John Daughtrey in Manatee County on Oct. 7, 1876.
14. Thomas Williams, born March 2, 1864; married Sophonia Amanda Drawdy on Dec. 26, 1884 in Manatee County.
15. Memphis Meridian "Reid" Williams, born Nov. 13, 1865; married Griffin Smith in Manatee County on March 30, 1880.

In 1851, Rowland Williams received a Bounty Land Warrant for 160 acres of land for his war services. At the time he was living on St. Mary's River, Columbia County, Fla.

For some unknown reason about 1858, Rowland and his family decided to move further south. Perhaps he remembered seeing all of the rich land in that part of the country while he was a young man fighting Indians. They moved to Brownville, a small community in south Florida in what was then Manatee County (now DeSoto) where they set up a homestead and farmed. They were living there in the 1860 census.

When the Civil War broke out, Rowland was too old to join but five of his sons fought in it: four for the South and one for the North.

Rowland died on April 2, 1867 from throat cancer and was buried in an unmarked grave on their property at Brownville. Annie and the younger children moved to Orlando where her sons, James and Nathan, were living. James was sheriff of Orange County. They were listed there in the 1870 census.

Annie along with the families of John Williams, James W. Matthews and Joseph Patrick later lived at Fish Eating Creek on the prairie. It was while she was living there that a storm ruined all the family papers which she had stored in her trunk. During the latter years of her life, Annie lived with various of her children in Fort Myers, Alva, Nocatee, and Fort Ogden. She received a widow's pension of $8.00 a month from the United States government, from July 27, 1892 to her death on April 12, 1908. She was buried at the Fort Ogden Cemetery.
